Version No. 001
Australian Grands Prix (Formula One)
Regulations 2006

S.R. No. 157/2006

Version as at 26 October 2006

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1. Objective

The objective of these Regulations is—

- (a) to regulate the conduct of persons in the declared area and designated access areas during the race period for the Australian Formula One Grand Prix; and
- (b) to facilitate and ensure an appropriate degree of safety of persons in the declared area and designated access areas during works for the Grand Prix; and
- (c) to provide for other matters required to be prescribed under the Australian Grands Prix Act 1994.

2. Authorising provision

These Regulations are made under section 51 of the Australian Grands Prix Act 1994.

3. Commencement

These Regulations come into operation on 26 October 2006.

4. Revocation

The Australian Grands Prix (Formula One) Regulations 1996¹ are revoked.

- (a) which is marked off by the Corporation by the use of fencing, barriers or other permanent or temporary means of physical demarcation; and
 - (b) in which works, services or any other activities undertaken by or on behalf of the Corporation have commenced but have not been finally completed.

PART 2—AUTHORISED PERSONS

6. Authorised persons

The Corporation may appoint a person to be an authorised person for the purposes of these Regulations if the person—

- (a) holds under the Private Security Act 2004—
 - (i) a private security business licence that authorises that person to carry on the business of providing the services of other persons to act as a security guard or a crowd controller; or
 - (ii) a private security individual operator licence that authorises that person to act as a security guard or a crowd controller; or
- (b) is a person who the Corporation believes has the appropriate skills, knowledge or experience to be appointed as an authorised person; or
- (c) is a member of a class of person appropriate to be appointed as an authorised person.

7. Identification of authorised persons

- (1) The Corporation must ensure that an authorised person is clearly identified as an authorised person.
- (2) An authorised person must produce his or her identification for inspection at any time during the exercise of a power under these Regulations, if asked to do so.

- (3) If an authorised person proposes to exercise the powers or functions of an authorised person and fails to produce on demand his or her identification, that person is not authorised to exercise those powers or functions in relation to the person making the demand.

8. Offence to interfere with authorised person

A person must not interfere with, obstruct or hinder or attempt to interfere with, obstruct or hinder an authorised person in the exercise of the authorised person's powers, functions or duties under these Regulations.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

PART 3—ACCESS TO CERTAIN AREAS

9. Entry to and exit from declared area and designated access area

- (1) A person who is not a permitted entrant must not enter or attempt to enter the declared area in respect of a year or a designated access area during the race period in respect of that year.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not enter or attempt to enter the declared area in respect of a year or a designated access area during the race period in respect of that year except through a designated entrance.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (3) A person must not leave or attempt to leave the declared area in respect of a year or a designated access area during the race period in respect of that year except through a designated exit.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

10. Re-entry after direction to leave or expulsion

On any day during the race period in respect of a year, a person who has been directed to leave, or has been expelled from, the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area by an authorised person or a member of the police force must not re-enter or attempt to re-enter the declared area or a designated access area for a period of 24 hours without the written authorisation of the Corporation.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

11. Grand Prix circuit

At any time during the race period in respect of a year, a person must not be, or attempt to be, on the grand prix circuit unless authorised by the Corporation to be on the grand prix circuit.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

13. Opening and closing times

- (1) The Corporation must fix an opening time and a closing time for each day of the race period in respect of a year.
- (2) The Corporation must give notice of opening and closing times fixed under sub-regulation (1) by—
 - (a) publishing a notice in a newspaper circulating generally in the State; and
 - (b) erecting signs or notices at each designated entrance stating the opening and closing times.
- (3) A person must not enter or attempt to enter or remain in the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area before the opening time or after the closing time fixed under sub-regulation (1) unless authorised by the Corporation to enter or remain in the area.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

14. Reserved areas and reserved seats

- (1) The Corporation for the duration of the race period in respect of a year—
 - (a) may set aside certain areas within the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area as reserved areas;
 - (b) may set aside certain seats within the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area as reserved seats.
- (2) The Corporation may issue tickets—
 - (a) that entitle a person to enter and remain in a reserved area;
 - (b) that entitle a person to occupy a reserved seat.
- (3) A person who does not hold a ticket conferring an entitlement to enter a reserved area must not enter or attempt to enter or remain in that reserved area unless authorised by the Corporation to enter or remain in the area.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.
- (4) A person who does not hold a ticket conferring an entitlement to occupy a particular reserved seat must not occupy that reserved seat unless otherwise authorised to do so by the Corporation.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.
- (5) An authorised person or a member of the police force—
 - (a) may request that a person entering or remaining in a reserved area produce a ticket entitling the person to enter and remain in the reserved area;

- (b) may request that a person occupying a reserved seat produce a ticket entitling the person to occupy the reserved seat.

15. Removal of glass object from reserved area

- (1) A person must not remove from a reserved area any glass object that the person has obtained in that area unless authorised to do so by the Corporation.
Penalty: 5 penalty units.
- (2) An authorised person or a member of the police force may direct a person who has removed a glass object from a reserved area in contravention of sub-regulation (1)—
- (a) if the person holds a ticket conferring an entitlement to enter that area, to return the glass object to that area; or
 - (b) if the person does not hold a ticket conferring an entitlement to enter that area, to surrender the glass object.
- (3) If directed to return a glass object under sub-regulation (2), a person must, as soon as practicable, return the glass object to the reserved area where it was obtained.
Penalty: 5 penalty units.
- (4) If directed to surrender a glass object under sub-regulation (2), a person must immediately surrender the glass object to the authorised person or member of the police force.
Penalty: 5 penalty units.

16. Prohibition of certain activities in fenced and cordoned off areas

- (1) A person must not enter or attempt to enter or remain in an area that is fenced or cordoned off in accordance with section 32 of the Act, without the authorisation of the Corporation.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not in any way intentionally interfere with or hinder any activity directly or indirectly undertaken by or on behalf of the Corporation within an area fenced or cordoned off in accordance with section 32 of the Act.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (3) A person must not in any way attempt to interfere with or attempt to hinder any activity directly or indirectly undertaken by or on behalf of the Corporation within an area fenced or cordoned off in accordance with section 32 of the Act.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (4) A person must not in any way cause any other person to interfere with or hinder any activity directly or indirectly undertaken by or on behalf of the Corporation within an area fenced or cordoned off in accordance with section 32 of the Act.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

PART 6—ENFORCEMENT

42. Surrender of items

An authorised person or a member of the police force may request a person to surrender—

- (a) any item that the person has in his or her possession in contravention of regulation 17; or
- (b) a prohibited item that the person has in his or her possession in contravention of regulation 18; or
- (c) any item that the authorised person or member believes on reasonable grounds has been, or is being, used in contravention of regulation 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32(1), 33, 34, 35 or 36; or
- (d) any matter or thing distributed, promoted or displayed in contravention of regulation 40(3) or 40(4); or
- (e) any item sold or being offered or exposed for sale in contravention of regulation 41.

43. Inspection

- (1) During the race period in respect of a year, an authorised person or a member of the police force—
 - (a) may request a person to produce and open for inspection any bag, basket or other receptacle that the person intends to take into or has in the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area;
 - (b) may request a person who has entered or intends to enter the declared area or a designated access area to turn out his or her pockets.

- (2) An authorised person or a member of the police force may direct a person not to enter the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area during the race period if the person refuses to comply with a request under sub-regulation (1).
 - (3) A person who has been given a direction under sub-regulation (2) must comply with that direction.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

44. Direction to leave if failure to produce ticket or surrender item

- (1) During the race period in respect of a year, an authorised person or a member of the police force may direct a person to leave a reserved area or a reserved seat if the person refuses or fails to comply with a request under regulation 14(5) to produce a ticket.
- (2) During the race period in respect of a year, an authorised person or a member of the police force may direct a person to leave the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area if the person refuses to comply with a request—
 - (a) under regulation 42 to surrender an item, matter or thing; or
 - (b) under regulation 43(1) to produce or open for inspection a bag, basket or other receptacle, or to turn out his or her pockets.

45. Direction to leave if offence committed

- (1) During the race period in respect of a year, if an authorised person or a member of the police force believes on reasonable grounds that a person has committed an offence against regulation 14(3), he or she may—
 - (a) inform the person that he or she has formed that belief; and
 - (b) direct the person to leave the reserved area.
- (2) During the race period in respect of a year, if an authorised person or a member of the police force believes on reasonable grounds that a person has committed an offence against regulation 14(4), he or she may—
 - (a) inform the person that he or she has formed that belief; and
 - (b) direct the person to leave the reserved seat.
- (3) During the race period in respect of a year, if an authorised person or a member of the police force believes on reasonable grounds that a person has committed an offence against regulation 37(3), he or she may—
 - (a) inform the person that he or she has formed that belief; and
 - (b) direct the person to leave the no smoking area.
- (4) During the race period in respect of a year, if an authorised person or a member of the police force believes on reasonable grounds that a person has committed a relevant offence, he or she may—
 - (a) inform the person that he or she has formed that belief; and

(b) direct the person to leave the declared area in respect of that year or the designated access area.

(5) In sub-regulation (4), a "relevant offence" means an offence against regulation 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13(3), 15(3), 15(4), 17(1), 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32(1), 33, 34, 35, 36, 38, 40(1), 40(3), 40(4), 41 or 43(3).

46. Police may use reasonable force

During the race period in respect of a year, a member of the police force, using no more force than is reasonably necessary—

- (a) may expel a person from a reserved area or a reserved seat if the person has refused to comply with a direction under regulation 44(1), 45(1) or 45(2) to leave a reserved area or a reserved seat, as the case requires;
- (b) may expel a person from an area that has been designated by the Corporation to be a no smoking area under regulation 37(2) if the person has refused to comply with a direction under regulation 45(3) to leave the no smoking area;
- (c) may expel a person from a declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area if the person has refused to comply with a direction under these Regulations to leave the declared area or a designated access area;
- (d) may prevent a person from re-entering the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area in contravention of regulation 10.

47. Additional powers of authorised persons and police

- (1) In addition to any other powers conferred by these Regulations, during the race period in respect of a year an authorised person or a member of the police force—
- (a) may request a person in the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area to produce a ticket or other satisfactory evidence of that person's entitlement to be a permitted entrant;
 - (b) may direct a person not to enter the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area if the person—
 - (i) is not a permitted entrant; or
 - (ii) is entering or attempting to enter the declared area or designated access area otherwise than through a designated entrance; or
 - (iii) is in possession of a prohibited item; or
 - (iv) is in possession of alcohol in contravention of regulation 17;
 - (c) if a person is leaving or attempting to leave the declared area in respect of a year or a designated access area otherwise than through a designated exit, may direct that person to leave the declared area or designated access area through a designated exit.

- (2) In addition to any other powers conferred by these Regulations or any other laws, during the race period in respect of a year a member of the police force, using no more force than is reasonably necessary—
- (a) may prevent a person from entering or attempting to enter the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area if the person—
 - (i) is not a permitted entrant; or
 - (ii) is entering or attempting to enter the declared area or designated access area otherwise than through a designated entrance; or
 - (iii) is in possession of a prohibited item; or
 - (iv) is in possession of alcohol in contravention of regulation 17;
 - (b) may prevent a person from leaving or attempting to leave the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area otherwise than through a designated exit.

PART 7—REGULATION OF ACTIVITIES DURING SPECIFIED PERIOD

48. Safe and orderly conduct of works

- (1) During the specified period in respect of a year and within the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area, a person must not act or conduct himself or herself in such a way as to obstruct, hinder or endanger or attempt to obstruct, hinder or endanger the safe and orderly carrying out of works, provision of services or undertaking of activities by or on behalf of the Corporation within the area.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) During the specified period in respect of a year a person in the declared area in respect of that year or a designated access area must not enter or attempt to enter or remain in a works area unless authorised to do so by the Corporation.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (3) During the specified period in respect of a year, an authorised person or a member of the police force may direct a person—

- (a) to immediately withdraw to a safe distance from a works area, being a reasonable distance from the works area as indicated by an authorised person or a member of the police force; and
- (b) not to approach any closer to the works area than that distance.

- (4) A person who has been given a direction under sub-regulation (3) must comply with that direction.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

49. Regulation of entry during specified period

- (1) In addition to any other powers conferred by these Regulations or any other laws, during the specified period in respect of a year an authorised person or a member of the police force may direct a person in the declared area in respect of a year or a designated access area to leave that area if that person obstructs, hinders or endangers or attempts to obstruct, hinder or endanger—
- (a) the carrying out of works; or
 - (b) the provision of services; or
 - (c) any other activity undertaken by or on behalf of the Corporation in that area under the Act or these Regulations.
- (2) A person who has been given a direction under sub-regulation (1) must comply with that direction.
- Penalty: 20 penalty units.
- (3) A member of the police force, using no more force than is reasonably necessary, may expel a person from the declared area in respect of a year or a designated access area if the person has refused to comply with a direction under sub-regulation (1).

50. Re-entry after direction to leave or expulsion during specified period

- (1) During the specified period in respect of a year, a person who has been given a direction to leave under regulation 49(1) or who is expelled under regulation 49(3), must not re-enter or attempt to re-enter any of those areas for the relevant period specified in sub-regulation (2).

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) For the purposes of sub-regulation (1), the relevant period for which a person must not re-enter a declared area in respect of a year or a designated access area is—
- (a) if it is the first occasion during the specified period on which the person has been directed to leave or has been expelled, until the expiration of 24 hours after the expulsion or direction or the end of the specified period, whichever first occurs;
 - (b) if it is the second occasion on which the person has been directed to leave or has been expelled, until the expiration of 7 days after the expulsion or direction or the end of the specified period, whichever first occurs;
 - (c) if it is the third or a subsequent occasion on which the person has been directed to leave or has been expelled, until the expiration of the specified period.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (3) Nothing in this regulation prevents a person during the specified period in respect of a year but outside the race period in respect of a year—
- (a) from driving a vehicle, or being a passenger in a vehicle driven, on a public highway through the declared area or a designated access area; or
 - (b) from attending in the declared area or a designated access area—
