- (3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other Act the Governor in Council may—
- (a) by Order give such directions or provide for any matters or things as appear necessary or expedient for the preparation of the new electoral rolls or for carrying into effect any of the provisions of this Act;
 - (b) modify any provision of any proclamation Order in Council or regulation so far as appears necessary or expedient to give effect to any direction or Order under this section.

18. Establishment of first regions

S. 18
inserted by
No. 2/2003
s. 44.

- (1) Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, for the purpose of enabling the holding of the first election of the Council in accordance with sections 26 and 27 of the Constitution Act 1975 as proposed to be inserted by section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003, it is also a function of the Commission during the period starting on 1 January 2005 and ending on 30 November 2005, to divide the State of Victoria into electoral regions for the Legislative Council for the conduct of elections for the Legislative Council with the object of establishing electoral regions of approximately equal enrolment and to determine the boundaries thereof.

- (2) For the purpose of this section, the Commission is to carry out its function as if sections 26 and 27 of the Constitution Act 1975 as proposed to be inserted by section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003 were in operation.
- (3) Immediately after the day notified in the Government Gazette under section 13 in relation to a division of electors for the purposes of this section, the names and boundaries of the electoral regions for the Legislative Council set forth in the statement of the Commissioners deposited in the Central Plan Office must be published in the Government Gazette by the Victorian Electoral Commission.
- (4) On the day on which writs are issued for the general election next following the dissolution or other lawful determination of the Assembly last elected before the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003 receives the Royal Assent, the names and boundaries of the electoral regions published in accordance with sub-section (3) are deemed to be substituted for the names and boundaries of the electoral provinces previously published in the Government Gazette under section 27 of the Constitution Act 1975 as in force immediately before the commencement of section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003.

inserted by
No. 2/2003
s. 44.

19. Interim regions if early election required

- (1) This section only applies if, before the Commission has completed the division of the State of Victoria into electoral regions in accordance with section 18, the Legislative Assembly is dissolved and section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003 comes into operation.

- (2) Despite anything in this Act and despite section 27 of the Constitution Act 1975, if this section applies, on the commencement of section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003, the boundaries of the regions referred to by a number in the Schedule are deemed to be substituted for the names and boundaries of the provinces previously published in the Government Gazette under section 27 of the Constitution Act 1975 as in force immediately before the commencement of section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003.
 - (3) If this section applies, immediately after the commencement of section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003, the Commission must—
 - (a) divide the State of Victoria into the regions referred to in the Schedule; and
 - (b) allocate a name to each region; and
 - (c) publish the names and the regions in the Government Gazette.
 - (4) The name allocated to a region in the statement published in the Government Gazette is deemed to be substituted in the Schedule for the number of the region to which the name is allocated as from the date that the Government Gazette is published.
 - (5) As soon as practicable after the commencement of section 8 of the Constitution (Parliamentary Reform) Act 2003, the Victorian Electoral Commission must cause new electoral rolls to be prepared in accordance with the Electoral Act 2002 for the new electoral regions.
