* * * * *

10 Chief Examiner must report other matters to Victorian Inspectorate

- (1) For the purposes of section 53(1)(d) of the Act, the following matters are prescribed—
 - (a) if a witness summons has been issued—
 - (i) the date and time at which the witness summons was served on the person;

Reg. 10
(Heading) amended by
S.R. No.
12/2013 reg. 5.

- (ii) if the summons is directed to a person suspected to be under the age of 18 years, the reason recorded under section 15(6)(b) of the Act;
 - (b) if an order has been made on application under section 18(2) of the Act—
 - (i) if the order was made in relation to a person suspected to be under the age of 18 years, the recorded reason for suspecting or believing that the person is aged 16 years or above; and
 - (ii) the statement, if any, in the order as to the general nature of the matters about which the person is to be questioned;
 - (c) if the examination ceases because of the revocation of a coercive powers order, the date of revocation, the reason for the revocation, if known, and the date of cessation of the examination;
 - (d) if the person was released from attendance or further attendance because of the revocation of a coercive powers order, the date of release and the manner of giving notice of the release;
 - (e) whether the Chief Examiner has complied with the requirements of section 31 of the Act;
 - (f) the duration of the examination;
 - (g) whether the person was aged under 18 years and if so—
 - (i) whether the person was released because the Chief Examiner became aware that the person was under the age of 16 years; and

- (ii) whether a parent or a guardian of the person or an independent person was present during the person's examination; and
 - (iii) whether it reasonably appeared to the Chief Examiner that the person exercised his or her right to communicate with the parent, guardian or independent person (as the case may be) before giving any evidence or producing any document or thing;
- (h) whether the Chief Examiner believed the person to have a mental impairment and if so—
 - (i) whether an independent person was present during the person's examination; and
 - (ii) whether it reasonably appeared to the Chief Examiner that the person exercised his or her right to communicate with the independent person before giving any evidence or producing any document or thing;
- (i) whether the person had legal representation and if the person did not—
 - (i) whether the person was asked if he or she had sought legal advice; and
 - (ii) whether the person was given an opportunity to seek legal advice;
- (j) whether the person appeared to the Chief Examiner to have insufficient knowledge of the English language to enable him or her to understand the questioning during the examination, and if so what arrangements were made for the presence of a competent interpreter;

- (k) whether, during the examination, the Chief Examiner considered a claim for legal professional privilege and if so—
 - (i) the name of the claimant;
 - (ii) the time when the claim for legal professional privilege was made;
 - (iii) the outcome of the consideration of the claim by the Chief Examiner and the date on which the outcome was reached;
- (l) whether the Chief Examiner has issued a certificate of charge and an arrest warrant under section 49 of the Act, and if so—
 - (i) details of the alleged contempt of the Chief Examiner as set out in the certificate of charge; and
 - (ii) whether the arrest warrant was executed and if so, how long the person was detained under the warrant and whether the person is still in detention;
 - (iii) details of the outcome of the contempt of the Chief Examiner being dealt with by the Supreme Court (to the extent known at the time the report is made).
- (2) Subregulation (1)(l) ceases to have effect on the day on which section 49 of the Act ceases to have effect.

11 Records to be kept by Chief Commissioner

For the purposes of section 66(a) of the Act, computerised records on the following matters must be kept—
