(2) Subject to this section and to sections 19 and 25, where the applicant has requested access in a particular form, access shall be given in that form.

(3) If the form of access requested by the applicant—

(a) would interfere unreasonably with the operations of the agency, or the performance by the Minister of his functions, as the case may be;

(b) would be detrimental to the preservation of the document or having regard to the physical nature of the document, would not be appropriate; or

(c) would involve an infringement of copyright subsisting in a person other than the State, or, in the case of an application to a council, other than the council—access in that form may be refused and access given in another form.

(4) If an applicant is given access to a document in a form that is different from the form of access requested by the applicant, the applicant shall not be required to pay a charge that is greater than the charge that would have been payable if access had been given in the form requested by the applicant.

(5) Access under subsection (1)(a) in respect of a document to which section 15(1) applies shall be given by affording the applicant a reasonable opportunity to inspect the document on the premises of the Public Record Office of Victoria.
(6) In respect of a document which is more than twenty years old or which is in the custody of the Public Record Office of Victoria, the Keeper of Public Records may determine that the granting of access in any one or more but not all of the forms referred to in subsection (1) would be detrimental to the preservation of the document or, having regard to the physical nature of the document, would not be appropriate.

(7) Where the Keeper of Public Records has made a determination in accordance with subsection (6), access shall not be granted in the form or forms specified in the determination but may be given in any of the remaining forms provided under subsection (1).

24 Deferment of access

(b) for release to the Press; or

(c) solely for inclusion, in the same or in an amended form, in a document to be prepared for a purpose specified in paragraph (a), (aa) or (b)— and the document is yet to be presented or released, or included in a document to be presented or released, as the case may be.

(2) Where the provision of access to a document is deferred in accordance with subsection (1), the agency or Minister shall, in informing the applicant of the reasons for the decision, indicate, as far as practicable, the period for which the deferment will operate.

24A Repeated requests

(1) An agency or Minister dealing with a request under Part III for access to documents or under Part V for the correction or amendment of information may refuse to grant access to documents or to amend a record in accordance with the request, without having caused the processing of the request to have been undertaken or at any later time, if the agency or Minister is satisfied that—

(a) the request is made by, or on behalf of, a person who, on at least one previous occasion, has made a request to the agency or Minister, or to a predecessor of the agency or Minister, for access to the same documents or the same information; and

(b) the request was refused and the Tribunal, on reviewing the decision to refuse the request, confirmed the decision; and

(a) the right to apply for review of the decision; and

(b) the authority to which the application for review should be made; and
(c) the time within which the application for review must be made.

25 Deletion of exempt matter or irrelevant material

Where—

(a) a decision is made not to grant a request for access to a document on the ground that it is an exempt document or that to grant the request would disclose information that would reasonably be regarded as irrelevant to the request;

(b) it is practicable for the agency or Minister to grant access to a copy of the document with such deletions as to make the copy not an exempt document or a document that would not disclose such information (as the case requires); and

(c) it appears from the request, or the applicant subsequently indicates, that the applicant would wish to have access to such a copy—the agency or Minister shall grant access to such a copy of the document.

25A Requests may be refused in certain cases

(1) The agency or Minister dealing with a request may refuse to grant access to documents in accordance with the request, without having caused the processing of the request to have been undertaken, if the agency or Minister is satisfied that the work involved in processing the request—

(a) in the case of an agency—would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the agency from its other operations; or
(b) in the case of a Minister—would substantially and unreasonably interfere with the performance of the Minister’s functions.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) but without limiting the matters to which the agency or Minister may have regard in deciding whether to refuse under subsection (1) to grant access to the documents to which the request relates, the agency or Minister is to have regard to the resources that would have to be used—

(a) in identifying, locating or collating the documents within the filing system of the agency, or the office of the Minister; or

(b) in deciding whether to grant, refuse or defer access to documents to which the request relates, or to grant access to edited copies of such documents, including resources that would have to be used—

(i) in examining the documents; or

(ii) in consulting with any person or body in relation to the request; or

(c) in making a copy, or an edited copy, of the documents; or

(d) in notifying any interim or final decision on the request.

(3) The agency or Minister is not to have regard to any maximum amount, specified in regulations, payable as a charge for processing a request of that kind.

(4) In deciding whether to refuse, under subsection (1), to grant access to documents, an agency or Minister must not have regard to—

(a) any reasons that the person who requests access gives for requesting access; or (b) the agency's or Minister's belief as to what are his or her reasons for requesting access.

(5) An agency or Minister may refuse to grant access to the documents in accordance with the request without having identified any or all of the documents to which the request relates and without specifying, in respect of each document, the provision or provisions of this Act under which that document is claimed to be an exempt document if—

(a) it is apparent from the nature of the documents as described in the request that all of the documents to which the request is expressed to relate are exempt documents; and

(b) either—

(i) it is apparent from the nature of the documents as so described that no obligation would arise under section 25 in relation to any of those documents to grant access to an edited copy of the document; or

(ii) it is apparent, from the request or as a result of consultation by the agency or Minister with the person making the request, that the person would not wish to have access to an edited copy of the document.

(6) An agency or Minister must not refuse to grant access to a document under subsection (1) unless the agency or Minister has—

(a) given the applicant a written notice—

(i) stating an intention to refuse access;
and
(ii) identifying an officer of the agency or a member of staff of the Minister with whom the applicant may consult with a view to making the request in a form that would remove the ground for refusal; and

(b) given the applicant a reasonable opportunity so to consult; and

(c) as far as is reasonably practicable, provided the applicant with any information that would assist the making of the request in such a form.

(7) For the purposes of section 21, the period commencing on the day an applicant is given a notice under subsection (6)(a) and ending on the day the applicant confirms or alters the request following the consultation referred to in subsection (6) is to be disregarded in the computation of the 45 day period referred to in section 21.

26 Decision to be made by authorized person

(1) A decision in respect of a request made to an agency may be made, on behalf of the agency, by the responsible Minister or the principal officer of the agency or, by an officer of the agency acting within the scope of authority exercisable by him in accordance with arrangements approved by the responsible Minister or the principal officer of the agency.

(2) Where a request is made to an agency for a document, and no arrangements in respect of documents of that type have been made and published under the regulations, a decision on that request shall, for the purpose of enabling an application for review to be made to the Tribunal, be deemed to have been made by the principal officer of the agency.

27 Reasons etc. to be given

(1) Where, in relation to a request for access to a document of an agency or an official document of a Minister, a decision is made under this Part that the applicant is not entitled to access to the document in accordance with the request or that provision of access to the document be deferred or that no such document exists, the agency or Minister shall cause the applicant to be given notice in writing of the decision, and the notice shall—

(e) a document that is ancillary to, associated with or accompanying a document referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d).

PART V—AMENDMENT OF PERSONAL RECORDS

39 Person may request amendment of record

Where a document containing information relating to the personal affairs of a person (including a deceased person) is released to the person who is the subject of that information (or in the case of a deceased person, that person's next-of-kin) that person shall be entitled to request the correction or amendment of any part of that information where it is inaccurate, incomplete, out of date, or where it would give a misleading impression.

40 Form of request for amendment of record

A request under section 39—

(a) shall be in writing;

(b) shall specify an address to which a notice under section 43 may be sent to the person making the request; and

41 Agency or Minister may amend record

Where an agency to which or Minister to whom a request is made under section 39 decides to amend the record of information to which the request relates, the agency or Minister may, in its or his discretion, make the amendment either by altering the record or by adding an appropriate notation to the record.
42 Notation on record

Where an agency or Minister amends a record by adding a notation to the record, the notation shall—

(a) specify the respects in which the information is incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading; and

(b) in a case where the information is claimed to be out of date—set out such information as is required to bring the information up to date.

43 Time within which agency or Minister must notify claimant

Where a request is made to an agency or Minister under section 39, the agency or Minister shall take all reasonable steps to enable the claimant to be notified of a decision on the request as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 30 days after the day on which the request is received by or on behalf of the agency or Minister.

44 When section 26 to apply

Section 26 applies in relation to a decision in respect of a request made under section 39.

45 When section 27 to apply

Section 27 applies in relation to a decision made under this Part refusing to amend a record in like manner as it applies in relation to a decision made under Part III refusing to grant access to a document in accordance with a request made in accordance with section 17.

46 Where request refused

Where—

(a) an agency or Minister refuses to amend a record pursuant to a request under section 39;
(b) the person who made the request applies to the Tribunal for a review of the decision; and

(i) stating that the person to whom the information relates claims that the information is incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading, as the case may be; and

(ii) giving particulars of the notation—and may, if the agency or Minister considers it appropriate to do so, include in the statement the reasons of the agency or Minister for not amending the part of the record from which the information is taken.

48 Notice may be given to persons who received the information prior to commencement of section

Nothing in this Part is intended to prevent or discourage agencies or Ministers from giving particulars of a notation added to a record in accordance with section 47(a) to a person (including any agency or Minister) to whom information contained in the record to which the notation relates was furnished before the commencement of this section.

49 How corrections or amendments are made

Where a request for correction or amendment under section 39 has been acceded to by an agency, the correction or amendment may take the form of a notation of the original document but no correction or amendment shall be made which has the effect of deleting or expunging the information which has been corrected or amended or of destroying the document except with the concurrence of the Keeper of Public Records.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), a decision of an Assistant Commissioner on a review under this Division is taken to be a decision of the Freedom of Information Commissioner.
49G Freedom of Information Commissioner may determine not to accept application or may dismiss review

(a) the material facts and issues in relation to the review; and

(b) whether the matter can be resolved by agreement between the parties.

49L Referral back to agency for reconsideration

(1) After making preliminary inquiries, the Freedom of Information Commissioner, with the agreement of the applicant, may refer the matter that is the subject of the application back to the agency for reconsideration if it appears to the Commissioner reasonably likely that the agency will be able to make a fresh decision in a way that is satisfactory to the applicant and in accordance with law.
(2) The fresh decision must be made within 28 days after the referral under subsection (1) unless the agency and the Freedom of Information Commissioner agree in writing to another period.

(3) The required period for completing the review under section 49J is suspended from the time the Freedom of Information Commissioner refers the matter back to the agency under subsection (1).

(1) During a review under this Division, an agency may notify in writing the Freedom of Information Commissioner and the applicant that the agency is reconsidering the matter that is the subject of the review at the agency's own initiative and, if so, the agency may make a fresh decision.

(2) The fresh decision must be made within 28 days after the notification under subsection (1) unless the agency and the Freedom of Information Commissioner agree in writing to another period.

(2) The Freedom of Information Commissioner, after consulting with the relevant authority, may refer the matter to the relevant authority if the Commissioner considers it appropriate to do so.

(3) The referral of a matter under this section does not affect the role of the Freedom of Information Commissioner in conducting a review under this Act.

(4) The Freedom of Information Commissioner must notify the applicant in writing of a referral of a matter under this section that affects the interests of the applicant.
(5) In this section relevant authority means a person or body prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

49OA Review of decisions under section 25A(5)

(1) In conducting a review of a decision of an agency under section 25A(5) to refuse to grant a request for access to documents, the Freedom of Information Commissioner must determine whether to refuse to grant the request under section 25A(5) without requesting the agency to search for or otherwise identify the documents to which the request relates.

(5) A notice under subsection (4) must state the Minister's findings on any material question of fact, the material on which those findings are based, the reasons for the decision and attach a copy of the Tribunal's notification to the responsible Minister of its determination.

(6) The Minister is not required to include in a notice under subsection (4) matter that is of such a nature that its inclusion in a document of an agency would cause that document to be an exempt document under section 28, 29A, 31(3) or 33.

(7) The Minister is not required to include in a notice under subsection (4) information as to the existence or non-existence of a document or the existence or non-existence of a state of fact if that information would, if included in a document of an agency, cause that document to be an exempt document under section 28, 29A, 31(3) or 33.
(8) Nothing in this section is to be taken to imply that a certificate under section 29A(2) cannot be revoked otherwise than in accordance with this section.

53A Notification of reviews regarding documents affecting personal privacy

(1) If—

(a) an agency or Minister or the Freedom of Information Commissioner makes a decision refusing to grant access to a document; and

(b) a reason for the decision is that the document is an exempt document under section 33(1) because its disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information relating to the personal affairs of a person; and

(c) an application is made to the Tribunal under section 50(1)(a), (b) or (d) for review of the decision—the agency or Minister or the Freedom of Information Commissioner (as the case requires), as soon as practicable after being notified of the application, must, if practicable, give written notice in accordance with subsection (2) to the person to whom the information relates.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) must—

(a) inform the person to whom it is directed of their right to intervene in the review; and

(b) request the person to inform the Tribunal, within 21 days after the day on which the notice was given, whether or not the person intends to intervene.
(3) If—the Tribunal must, if practicable, give notice of the order to the person.

(4) An order referred to in subsection (3)(b) does not take effect until 28 days after the day on which it is made.

54 Parties

For the purposes of this Division and of the application of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998 in respect of proceedings under this Division—

(a) a decision given by a person on behalf of an agency shall be deemed to have been given by the agency; and

(b) in the case of proceedings by virtue of section 53, the agency or Minister to which or to whom the request was made shall be a party to the proceedings.

55 Onus

(1) In proceedings under this Division by virtue of section 12, the principal officer upon whom the notice was served has the onus of establishing that the document concerned is not a document as described in section 8(1) or section 11(1).
(2) In proceedings under this Division (except under section 50(3D)), the agency or Minister to which or to whom the request was made has the onus of establishing that a decision given in respect of the request was justified or that the Tribunal should give a decision adverse to the applicant.

56 Inspection of exempt documents by Tribunal

(2) Subject to subsection (3) and to any order made by the Tribunal under section 51(2) of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998, the Tribunal shall do all things necessary to ensure that any document produced to the Tribunal in proceedings under this Act that is claimed to be an exempt document, or the contents of that document, is not disclosed to any person other than a member of the Tribunal as constituted for the proceedings, or a member of the staff of the Tribunal in the course of the performance of his duties as a member of that staff, and to ensure the return of the document to the defendant at the conclusion of the proceedings.
(3) The Tribunal may make any orders as it thinks fit having regard to the nature of the proceedings, including where the applicant is represented by an Australian lawyer (within the meaning of the Legal Profession Act 2004), an order that the contents of a document produced to the Tribunal that is claimed to be an exempt document be disclosed to that practitioner.

(4) In making an order under subsection (3), the Tribunal must be guided by the principle that the contents of a document should not normally be disclosed except in accordance with an order of the Tribunal under section 51(2) of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998.

(5) Where an application under section 50(1) or (3D) relates to a document or part thereof in relation to which disclosure has been refused on the grounds specified in section 28, section 29A, or section 31, the Tribunal may, if it regards it as appropriate to do so, announce its findings in terms which neither confirm nor deny the existence of the document in question.
59 Tribunal may reduce or waive charges

(1) In a review under this Division, the Tribunal may order that any charge payable under this Act or the regulations in respect of access to a document be reduced or waived.

(2) The Tribunal cannot make an order under subsection (1) if it confirms the decision the subject of the review.

61 Disciplinary action

(1) Where the Tribunal, at the completion of proceedings under this Act, is of opinion that there is evidence that a person, being an officer of an agency, has been guilty of a breach of duty or of misconduct in the administration of this Act and that the evidence is, in all the circumstances, of sufficient force to justify it in doing so, the Tribunal shall bring the evidence to the notice of—
(a) if the person is the principal officer of a department or prescribed authority—the responsible Minister of that department or prescribed authority; or

(aa) if a person is the principal officer of a council—to the council;

(b) if the person is an officer of an agency but not the principal officer of that agency—the principal officer of that agency.

(2) In the circumstances set out in subsection (1), the Tribunal must also bring the evidence to the notice of the Freedom of Information Commissioner.
