Sex Offenders Registration Amendment Act 2014
No. 82 of 2014
[Assented to 21 October 2014]

The Parliament of Victoria enacts:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Purpose
The purpose of this Act is to amend—
(a) the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004
to—
(i) further provide for reporting obligations under Part 3 of that Act; and
(ii) further provide for the retention of certain material for law enforcement, crime prevention and child protection purposes; and

(iii) provide for the disclosure of information contained in the Register established and maintained under section 62 of that Act; and

(b) the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 to provide for the disclosure of information relating to registrable offenders; and

(c) the Freedom of Information Act 1982 to provide for the exemption of documents contained in the Register established and maintained under section 62 of the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 from the operation of that Act.

2 Commencement

(1) This Part and sections 13, 14, 15, 16 and 20 come into operation on the day after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the remaining provisions of this Act come into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.

(3) If a provision referred to in subsection (2) does not come into operation before 1 June 2015, it comes into operation on that day.
PART 2—AMENDMENT OF SEX OFFENDERS REGISTRATION ACT 2004

After section 45 of the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 insert—

"45A Chief Commissioner of Police may suspend reporting obligations for period not exceeding 12 months in certain circumstances

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Chief Commissioner of Police, by written notice served on a registrable offender, may suspend the registrable offender's reporting obligations for a period (not exceeding 12 months) specified in the notice.

(2) The Chief Commissioner of Police must not act under subsection (1) unless satisfied that the registrable offender does not pose a risk to the sexual safety of one or more persons or of the community.

(3) In deciding whether to act under subsection (1), the Chief Commissioner of Police must take into account—

(a) the seriousness of the registrable offender's registrable offences and corresponding registrable offences; and

(b) the period of time since those offences were committed; and

(c) the age of the registrable offender, the age of the victims of those offences and the difference in age between the registrable offender and the victims of those offences, as at the time those offences were committed; and

(d) the registrable offender's present age; and
(e) the registrable offender's total criminal record; and

(f) the extent to which the registrable offender has complied with their reporting obligations; and

(g) the registrable offender's physical or cognitive capacity to comply with their reporting obligations; and

(h) any other matter that the Chief Commissioner of Police considers appropriate.

(4) The Chief Commissioner of Police—

(a) may suspend a registrable offender's reporting obligations more than once; and

(b) may cancel a suspension under this section at any time.

(5) A suspension under this section is taken to be cancelled if during the period of the suspension an order is made under section 40 in respect of the registrable offender.

17 Offence of failing to comply with reporting obligations

For section 46(1) of the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 substitute—

"(1) A registrable offender who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any of the registrable offender's reporting obligations (other than reporting obligations in respect of details to which section 14 applies) is guilty of an offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum)."
(1A) A registrable offender who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any of the registrable offender's reporting obligations in respect of details to which section 14(1)(d), (da), (db), (dc), (dd), (e), (ea), (f), (g), (j), (k) or (m) applies is guilty of an offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum).

(1B) A registrable offender who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any of the registrable offender's reporting obligations in respect of details to which section 14(1)(a), (b), (c), (h), (i) or (l) applies is guilty of an offence and liable to level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum).

18 Section 47 substituted

For section 47 of the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 substitute—

"47 Offence of furnishing false or misleading information

(1) A registrable offender who in purported compliance with this Part furnishes details (other than details to which section 14 applies) that the registrable offender knows to be false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence and liable to level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum) or a level 7 fine (240 penalty units).

(2) A registrable offender who in purported compliance with this Part furnishes details to which section 14(1)(d), (da), (db), (dc), (dd), (e), (ea), (f), (g), (j), (k) or (m) applies that the registrable offender knows to be false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence and liable to level 6 imprisonment (5 years maximum)."
(3) A registrable offender who in purported compliance with this Part furnishes details to which section 14(1)(a), (b), (c), (h), (i) or (l) applies that the registrable offender knows to be false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence and liable to level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum)."

After Part 3.2 of the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 insert—

"PART 3.2A—DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ABOUT CHILD'S CONTACT WITH REGISTRABLE OFFENDER

42A Interpretation

(1) In this Part—

authorised person means a person who is authorised in writing by the Secretary under subsection (2);

contact has the same meaning as in the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004;

registrable offence has the same meaning as in the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004;

registrable offender has the same meaning as in the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004;

sex offender registration order has the same meaning as in the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004.

(2) The Secretary, in writing, may authorise a person, or a class of person, to act under section 42D(2).
42B Secretaries may disclose information relating to registrable offenders

(1) The Secretary to the Department of Justice may disclose to the Secretary any information about a registrable offender that is obtained or received by the Secretary to the Department of Justice in the performance of a function under the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 that indicates that the registrable offender has, or has had, contact with a child.

(2) The Secretary may disclose to the Secretary to the Department of Justice any information about a registrable offender that is obtained or received by the Secretary in the performance of a function under this Act in relation to a child who has, or has had, contact with the registrable offender.

42C Chief Commissioner of Police and Secretary may disclose information relating to registrable offenders

(1) The Chief Commissioner of Police may disclose to the Secretary any information contained in a report the Chief Commissioner receives under Part 3 of the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 from a registrable offender if the report indicates that the registrable offender has, or has had, contact with a child.

(2) The Secretary may disclose to the Chief Commissioner of Police any information about a registrable offender that is obtained or received by the Secretary in the performance of a function under this Act in relation to a child who has, or has had, contact with the registrable offender.
42D Disclosure of certain information relating to registrable offender in certain circumstances

(1) This section applies if the Secretary receives information about a registrable offender under section 42B(1) or 42C(1) that includes information of a kind referred to in subsection (2)(a) to (d).

(2) The Secretary or an authorised person may disclose the following information to any other person if the Secretary or authorised person believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure of the information to that person is in the interests of the safety and wellbeing of the child referred to in the information—

(a) the registrable offender's name;

(b) details of each offence of which the registrable offender has been found guilty that resulted in the making of a sex offender registration order;

(c) the date on which the registrable offender was sentenced for any registrable offence;

(d) the length of the reporting period under the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004 that applies to the registrable offender;

(e) any other information that the Secretary or authorised person believes on reasonable grounds is in the interests of the safety and wellbeing of the child.

(3) Before acting under subsection (2), the Secretary or authorised person must take reasonable steps to notify the registrable offender of the Secretary or authorised person's intention to act under that subsection unless the Secretary or authorised person believes on reasonable grounds that doing so would endanger the life or safety of any person.

(4) An authorised person must not act under subsection (2) other than in accordance with the terms of their authorisation.

Penalty: 60 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment or both.

(5) Subsection (2) applies despite anything to the contrary in this or the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004.

42E Information obtained in certain circumstances not to be disclosed without authority

A person who is employed or engaged in the administration of this Act or the Sex Offenders Registration Act 2004, or a police officer, must not disclose information of a kind referred to in section 42D(2)(a) to (d) to any other person if the person or officer—

(a) receives that information in the course of that employment or engagement or in the course of performing a duty as a police officer; and

(b) is not an authorised person; and

(c) is not otherwise authorised to do so.

Penalty: 120 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months or both.
