Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration
Act 1996

No. 43 of 1996

Authorised Version incorporating amendments as at 30 October 2014

The Parliament of Victoria enacts as follows:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Purpose

The main purpose of this Act is to provide for the registration of births, deaths, marriages and changes of name in Victoria.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Part comes into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the remaining provisions of this Act come into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.
- (3) If a provision referred to in subsection (2) does not come into operation before 31 December 1997, it comes into operation on that day.

3 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are to provide for—

- (a) the registration of births, deaths and marriages in Victoria; and
- (b) the registration of changes of name; and

8 Delegation

The Registrar, by instrument, may delegate to a person employed pursuant to section 7 any of the Registrar's powers under this Act and the Relationships Act 2008, other than this power of delegation.

Division 2—Execution of documents

9 The Registrar's seal

The Registrar has a seal.

10 Execution of documents

- (1) The Registrar may issue a certificate or other document under the Registrar's signature and seal, or a facsimile of the Registrar's signature and seal produced by stamp or machine imprint or by a prescribed method.
- (2) All courts must take judicial notice of the Registrar's signature and seal or facsimile of the Registrar's signature and seal produced in accordance with subsection (1) affixed to a certificate or other document and, until the contrary is proved, must presume that it was duly affixed.

Division 3—Reciprocal administrative arrangements

11 Reciprocal administrative arrangements

- (1) The Minister may enter into an arrangement with the Minister responsible for the administration of a corresponding law providing for—
 - (a) the exercise by the Registrar of powers and functions of the registering authority under the corresponding law; and
 - (b) the exercise by the registering authority under the corresponding law of powers and functions of the Registrar under this Act.
- (2) When an arrangement is in force under this section—
 - (a) the Registrar may exercise, to the extent authorised by the arrangement (but subject to the conditions of the arrangement) the powers and functions of the registering authority under the corresponding law; and
 - (b) the registering authority under the corresponding law may exercise, to the extent authorised by the arrangement (but subject to the conditions of the arrangement) the powers and functions of the Registrar under this Act.
- (3) An arrangement under this section may—
 - (a) establish a data base in which information is recorded for the benefit of all the participants in the arrangement; and
 - (b) provide for access to information contained in the data base; and

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1996
No. 43 of 1996
Part 2—Administration

s. 11

- (c) provide for payments by or to participants in the arrangement for services provided under the arrangement.

PART 3—REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS

Division 1—Notification of births

12 Notification of births

- (1) When a child is born in the State, the responsible person must give notice of the birth to the Registrar including any particulars required by the Registrar.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) Notice under subsection (1) may be given—
- (a) in writing; or
 - (b) in any other manner approved by the Registrar by notice published in the Government Gazette.
- (3) The notice must be given—
- (a) in the case of a child born alive, within 21 days after the birth;
 - (b) in the case of a still-birth, within 48 hours after the birth.
- (4) When notice of a still-birth is given, the responsible person must also give the Registrar a doctor's certificate, in a form approved by the Registrar, certifying the cause of foetal death.
- (5) The doctor's certificate referred to in subsection (4) must be completed by—
- (a) the doctor responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth; or
 - (b) a doctor who examined the body of the still-born child after the birth.

(6) In this section—

responsible person means—

- (a) in the case of a child born in a hospital or brought to a hospital within 24 hours after birth, the chief executive officer of the hospital; or
- (b) in any other case—
 - (i) the doctor or midwife responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth or a doctor who examined the body of the still-born child after the birth; or
 - (ii) if no doctor or midwife was in attendance at the birth, any other person in attendance at the birth.

Division 2—Registration of births

13 Cases in which registration of birth is required or authorised

- (1) If a child is born in the State, the birth must be registered under this Act.
- (2) If a court orders the registration of a birth, the birth must be registered under this Act.
- (3) A birth may be registered under this Act if a child is born—
 - (a) in an aircraft during a flight to a place of disembarkation in the State; or
 - (b) on a vessel during a voyage to a place of disembarkation in the State.

- (4) If a child is born outside the Commonwealth, but the child is to become a resident of the State, the birth may be registered under this Act.
 - (5) The Registrar may refuse to register a birth under subsection (3) or (4) if the birth is registered under a corresponding law.

14 How to have the birth of a child registered

A person has the birth of a child registered under this Act by lodging a birth registration statement with the Registrar in a form and manner required by the Registrar specifying any prescribed particulars.

15 Responsibility to have a birth registered

- (1) The parents of a child are jointly responsible for having the child's birth registered under this Act and must both sign the birth registration statement but the Registrar may accept a birth registration statement from one of the parents if satisfied that it is not practicable to obtain the signatures of both parents on the birth registration statement.
- (2) If a child is a foundling, the person who has custody of the child is responsible for having the child's birth registered.
- (3) The Registrar may accept a birth registration statement from a person who is not responsible for having the child's birth registered if satisfied that—
 - (a) the person lodging the statement has knowledge of the relevant facts; and
 - (b) the child's parents are unable or unlikely to lodge a birth registration statement.

16 Registration of parentage details

- (1) The Registrar must not include information about the identity of a child's parent in the Register unless—
- (a) the parents of the child make a joint application for the inclusion of registrable information about that identity; or
 - (b) one parent of the child makes an application for the inclusion of registrable information about that identity and the other parent cannot join in the application because—
 - (i) he or she is dead; or
 - (ii) he or she cannot be found; or
 - (iii) of some other reason; or
 - (c) one parent of the child makes an application for the inclusion of registrable information about that identity and the Registrar is satisfied that the other parent does not dispute the correctness of that information; or
 - (d) any court having jurisdiction orders the inclusion of registrable information about that identity in the Register; or
 - (e) any court having jurisdiction makes a finding that a particular person is a parent of a child; or
 - (f) the Registrar is entitled under any law (including a law of another State or the Commonwealth) to make a presumption as to the identity of the child's parent.

S. 16(1)(a)
amended by
No. 76/2008
s. 152.

- (2) The Registrar may include information about the identity of a child's parent in the Register if—
- (a) the Registrar is not prohibited by subsection (1) from so doing; or
 - (b) despite subsection (1), both parents are unable to give registrable information about the identity of a child's parent or parents for some reason or are unavailable and another person can provide information to the Registrar's satisfaction as to the identity of the child's parent or parents; or
 - (c) despite subsection (1), one parent has provided the birth registration statement and the registrable information relates only to the identity of that parent.

17 Addition of details after birth registration

- (1) Subject to section 16, a person may apply to the Registrar for the inclusion of additional registrable information about a person's birth registration in the Register.
- (2) An application under subsection (1)—
 - (a) must be made in writing; and
 - (b) must include the information required by the Registrar; and
 - (c) must, if the Registrar requires verification of the information contained in the application, be accompanied by a statutory declaration verifying the information contained in the application and other evidence the Registrar may require.

s. 17A

inserted by
No. 76/2008
s. 153.

17A Addition of details after birth registration—registration of partner

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a woman has undergone a procedure within the meaning of Part III of the Status of Children Act 1974 as a result of which she became pregnant and gave birth to a child; and
 - (b) by application of a presumption in that Part the woman's female partner is presumed to be a parent of the child; and
 - (c) the child's birth was registered before the commencement of the Assisted Reproductive Treatment Act 2008.
- (2) If the Register only names the mother of the child, the mother and her partner may apply to amend the Register to name the partner as a parent of the child.
- (3) If the Register names the mother and father of the child, the Register must not be amended to name the partner as a parent of the child without a court order.
- (4) An application under subsection (2) must be accompanied by a statutory declaration made by the woman's partner stating that she consented to the procedure that resulted in the pregnancy.

inserted by
No. 76/2008
s. 153.

17B Birth registration of child conceived by a treatment procedure

- (1) If a birth registration statement specifies the child was conceived by a donor treatment procedure, the Registrar must mark the words "donor conceived" against the entry about the child's birth in the Register.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), when the Registrar issues a certificate certifying particulars contained in an entry about the birth of a person conceived by a donor treatment procedure, the Registrar must attach an addendum to the certificate stating that further information is available about the entry.
 - (3) The Registrar must not issue the addendum referred to in subsection (2) to any person other than the person conceived by a donor treatment procedure named in the entry.
 - (4) In this section donor treatment procedure means a donor treatment procedure within the meaning of the Assisted Reproductive Treatment Act 2008.

18 Obligation to have birth registered

- (1) A person responsible for having the birth of a child registered must ensure that a birth registration statement is lodged with the Registrar within 60 days after the date of the birth.
Penalty: 10 penalty units.
- (2) However, the Registrar must accept a birth registration statement even though it is lodged after the end of the 60 day period.
- (3) The Registrar may request that further information be provided to support the birth registration statement at any time before the Registrar registers the birth.

19 Registration

- (1) The Registrar registers a birth by making an entry about the birth in the Register.
- (2) However, if the particulars available to the Registrar are incomplete the Registrar may register a birth on the basis of incomplete particulars.

19A Surrogate birth registration—substitute parentage orders

- (1) If the court makes a substitute parentage order under the Status of Children Act 1974, on receipt of the sealed copy of the substitute parentage order the Registrar must—
 - (a) register the surrogacy by entering the prescribed particulars in the Surrogate Birth Register; and
 - (b) mark the words "closed—surrogate" against the original birth entry in the Register.
- (2) If the court makes an order under the Status of Children Act 1974 for the discharge of a substitute parentage order, on receipt of the sealed copy of the discharge order the Registrar must—
 - (a) cancel the relevant entry in the Surrogate Birth Register; and
 - (b) remove the words "closed—surrogate" from the original birth entry in the Register.

19B Surrogate birth registration—corresponding surrogacy parentage orders

- (1) If the court makes a registration order under the Status of Children Act 1974, on receipt of a sealed copy of the registration order and a copy of the sealed copy of the corresponding surrogacy parentage order the Registrar must—
 - (a) register the surrogacy by entering the prescribed particulars in the Surrogate Birth Register; and
 - (b) mark the words "closed—surrogate" against the original birth entry in the Register.

- (2) If the court makes an order under the Status of Children Act 1974 revoking a registration order, on receipt of the sealed copy of that order the Registrar must—
- (a) cancel the relevant entry in the Surrogate Birth Register; and
 - (b) remove the words "closed—surrogate" from the original birth entry in the Register.
- (3) In this section—
- corresponding surrogacy parentage order* and registration order have the meanings given in section 17 of the Status of Children Act 1974.

Division 3—Court orders for registration of birth

20 Court may order registration of birth

- (1) The Court may, on application by an interested person or on its own initiative, order—
- (a) the registration of a birth; or
 - (b) the inclusion of registrable information about a birth or a child's parents in the Register.
- (2) If a court (including a court of another State or the Commonwealth) finds that—
- (a) the birth of a person is not registered as required under this Act or a corresponding law; or
 - (b) the registrable information contained in an entry about a birth in the Register under this Act or a corresponding law is incomplete or incorrect—

the court may direct registration of the birth or the inclusion or correction of registrable information in the Register under this Act or the corresponding law (as the case may require).

Division 4—Perinatal death

21 Registrar may forward medical certificates

Despite anything to the contrary in any Act or law, the Registrar may forward or make available to the Australian Statistician or to the Secretary of the Department of Health any medical certificate in his or her possession or under his or her control relating to any perinatal death.

Division 5—Child's name

22 Name of child

- (1) The birth registration statement must state the name of the child.
- (2) However, the Registrar may assign a name to the child if—
 - (a) the name stated in the birth registration statement is a prohibited name; or
 - (b) the birth registration statement is lodged by both parents of the child and they satisfy the Registrar that they are unable to agree on the child's name.

23 Dispute about child's name

- (1) If there is a dispute between parents about a child's name, either parent may apply to the Court for a resolution of the dispute.
- (2) On an application under subsection (1), the Court may—
 - (a) resolve the dispute about the child's name as the Court considers appropriate; and
 - (b) order the Registrar to register the child's name in a form specified in the order.

PART 4—CHANGE OF NAME

24 Change of name by registration

A person's name may be changed by registration of the change under this Part.

25 Application to register change of adult's name

(1) An adult person may apply to the Registrar in the approved form for registration of a change of the person's name if—

- (1B) The 12 month requirement under subsection (1)(b)(iii) is waived if the Court has approved the proposed change of name for a child under subsection (4).
- (2) An application for registration of a change of a child's name must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) An application for registration of a change of a child's name may be made by one parent if—
 - (a) the applicant is the sole parent named in the registration of the child's birth under this Act or any other law; or
 - (b) there is no other surviving parent of the child; or

- (c) the Court approves the proposed change of name.
 - (4) The Court may, on application by a child's parent, approve a proposed change of name for the child if satisfied that the change is in the child's best interests.
 - (5) If the parents of a child are dead, cannot be found, or for some other reason cannot exercise their parental responsibilities to a child, the child's guardian may apply for registration of a change of the child's name.

27 Child's consent to change of name

A change of a name of a child aged 12 years or more must not be registered unless—

- (a) the child consents to the change of name; or
- (b) the child is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the change of name.

28 Registration of change of name

- (1) Before registering a change of name under this Part, the Registrar may require the applicant to provide evidence to establish to the Registrar's satisfaction—
 - (a) the identity and age of the person whose name is to be changed; and
 - (b) that the change of name is not sought for a fraudulent or other improper purpose; and
 - (c) if the person whose name is to be changed is a child aged 12 years or more, that—
 - (i) the child consents to the change of name; or
 - (ii) the child is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the change of name.

- (2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the name of a person whose birth is registered in the State has been changed under another law or by order of a court, the change of name may be registered under this Act.
- (3) The Registrar may refuse to register a change of name if, as a result of the change, the name would become a prohibited name.

29 Entries to be made in the Register

- (1) The Registrar registers a change of name by making an entry about the change of name in the Register.
- (2) The Registrar must—
 - (a) if the birth of the person whose name has been changed is registered under this Act, note the change of name in the entry relating to the birth; or
 - (b) if the birth of the person whose name has been changed is registered under a corresponding law, notify the relevant registering authority of the change of name.
- (3) If the change of name is noted in the Register under subsection (2), a birth certificate issued by the Registrar for the person must show the person's name as changed under this Part.

29A Registrar to notify Chief Commissioner of Police of change of name of certain sex offenders

- (1) If—
 - (a) under section 63(1A) of the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 the Registrar has been notified of details in relation to a person; and

(b) the Registrar, at any time on or after that notification, registers a change of name of that person—the Registrar must, as soon as practicable after that registration, cause written notice of it to be given to the Chief Commissioner of Police.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) must state both the person's former name and new name.

30 Change of name may still be established by repute or usage

This Part does not prevent a change of name by repute or usage.

30B Statutory declarations by doctors

- (1) An application under section 30A must include statutory declarations, verifying that the applicant has undergone sex affirmation surgery, by—
 - (a) 2 doctors; or
 - (b) 2 medical practitioners registered under the law of the place where the sex affirmation surgery was performed—who performed the surgery or provided other medical treatment to the applicant in connection with the applicant's transsexualism.

Notes

- 1 An application does not need to include these statutory declarations if the applicant has already obtained an interstate recognition certificate (see subsection (4)).
- 2 For doctor, see section 4(1).

- (2) However, if the sex affirmation surgery was performed outside Australia and the Registrar considers it is not reasonably practicable for the applicant to obtain those statutory declarations, the Registrar may instead require that the application include statutory declarations by 2 persons each of whom is either—
- (a) a medical practitioner registered under the law of the place where the surgery was performed who will verify that the practitioner has examined medical records, that he or she believes to be authentic, confirming that the surgery was performed; or
 - (b) a doctor, or medical practitioner registered under the law of an Australian State or Territory, who the Registrar considers is adequately experienced in treating persons in connection with transsexualism and who will verify that the applicant appears to have undergone sex affirmation surgery.
- (3) A statutory declaration by a medical practitioner registered under the law of a place outside Australia must be witnessed by a person authorised under the law of that place to witness statutory declarations.
- (4) This section does not apply to an application if the applicant—
- (a) has been issued with an interstate recognition certificate; and
 - (b) includes that certificate in the application.

 - (b) whose principal place of residence is, and has been for at least 12 months, in Victoria; and

- (c) whose birth is registered in a place other than Victoria; and
- (d) who has undergone sex affirmation surgery—

may apply to the Registrar for a document that acknowledges the person's name and sex.

- (2) An application must include statutory declarations as described in section 30B or an interstate recognition certificate issued to the applicant.
- (3) An application must be in the form approved by the Registrar and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee (if any).

30I Registrar to notify Chief Commissioner of Police

- (1) If—
 - (a) under section 63(1A) of the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 the Registrar has been notified of details in relation to a person; and

- (b) the Registrar, at any time on or after that notification, under this Part alters the record of that person's sex in that person's birth registration or issues a document acknowledging that person's name and sex—
- the Registrar must, as soon as practicable after altering the record or issuing the document, cause written notice of it to be given to the Chief Commissioner of Police.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must state both the person's former sex and new sex and former name and new name, as the case requires.

PART 5—REGISTRATION OF MARRIAGES

31 Cases in which registration of marriage is required

If a marriage is solemnised in the State, the marriage must be registered under this Act.

32 How to have marriage registered

A person may have a marriage registered by lodging with the Registrar a certificate of the marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 of the Commonwealth or, if the marriage was solemnised before the commencement of that Act, the evidence of the marriage required by the Registrar.

33 Registration of marriage

A marriage may be registered by—

- (a) including the marriage certificate as part of the Register; or
 - (b) including particulars of the marriage in the Register.

PART 6—REGISTRATION OF DEATHS

Division 1—Cases where registration of death is required or authorised

34 Deaths to be registered under this Act

- (1) If a person dies in the State, the death must be registered under this Act.
- (2) If a court directs the registration of a death, the death must be registered under this Act.
- (3) A death may be registered under this Act if a person dies—
 - (a) in an aircraft during a flight to a point of disembarkation in the State; or
 - (b) on a vessel during a voyage to a point of disembarkation in the State.
- (4) If a person who is domiciled or ordinarily resident in the State dies outside the Commonwealth, or a person dies outside the Commonwealth leaving property in the State, the death may be registered under this Act.
- (5) The Registrar may refuse to register a death under subsection (3) or (4) if the death is registered under a corresponding law.
- (6) If a child is still-born, the child's death is not to be registered under this Part.

35 Power to direct registration of death

- (1) The Court may, on application by an interested person or on its own initiative, order—
 - (a) the registration of a death; or
 - (b) the inclusion of registrable information about a death in the Register.

(2) If a court (including a court of another State or the Commonwealth) finds that—

- (a) the death of a person is not registered as required under this Act or a corresponding law; or
- (b) the registrable information contained in an entry about a death in the Register under this Act or a corresponding law is incomplete or incorrect—

the court may direct registration of the death or the inclusion or correction of registrable information in the Register under this Act or the corresponding law (as the case may require).

36 Circumstances in which a death must not be registered

(1) The Registrar must not register a death unless the Registrar—

- (a) has been given notice by a doctor under section 37(1) in relation to the death of the person; or
- (b) has been given a copy of an order made by a coroner under section 47 of the Coroners Act 2008 releasing the body of the deceased person to a specified person; or
- (c) has received a notice under section 49(2) of the Coroners Act 2008 containing the particulars needed to effect or complete registration of the death; or
- (d) has been given notice in the form of a document issued, made or given in relation to the death under a corresponding law of another State or the Commonwealth or any other place, being a document which the Registrar is satisfied is equivalent to a notice

- (2) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar must register the death if—
- (a) registration of the death is ordered by a court; or
 - (b) the Registrar is of the opinion that, having regard to the circumstances of the case, it is proper that the death should be registered without any notice, certificate or order referred to in this section.

Division 2—Notification of deaths

37 Notification of deaths by doctors

- (1) A doctor who was responsible for a person's medical care immediately before death, or who examines the body of a deceased person after death, must, within 48 hours after the death, notify the Registrar of the death and of the cause of the death in a form and manner approved by the Registrar and specifying any prescribed particulars.

Penalty: 12 penalty units.

- (2) When a notice is given under subsection (1), the doctor must also give a notice in the form and manner approved by the Registrar and specifying any prescribed particulars that the death has occurred to the funeral director or other person who will be arranging for the disposal of the human remains.

Penalty: 12 penalty units.

(3) However, a doctor is not required to give a notice under subsection (1) or (2) if another doctor has given the required notices.

S. 37(4)
amended by
No. 77/2008
s. 129(Sch. 2

(4) A doctor must not give a notice under subsection (1) or (2) if a coroner or police officer is required to be notified of the death under the Coroners Act 2008.

Penalty: 12 penalty units.

38 Notification of cause of death by coroner

S. 38(1)
amended by
No. 77/2008
s. 129(Sch. 2
item 3.5).

(1) If a coroner is notified of a death under the Coroners Act 2008, the principal registrar of the Coroners Court must inform the Registrar as soon as practicable after receiving the notification.

S. 38(2)
substituted by
No. 77/2008
s. 129(Sch. 2
item 3.6).

(2) If a coroner releases a body under the Coroners Act 2008, or ceases an investigation under section 17 of that Act or makes a finding about the cause of death, the principal registrar of the Coroners Court must give a copy of the release and any other information that the principal registrar is required to provide under the Coroners Act 2008, to the Registrar.

(3) The Registrar may register a death even though the death is subject to an inquest or other coronial inquiry and a finding has not been made about the cause of death.

(4) A death certificate issued before a coronial inquiry into the cause of death is completed must be endorsed with the words: "Incomplete registration—Cause of death subject to coronial inquiry".

39 Notification by funeral director, etc.

- (1) A funeral director or other person who arranges for the disposal of human remains must within 7 days after disposal of the remains give the Registrar a notice in the form and manner required by the Registrar specifying any prescribed particulars and including any supporting documentation required by the Registrar.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) If human remains have not been disposed of within 30 days after the date of death, the funeral director or other person who has custody of the remains must give the Registrar a notice, in the form and manner required by the Registrar, specifying any prescribed particulars and including any supporting documentation required by the Registrar.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

Division 3—Registration of death

40 Registration

- (1) The Registrar registers a death by making an entry about the death in the Register.
- (2) However, if the particulars available to the Registrar are incomplete the Registrar may register a death on the basis of incomplete particulars.

PART 7—THE REGISTER

Division 1—Keeping the Register

41 The Register

- (1) The Registrar must maintain a register or registers of registrable events.
- (2) The Register—
 - (a) must contain the particulars of each registrable event required under this Act, or another law, to be included in the Register; and
 - (b) may contain further information if its inclusion is considered appropriate by the Registrar.
- (3) The Register may be wholly or partly in the form of a computer data base, in documentary form, or in another form the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (4) The Registrar must maintain the indexes to the Register that are necessary to make the information contained in the Register reasonably accessible.

Division 2—Registrar's powers of inquiry

42 Registrar's powers of inquiry

- (1) The Registrar may conduct an inquiry to find out—
 - (a) whether a registrable event has happened; or
 - (b) particulars of a registrable event; or
 - (c) whether particulars of a particular registrable event have been correctly recorded in the Register; or

S. 42(1)(c)

No. 36/2004
s. 18(1).

- (d) in the case of a death of a child—
- (i) whether a reviewable death has occurred; and
 - (ii) if the Registrar determines that a reviewable death has occurred, whether there are any living or deceased siblings of the deceased child.
- (2) The Registrar may, by notice given to a person who may be able to provide information relevant to an inquiry under this section, require the person to answer specified questions or to provide other information within a time and in a way specified in the notice.
- (3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a notice under subsection (2).
- Penalty: 10 penalty units.

S. 42(1)(d)
inserted by
No. 36/2004
s. 18(2).

Division 3—Correction and amendment of Register

43 Correction and amendment of Register

- (1) The Registrar may correct the Register—
- (a) to reflect a finding made on inquiry under Division 2; or
 - (b) to bring an entry about a particular registrable event into conformity with the most reliable information available to the Registrar of the registrable event.
- (2) The Registrar must, if required by a court, correct the Register.
- (3) The Registrar corrects the Register by adding or cancelling an entry in the Register or by adding, altering or deleting particulars contained in an entry.

- (4) Subject to section 16, the Registrar may add additional registrable information to an entry in the Register.
 - (5) A person may apply to the Registrar for the addition of registrable information to an entry in the Register.
 - (6) An application under subsection (5) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
 - (7) Despite anything to the contrary in the Adoption Act 1984, the Registrar—
 - (a) may correct an original birth entry in respect of an adopted person; and
 - (b) subject to section 16, may add additional registrable information to that entry.

Division 4—Access to and certification of Register entries

44 Protection of privacy

In providing information extracted from the Register, the Registrar must, as far as practicable, protect the persons to whom the entries in the Register relate from unjustified intrusion on their privacy.

45 Search of Register

- (1) The Registrar may, on application, search the Register for an entry about a particular registrable event.
- (2) The applicant must—
 - (a) state the reason for the applicant's interest in the subject-matter of the search; and
 - (b) pay the prescribed fee.

- (3) The Registrar may reject the application if the applicant does not show an adequate reason for wanting the information to which the application relates.
 - (4) In deciding whether an applicant has an adequate reason for wanting information, the Registrar must have regard to—
 - (a) the relationship (if any) between the applicant and the person to whom the information relates; and
 - (b) the age of the entry; and
 - (c) the contents of the entry; and
 - (d) other relevant factors.

46 Issue of certificate

- (1) On completing a search of the Register and on payment by the applicant of the prescribed fee, the Registrar may issue a certificate—
 - (a) certifying particulars contained in an entry; or
 - (b) certifying that no entry was located in the Register about the relevant registrable event.
- (2) A certificate under subsection (1)(a) is admissible in legal proceedings as evidence of—
 - (a) the entry to which the certificate relates; and
 - (b) the facts recorded in the entry.

47 Access policies

- (1) The Registrar must maintain a written statement of the policies on which access to information contained in the Register is to be given or denied under this Division.
- (2) The Registrar must give a copy of the statement, on request, to any person.

48 Access to Register

- (1) The Registrar may, on conditions the Registrar considers appropriate—
 - (a) allow a person or organisation that has an adequate reason for wanting access to the Register, access to the Register; or
 - (b) provide a person or organisation that has an adequate reason for wanting information from the Register, with information extracted from the Register.
- (2) In deciding whether an applicant has an adequate reason for wanting access to the Register, or information extracted from the Register, the Registrar must have regard to—
 - (a) the nature of the applicant's interest; and
 - (b) the sensitivity of the information (in particular, whether it concerns a birth registration that has been altered under Part 4A); and
 - (c) the use to be made of the information; and
 - (d) other relevant factors.
- (3) In deciding the conditions on which access to the Register, or information extracted from the Register, is to be given under this section, the Registrar must, as far as practicable, protect the persons to whom the entries in the Register relate from unjustified intrusion on their privacy.

Division 5—Additional information and services

50 Registrar may collect other information

- (1) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the Registrar may maintain records of information, other than registrable information relating to registrable events.
- (2) Records maintained under this section must be kept separately from the Register.
- (3) The Registrar may include information in the records maintained under this section at the request of a person interested in the registrable event to which it relates or on the Registrar's own motion.
- (4) Sections 44 and 48(3) apply to records maintained under this section as if they were part of the Register.

51 Additional services in relation to information in Register and other information

- (1) The Registrar may enter into an arrangement for the provision of additional services in connection with the provision of services relating to a registrable event, including, but not limited to—
- (a) the provision of information in the form of a decorative certificate or other document; and
- (b) the provision of information from records maintained under section 50 relating to the registrable event.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1996
No. 43 of 1996
Part 7—The Register

- (2) The Registrar may enter into an arrangement for the provision of information from records maintained under section 50 or the Register including historical or genealogical information.
 - (3) If the Registrar provides a service or an additional service under this section, the Registrar may make a charge for the service determined by the Registrar, in his or her absolute discretion, which does not necessarily bear a relation to the cost of providing the service.
 - (4) In providing a service or an additional service, the Registrar must comply with sections 44 and 48(3).

PART 8—GENERAL POWER OF REVIEW

52 Review by Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal

S. 52
substituted by
No. 52/1998
s. 311(Sch. 1
item 9.2).

- (1) A person whose interests are affected by a decision of the Registrar under this Act may apply to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal for review of the decision.
 - (2) An application for review must be made within 28 days after the later of—
 - (a) the day on which the decision is made;
 - (b) if, under the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998, the person requests a statement of reasons for the decision, the day on which the statement of reasons is given to the person or the person is informed under section 46(5) of that Act that a statement of reasons will not be given.

PART 9—MISCELLANEOUS

53 False representation

A person must not make a false or misleading representation in an application or document under this Act, knowing it to be false or misleading.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

54 Unauthorised access to or interference with Register

A person must not, without the authority of the Registrar or other lawful authority—

- (a) obtain access to the Register or information contained in the Register; or
- (b) make, alter or delete an entry in the Register; or
- (c) interfere with the Register in any other way.

Penalty: 100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment or both.

55 Falsification of certificate, etc.

- (1) A person must not forge the Registrar's signature or seal.

Penalty: 100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment or both.

- (2) A person must not forge or falsify a certificate or other document under this Act.

Penalty: 100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment or both.

- (3) The Registrar may impound—

- (a) a document which the Registrar has reason to believe bears a forged impression of the Registrar's signature or seal; or

- (b) a certificate or other document purporting to be a certificate or other document under this Act which the Registrar has reason to believe has been forged or falsified; or
- (c) a certificate under this Act about a registrable event if the entry in the Register about the event has been cancelled or corrected since the issue of the certificate.

56 Registrar to provide certain information to Minister

amended by
No. 29/2004
s. 7.

The Registrar must provide to the Minister for inclusion in the report of operations of the Department of Justice for a financial year under Part 7 of the Financial Management Act 1994 a report of—

- (a) the number of registrable events registered during that financial year; and
- (b) the number of occasions on which the Registrar altered the Register under section 30C, or issued a document under section 30F, during that financial year.

57 Records relating to period before 18 January 1853

- (1) Every register, book of entries or register book of baptisms, marriages or burials solemnised in the district of Port Phillip of the Colony of Victoria before 18 January 1853 forwarded to the Registrar under section 31 of the Marriage Act 1898 is to be kept by the Registrar as a permanent record.
- (2) Any copy verified and forwarded to the Registrar under section 31 of the Marriage Act 1898 is prima facie evidence of all entries contained in the register, book of entries or register book.

- (3) A person who has possession of any register, book of entries or register book which has not been forwarded under section 31 of the Marriage Act 1898 must, during normal business hours, on payment of the prescribed fee, permit any person to inspect any entry and on request supply a certified copy of the entry to that person.

58 Power to require and take statutory declarations

The Registrar—

- (a) may require that information be given by statutory declaration; and
- (b) is authorised to take any statutory declarations required for the purposes of this Act.

59 Regulations

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for or with respect to—
- (a) prescribing fees or a basis for calculating fees for—
 - (i) access to the Register; or
 - (ii) a search of the Register; or
 - (iii) the issue of a certificate following a search of the Register; or
 - (iv) other services provided by the Registrar;
 - (b) generally prescribing any other matter or thing required or permitted to be prescribed or necessary to be prescribed for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A regulation may impose a penalty not exceeding 20 penalty units for contravention of the regulations.

- (3) Regulations made under this Act—
- (a) may be of general or limited application;
 - (b) may differ according to differences in time, place or circumstance;
 - (c) may require the making of a statutory declaration.
