(2) If land ceases to be rateable land during a financial year for which a rate or charge has been levied on it, a Council must—

(a) if any payment of the rate or charge has been made, refund to the current owner of the land an amount proportionate to the part of that financial year remaining after the land ceases to be rateable land; or

(b) if none of the rate or charge has been paid, require the person who is required to pay the rate or charge to only pay an amount...

(ii) the rates and charges and any amount in lieu of rates and charges which would have been payable for the land for the relevant period under subparagraph (i) if the rateable land had not been urban farm land or residential use land during that period;

175 Person acquiring rateable land

(1) A person who becomes the owner of rateable land must pay—

(1B) The person who becomes the owner of rateable land may also pay a rate or charge by instalments if the previous owner could have paid it by instalments and the person becomes the owner of the land before the date the first instalment falls due.

(1C) In all other cases, the person who becomes the owner of rateable land must pay any amount due under subsection (1)—

180 Unpaid rate or charge

PART 3—RESULT WHERE ONLY ONE COUNCILLOR IS TO BE ELECTED

9 Only two candidates

If only 1 Councillor is to be elected and there are only 2 candidates the result is to be determined as follows—

(a) the candidate who has received the greater number of first preference votes is to be declared elected by the returning officer;

(b) if the 2 candidates have received an equal number of votes the result is to be determined by lot by the returning officer.

10 More than two candidates

If only 1 Councillor is to be elected and there are more than 2 candidates the result is to be determined as follows—

(a) the candidate who has received the greatest number of first preference votes if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes is to be declared elected by the returning officer;

(b) Absolute majority of votes means a number of votes greater than one-half of the total number of ballot-papers (excluding ballot-papers which are rejected) and if necessary includes the vote by lot;

(c) if no candidate has received an absolute majority of votes, the returning officer upon receipt of the several sealed parcels from any authorised person and with the assistance of any authorised persons and in the presence and subject to the inspection of any scrutineer, if present, appointed by each candidate but of no other person, must—

(i) open all the sealed parcels containing used ballot-papers; and

(ii) arrange such ballot-papers together with the allowed postal ballot-papers, if any, by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate and preference votes are also duly given for all the remaining candidates, omitting ballot-papers which are rejected; and

(d) the candidate who has then received the greatest number of votes if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes is to be declared elected by the returning officer;

(f) if on any count 2 or more candidates have an equal number of votes and 1 of them has to be declared a defeated candidate, the result is to be determined—

(i) by declaring whichever of those candidates had the fewest votes at the last count at which those candidates had a different number of votes to be defeated; or

(ii) if a result is still not obtained or there has been no count, by lot by the returning officer;

(g) if on the final count 2 candidates have an equal number of votes, the result is to be determined by lot by the returning officer.
PART 4A—RESULT WHERE TWO OR MORE COUNCILLORS ARE TO BE ELECTED

11B 2 or more Councillors to be elected

(1) The result is to be determined as set out in this clause.

(2) In this clause—

continuing candidate means a candidate not already elected or excluded from the count;

quota means the number determined by dividing the number of first preference votes by 1 more than the number of candidates required to be elected and by increasing the quotient so obtained (disregarding any remainder) by 1;

surplus votes means the number, if any, of votes in excess of the quota of each elected candidate.
(3) A reference to votes of or obtained or received by a candidate includes votes obtained or received by the candidate on any transfer.

(4) The returning officer upon receipt of the several sealed parcels from any authorised person and with the assistance of any authorised persons and in the presence and subject to the inspection of any 1 scrutineer, if present, appointed by each candidate but of no other person must—

(a) open all the sealed parcels containing used ballot-papers; and

(b) arrange the ballot-papers together with the allowed postal ballot-papers, if any, by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate and preference votes are also duly given for all the remaining candidates, omitting ballot-papers which are rejected; and

(c) ascertain—

(i) the number of first preference votes given for each candidate; and

(ii) the total number of first preference votes.

(5) A quota is to be determined.

(6) Any candidate who has received a number of first preference votes equal to or greater than the quota is to be declared duly elected by the returning officer.

(7) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes of each elected candidate are to be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows—
(a) the number of surplus votes of the elected candidate is to be divided by the number of first preference votes received by the elected candidate and the resulting fraction is the transfer value;

(b) the total number of ballot-papers of the elected candidate that express the first preference vote for the elected candidate and the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate is to be multiplied by the transfer value;

(c) the number obtained under paragraph (b) (disregarding any fraction) is to be added to the number of first preference votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot-papers are to be transferred to the continuing candidate.

(8) Any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any transfer under subclause (7) is to be declared duly elected by the returning officer.

(9) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes, if any, of any candidate elected under subclause (8) or elected subsequently under this subclause are to be transferred to the continuing candidates in accordance with subclause (7) and any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of the transfer is to be declared duly elected by the returning officer.

(10) If a continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer of the surplus votes of a particular elected candidate under subclause (7) or (9), no votes of any other candidate are to be transferred to the continuing candidate.

(11) For the purposes of the application of subclause (7) in relation to a transfer of the surplus votes of an elected candidate under subclause (9) or (14), each ballot-paper of the elected candidate obtained by the elected candidate on a transfer is to be dealt with as if—

(a) any vote it expressed for the elected candidate were a first preference vote; and

(b) the name of any other candidate previously elected or excluded had not been on the ballot-paper; and

(c) the numbers indicating subsequent preferences had been altered accordingly.

(12) If, after the counting of first preference votes or the transfer of any surplus votes of elected candidates, no candidate has, or less than the number of candidates required to be elected have, received a number of votes equal to the quota, the candidate who has the fewest votes is to be excluded and all that candidate’s votes are to be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows—

(a) the total number of ballot-papers of the excluded candidate that express the first preference vote for the excluded candidate and the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate are to be transferred at a transfer value of 1 for each ballot-paper and added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot-papers are to be transferred to the continuing candidate;
(b) the total number, if any, of other votes obtained by the excluded candidate on transfers are to be transferred from the excluded candidate beginning with the highest transfer value and ending with the ballot papers received at the lowest transfer value, as follows—

(i) the total number of ballot papers received by the excluded candidate at a particular transfer value and expressing the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate is to be multiplied by that transfer value; and

(ii) the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) is to be added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate; and

(iii) all those ballot papers are to be transferred to the continuing candidate.

(13) Any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer of votes of an excluded candidate under subclause (12) or (16) is to be declared duly elected by the returning officer.

(14) Subject to subclause (15), unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes, if any, of a candidate elected under subclause (13) are to be transferred in accordance with subclause (7).

(15) If a candidate elected under subclause (13) is elected before all the votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred, the surplus votes, if any, of the elected candidate are not to be transferred until the remaining votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred in accordance with subclause (12) to continuing candidates.

(16) Subject to subclause (18), if after the transfer of all the votes of an excluded candidate no continuing candidate has received a number of votes greater than the quota—

(a) the continuing candidate who has the fewest votes must be excluded; and

(b) that candidate's votes must be transferred in accordance with subclause (12).

(17) If a candidate is elected as a result of a transfer of ballot papers under subclauses (12) and (16), no other ballot papers of an excluded candidate are to be transferred to the candidate so elected.

(18) In respect of the last vacancy for which 2 continuing candidates remain, the continuing candidate who has the larger number of votes is to be elected notwithstanding that that number is below the quota.

(19) Despite any other provision of this clause, if the number of continuing candidates is equal to the number of remaining unfilled vacancies, those candidates are to be declared duly elected by the returning officer.

(20) Subject to subclauses (21), (22) and (23), if after any count or transfer, 2 or more candidates have surplus votes the order of any transfers of the surplus votes of those candidates is to be in accordance with the relative size of the surpluses, the largest surplus being transferred first.

(21) Subject to subclause (23), if after any count or transfer, 2 or more candidates have equal surpluses, the order of any transfers of the surplus votes of those candidates is to be in accordance with the relative numbers of votes of those candidates at the last count or transfer at which each of those candidates had a different number of votes, the surplus of the candidate with the largest number of votes at that count or transfer being transferred first.

(22) For the purposes of subclause (21), if there has been no count or transfer the returning officer must determine the order in which the surpluses are to be dealt with.

(23) If after any count or transfer, a candidate obtains surplus votes, those surplus votes are not to be transferred before the transfer of any surplus votes obtained by any other candidate on an earlier count or transfer.

(24) If on any count or transfer 2 or more candidates have the fewest number of votes and the candidate who has the fewest number of votes is required to be excluded, the result is to be determined—

(a) by declaring whichever of those candidates had the fewest votes at the last count at which those candidates had a different number of votes to be excluded; or

(b) if a result is still not obtained or there has been no count or transfer, by lot by the returning officer.

(25) If on the final count or transfer 2 candidates have an equal number of votes, the result is to be determined by lot by the returning officer.

(26) If a candidate is elected by reason that—

(a) the number of first preference votes received by the candidate; or
(b) the aggregate of first preference votes received by the candidate and all other votes obtained by the candidate on transfers—is equal to the quota, all the ballot-papers expressing those votes are to be set aside as finally dealt with.

(27) For the purposes of this clause each of the following constitutes a separate transfer—

(a) a transfer under subclause (7), (9) or (14) of all the surplus votes of an elected candidate;

(b) a transfer in accordance with subclause (12)(a) of all first preference votes of an excluded candidate;

(c) a transfer in accordance with subclause (12)(b) of all the votes of an excluded candidate or candidates, as the case may be, at a particular transfer value.

PART 2—COUNTBACK PROCEDURE

10 Counting of votes at a countback

(1) The returning officer may count the votes at a countback manually or by the use of electronic counting equipment and systems.

(2) The returning officer must not use electronic counting equipment and systems unless the returning officer, after conducting any tests for the purpose that the returning officer considers appropriate, certifies in writing that—

(a) the electronic form of the ballot-papers is an accurate copy of all the ballot-papers on which a vote was cast in the relevant election; and
(b) the countback can be conducted using electronic counting equipment and systems.

(3) If the countback is conducted using electronic counting equipment and systems, the returning officer may modify the process applying under clauses 11 to 16 to the extent necessary to facilitate the use of the electronic counting equipment and systems.

11 Relevant ballot-papers to be ascertained

The following ballot-papers must be brought together—

(a) if the vacating Councillor obtained a quota on first preferences, all the ballot-papers on which those preferences are marked; or

(b) if the vacating Councillor was elected after a transfer or transfers of ballot-papers—

(i) all the ballot-papers counted to the vacating Councillor at the time that she or he was elected; and

(ii) if the vacating Councillor was declared elected under clause 11B(19) of Schedule 3 following the exclusion of a candidate, all of the ballot-papers that—

(A) were not transferred to her or him from that candidate or those candidates because it was unnecessary; and

(B) showed a next available preference for the vacating Councillor.
12 Votes to be transferred from vacating Councillor to eligible candidates

(1) Those ballot-papers must then be transferred to the participating eligible candidates in accordance with the next available preference shown on the ballot-papers, at their respective transfer values, beginning with the ballot-papers with the highest transfer value and ending with the ballot-papers with the lowest transfer value, and must be transferred as follows—

(a) the total number of ballot-papers of a particular transfer value that show the next available preference for a particular participating eligible candidate must be multiplied by that transfer value; and

(b) the number obtained under paragraph (a) (disregarding any fraction) must be credited as votes to that candidate; and

(c) all those ballot-papers must be transferred to that candidate.

(2) The transfer value of a ballot-paper is—

(a) in the case of a ballot-paper received by the vacating Councillor as a first preference—1;

(b) in the case of a ballot-paper received by the vacating Councillor after the count of first preferences, but before the transfer at which she or he was elected—the transfer value at which it was received by the vacating Councillor;

(c) in the case of a ballot-paper received by the vacating Councillor at the transfer at which she or he was elected—the number obtained by dividing the number of votes by which the vacating Councillor, immediately before that transfer, was short of the quota, by the number of ballot-papers transferred to the vacating Councillor at that transfer;

(d) in the case of a ballot-paper specified in clause 11(b)(ii)—the transfer value at which the ballot-paper would have been transferred to the vacating Councillor if a transfer had been necessary.

(c) a first preference for a participating eligible candidate who was excluded at the relevant election that appears on a ballot-paper that was transferred to the vacating Councillor is to be counted for that candidate.

13 Countback to be stopped if absolute majority obtained

(1) After the transfers required by clause 12 have been completed, if a participating eligible candidate has an absolute majority the returning officer must declare that candidate to be elected.

(2) For the purposes of this clause, a candidate has an absolute majority if the number of votes credited to that candidate is more than 50% of the total
14 Next stage (if necessary)

(1) If no participating eligible candidate has an absolute majority of votes, the participating eligible candidate with the fewest votes must be excluded.

(2) The excluded candidate's ballot-papers must be transferred to the continuing participating eligible candidates in accordance with the preferences shown on those ballot-papers, at their respective transfer values, beginning with the ballot-papers with the highest transfer value and ending with those with the lowest transfer value, as follows—

(a) the total number of ballot-papers received by the excluded candidate at a particular transfer value and expressing the next available preference for a particular continuing eligible candidate must be multiplied by that transfer value; and

(b) the number obtained under paragraph (a) (disregarding any fraction) must be added to the number of votes of that continuing candidate; and

(c) all those ballot-papers must be transferred to that continuing candidate.

(3) The transfer value of a ballot-paper for the purposes of this clause is the same as the transfer value set out in clause 12(2).
