28 Recovery of possession of stolen cattle

- (1) A person claiming to be entitled to the possession of cattle which—

- (a) have been reported to the police as having been stolen not more than 12 months before the application; and
(b) are in the possession or under the control of another person—may apply to the Magistrates' Court for an order for delivery of the cattle.

- (2) An application—
- (a) may be made without notice to any other person; and
(b) must be supported by evidence on oath or by affidavit.
- (3) If satisfied that the applicant may be entitled to possession of the cattle, the Court constituted by a registrar may make an order directing the person who has possession or control of the cattle—
- (a) to deliver them to the applicant; and
(b) to refrain from disposing of them except in accordance with paragraph (a) pending any further hearing of the application.

- (4) An order under subsection (3) must be served on the person to whom it is directed within 7 days after the making of the order.
 - (5) Subject to this section, an order under subsection (3)(a) takes effect 7 days after service and an order under subsection (3)(b) takes effect on service.
 - (6) If within 7 days after service of an order under subsection (3) the person to whom the order is directed lodges an objection with the Court—
 - (a) the order under subsection (3)(a) lapses and is of no effect; and
 - (b) the application under subsection (1) must be referred to the Court constituted by a magistrate.
 - (7) The Court may extend or abridge the time fixed by subsections (4), (5) and (6) or by an order fixing, extending or abridging time.
 - (8) The Court may extend time under subsection (7) before or after the time expires whether or not an application for the extension is made before the time expires.
 - (9) If it seems to the Court hearing a referral under subsection (6) that all or any of the cattle were stolen not more than 12 months before the application under subsection (1), the Court may—
 - (a) determine who owns the stolen cattle; and
 - (b) order possession of the stolen cattle to be given to the owner; and
 - (c) if necessary, issue a warrant in the form prescribed by rules of the Court directed to a member of the police force authorising the member forthwith to seize the stolen cattle and to deliver them to the owner; and

- (d) subject to subsection (12), make any order as to costs that the Court thinks fit.
- (10) If the Court is not so satisfied, it must dismiss the application.
- (11) The Court may make any order that it thinks fit with respect to the delivery, preservation or care of the cattle pending the determination of an application under this section.
- (12) The person from whom the cattle are seized in accordance with a warrant issued under subsection (9)(c) must pay all lawful costs of executing the warrant.
- (13) An application under this section is civil in nature.
- (14) The Magistrates' Court has jurisdiction to determine an application under this section irrespective of the value of the cattle.

No. 6337 s. 45.

29 Recovery of price paid for stolen cattle

- (1) Any person from whom or from whose possession cattle are taken or detained under an order or warrant under the last preceding section may recover from his vendor the amount paid by him as the purchase money of the cattle.
- (2) Any vendor of such cattle who may repay or is compelled to repay the purchase money he has received for such cattle may in like manner recover back from his vendor the amount he has paid such last-mentioned vendor as the purchase money of the cattle.
- (3) Upon complaint on oath made by any person or vendor as aforesaid or any person on his behalf—
- (a) that such person or vendor has paid for the cattle and that the cattle have been taken from him; or

(b) that he has paid or been compelled to repay the amount he received—a magistrate may summon the party who sold the cattle to such last-mentioned person or vendor to appear before the Magistrates' Court or may issue a warrant to arrest the party.

(4) Upon the appearance of such party or upon proof of the due service of a summons the Magistrates' Court—

S. 29(4)
amended by
No. 7876
s. 2(3).

(a) may examine the parties or either of them and their respective witnesses (if any) upon oath touching the purchase and payment of the amount of the purchase money for such cattle and the restitution of the cattle purchased or the repayment of the sum received; and

(b) may make such order for the repayment of that amount with the costs incurred in the recovery thereof as to the court appears reasonable:

Provided that the execution of the order shall be stayed for such time as the court may order if the person from whom or from whose possession the cattle have been taken or on whom such order for payment is made forthwith enters into a bond to the complainant with two sufficient sureties in such amount as the court thinks reasonable conditioned to prosecute to conviction within the time aforesaid the person guilty of having stolen the cattle; and a conviction within the time aforesaid shall supersede the order so made by the court as aforesaid, and no subsequent proceedings shall be had thereon:

Provided further that the court on the application of such party and on notice to the complainant may extend the time aforesaid.

41C Distribution of image of genital or anal region

A person who visually captures or has visually captured an image of another person's genital or anal region (whether or not in contravention of section 41B) must not intentionally distribute that image.

Penalty: 2 years imprisonment.

Note

Section 41D(2) sets out exceptions to this offence.

S. 41D
inserted by
No. 49/2007
s. 3.

41D Exceptions to offences

- (1) Section 41A or 41B does not apply to an observation or visual capturing made—
 - (a) with the express or implied consent of the person whose genital or anal region is observed or visually captured; or
 - (b) by accessing the Internet or a broadcasting service (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 of the Commonwealth) or datacasting service (within the meaning of that Act); or
 - (c) by a law enforcement officer acting reasonably in the performance of his or her duty.
- (2) Section 41C does not apply to a distribution of an image—
 - (a) for a particular purpose if the person whose genital or anal region is visually captured (the subject) has expressly or impliedly consented to the distribution of the image for that purpose or a similar purpose; or

Example 1

A patient gives consent to doctor A distributing an image of a mole in her genital region to another doctor for a second opinion. A distribution by doctor

A of the image to a non-medical friend is not covered by the exception as the purpose of the distribution is different.

Example 2

A model gives consent to a photographer distributing an image to magazine A for a commercial purpose. A distribution by the photographer of the image to magazine B is covered by the exception as the purpose of the distribution is the same—commercial.

- (b) if—
- (i) the subject is a child or other person incapable of giving consent; and
 - (ii) the capturing was not made in contravention of section 41B; and
 - (iii) in the particular circumstances, a reasonable person would regard the distribution of that image as acceptable;
- or

Example

Emailing by a person of a photograph of a naked newborn relative to a family member or friend may not be an offence against section 41C because of paragraph (b).

- (c) by a law enforcement officer acting reasonably in the performance of his or her duty.

Notes

- 1 Sections 68, 69 and 70 of the Crimes Act 1958 set out offences in relation to child pornography.
- 2 Part 6 of the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) (Enforcement) Act 1995 sets out offences in relation to the distribution of objectionable material by an on-line information service.

41E Search warrant

- (1) A member of the police force of or above the rank of sergeant may apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant under this section in relation to a particular place if the member believes on reasonable grounds that there is, or may be within the next 72 hours, in that place evidence of the commission of an offence against section 41A, 41B or 41C.
- (2) If the magistrate is satisfied by the evidence on oath or by affidavit of the applicant that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or may be within the next 72 hours, in that place evidence of the commission of an offence against section 41A, 41B or 41C, the magistrate may issue a search warrant authorising any member of the police force named in the warrant—
 - (a) to enter the place, or the part of the place, named or described in the warrant; and
 - (b) to search for and seize any thing named or described in the warrant.
- (3) In addition to any other requirement, a search warrant issued under this section must state—
 - (a) the offence suspected; and
 - (b) the place to be searched; and
 - (c) a description of the thing for which the search is to be made; and
 - (d) any conditions to which the warrant is subject; and
 - (e) whether entry is authorised to be made at any time or during stated hours; and

- (f) a day, not later than 7 days after the issue of the warrant, on which the warrant ceases to have effect.
- (4) A search warrant must be issued in accordance with the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 and must be in the form set out in the regulations under that Act.
- (5) Subject to any provision to the contrary in this Division, the rules to be observed with respect to search warrants mentioned in the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 extend and apply to warrants under this section.

41F Seizure of things not mentioned in the warrant

S. 41F
inserted by
No. 49/2007
s. 3.

A search warrant authorises a member of the police force executing the warrant, in addition to the seizure of any thing of a kind described in the warrant, to seize any thing which is not of a kind described in the warrant if the member believes on reasonable grounds—

- (a) that the thing—
- (i) is of a kind which could have been included in a warrant issued under section 41E; or
 - (ii) will afford evidence about the commission of an offence against section 41A, 41B or 41C; and
- (b) that it is necessary to seize that thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction or its use in the commission of an offence against section 41A, 41B or 41C.
