28. Recovery of possession of stolen cattle

- (1) A person claiming to be entitled to the possession of cattle which—
- (a) have been reported to the police as having been stolen not more than 12 months before the application; and
  - (b) are in the possession or under the control of another person—

may apply to the Magistrates' Court for an order for delivery of the cattle.

- (2) An application—
  - (a) may be made without notice to any other person; and
  - (b) must be supported by evidence on oath or by affidavit.
- (3) If satisfied that the applicant may be entitled to possession of the cattle, the Court constituted by a registrar may make an order directing the person who has possession or control of the cattle—
  - (a) to deliver them to the applicant; and
  - (b) to refrain from disposing of them except in accordance with paragraph (a) pending any further hearing of the application.
- (4) An order under sub-section (3) must be served on the person to whom it is directed within 7 days after the making of the order.
- (5) Subject to this section, an order under sub-section (3)(a) takes effect 7 days after service and an order under sub-section (3)(b) takes effect on service.
- (6) If within 7 days after service of an order under sub-section (3) the person to whom the order is directed lodges an objection with the Court—
  - (a) the order under sub-section (3)(a) lapses and is of no effect; and
  - (b) the application under sub-section (1) must be referred to the Court constituted by a magistrate.
- (7) The Court may extend or abridge the time fixed by sub-sections (4), (5) and (6) or by an order fixing, extending or abridging time.

- (8) The Court may extend time under sub-section (7) before or after the time expires whether or not an application for the extension is made before the time expires.
- (9) If it seems to the Court hearing a referral under sub-section (6) that all or any of the cattle were stolen not more than 12 months before the application under sub-section (1), the Court may—
- (a) determine who owns the stolen cattle; and
  - (b) order possession of the stolen cattle to be given to the owner; and
  - (c) if necessary, issue a warrant in the form prescribed by rules of the Court directed to a member of the police force authorising the member forthwith to seize the stolen cattle and to deliver them to the owner; and
  - (d) subject to sub-section (12), make any order as to costs that the Court thinks fit.
- (10) If the Court is not so satisfied, it must dismiss the application.
- (11) The Court may make any order that it thinks fit with respect to the delivery, preservation or care of the cattle pending the determination of an application under this section.
- (12) The person from whom the cattle are seized in accordance with a warrant issued under sub-section (9)(c) must pay all lawful costs of executing the warrant.
- (13) An application under this section is civil in nature.
- (14) The Magistrates' Court has jurisdiction to determine an application under this section irrespective of the value of the cattle.
