(2) Such a transfer or transaction is a "dutiable transaction" for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Despite sub-section (1), the assignment of a term referred to in section 153 of the Property Law Act 1958 is not a dutiable transaction.

(4) In this Chapter—

(b) an interest in shares or units referred to in paragraph (a), whether or not the interest is quoted on the Australian Stock Exchange or a recognised stock exchange.

11. When does a liability for duty arise?

(1) A liability for duty charged by this Chapter arises when a dutiable transaction occurs.
(2) However, if a dutiable transaction is effected by a written instrument, liability for duty charged by this Chapter arises when the instrument is first executed.

12. Who is liable to pay the duty?

   Duty charged by this Chapter is payable by the transferee, unless this Chapter requires another person to pay the duty.

13. The liability of joint tenants

   For the purpose of assessing duty charged by this Chapter, joint tenants of dutiable property are taken to hold the dutiable property as tenants in common in equal shares.

14. Necessity for written instrument or written statement

   (1) If a dutiable transaction that is liable to ad valorem duty under this Chapter is not effected by a written instrument, the transferee must make a written statement in the approved form.

   (2) The written statement must be made within 3 months after the liability arises.

   (3) If a dutiable transaction is completed or evidenced by a written instrument within 3 months after the date on which the dutiable transaction occurs, the requirement to lodge a statement and pay duty in respect of the statement may be satisfied by the lodgement of, and payment of duty on, the written instrument within 3 months after the date on which the dutiable transaction occurs.

15. Lodging written instrument or statement with Commissioner

   A transferee who is liable to pay duty in respect of a dutiable transaction must, within 3 months after

(b) the written statement made in compliance with section 14.

16. When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1997 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

17. No double duty

If a dutiable transaction is effected by more than one instrument, one instrument is to be stamped with the duty payable on the dutiable transaction and each other instrument is to be denoted with a statement of the amount, and date of payment, of the duty.

18. What is the rate of duty?

Duty is charged on the dutiable value of the dutiable property the subject of the dutiable transaction at the relevant rate set out in Part 3.

19. Concessions and exemptions from duty

Concessions and exemptions from duty charged by this Chapter are dealt with in Part 5.
PART 2—DUTIABLE VALUE

20. What is the "dutiable value" of dutiable property?

The "dutiable value" of dutiable property that is the subject of a dutiable transaction is the greater of—

(a) the consideration (if any) for the dutiable transaction (being the amount of a monetary consideration or the value of a non-monetary consideration); and

(b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property.

21. What is the consideration for the transfer of dutiable property?

(1) The consideration for the transfer of dutiable property is taken to include the amount or value of all encumbrances, whether certain or contingent, subject to which the dutiable property is transferred.

(2) The consideration for the transfer of the interest of a transferee under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property is taken to include the balance of the amount or value of the consideration that would be required from the transferee under the agreement in order to complete it in accordance with its terms.

(3) The consideration for the transfer of land on the sale of that land does not include any amount paid or payable in respect of the construction of a building to be constructed on that land on or after the date on which the contract of sale was entered into.
(4) The consideration for the transfer of land that is a lot on a plan of subdivision within the meaning of the Subdivision Act 1988 on a sale of that lot is taken not to include an amount, attributable exclusively to that lot, in respect of refurbishment of that lot carried out on or after the date on which the contract of sale was entered into and before the date of the transfer if—

(a) the transferor is the first registered proprietor within the meaning of the Transfer of Land Act 1958 of that lot; and

(b) the transfer of that lot to the transferee is the first transfer of the lot after registration of the plan of subdivision; and

(c) the transferee has not entered into a contract for refurbishment of the lot, other than in respect of the refurbishment referred to above; and

(d) the transfer, when presented to or lodged with the Commissioner, is accompanied by—

(i) a copy of the building permit, or building approval or permit; and

(ii) a copy of the contract with the transferee for the refurbishment; and

(iii) a statutory declaration in the approved form by the transferor as to the prescribed matters and as to whether or not the transferor has entered into any agreement with the transferee in respect of works (other than refurbishment) to be undertaken in relation to the lot before the transfer; and
(iv) if the Commissioner requires, a statutory declaration in the approved form by the transferee declaring that the transferee has not entered any contract, other than the contract referred to in sub-paragraph (ii), for the refurbishment of the lot; and

(v) if the Commissioner requires, a statutory declaration in the approved form by the person that issued the building permit of building approval or permit.

(5) In this section—

"refurbishment" means building work for which a building permit has been issued under the Building Act 1993, being work for the conversion of an existing building for which such a permit or approval is required.

22. What is the "unencumbered value" of dutiable property?

(1) The "unencumbered value" of dutiable property is the amount for which the property might reasonably have been sold in the open market at the time the dutiable transaction occurred free from any encumbrance to which the property was subject at that time.

(2) In determining the amount for which land or goods might reasonably have been sold free from encumbrances, there must be disregarded subject to sub-section (3), any interest, agreement or arrangement (other than an encumbrance) granted or made in respect of the land or goods, that has the effect of reducing the value of the land or goods.
(3) An interest, agreement or arrangement referred to in sub-section (2) is not to be disregarded if the Commissioner is satisfied that it was not granted or made as a part of an arrangement or scheme with a collateral purpose of reducing the duty otherwise payable on the transfer of the land or goods.

(4) In considering whether or not he or she is satisfied for the purposes of sub-section (3), the Commissioner may have regard to—

(a) the duration of the interest, agreement or arrangement before the transfer; and

(b) whether the interest, agreement or arrangement has been granted to or made with an associate, a related corporation or a trustee of the transferor or transferee; and

(c) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the granting of the interest or the making of the agreement or arrangement other than to reduce duty; and

(d) any other matters he or she considers relevant.

23. Arrangements that reduce the dutiable value of marketable securities

(1) In computing for the purposes of this Chapter the unencumbered value of any marketable securities of a company, the Commissioner may include the value of any assets formerly owned or controlled by the company if—

(a) those assets were transferred to the ownership or control of the transferee of the marketable securities or to an associated person of the transferee before the transfer of the marketable securities; and
(b) those assets are necessary for the continuing operation of the company after the transfer of the marketable securities; and

(c) the value of the marketable securities was reduced following the transfer of ownership or control of assets because the proceeds of that transfer were not retained by the company.

(2) In determining whether assets are necessary for the continuing operation of a company the Commissioner may take into account—

(a) whether or not the assets were removed from the company's premises after the transfer of ownership or control;

(b) whether or not the assets continued to be used by the company under an arrangement with the transferee.

(3) This section does not apply if the Commissioner is satisfied that the transfer of ownership or control of assets—

(a) was part of the normal business operations of the transferee; or

(b) was not part of a scheme or arrangement devised for the principal purpose of minimising duty chargeable under this Chapter on the transfer of marketable securities.

24. Aggregation of certain dutiable transactions

(1) Dutiable transactions relating to separate items of dutiable property referred to in section 10(1)(a) or (d) or section 10(1)(e) as it relates to dutiable property referred to in section 10(1)(a) or (d), or separate parts of such property are to be aggregated and treated as a single dutiable transaction if—

(b) the transferee is the same or the transferees are associated persons; and
(c) the dutiable transactions together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially, one arrangement relating to all of the items or parts of the dutiable property.

(2) Dutiable transactions are not to be aggregated under this section if the Commissioner is satisfied that it would not be just and reasonable to do so in the circumstances.

(3) The dutiable value of aggregated dutiable property is the sum of the dutiable values of the items or parts of the dutiable property as at the time at which each dutiable transaction occurs.

25. Apportionment—dutiable property and other property

(2) If a dutiable transaction relates to different types of dutiable property for which different rates of duty are chargeable under this Chapter, the dutiable transaction is chargeable with duty under this Chapter as if a separate dutiable transaction had occurred in relation to each such type of dutiable property.

26. Partitions of marketable securities

In determining the duty to be paid on any dutiable transaction that gives effect to a partition or division of any marketable securities the Commissioner must, before assessing the duty (if any) payable on the transaction, deduct from the value of those marketable securities the value of the beneficial interest in those marketable securities held prior to the transaction by the transferee.

27. Partitions of land

In determining the duty to be paid on any dutiable transaction that gives effect to a partition or division of any estate in land, the Commissioner must, before assessing the duty (if any) payable on the transaction, deduct from the value of that estate the value of the beneficial interest in that estate held prior to the transaction by the transferee.
PART 3—RATES OF DUTY

PART 4—SPECIAL PROVISIONS

30. Interim payment of duty

(1) If the full dutiable value of dutiable property the subject of a dutiable transaction cannot, in the Commissioner's opinion, be immediately ascertained, the Commissioner may make an assessment by way of estimate under section 11(2) of the Taxation Administration Act 1997.

(2) The written instrument or the written statement required by section 14 may be stamped "interim stamp only".

(3) When the full dutiable value has been ascertained, the Commissioner must reassess the duty payable on the dutiable transaction.

(5) If further duty is payable, liability for the further duty arises when the notice of assessment issues, despite section 11.

(b) the transfer executed by the vendor transfers the whole or any part of the property not to the first purchaser but to another person ("the transferee") who has acquired, whether directly or indirectly, the whole or any part of the rights and interest under the agreement of the first purchaser in the property—

the transfer is not chargeable with duty in respect of the transfer from the vendor to the transferee but is separately and distinctly chargeable with duty in respect of—

(c) the value of the property in the agreement (whether or not the agreement has been discharged by performance, novation or agreement or has otherwise ceased to exist); and

(d) the value of the property transferred to the transferee; and

(5) A transferee who pays duty in respect of a transaction or agreement payable under this section by another person, may recover the amount of that duty as a debt due to the transferee from the person.

(6) For the purposes of this section but without limiting the ways in which a person may be taken to acquire the rights and interest of another person in property, a person who has rights or an interest in property ("the first person") acquires the rights and interest of another person ("the second person") in that property if, as a direct or indirect result of an agreement, arrangement or understanding involving those persons (with or without other persons)—

(b) the dutiable property has been re-transferred to the mortgagor (or a person to whom the land has been transmitted by death or bankruptcy) and the mortgagor (or person) is the registered proprietor of the land—

the Commissioner must refund the ad valorem duty paid on the transfer less the amount of duty that would have been payable on a mortgage under Chapter 7 (Mortgages).

(3) For the purposes of this section, a transfer by way of mortgage of land registered under the Transfer of Land Act 1958 means a transfer as a result of which the transferee becomes the registered proprietor of an estate in fee simple in the land but holds that estate, as against the transferor, by way of security.

CHAPTER 3
CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS TREATED AS TRANSFERS

PART 1—INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

70. Introduction and overview

This Chapter charges duty on certain transactions that are not dutiable transactions under Chapter 2.
PART 2—ACQUISITION OF INTERESTS IN CERTAIN LANDHOLDERS

Division 1—Land-rich Private Corporations

71. Meaning of "private corporation"

A private company or private unit trust scheme is, for the purposes of this Part, a "private corporation".

72. When is a private corporation "land-rich"?

(1) A private corporation is "land-rich" if—

(a) it has land holdings in Victoria whose unencumbered value is $1 000 000 or more; and

(b) its land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, comprise 80% or more of the unencumbered value of all its property.

(2) In calculating the unencumbered value of the property of a private corporation for the purposes of this section, property of any of the following kinds is not counted—

(a) cash, whether in Australian or other currency;

(b) money on deposit with an authorised deposit-taking institution (within the meaning of the Banking Act 1959 of the Commonwealth), negotiable instruments or debt securities;

(c) loans that, according to their terms, are to be repaid on demand by the lender or within 12 months after the date of the loan;
(d) if the private corporation concerned is a private company, loans to persons who, in relation to the company or to a majority shareholder or director of the company, are associated persons;

(e) if the private corporation concerned is a private unit trust scheme, loans to persons who, in relation to a trustee or beneficiary of the scheme, are associated persons;

(f) prescribed property—

unless the Commissioner, being satisfied that the property concerned was not acquired solely or mainly for the purpose of avoiding duty under this Part, notifies the private corporation concerned that the property will be counted for the purposes of such a calculation.

(3) In addition to the property that is not to be counted under sub-section (2), property is not to be counted in calculating the unencumbered value of all of the property of a private corporation for the purposes of this section if the private corporation is unable to satisfy the Commissioner that the property was obtained otherwise than to reduce, for the purposes of this Division, the ratio of its land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, to the unencumbered value of all its property.

(4) In determining whether or not a private corporation is land-rich for the purposes of an acquisition of an interest in that corporation by a person from a lineal ancestor or lineal descendant of that person, the land holdings of the corporation are taken for the purpose of sub-section (1)(b) not to include land held by the corporation that is primarily used for primary production.

73. Land holdings of private corporations

(1) For the purposes of this Part, a "land holding" is any interest in land other than the estate or interest of a mortgagee, chargee or other secured creditor or a profit à prendre. An interest in land, however—

(a) is not a land holding of a private company unless the interest of the private company in the land is a beneficial interest; and

(b) is not a land holding of a unit trust scheme unless the interest is held by the trustees in their capacity as trustees of the scheme.

(2) This section is in aid of, but does not limit, the operation of any provision of this Part providing for constructive ownership of interests.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, the vendor and the purchaser under an uncompleted agreement for the sale of land are taken to be separately entitled to the whole of the land.

74. Constructive ownership of land holdings and other property: subsidiaries

(1) In addition to any interest in land or other property that it may hold in its own right, a private corporation is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to hold an interest (the value of which, for duty purposes, is to be calculated in accordance with sub-section (2)) in land or other property held by a subsidiary of the private corporation.

(2) The value, for duty purposes, of the interest in land or other property that a private corporation is taken, by the operation of sub-section (1), to hold by virtue of a holding of a subsidiary ("the actual landholder") is that portion of the land or other property’s unencumbered value to which the private corporation would be entitled on a winding-up of—

(a) the actual landholder; and

(b) every subsidiary of the private corporation that stands between the private corporation and the actual landholder in the ownership chain.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, a private company ("Company A") is the subsidiary of another private company ("Company B") if Company A is a subsidiary, within the meaning of the Corporations Law, of Company B.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, a private company is the subsidiary of a unit trust scheme if the trustees of the scheme, in their capacities as trustees of the scheme, have a majority interest in the private company.

(5) For the purposes of this Part, a unit trust scheme is the subsidiary of a private corporation if the corporation has a majority interest in the scheme.

75. Constructive ownership of land holdings and other property: discretionary trusts

(1) A person or a member of a class of persons in whose favour, by the terms of a discretionary trust, capital the subject of the trust may be applied—

(a) in the event of the exercise of a power or discretion in favour of the person or class; or

(b) in the event that a discretion conferred under the trust is not exercised—is, for the purposes of this section, a beneficiary of the trust.

(2) A beneficiary of a discretionary trust is taken to own or to be otherwise entitled to the property the subject of the trust, unless the Commissioner, being satisfied that the application of this sub-section in the particular case would be inequitable, determines otherwise.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, any property that is the subject of a discretionary trust is taken to be the subject of any other discretionary trust—

(a) that is; or

(b) any trustee of which (in the capacity of trustee) is—a beneficiary of it, unless the Commissioner, being satisfied that the application of this sub-section in the particular case would be inequitable, determines otherwise.

(4) Sub-section (3) extends to apply to property that is the subject of a discretionary trust only by the operation of that sub-section.

(5) In this section, "person" includes a private corporation.

Division 2—Acquisitions of Interests in Private Corporations

76. What are "interests" and "majority interests" in private corporations?

(1) A person has an interest in a private corporation if the person has an entitlement (otherwise than as a creditor or other person to whom the corporation is liable) to a distribution of property from the corporation on a winding up of the corporation or otherwise.

(2) A person who, by virtue of sub-section (1), has an interest in a private corporation has a majority interest in the corporation if the person, in the event of a distribution of all the property of the corporation immediately after the interest was acquired, would be entitled to more than 50% of the property distributed.

(3) An interest in a private corporation is not counted for the purposes of this section if—

(a) the interest concerned is an interest in a private company acquired before 15 November 1987 or acquired on or after that date as the result of an agreement entered into before that date; or

(b) the interest concerned was acquired at a time when the private corporation did not hold land in Victoria.

(4) In this section, "person" includes a private corporation.

77. How may an interest be acquired?

For the purposes of this Part, an interest in a land-rich private corporation may be acquired by means of—

(a) the purchase, gift, allotment or transfer of any share or unit in a private corporation; or

(b) the variation, abrogation or alteration of a right attaching to any such share or unit; or

(c) the redemption, surrendering or cancellation of any such share or unit—or by any combination of the means referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c).

Division 3—Charging of Duty

78. When does a liability for duty arise?
A liability for duty charged by this Part arises when a relevant acquisition is made.

79. What is a "relevant acquisition"?

For the purposes of this Division, a person who—

(a) acquires an interest in a land-rich private corporation—

(i) that is of itself a majority interest in the corporation; or

(ii) that, when aggregated with other interests in the corporation held by the person or an associated person, results in an aggregation that amounts to a majority interest in the corporation; or

(b) having a majority interest, or an interest described in paragraph (a)(ii), in a land-rich private corporation, acquires a further interest in the corporation—has made a relevant acquisition.

80. Acquisition statements

(1) A person who has made a relevant acquisition must prepare an acquisition statement and lodge it with the Commissioner.

(2) The acquisition statement must contain the following information—

(a) the name and address of the person who has acquired the interest;

(b) the date of the relevant acquisition;

(c) particulars of the interest acquired;

(d) particulars of the total interest of the person and any associated person in the private corporation at that date;
(e) the unencumbered value of all land holdings in Victoria of the private corporation as at the date of the relevant acquisition and as at the date of acquisition of each interest acquired in the corporation during the 3 years prior to the date of the relevant acquisition;

(f) the unencumbered value of the property of the private corporation at the date of the relevant acquisition;

(g) the amount of duty paid under this Act or under a law of another Australian jurisdiction in respect of each earlier acquisition of an interest referred to in paragraph (e);

(h) any other information the Commissioner requires for the purposes of this Chapter.

81. When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1997 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

82. Who is liable to pay the duty?

(1) Duty chargeable under this Part is payable by the person who makes the relevant acquisition, except as provided by sub-section (2).

(2) If a relevant acquisition results from an aggregation of the interests of associated persons, the person who made the relevant acquisition and the associated person or persons are jointly and severally liable for payment of the duty.

83. How duty is charged on relevant acquisitions

(1) If an acquisition statement does not disclose any acquisitions during the 3 years preceding the relevant acquisition, duty is chargeable, at the rate specified under this Act for a transfer of dutiable property, on the amount calculated by multiplying the unencumbered value of all land holdings of the private corporation in Victoria (calculated at the date of acquisition of the interest acquired) by the proportion of that value represented by the interest acquired in the relevant acquisition.

(2) If an acquisition statement discloses one or more acquisitions during the 3 years preceding the relevant acquisition, duty is chargeable, at the rate specified under this Act for a transfer of dutiable property, on the aggregate of amounts severally calculated, in the manner provided by subsection (1), in respect of each interest required to be disclosed in the statement.

(3) Duty payable under this section is to be reduced by the sum of the duty paid or payable under this Act in respect of the acquisition, during the 3 years preceding the relevant acquisition, by the person or any associated person of an interest in the same private corporation, but only in proportion to the extent to which the duty paid or payable is attributable to the amount of the duty payable under this section.

(4) Duty payable under this section is to be reduced by an amount (if any) calculated in accordance with the following formula—

\frac{A}{B} \times C

where—

A is the unencumbered value of the land holdings in Victoria of the private corporation at the time the dutiable acquisition was made; and
B is the unencumbered value of all property of the private corporation at that time; and

C is the sum of—

(a) the duty under this Act paid or payable in respect of—
   (i) a dutiable transaction in relation to the shares or units; or
   (ii) a capital reduction or a rights alteration under Part 3 by which an interest in the private corporation was acquired; or
   (iii) an allotment under Part 4 by which an interest in the private corporation was acquired; and

(b) any duty of a like nature so paid or payable under a law of another State or of a Territory.

(5) If a relevant acquisition is made owing to the aggregation of the interests of associated persons, but the Commissioner is satisfied that the associated persons acquired their respective interests independently and for no common purpose, the Commissioner may assess and charge duty on the relevant acquisition without aggregating the interests of the person who made it with the interests of associated persons.

(6) This section is subject to section 87, the other provisions of Division 4 and clause 6 in Schedule 1.

Division 4—General and Supplemental

84. Exempt acquisitions
(1) An acquisition by a person of an interest in a private corporation is an exempt acquisition—

(a) if the land the subject of the interest concerned could have been acquired by the person in a manner that does not result in a liability to pay ad valorem duty under Chapter 2; or

(b) if the interest was acquired in the person's capacity as—

(i) a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy; or

(ii) a liquidator; or

(iii) an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person; or

(c) if the interest was acquired solely as the result of the making of a compromise or arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Law that has been approved by the court, not being a compromise or arrangement that the Commissioner is satisfied was made with the intention of defeating the operation of this Chapter; or

(d) if the interest concerned is acquired solely from a pro rata increase in the interests of all shareholders or unitholders.

(2) An acquisition by a person of an interest in a private corporation is an exempt acquisition if the Commissioner, being satisfied that the application of this Part to the acquisition in the particular case would not be just and reasonable, so determines.

85. Maximisation of entitlements on distribution of property

(1) This section applies to any calculation, for the purposes of this Part (other than section 74), of the entitlement of a person ("the interested person") to participate in a distribution of the property of a private corporation, whether on a winding up of the private corporation or otherwise.

(2) A calculation is to be made based, firstly, on a distribution carried out in accordance with the constitution of the private corporation, and with any law relevant to the distribution, as in force at the time of distribution, and the entitlement of the interested person is to be evaluated accordingly.

(3) Next, a calculation is to be made based on a distribution carried out after the interested person, and any other person whom the interested person has power to direct with respect to such a distribution or who is, in relation to the interested person, an associated person, had exercised all powers and discretions exercisable by them by reason of having acquired an interest in the private corporation concerned—

(a) to effect or compel an alteration to the constitution of the private corporation; and

(b) to vary the rights conferred by shares or units in the private corporation; and

(c) to effect or compel the substitution or replacement of shares or units in the private corporation with other shares or units in it—in such a manner as would maximise the value of the entitlement, and the entitlement of the interested person is to be evaluated accordingly.

(4) The results obtained by an evaluation of the interested person's entitlement in accordance with sub-sections (2) and (3) are then to be compared, and whichever evaluation results in a greater entitlement is the correct evaluation, for the purposes of this Part, of the entitlement, unless the Commissioner, being satisfied that the application of this sub-section in the particular case would be inequitable, determines otherwise.

86. Valuation of property

(1) The provisions of this Act that apply to the ascertainment of the value of transfers chargeable with ad valorem duty apply in the same way to an acquisition statement under this Part and the value of land holdings mentioned in it.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, in determining the amount for which property might reasonably have been sold free from encumbrances, there must be disregarded, subject to sub-section (3), any interest, agreement or arrangement (other than an encumbrance) granted or made in respect of the property that has the effect of reducing the value of the property.

(3) An interest, agreement or arrangement referred to in sub-section (2) is not to be disregarded if the Commissioner is satisfied that it was not granted or made as a part of an arrangement or scheme with a collateral purpose of reducing the duty otherwise payable on the transfer of the property.

(4) In considering whether or not he or she is satisfied for the purposes of sub-section (3), the Commissioner may have regard to—

(a) the duration of the interest, agreement or arrangement before the transfer of the property; and

(b) whether the interest, agreement or arrangement has been granted to or made with an associate, a related corporation or a trustee of the transferor or transferee; and
(c) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the granting of the interest or the making of the agreement or arrangement other than to reduce duty; and

(d) any other matters he or she considers relevant.

87. Phasing-in of duty

If the unencumbered value of land holdings in Victoria of a private corporation exceeds $1 million but does not exceed $1·5 million, the duty chargeable under this Part is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula—

\left( \frac{A - 1,000,000}{500,000} \right) \times B + \left( 1 - \left( \frac{A - 1,000,000}{500,000} \right) \right) \times C

where—

A is the unencumbered value of the land holdings in Victoria of the private corporation at the time the relevant acquisition was made; and

B is the duty that, apart from this section, would be chargeable under this Part; and

C is the duty that would have been payable under Chapter 2 on the dutiable value of the shares or units comprised in the relevant acquisition had those shares or units been transferred at the time of the relevant acquisition.

88. Agreements for sale or transfer of land

(1) If—

(a) at the time of acquisition of an interest by any person in a land-rich private corporation that necessitates the lodgement of an acquisition statement under Division 3, the corporation was the vendor under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of land; and

(b) the agreement is subsequently completed—
the Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the land the subject of the agreement was not, at the time of the acquisition concerned, a land holding of the corporation.

(2) If—

(a) at the time of acquisition of an interest by any person in a land-rich private corporation that requires the lodgement by any person of an acquisition statement under Division 3, the private corporation was the purchaser under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of land; and

(b) the agreement is subsequently rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without completion—
the Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the land the subject of the agreement was not, at the time of the acquisition concerned, a land holding of the corporation.

(3) In this section—

"land rich private corporation" includes a subsidiary of the corporation.

89. Duty concessions—acquisitions securing financial accommodation

(1) If the person lodging an acquisition statement under this Part in relation to the acquisition of an interest in a land-rich private corporation—

(a) informs the Commissioner at the time the statement is lodged that the acquisition is
Duties Act 2000
Act No. 79/2000

s. 89

effected for the purpose of securing financial accommodation; and

(b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the acquisition is effected for that purpose—

the statement, in so far as it relates to that acquisition, is not chargeable with duty, except as provided by sub-section (2).

(2) The statement is chargeable with duty at the expiration of the period of 5 years after the date of the acquisition (or the longer period determined by the Commissioner in the particular case) if the interest concerned is not—

(a) re-acquired by the person from whom it was acquired; or

(b) in the case of an acquisition by way of mortgage, conveyed by the mortgagee to a third person in exercise of the mortgagee's power of sale—

within that period (or that longer period).

(3) Section 80 does not apply to the re-acquisition by a person of the interest concerned.

(3) If, by sub-section (2), an entitlement to voting shares is taken to exist as the aggregate of voting shares of associated persons, the associated persons are jointly and severally liable for payment of the duty chargeable on the statement required to be lodged under this Part.

(4) Voting shares are not to be aggregated in accordance with sub-section (2) if the Commissioner is satisfied that the associated persons concerned acquired their several shares independently and for no common purpose.

91. When does a liability for duty arise?

A liability for duty charged by this Part arises when a dutiable entitlement is acquired.

92. When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1997 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

93. Who is liable to pay the duty?

Duty chargeable under this Part is payable by the person who acquires a dutiable entitlement.

94. Entitlement to voting shares arising from capital reduction or rights alteration
(1) If—

(b) a person who is entitled to at least 50% of the voting shares of a company becomes entitled to at least 10% more of the voting shares over a period of not more than 12 months by means of capital reduction or rights alteration, or both—the person must lodge a statement with the Commissioner in respect of the entitlement.

(2) The statement must be lodged within 3 months after the entitlement arises.

(ii) from rights alteration—the total of the unencumbered value, immediately prior to each relevant rights alteration, of the shares the subject of the rights alteration; or

(iii) from capital reduction and rights alteration—the aggregate of the totals under sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii);

(e) the total consideration paid to the person in relation to all relevant capital reductions or rights alterations, or both;

(f) any other information required by the Commissioner for the purposes of this Chapter.

96. Assessment of duty

A statement required to be lodged under this Part by a person is chargeable with duty at the rate of 60 cents for every $100, or part, of the higher of—

(a) the total or aggregate obtained under section 95(d); and

(b) the total amount under section 95(e).
PART 4—ALLOTMENT OF SHARES BY DIRECTION

97. Application of Part

(1) This Part applies to an allotment of shares to any person by a Victorian company at another person's direction, in discharge of an obligation to that other person, whether that obligation arises as consideration for the purchase of property by the company or otherwise.

(2) This Part does not apply to—

(a) an allotment of shares by a Victorian company that is listed on the Australian Stock Exchange or a recognised stock exchange;

(b) an allotment of shares at another person's direction if the direction is given by the underwriter in any contract for underwriting shares upon the first issue of the shares by the company.

98. When does a liability for duty arise?

A liability for duty charged by this Part arises when the relevant shares are allotted.

99. When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1997 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

100. Who is liable to pay the duty?

Duty chargeable under this Part is payable by the person to whom the relevant shares are allotted.
101. Acquisition of shares by allotment

(1) A person to whom any shares are allotted in an allotment to which this Part applies must lodge a statement with the Commissioner in respect of the allotment.

(2) The statement must be lodged within 3 months after the shares are allotted.

102. Allotment statement

An allotment statement required to be lodged by a person is to contain the following information—

(a) the name and address of the person;

(b) the name of the relevant company;

(c) the date on which the shares were allotted to the person;

CHAPTER 4
FINANCIAL SECTOR (TRANSFERS OF BUSINESS)

104. Imposition of duty

This Chapter charges duty in respect of the transfer of dutiable property to a receiving body under Part 3 of the Financial Sector (Transfers of Business) Act 1999 of the Commonwealth.

105. When does a liability for duty arise?

A liability for duty charged by the Chapter arises when the dutiable property becomes the property of the receiving body.

106. Who is liable to pay the duty?

Duty chargeable under this Chapter is payable by the receiving body.

107. Statement on transfer of property

(1) A receiving body to whom dutiable property is transferred under Part 3 of the Financial Sector (Transfers of Business) Act 1999 of the Commonwealth must lodge a statement with the Commissioner.

(2) The statement must specify the dutiable property transferred and the dutiable value of the dutiable property at the time it becomes the property of the receiving body.

(3) The statement must be lodged within 3 months after the dutiable property becomes the property of the receiving body.

108. Assessment of duty

A statement required to be lodged under this Chapter by a receiving body is chargeable with duty at the rate of duty set out in section 28 or 29, as the case requires, on the dutiable value of the property as if the transfer of the dutiable property to the receiving body were a dutiable transaction.

109. Exemption

Duty is not chargeable under this Chapter in respect of a transfer of dutiable property if the transfer is of a class that, under guidelines approved for the time being by the Minister, is a class of transfer in respect of which duty is not chargeable.
CHAPTER 5
LEASE INSTRUMENTS

PART 1—INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

110. Imposition of duty
This Chapter charges duty on a lease instrument, being an instrument that effects a lease (as defined in section 111).

111. What is a "lease"?
"Lease" means—
(a) a lease of land in Victoria or an agreement for a lease of land in Victoria; or
(b) an assignment of such a lease or agreement—
but does not include—
(c) a clause in a mortgage providing for attornment by a mortgagor; or
(d) a clause in a contract of sale providing for attornment by a purchaser under the contract.

112. How duty is charged on a lease instrument
Duty is chargeable on a lease instrument at the rates set out in this Chapter, on—
(a) the cost of the lease; and
(b) the additional cost of the lease resulting from any variation of the lease—
as determined in accordance with this Chapter.
113. What is the cost of a lease?

(1) The cost of a lease is the aggregate of the following—

(a) the rent paid or payable during the term of the lease or in advance of the lease and any amount paid or payable for the right to use the land under the lease;

(b) any premium paid or payable for the lease;

(c) any royalties payable under the lease, including royalties for the right to enter onto and remove something from the land.

(2) "Rent" includes any payment under the lease expressed to be rent.

114. Who is liable to pay the duty?

(1) The person liable to pay the duty is the lessee.

(2) "Lessee" includes any assignee for the time being of the rights of the lessee under the lease.

115. When must the duty be paid?

(1) A lease instrument becomes liable to duty on the date of first execution.

(2) A lease instrument also becomes liable to duty on the making of a variation to the lease that increases the cost of the lease, being duty chargeable on the amount of additional cost resulting from the variation.

(3) Duty must be paid to the Commissioner within 3 months after the lease instrument becomes liable to duty, except as otherwise provided by this Chapter.
PART 2—RATES OF DUTY

116. General rate

The rate of duty is 60 cents per $100 (or remaining part of $100)—

(a) of the total cost of the lease, except as otherwise provided by this Chapter; or

(b) in the case of an assignment, on the annual rent payable under the lease as at the date of assignment.

117. Subsequent lease instruments

A lease instrument made subsequently to and in conformity with a lease instrument for which ad valorem duty under this Chapter has been paid is not chargeable with duty under this Chapter.
PART 3—UNASCERTAINABLE LEASE COSTS

118. Operation of Part

(1) The object of this Part is to enable an unascertainable component of the cost of a lease to be determined as a definite sum for duty assessment purposes.

(2) The amount of a cost component of a lease is unascertainable if it cannot, at the time duty is liable to be paid in respect of it, be ascertained as a definite sum (so that, consequently, the total cost of the lease over its whole term cannot at that time be so ascertained).

(3) Cost components whose amounts are partly unascertainable are to be dealt with under section 119 or 120. Cost components whose amounts are wholly unascertainable are to be dealt with under section 121(2).

119. Estimate and subsequent adjustment

(1) This section applies in order to determine as a definite sum any unascertainable cost components of a lease, except where the Commissioner and the lessee agree that section 120 should apply instead.

(2) The Commissioner is to make an initial estimate of the cost of the lease.

(3) The initial estimate is to be the sum of—

(a) the amount of each cost component payable in the course of the lease, so far as it is ascertained; and

(b) in respect of any interval in the term of the lease in which the amount of a cost component, although unascertainable, is subject to a certain minimum rate—the amount of the cost component that would be paid if it were payable at that minimum rate; and

(c) in respect of any interval in the term of the lease in which the amount of a cost component is unascertainable and to which paragraph (b) cannot be applied—the amount of the cost component that would be paid during the interval if it were payable at the highest certain rate prevailing immediately before the commencement of the interval.

(4) Following the initial estimate, duty is to be paid to the Commissioner on the cost of the lease determined on the basis of an estimate under this section of the relevant unascertainable cost components.

(5) Periodic estimates are to be made, at the dates ("estimate dates") that the Commissioner, having regard to the provisions of the lease, determines, of the amount of any cost components dealt with under this section payable during the term of the lease, and periodic adjustments of duty are to be made accordingly. A periodic estimate and a periodic assessment of duty may be made more than 3 years after the initial estimate.

(6) Within one month after each estimate date, the lessee must produce to the Commissioner a duly stamped part of the lease instrument and a statutory declaration stating—

(a) the amount of each cost component dealt with under this section that was paid between the initial estimate date or the last previous estimate, as the case may be, and the date of the current estimate; and
(b) the rate at which that cost component is payable as at the date of the current estimate.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

(7) If the amount of a cost component actually paid during a period between estimation dates is higher than the estimated amount so payable for that period, the Commissioner may make a reassessment of duty in respect of the lease for that period and the balance of the term of the lease, and the lessee must, within 3 months after the date of issue of the notice of assessment, pay any additional duty assessed.

(8) If the amount of a cost component actually paid during a period between estimation dates is lower than the estimated amount so payable for that period, the Commissioner must, after the lessee has complied with sub-section (6), make a refund to the lessee of duty overpaid.

120. CPI method

(1) This section applies, if the Commissioner and the lessee agree to apply it, in order to determine as a definite sum any unascertainable amounts of any particular cost component of a lease.

(2) The amount of the relevant cost component payable during any interval of the term of the lease for which it cannot be ascertained is taken to be payable at an annual rate ascertained by compounding the rate at which it is payable during the first year of the lease by the annual percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index last issued before the commencement of the lease.

(3) If the rate at which the cost component is payable is unascertainable for a part of the first year, the rate for that year is to be calculated in accordance with section 119(3)(b) and (c).
Duties Act 2000
Act No. 79/2000

(4) In this section, "Consumer Price Index" means the number appearing in the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Melbourne published under the Census and Statistics Act 1905 of the Commonwealth.
PART 4—MISCELLANEOUS

121. Interim stamping of lease instrument

(1) A lease instrument on which duty is assessed under section 119 is to be marked "interim stamp only".

(2) Section 30 applies to a lease instrument marked "interim stamp only" in the same way as it applies to a written instrument or written statement referred to in that section marked "interim stamp only".

122. Reassessment of duty—early termination

(1) A lessee may apply in writing to the Commissioner for a reassessment of duty paid on a lease instrument if the lease is terminated before the end of its term. The means by which the lease was terminated is immaterial.

(2) The application must be made within 3 years after the termination and must be supported by the documents and information specified by the Commissioner.

(3) The Commissioner—

(a) if satisfied that the lease has been terminated before the commencement of the term, must refund the whole of the duty paid; or

(b) if satisfied that the lease has been terminated early, must refund the difference between the duty actually paid and the duty that would have been payable if the lease had been granted for a term equal to the period for which the lease actually remained in force before termination.

(4) Nothing in the Taxation Administration Act 1997 affects the operation of this section.
123. Reassessment of duty—reduction of cost

(1) A lessee may apply in writing to the Commissioner for a reassessment of duty paid on a lease instrument if the lease is subsequently varied so as to reduce the total cost of the lease.

(2) The application must be made within 3 years after the initial assessment or 12 months after the variation, whichever is the later, and must be supported by the documents and information specified by the Commissioner.

(3) The Commissioner, if satisfied that the lease has been varied so as to reduce the total cost of the lease, must refund the difference between the duty actually paid and the duty that would have been payable if the lease had been granted on the terms as so varied.

(4) Nothing in the Taxation Administration Act 1997 affects the operation of this section.

124. Exemptions

(1) A lease instrument for any of the following leases is not chargeable with duty under this Chapter—

(a) a mining lease; or

(b) a lease granted or assigned to—

   (i) the Crown in right of Victoria; or

   (ii) the Minister administering the Crown Land (Reserves) Act 1978; or

(viii) the Western Metropolitan Market Trust; or

(ix) an authority within the meaning of the Water Act 1989; or

(x) a person on behalf of any of the above persons; or

(c) a lease granted or assigned—

(i) for a religious, charitable or educational purpose; or

(ii) to a corporation or body of persons established for a religious, charitable or educational purpose; or

(iii) to a friendly society; or

(d) a lease granted or assigned to—

(i) the representative in Australia of the government of another country; or

(ii) a foreign consul; or

(iii) a trade commissioner of any part of the British Commonwealth; or

(e) a lease assigned under and in conformity with the trusts contained in the will of a deceased person or arising on an intestacy; or
(f) a lease under the Land Act 1958 or any other enactment in respect of which a Crown grant in fee simple is by law directed or authorised to be made to the lessee on payment of all amounts (whether referred to as rent or otherwise) reserved by the lease and on compliance with the other covenants of the lease; or

(g) a lease assigned by a company to a shareholder in the course of a distribution of assets of the company because of the winding up of the company or of the reduction of the capital of the company; or

(h) a lease or assignment of lease of land for use only as a private dwelling.

(2) No duty is chargeable under this Chapter in respect of—

(a) a sub-lease or assignment of lease made by any person as security; or

(b) a re-assignment of the lease to that person.

(3) In this section, "mining lease" includes any agreement for the right to enter on or occupy and use land for mining purposes.
CHAPTER 6
HIRE OF GOODS

PART 1—INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

125. Imposition of duty

This Chapter charges duty on the hire of goods if the person hiring out the goods is a commercial hire business.

126. What is a commercial hire business?

(1) A "commercial hire business" is a person who hires out goods as a business.

(2) It is immaterial whether or not the hiring out of the goods is the principal business or is ancillary to some other form of business, and whether or not any such principal or ancillary business is carried on wholly or partly outside Victoria.

127. Hire of goods to which this Chapter applies—jurisdictional nexus

(1) This Chapter applies to the hire of goods only if the goods are used solely or predominantly in Victoria during any return period in respect of which a liability to duty is required to be determined.

(2) A motor vehicle, however—

(a) if it is the subject of an equipment financing arrangement, is taken to be used, at all times in the course of that arrangement, in the State or Territory under whose law it is registered; and

(b) if it is not the subject of an equipment financing arrangement but is hired, is taken to be used at all times in the course of the
Duties Act 2000
Act No. 79/2000

hire (unless it becomes the subject of an equipment financing arrangement), in the State or Territory in which the motor vehicle is initially delivered under the hire.

(3) If goods hired under a hire of goods are not used or to be used solely or predominantly in any particular State or Territory, the goods are taken to be predominantly used or to be used in Victoria if, under the hire of goods, the goods are initially delivered in Victoria.

(4) For the purposes of this section, goods are predominantly used or to be used in Victoria if they are used or to be used more in Victoria than in any other single State or Territory.

128. What are "goods"?

For the purposes of this Chapter, "goods" includes all chattels personal and fixtures severable from realty, but does not include money, livestock or things in action.

129. What is a "hire of goods"?

(1) A "hire of goods" is an arrangement under which goods are or may be used at any time by a person other than the person hiring out the goods, unless the arrangement is excluded under section 132.

(2) There are 2 kinds of hire of goods, namely—

(a) an equipment financing arrangement; and

(b) an ordinary (that is, any other) hire of goods.

130. What is an "equipment financing arrangement"?

(1) An "equipment financing arrangement" is a hire of goods that consists of—

(a) a hire purchase agreement; or

(b) some other agreement for a term of not less than 9 months.
(2) A "hire purchase agreement" is a letting of goods with an option to purchase and an agreement for the purchase of goods by instalments (whether the agreement describes the instalments as rent or hire or otherwise), but does not include any agreement by which the property in the goods comprised in the agreement passes at the time of the agreement or on or at any time before the delivery of the goods.

131. What form may a hire of goods take?

A hire of goods may take any form. It is immaterial whether or not a hire of goods is effected or evidenced by an instrument in writing.

132. Exclusions from the definition of "hire of goods"

A hire of goods does not include any of the following—

(a) an arrangement that gives a person a right to use goods that is conferred incidentally with a lease of, or a licence to occupy or use, land if—

(i) there is no apportionment of consideration between the right to use the goods and the right to occupy or use the land; and

(ii) duty is chargeable under Chapter 5 (Lease instruments) in respect of the lease;

(b) an arrangement for the hire of an aircraft, ship or vessel, or for the hire of an engine or other component part of an aircraft, ship or vessel;

(c) an arrangement for the provision of goods to a trader for the purpose of displaying or demonstrating the goods pending their sale or hire to a third party;
(d) an arrangement comprising a "wet hire" (that is, an arrangement under which an operator is provided by or at the direction of the person hiring out the goods to operate the goods for the hirer);

(e) an arrangement for the use of goods the provision of which is incidental and ancillary to the provision of a service if the provision of the goods is solely to enable the contractual provision of the service;

(f) an arrangement made between related bodies corporate;

(g) an arrangement under which a motor vehicle is subleased by an employee to an employer in connection with the employee's remuneration or other employment benefits;

(h) an arrangement for the use, by a person who is partially or totally incapacitated, of an invalid aid or prosthetic device or of any similar aid, device or appliance;

(i) a credit contract within the meaning of the Consumer Credit (Victoria) Code under which the amount of credit does not exceed $35 000;

(j) a hire purchase agreement relating to the use of farm machinery or a commercial vehicle where the purchaser is a natural person;

(k) an arrangement relating to the use of—

(i) a book; or

(ii) an electricity, gas or water meter; or
133. Special hiring agreements

A "special hiring agreement" is a written agreement for the hire of goods—

(a) that describes the goods in such a way (for example, by reference to the make and model of each item) as to enable the nature or character of the goods to be clearly and readily identified, including the number of items; and

(b) that does not include—

(i) an agreement under which the goods may, at any time, be replaced in whole or in part by other goods, except to the extent that the agreement allows replacement if the goods—

(A) are lost, destroyed or stolen; or

(B) fail or malfunction in the normal course of operation or use; or

(C) are temporarily replaced during the servicing, maintenance or repair of the goods; or

(D) are otherwise not fit for the purpose for which they are hired; or

(ii) an agreement under which other goods, whether of the same or a different type, may be additionally provided.

134. What is the rate of duty?

(1) The duty chargeable on a hire of goods is 0·75% of the total amount of the hiring charges.
(2) The maximum amount of duty chargeable in respect of a special hiring agreement is $10,000.

135. What are "hiring charges"?

(1) "Hiring charges" are payments made to the person who hires out the goods by or on behalf of the hirer, for (or that arise as an incident of) the hire of the goods.

(2) The following charges are included as hiring charges—

(a) payments for damage waiver or for damage excess;

(b) late return fees.

136. Payments exempted from "hiring charges"

(1) The following charges are not included as hiring charges—

(a) payments for delivery, repositioning, erection, installation, maintenance or cleaning of the goods;

(b) refundable cash deposits or bonds (unless appropriated as hiring charges);

(c) insurance premiums payable by the hirer;

(d) duty paid or payable under this Act or a corresponding Act;

(e) payments for the sale of goods (such as fuel, replacement parts or theft replacement);

(f) any GST payable on the supply to which the hire of goods relates;

(g) any payment of a type prescribed by the regulations.

(2) No duty is chargeable under this Chapter on a payment by the hirer under a hire of goods if title to the goods passes to the hirer as a consequence of the payment.

137. Credit for duty paid in another Australian jurisdiction

(1) The duty chargeable under this Chapter on a hire of goods is to be reduced by the amount of duty paid on the hire under a corresponding Act that charges duty at a rate that equals or exceeds the rate referred to in section 134.

(2) Despite sub-section (1), the duty on a special hiring agreement that is chargeable with the maximum amount of duty of $10 000 cannot be reduced below $6000.

138. Splitting or redirection of hiring charges (anti-avoidance provision)

The Commissioner may include, as part of the amount received as hiring charges, any of the following—

(a) any payments under the arrangement that are not hiring charges, including charges referred to in section 136, that the Commissioner is satisfied have been increased for the purpose of minimising duty under this Chapter;

(b) any payments that would be hiring charges except for the fact that they are paid to a person other than the person who hires out the goods.

139. Ascertainment and disclosure of place of use of goods

(1) A person who hires out goods may, in determining the person's liability to duty, rely on a statement of the hirer as to where the goods will be solely or predominantly used in the course of the hire or, in the case of an unregistered motor vehicle, where the motor vehicle will be registered during the course of the hire, unless the person knows that the statement is false.

(2) A person who hires out goods is not bound to inquire as to any change in the place of use of the goods or, in the case of a motor vehicle, the place of its registration.

(3) If goods are solely or predominantly used or, in the case of a motor vehicle, are registered in a place other than the place advised by the hirer in a statement referred to in sub-section (1), the Commissioner may assess or reassess the duty payable according to the actual place of sole or predominant use of the goods or, in the case of a motor vehicle, the place of its registration.

(4) A failure to pay duty on the hire of goods by a person who hires out the goods in due reliance on a statement referred to in sub-section (1), is not a tax default for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1997, if the duty is paid within 3 months after the issue of a notice of assessment of the duty.

(5) A hirer who knowingly falsely represents to the person who hires out goods (or to any person acting for that person) that the goods will be used solely or predominantly outside Victoria is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.
PART 2—REGISTRATION OF COMMERCIAL HIRE BUSINESSES AND PAYMENT OF DUTY

140. Commercial hire businesses must be registered

(1) A commercial hire business must be registered under this Part if, in any month, the total amount of the hiring charges received in the month exceeds $6000.

(2) An application for registration must be made within 21 days after the end of the month in which the $6000 threshold is first exceeded.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

141. Registration of commercial hire businesses

(1) The Commissioner must register a commercial hire business that applies in the approved form for registration under this Part.

(2) The Commissioner may register a commercial hire business that has not applied for registration.

(3) The Commissioner must give written notice to the commercial hire business of the registration.

142. Cancellation of registration of commercial hire business

(1) A registered commercial hire business that ceases to hire out goods as a business must—

(a) give written notice of that fact to the Commissioner; and

(b) lodge the return required to be lodged under this Part; and

(c) pay the duty payable in connection with the return on or before the 21st day of the month after which the notice is given.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.
(2) The Commissioner is to cancel the registration of a commercial hire business on receipt of a notice under sub-section (1).

(3) The Commissioner may cancel a commercial hire business's registration under this Part if the Commissioner has reason to believe that registration is no longer required by the commercial hire business. The registration must not be cancelled until at least 30 days after written notice of intention to cancel the registration has been given by the Commissioner to the commercial hire business.

(4) A cancellation of registration has effect from the day specified for the purpose by the Commissioner in a written notice of cancellation given to the commercial hire business.

143. Register of commercial hire businesses

(1) The Commissioner must keep a register of the commercial hire businesses who are registered under this Part.

(2) Anyone may inspect the register without charge at the Commissioner’s principal office during the hours that the office is open to the public.

144. Duty base

(1) Duty under this Chapter is to be assessed on the total amount of the hiring charges received in a month by the commercial hire business.

(2) The Commissioner may, however, by notice in writing approve a different basis of calculation of hiring charges if it appears to the Commissioner that duty payable on that basis will, over a period of time, approximate the duty payable in accordance with sub-section (1). An amount calculated under any method so approved is taken for duty purposes, while the approval remains in force, to be the amount of hiring charges received. Such an approval may be revoked by the Commissioner at any time by notice in writing to the commercial hire business concerned.
Act No. 79/2000

(3) A registered commercial hire business can, with the Commissioner's written consent, change the basis (as between a receipts basis and an approved basis) from month to month but it cannot change the basis within a month.

(4) If consent is given under sub-section (3), the Commissioner may assess or reassess the duty payable in any period prior to the change of basis to include any hiring charges that would not be accounted for, or to exclude any hiring charges that would be accounted for twice, because of the change of basis.

145. Lodgement of returns and payment of duty

(1) A commercial hire business must, on or before the 21st day of each month—

(a) lodge a return with the Commissioner; and

(b) pay to the Commissioner the appropriate amount of duty calculated in accordance with section 134 in respect of the previous month, subject to the duty-free threshold in sub-section (2).

(2) A duty-free threshold of $6000 per month applies in respect of hiring charges received from hires that are not special hiring agreements (that is, duty is payable only on such part of the total amount of those charges as exceeds $6000).

(3) The Commissioner may by notice in writing approve of the lodgement by a commercial hire business of returns in respect of a period of more than one month, and in such a case—
(a) the return must be lodged, and the duty paid, on or before the 21st day of the month following the last month to which the return relates; and

(b) the duty payable on the return is the sum of the duties payable on a monthly basis in accordance with this section for each month to which the return relates.

(4) A commercial hire business may elect to pay the duty payable on a special hiring agreement by lodging a statement under section 147. In that event, returns under this section in respect of the agreement are not necessary.

(5) If, in relation to a special hiring agreement—

(a) a commercial hire business makes an election under sub-section (4); and

(b) the special hiring agreement is terminated before the expiry of the term expressed in the agreement—the commercial hire business may request a reassessment of duty as if the duty had been paid on a return under this section.

146. Statement of special hiring agreement

(1) A commercial hire business may make out a written statement in respect of a special hiring agreement if the total amount of hiring charges paid or payable for the hire of the goods is not less than $10,000.

(2) The statement must include the following—

(a) the name and address of each party;

(b) a description of the goods;

(c) the commencement date and the term of the hire;
(d) the total of the hiring charges paid or payable over the term of the hire;
(e) the intervals at which the hiring charges are paid or payable.

(3) The statement must be made out not later than—

(a) the time when the commercial hire business receives the first (or only) payment of hiring charges; or

(b) the time when the hiring charges become payable—whichever first occurs.

147. Lodgement of statement and payment of duty

If a statement is made out in accordance with section 146, the commercial hire business must—

(a) lodge the statement with the Commissioner; and

(b) pay to the Commissioner the appropriate rate of duty calculated under section 134 in respect of hiring charges for the whole period of the hire—within 3 months after the statement is made out.

CHAPTER 7
MORTGAGES

PART 1—INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

148. Imposition of duty

This Chapter charges duty on instruments that are mortgages.

149. What is a "mortgage"?

For the purposes of this Chapter, an instrument is a "mortgage" if it is—

(a) a security by way of mortgage or charge over property wholly or partly in Victoria at the date referred to in section 152(1) or (2); or

(b) a security by way of a transfer of any property in Victoria held in trust to be sold or otherwise converted into money and redeemable before the sale or conversion, except if the transfer is for the benefit of creditors who accept it in full satisfaction of debts owed to them; or

(c) any transfer, assignment or disposition of any estate or interest in property that is apparently absolute but intended only as a security; or

(d) an instrument that, on the deposit of documents of title, authority to control title or a pledge to provide that control, to property in Victoria becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage.
150. What is an advance?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, an "advance" is the provision or obtaining of funds by way of financial accommodation by means of—

(a) a loan that is—

(i) an advance of money; or

(ii) the payment of money for or on account of, or on behalf of, or at the request of, any person; or

(iii) a forbearance to require the payment of money owing on any account; or

(iv) any transaction in any form that in substance effects a loan of money; or

(b) a bill facility that is one or more agreements, understandings or arrangements because of which a bill of exchange or promissory note—

(i) is drawn, accepted, endorsed or made; and

(ii) is held, negotiated or discounted to obtain funds—

whether or not the funds are obtained from the person who draws, accepts, endorses or makes the bill of exchange or promissory note or from a person who is a party to any such agreement, understanding or arrangement.

(2) An advance includes a contingent liability referred to in section 158.

151. Who is liable to pay the duty?

The person liable to pay mortgage duty is the mortgagor or the person who gives the mortgage.
152. When does a liability arise?

(1) A mortgage is liable to duty on the date of its first execution.

(2) A mortgage is liable to duty on the making of an advance or further advance by which the amount secured by the mortgage exceeds the amount secured by it at the date a liability to duty last arose in respect of it.

(3) An instrument of security that is not stamped and affects property in Victoria only after the date of first execution is liable for duty as a mortgage on the date on which it first affects the property unless it is stamped in another Australian jurisdiction.

(4) An instrument that, on the deposit of documents of title, authority to control title or a pledge to provide that control, to property in Victoria or instruments creating a charge on property in Victoria, becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage is liable to duty as a mortgage on the deposit of the documents or instruments or the provision of authority to control title or a pledge to provide such control.

153. When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1997 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

154. How is mortgage duty charged?

(1) The amount of duty chargeable on a mortgage is determined by the amount secured by it as calculated under Part 2.
(2) The amount of duty is—

(a) $4 if no amount is secured by the mortgage or if the amount secured is not more than $10 000; or

(b) if the amount secured by the mortgage exceeds $10 000, $4 for the first $10 000 and $0.80 for every $200, or part, by which the amount secured exceeds $10 000.

(3) The amount of duty chargeable on a mortgage in respect of an advance or further advance is—

(a) determined on the amount secured by it as calculated under Part 2; and

(b) the amount of duty applicable as provided in sub-section (2).

155. Consequences of non-payment of duty

(1) A mortgage over property wholly within Victoria on which duty is required to be paid under this Chapter is enforceable only to the extent of the amount secured by the mortgage on which duty has been paid under this Act.

(2) A mortgage over property partly within and partly outside Victoria on which duty is required to be paid under this Chapter and under a corresponding Act, is enforceable only with respect to the amount secured by the mortgage as calculated in accordance with the following formula—

\[ EA = DP \times \frac{AV + AC}{TA} \]

where—

EA is the amount secured in respect of which the mortgage is enforceable;
DP is the dutiable proportion of the amount secured calculated in accordance with section 159(2) and (3);

AV is that part of the total amount secured on which duty has been paid under this Chapter;

AC is that part of the total amount secured on which duty has been paid under a corresponding Act;

TA is the total amount secured by the mortgage.

(3) Sub-section (2) does not apply if—

(a) the dutiable proportion calculated in accordance with section 159(2) and (3) is not incorrect by more than 5%; and

(b) the non-payment of duty was neither intentional nor negligent.

156. Where is property located?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, property in the following forms is taken to be located in the place specified—

(a) shares in or securities of a body corporate, in the place of incorporation of the body corporate;

(b) units in a unit trust scheme—

(i) in the place where the register on which the units are registered is kept; or

(ii) in the place of residence of the manager or responsible entity of the unit trust scheme, if the register on which the units are registered is not kept in Australia;

(c) debt securities of a Government of a State or Territory, in the State or Territory concerned.
(2) The place of incorporation of a body corporate that is a company is the State or Territory under the Corporations Law of which the company is registered.
PART 2—CALCULATING THE AMOUNT SECURED BY A MORTGAGE

157. Secured amount

(1) A mortgage is chargeable with duty assessed on the amount of any advances secured by it.

(2) If duty of $4 is paid or taken to be paid in respect of a mortgage, the mortgage is taken to secure an amount of $10,000.

(3) If the amount of advances for the time being secured by the mortgage exceeds the amount on which duty was chargeable at an earlier time, the mortgage is chargeable with duty assessed on the amount by which the advances secured by it exceeds the amount on which duty was chargeable under sub-section (1).

(4) If several mortgages over the same property are executed to secure the same advance—

(a) only one is chargeable with duty under this Chapter; and

(b) the Commissioner may denote the payment of the duty on the other mortgages.

(5) If the duty chargeable on a mortgage depends on duty paid on another instrument, the Commissioner may denote the payment of the duty so paid on the mortgage.

158. Contingent liabilities

(1) A mortgage used or capable of being used, whether directly or indirectly, to recover the whole or any part of an amount contingently payable in connection with an advance—

(a) by a guarantor or indemnifying party under a guarantee or indemnity; or
(b) by another party under another instrument of a different kind—

is chargeable with duty as if the amount of the contingent liability were a separate advance secured by the mortgage.

(2) A reference in sub-section (1) to a contingent liability is a reference to a contingent liability limited to the amount of any advance by a party referred to in sub-section (1) and does not include a reference to any other kind of contingent liability.

(3) This section—

(a) does not apply if the Commissioner is satisfied that there is no connection between the mortgage and any advance by any party to the arrangements;

(b) does not require duty to be paid more than once in respect of an advance.

159. Mortgages over property not wholly within Victoria

(1) Duty chargeable in respect of a mortgage over property that is partly within Victoria and partly outside Victoria is to be assessed as if the amount secured by it were only the dutiable proportion.

(2) The dutiable proportion is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula—

DP = \frac{AS \times V}{T}

where—

DP is the dutiable proportion;

AS is the amount secured by the mortgage on which duty is charged at the date of the advance or further advance;
V is the value of the property in Victoria affected by the mortgage;

T is the value of all property affected by the mortgage, excluding property within a Territory or outside Australia.

(3) The dutiable proportion is to be calculated by reference to the values of the properties according to any referrable point specified in sub-section (4).

(4) A referrable point is any of the following prepared within 12 months preceding the date referred to in section 152(1) or (2)—

(a) an independent valuation of the secured property;

(b) a statement of the mortgagee based on information obtained by the mortgagee in determining to make the advance to the mortgagor;

(c) property valuations used by the mortgagor in preparing an annual return to be lodged under the Corporations Law;

(d) financial reports of the mortgagor certified by an independent auditor as presenting a true and fair view of the company's financial position;

(e) agreed valuations for property that form the basis of policies of insurance of the mortgagor;

(f) any other approved method.

(5) If there are 2 or more referrable points in relation to a mortgage, the referrable point is the later or latest of those referrable points.
(6) The referrable point is the same referrable point used or to be used to determine liability to duty at the date referred to in section 152(1) or (2) under a corresponding Act.

(7) Evidence of the location and percentage value of any property is to be made by either party to the mortgage by way of a statement in the approved form.

(8) A mortgage or a statement made under sub-section (7) may be endorsed with duty on the basis of evidence contained in the statement.

(9) If a statement is endorsed under sub-section (8), the mortgage may be endorsed at any time—

(a) as being stamped to the amount evidenced by the duty paid on the statement; and

(b) by showing—

(i) the percentage of the property in Victoria securing the loan; and

(ii) the total amount secured by the loan.

160. Advances secured by mortgage package

(1) If, at a date referred to in section 152(2), there are several instruments of security (at least one of which is a security affecting property wholly or partly outside Victoria and at least one of which is a mortgage) that secure or partly secure the same advance at that date, those instruments are to be treated as a "mortgage package".

(2) Duty on a mortgage package is assessable in accordance with this Part as if the several instruments comprised in the package were one mortgage first executed on the last of their several dates of execution.

(3) If 2 or more mortgages over property within Victoria form part of the security for a mortgage package, one of those mortgages is to be stamped with the duty payable under this Act and the remaining mortgages are to be stamped as collateral mortgages.

(4) Evidence of the location and percentage value of any property is to be made by either party to the mortgage by way of the statement referred to in section 159(7) and section 159(8) and (9) apply to the statement.

(5) If a person has made a statement under section 159(7) or under a corresponding section of a corresponding Act providing details that a mortgage over property in Victoria executed or to be executed after a date referred to in section 152(2) was intended to be part of a mortgage package, the mortgage is taken to be part of a mortgage package.

(6) If a person makes an application for the stamping of a mortgage referred to in sub-section (1) and one or more of the other intended mortgages in the mortgage package has not yet been executed, the executed mortgage, until all the intended mortgages are executed, when stamped is security only for that amount of the advance to which the proportion of the property secured by all the executed mortgages bears to the total of the property expressed to secure the advance.

(7) The Commissioner may endorse the executed mortgage to indicate the proportion of the advance secured by the mortgage pending the execution of the other intended mortgages.

(8) If a mortgage secures the same advance as a mortgage package in respect of which duty has been paid under this Chapter and the mortgage is not part of a mortgage package, the mortgage is
161. Stamping before advance

(1) A mortgage may be stamped before an advance whether or not an earlier advance has occurred.

(2) A mortgage referred to in section 159 or 160 may be stamped to secure any amount exceeding that to which it is already stamped based on the dutiable proportion at the time of stamping.

(3) A mortgage stamped under sub-section (2) is—

(a) duly stamped; and

(b) not required to be stamped in accordance with section 159 again until an advance brings the total amount secured above the amount to which it is already stamped.

(4) Section 160(5) and (6) apply to a mortgage package stamped before an advance.

162. Security

(1) A stamped mortgage or a collateral mortgage that was, but is no longer, part of the same mortgage package and no longer secures the same money secured by that package is not security for any other money unless duty in respect of the other money has been paid.

(2) The withdrawal of a mortgage from a mortgage package will not affect the amount to which the remaining mortgage or mortgages are security for.

163. Exchange of information

The Commissioner may provide information relating to any statement in respect of any mortality package or mortgage referred to in section 159(1) to any person the Commissioner considers is connected with the administration of this Chapter or the corresponding provisions of a corresponding Act.

164. Collection of duty and endorsement of instruments

The Commissioner, or a person authorised by the Commissioner, may—

(a) collect any duty payable under this Chapter; and

(b) endorse mortgages with a stamp showing—

(i) the percentage of property in Victoria securing the loan; and

(ii) the total amount secured by the mortgage.

165. Collateral securities

(1) If a mortgage or other security secures all or part of the same money—

(a) as a mortgage that has been duly stamped under this Act or under a corresponding Act; or

(b) as another security instrument duly stamped with ad valorem duty in Victoria—the collateral security is not chargeable with duty in respect of that part of the amount secured by it that is secured by that stamped mortgage or security instrument.

(2) The Commissioner, or a person authorised by the Commissioner, may endorse a collateral security with a stamp showing the duty paid in respect of the amount secured by the principal security.
(3) A reference to a mortgage or security instrument duly stamped includes a reference to a mortgage package stamped in accordance with section 160.
PART 3—DUTY CONCESSIONS

166. Refinancing of Loans

(1) In this section—

"refinancing mortgage" means a mortgage that secures the amount of the balance outstanding immediately before the execution of that mortgage under an earlier duly stamped mortgage to the same borrower (whether over the same property or a property previously owned by the borrower) that is discharged or to be discharged as part of the arrangements for the new mortgage.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), mortgages are created to secure an advance to the same borrower if, either directly by the mortgages themselves or indirectly through one or more collateral arrangements, the same person obtains the advances secured by them.

(3) A refinancing mortgage is taken to have been stamped with ad valorem duty as a mortgage in respect of the amount required to discharge the earlier mortgage (being an amount in relation to which mortgage duty has been paid or in relation to which an exemption from duty has been obtained), except as provided by sub-section (5).

(4) If an advance is refinanced by more than one lender, so that mortgages given to the lenders together secure the balance outstanding under an earlier mortgage, the definition of "refinancing mortgage" in sub-section (1) is to be construed as though—

(a) the reference to a mortgage securing the outstanding balance were a reference to the aggregate of such mortgages; and
(b) each lender were the holder of a refinancing mortgage.

(5) If, as provided by sub-section (4), each of a number of lenders is the holder of a refinancing mortgage, a refinancing mortgage held by each lender is taken to have been duly stamped with ad valorem duty as a mortgage in respect of an amount equal to the same proportion of the amount required to discharge the earlier mortgage as the amount secured by that mortgage bears to the total amount secured by the refinancing mortgages held by all the lenders.

(6) If each of 2 or more refinancing mortgages severally secures the same advance—

(a) the provisions of sub-section (3) or (5), as the case may be, apply to such one of the mortgages as the Commissioner determines; and

(b) no duty is chargeable in respect of any of the others (insofar as it is a refinancing mortgage) but the Commissioner may denote any of them in the approved manner.

(7) For the purposes of section 165—

(a) a refinancing mortgage that is taken, by the operation of sub-section (3) or (5), to be duly stamped is in either case a stamped mortgage; and

(b) duty is taken to have been paid on it to the extent provided by whichever of those sub-sections applies.

(8) Duty at the rate of $0.80 per $200 or part of $200 is payable on the amount by which the advance made under a refinancing mortgage (not being a mortgage on which, by virtue of sub-section (6)(b), no duty is chargeable) exceeds—
(a) the amount required to discharge the earlier mortgage; or
(b) the proportion of that amount referred to in sub-section (5), in the case of a refinancing to which sub-section (4) applies.

(9) If the number of original borrowers is reduced, the remaining borrower or borrowers is or are taken to be the same borrower or the same person for the purposes of sub-section (1) or (2).

167. Eligible mortgages under concession schemes

(1) Subject to this section, no duty is chargeable under this Chapter on an eligible mortgage.

(2) An "eligible mortgage" is—

(a) a mortgage given by an eligible pensioner or an eligible first home owner securing an advance used or proposed to be used—

(i) for the purchase of an estate in fee simple in land, if he or she is entitled under Division 5 of Part 5 of Chapter 2 to an exemption or concession from duty on the transfer of the land; or

(ii) for the construction of a dwelling on that land; or

(b) a re-financing mortgage (within the meaning of section 166) in respect of a mortgage referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) This section applies only to that part of the amount secured by an eligible mortgage that is used or proposed to be used for the purpose of purchasing the land or the construction of a dwelling on the land.
(4) For the purposes of assessing duty in respect of any further advances secured by an eligible mortgage, duty is taken to have been paid on the part of the amount secured that is referred to in sub-section (3).

(5) If a person—

(a) represents to a tax officer that a mortgage is not chargeable with duty, or is chargeable with less duty, because of this section; and

(b) is convicted of an offence against section 57 of the Taxation Administration Act 1997 as a consequence—the person is liable, by way of further penalty, to pay an amount equal to double the amount of duty that, but for the offence, would have been payable, less any amount of duty that the person did pay.

(6) The penalty in sub-section (5) is in addition to any penalty tax or interest that may be payable under the Taxation Administration Act 1997.
PART 4—EXEMPT INSTRUMENTS

168. Exempt mortgages and supporting instruments

(1) This Chapter does not apply to—

(a) a mortgage executed before 4 January 1965; or

(b) a mortgage that is not chargeable with duty under this Act.

(2) Other instruments that are exempt from payment of mortgage duty are—

(a) a mortgage made or given by—

(i) a registered co-operative society or registered co-operative housing society; or

(ii) a body that is permitted to use the expression "credit union" under section 66 of the Banking Act 1959 of the Commonwealth;

(b) a mortgage given by a corporation or body of persons incorporated or associated for a religious, charitable or educational purpose;

(c) a mortgage or foreign security made or given by—

(i) a Government of the Commonwealth or of another State or of a Territory; or

(ii) a public statutory authority constituted under the law of Victoria, other than a declared public statutory authority under sub-section (3); or
(iii) a public statutory authority constituted under the law of the Commonwealth or of another State or of a Territory; or

(iv) the Municipal Association of Victoria;

(d) a lien on a crop registered under Part VII of the Instruments Act 1958;

(e) a lien on wool or mortgage of stock registered under Part VIII of the Instruments Act 1958;

(f) a mortgage given to the Victorian WorkCover Authority;

(g) a mortgage given to a recognised institution within the meaning of the Trustee Act 1958, being a mortgage of a mortgage or a mortgage by way of deposit of a mortgage.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2)(c)(ii), the Governor in Council, by Order published in the Government Gazette, may declare a public statutory authority constituted under the law of Victoria to be a declared public statutory authority.

169. Mortgages associated with certain credit contracts

(1) If—

(a) a mortgage secures an amount advanced under a consumer credit contract and no other advances; and

(b) the total amount advanced under the consumer credit contract does not exceed $35 000—

the mortgage is exempt from mortgage duty.
(2) If—

(a) a mortgage secures an amount advanced under a consumer credit contract and another advance; and

(b) the total amount advanced under the consumer credit contract does not exceed $35 000—

mortgage duty is not chargeable on the mortgage in relation to the amount advanced under the consumer credit contract.

(3) If—

(a) a mortgage secures an amount advanced under a consumer credit contract (whether or not it also secures any other advance); and

(b) the total amount advanced under the consumer credit contract exceeds $35 000—

the whole of the amount advanced under the consumer credit contract comprises or forms part of the advances secured by the mortgage.

(4) An exemption provided by sub-section (1) or (2) is not available to the extent to which the consumer credit is provided for the purposes of—

(a) the acquisition of a private dwelling house or land on which to erect a private dwelling house; or

(b) the erection of a private dwelling house or the addition of accommodation to a private dwelling house.

(5) In this section—

"consumer credit" means credit regulated under the Consumer Credit Code;
"Consumer Credit Code" means—

(a) the provisions of the Code by that name set out in the Appendix to the Consumer Credit (Queensland) Act 1994 of Queensland, as applied and in force in any State or Territory; or

(b) the provisions of an Act of a State or Territory that are in the same, or substantially the same, terms as that Code;

"private dwelling house" means—

(a) a building that is designed, or is designed principally, as a separate residence for one family or person; or

(b) an apartment, flat or other part of a building that is so designated.

170. Farm machinery and commercial vehicles

Mortgage duty is not chargeable on so much of an advance to a natural person for the acquisition of farm machinery or a commercial vehicle as is secured by the mortgage.

171. Certain debentures and related instruments

(1) Mortgage duty is not chargeable on a mortgage solely securing the repayment of advances arising from the issue by a financial corporation or a related corporation of a debenture.

(2) Mortgage duty is not chargeable on a mortgage in respect of advances arising from the issue by a financial corporation or a related corporation of a debenture if the mortgage secures in part the repayment of those advances.
(3) This section applies to a debenture issued, or a mortgage executed, by a related corporation only in so far as the debenture is issued, or the mortgage is executed, for the purposes of raising funds to be used for a financial corporation.

(4) In this section—

"financial corporation" means a corporation whose sole or principal business is providing finance to the public, including making loans to the public;

"related corporation", in relation to a particular financial corporation means a corporation that is, with respect to the financial corporation, a related body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Law.
PART 5—MISCELLANEOUS

172. Payment of duty on mortgages associated with debenture issues

(1) This section applies if—

(a) a corporation is or will be under a liability to repay money received or to be received by it in respect of its debentures; and

(b) the repayment is secured by a mortgage; and

(c) the corporation is a party to an instrument of trust relating to the debentures.

(2) If the corporation and the trustee for the debenture holders give a written undertaking in the approved form to the Commissioner—

(a) a mortgage solely securing the repayment of money received or to be received by the corporation in respect of its debentures is not liable to mortgage duty; and

(b) a mortgage securing in part the repayment of such money is not liable to mortgage duty in respect of advances arising from the issue of debentures.

(3) The undertaking binds the corporation and the trustee to lodge with the Commissioner, in July each year, a statutory declaration setting out, in the following categories, the total amount subscribed for in Victoria in respect of the corporation's debentures during the year ending on the previous 30 June (but not including amounts repayable at call or in less than 30 days) and to pay duty in the following amounts—
Money repayable at or after the expiration of not less than 30 days and not more than 3 months $0.40 for every $2000, or part

ENDNOTES

† Minister’s second reading speech—

Legislative Assembly: 5 October 2000

Legislative Council: 1 November 2000

The long title for the Bill for this Act was "to create and charge a number of duties, to repeal the Stamps Act 1958, to make consequential amendments to other Acts and for other purposes."

1 S. 28(2): The rate of duty chargeable on dutiable transactions in respect of marketable securities is dealt with in section 29. Concessional rates of duty chargeable on certain dutiable transactions are dealt with in Part 5 of this Chapter.

2 S. 35(1): Transfers of marketable securities to or from trustees or nominees are dealt with in section 67.

3 Chapter 3: This Chapter charges duty on certain transactions that are not "dutiable transactions" under Chapter 2. Duty is chargeable under Part 2 of this Chapter on the acquisition by a person of an interest consisting of certain shareholdings in a private company, or unitholdings in a private unit trust scheme, whose property in either case consists, to the prescribed extent, of land holdings.

The duty is chargeable at the general rate for a dutiable transaction under Chapter 2, rather than at the rate applicable to transfers of shares and units. An acquisition statement must be lodged when a majority interest is acquired or increased. Duty on an acquisition statement is chargeable only on interests acquired within a 3-year period. In certain cases the obligation to pay duty at the higher rate is phased-in (see section 87).

Duty is chargeable—

under Part 3 on transactions by which corporate capital is reduced by redemption, surrender or cancellation of shares or reduction of share value or alteration of share rights;

under Part 4 on the allotment of shares by direction.

4 S. 105: Section 10(4) of the Financial Sector Reform (Victoria) Act 1999, No. 37/1999 provides that property transferred under Part 3 of the Financial Sector (Transfers of Business) Act 1999 of the Commonwealth ("the Commonwealth Act") becomes the property of the receiving body when the certificate of transfer issued under section 18 of the Commonwealth Act comes into force under Division 3 of Part 3 of the Commonwealth Act.
