S. 4.3.21(3)(g) inserted by No. 73/2012 s. 15(2).
(3A) A further ground is that the RTO has ceased to have the provision of education and training as its principal purpose, unless an exemption under section 4.3.16(4A) applies.

Note
See section 4.3.16(4C) which allows applicants to provide certain prescribed ancillary services and not fall outside of having the principal purpose of providing education and training.

(3B) A further ground is that the RTO does not have an effective complaint handling process to handle complaints by past, current or prospective students, which the applicant is required to have under Part 4.6A.

Note
See Part 4.6A for what constitutes an effective complaint handling process.

(4) The Authority may not impose a restriction under subsection (2)(a) unless the registering body that registered the RTO—

(a) fails to take any step to deal with the matter to which the grounds relate within 30 days after the matter comes to its attention; or

(b) fails, after taking any step to deal with the matter to which the grounds relate, to take another step within 30 days.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the Authority is relying on a ground established by a compliance audit under section 4.3.26.

(6) Subsection (4) does not stop the Authority, before the end of a 30 day period mentioned in the subsection, taking all steps necessary to impose a restriction at any time after the period has ended.
(7) A restriction imposed under subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) may, but need not, relate to a particular place or jurisdiction, but if it does so, it may only be imposed because of a particular fact situation that has arisen in the place or jurisdiction.

(8) A restriction imposed under subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) must be consistent with this Chapter and the RTO standards.

(9) In exceptional circumstances, the Authority may exercise its powers under subsection (2)(c) to direct the RTO to immediately stop conducting operations continued under section 4.3.23(3).

(10) Before cancelling the registration of an RTO under subsection (2)(d), the Authority must consult the registering bodies of each of the other jurisdictions where the RTO is operating.

(11) Failure to comply with subsection (10) does not affect a cancellation of the registration of an RTO.

4.3.21A Faster action in exceptional circumstances

(1) The powers under this section are in addition to, and not in derogation of, the powers conferred by section 4.3.21(9).

(2) Subject to this section, the Authority may suspend the registration, or part of the scope of the registration, of an RTO or cancel the registration of an RTO under section 4.3.21, without delay, if the Authority is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist.

(3) The Authority must give the RTO at least 3 working days to make submissions if the Authority intends to suspend the registration, or part of the scope of the registration, of the RTO.

(4) The Authority must give the RTO at least 7 days to make submissions if the Authority intends to cancel the registration of the RTO.
(5) The Authority may take the action referred to in this section concurrently with any action under section 4.5.5 in relation to an RTO.

(6) In this section exceptional circumstances include, but are not limited to the following—

4.3.22 Cancellation registration on change of business operations

(1) This section applies to an RTO registered by the Authority.

(2) On the grounds that an RTO does not have its principal place of business, and does not conduct all or most of its operations, in Victoria, the Authority may cancel the RTO's registration—

   (a) on application by the RTO; or

   (b) on its own initiative.

(3) The Authority must give notice to the RTO at least 6 months before cancelling the registration.
(4) If, before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (3), the RTO makes an application to another registering body for registration as a training organisation, the Authority must not cancel the registration of the RTO until the transfer application is decided.

4.3.23 Effect of suspension of registration of RTO

(1) This section applies if a prohibition is imposed on an RTO under section 4.3.21(2)(c).

(d) if the operations have been directed to immediately stop under section 4.3.21(9)—training or assessing anyone.

Penalty: 60 penalty units in the case of a natural person and 300 penalty units in the case of a body corporate.

(3) If the RTO, before the prohibition took effect, entered into an agreement to provide training or an assessment to a person, subsection (2)(a) to (c) does not prohibit anyone from relying on the agreement—

(a) to provide the training or assessment; or

(b) to solicit or accept consideration for the provision of the training or assessment.
4.3.24 Registering body to register amendment, suspension or cancellation

If, in relation to an RTO, the Authority decides to do anything under section 4.3.21(2) or section 4.3.22(2), it must, on the National Register—

(a) for an amendment of the scope of registration or registered conditions or the imposition of a new condition—amend the scope of registration or registered conditions in accordance with its decision; or

(2) A failure to comply with subsection (1) is of no effect if the failure—

(b) arises out of inconsistency between the standards mentioned in the subsection and legislation of the particular jurisdiction in relation to which the failure arises.
