Victoria

Children, Youth and Families Amendment (Permanent Care and Other Matters) Act 2014[†]

No. 61 of 2014

[Assented to 9 September 2014]

The Parliament of Victoria enacts:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Purpose

The main purposes of this Act are—

- (a) to amend the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005—
 - (i) to make further provision for the protection and permanent care of children; and

- (ii) to abolish the Youth Residential Board and transfer its functions to the Youth Parole Board; and
 - (iii) to provide for group conferences where the Children's Court is considering making certain youth justice orders; and
 - (iv) to further improve the operation of that Act; and
- (b) to amend the Commission for Children and Young People Act 2012 in relation to inquiries by the Commission; and
 - (c) to make consequential amendments to other Acts.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Part, Part 9 and Division 4 of Part 10 and Part 11 come into operation on the day after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the remaining provisions of this Act come into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.
- (3) If a provision referred to in subsection (2) does not come into operation before 1 March 2016, it comes into operation on that day.

3 Principal Act

In this Act, the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 is called the Principal Act.

175C When Secretary must consult with parent of child

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a child who is subject to an interim accommodation order has been placed in out of home care; or
 - (b) the Secretary has parental responsibility for a child under a family reunification order or a therapeutic treatment (placement) order.
 - (2) The Secretary must, to the fullest extent possible, work with and engage any parent with whom the child is intended to be reunified in making case planning decisions for the child.
 - (3) The Secretary must not make a decision about a major long-term issue in relation to the child if a parent who has parental responsibility for the child disagrees with the decision.
 - (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a decision about a major long-term issue that the Secretary is expressly authorised to make under this Act.
 - (5) The Secretary may make a decision on an issue in relation to the child that is not a major long-term issue without the agreement of a parent of the child."

Division 3—Interim accommodation orders

13 Interim accommodation order

(1) After section 262(5) of the Principal Act insert—

"(5A) Despite anything to the contrary in this section, an interim accommodation order must not be made in respect of a child if the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) a protection order could be made in respect of the child under Part 4.9; or
- (b) a permanent care order could be made in respect of the child under section 319."

(2) In section 262(6) of the Principal Act, for "custody to Secretary order, a guardianship to Secretary order or a long-term guardianship to Secretary order" substitute "family reunification order, a care by Secretary order or a long-term care order".

- (d) a care by Secretary order;
- (e) a long-term care order."

17 Restrictions on the making of protection orders

- (1) For section 276(1)(b) of the Principal Act substitute—

"(b) it is satisfied that the child cannot be sufficiently protected without a protection order."

- (2) For section 276(2) of the Principal Act substitute—

"(2) The Court must not make a protection order that has the effect of removing the child from the care of the child's parent unless the Court—

- (a) has considered an order allowing the child to remain in the care of the child's parent; and
- (b) has rejected such an order as being contrary to the best interests of the child."

18 New section 276A inserted

After section 276 of the Principal Act insert—

"276A Court to have regard to certain matters

- (1) In determining whether to make a protection order, the Court must have regard to advice from the Secretary as to—
 - (a) if a case plan has been prepared in relation to the child, the objectives of the case plan; and
 - (b) if the child has one or more siblings under the age of 18 years, the arrangements in place for the care of those siblings; and
 - (c) the age of the child and the period of time that the child has spent in out of home care during the child's lifetime (whether or not as a consequence of a court order).
 - (2) In determining whether to make a protection order that has the effect of conferring parental responsibility for a child on the Secretary, the Court must have regard to advice from the Secretary as to—
 - (a) the likelihood of a parent of the child permanently resuming care of the child during the term of the protection order; and
 - (b) the outcome of any previous attempts to reunify any child with the parent of the child; and
 - (c) if a parent of the child has previously had another child permanently removed from the parent's care, the desirability of making an early decision about the future permanent care arrangements for the child the subject of the proposed order; and

- (d) the benefits to the child of making a care by Secretary order to facilitate alternate arrangements for the permanent care of the child if—
 - (i) the child is in out of home care as a result of an order under this Part and has been in out of home care under such an order for a cumulative period of 12 months; and
 - (ii) there appears to be no realistic prospect of the child being able to safely return permanently to the care of the child's parent within a further period of 12 months; and
 - (iii) there are no permanent care arrangements already available for the child; and
 - (e) the desirability of making a permanent care order, if the child is placed with a person who is intended to have permanent care of the child.
- (3) Section 287A(4) applies to the determination of a cumulative period under this section (except subsection (1)(c))."

19 New section 277 substituted

For section 277 of the Principal Act substitute—

"277 Service of applications

- (1) The applicant must as soon as possible cause a copy of an application for the following to be given or sent in accordance with subsection (2)—

- (a) the variation of an undertaking under this Part or of any conditions of an undertaking or for the revocation of an undertaking; or
 - (b) the variation or revocation of a family preservation order; or
 - (c) the extension of the period of a family preservation order; or
 - (d) the extension of the period of a family reunification order or a care by Secretary order; or
 - (e) the variation or revocation of a family reunification order; or
 - (f) the revocation of a care by Secretary order or a long-term care order; or
 - (g) an order in respect of a failure to comply with a family preservation order or an interim accommodation order.
- (2) The application must be given or sent by post—
- (a) to any person by or on behalf of whom such an application could have been made; and
 - (b) in the case of an application referred to in paragraph (c) or (d), to the child and the parent of the child."

20 Heading to Division 3 of Part 4.9

For the heading to Division 3 of Part 4.9 of the Principal Act substitute—

"Division 3—Family preservation order".

21 Family preservation order

- (1) For the heading to section 280 of the Principal Act substitute—

"Family preservation order".

- (2) In section 280(1) of the Principal Act—

(a) for "supervision order" substitute "family preservation order";

(b) for paragraph (b) substitute—

"(b) does not affect a person's parental responsibility for the child; and".

- (3) In section 280(2) of the Principal Act, for "supervision order" substitute "family preservation order".

- (4) For section 280(3) and (4) of the Principal Act substitute—

"(3) If, under subsection (2)(b), the Court specifies a period exceeding 12 months for a family preservation order to remain in force, it must direct the Secretary to review the operation of the order before the end of the period of 12 months after the making of the order.

(4) Following a review under subsection (3), the Secretary, may, with the agreement of the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older) and the child's parent, determine that the family preservation order should end.

(5) The Secretary must notify the Court of a determination under subsection (4).

(6) If a notice is given under subsection (5), the family preservation order ends at the end of 12 months after the order is made or on the date that notice is given, whichever is the later.

- (7) The Secretary must notify the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older), the child's parent and any other persons that the Court directs if the family preservation order ends in accordance with subsection (6)."

22 Family preservation order may impose conditions

- (1) In the heading to section 281 of the Principal Act, for "Supervision order" substitute "Family preservation order".

- (2) For section 281(1) of the Principal Act substitute—

"(1) A family preservation order may include conditions to be observed by—

- (a) the child in respect of whom it is made;
or
(b) a parent of the child.

- (1A) Conditions that may be included under subsection (1) are conditions that the Court considers—

- (a) to be in the best interests of the child; and
(b) are reasonably capable of being carried out by each person who will be subject to the condition; and
(c) promote the continuing care of the child by a parent of the child."

- (3) In section 281(2) of the Principal Act, for "supervision order" substitute "family preservation order".

23 Powers of Secretary under family preservation order

- (1) In the heading to section 282 of the Principal Act, for "supervision order" substitute "family preservation order".
- (2) In section 282(1) and (2) of the Principal Act, for "supervision order" substitute "family preservation order".

For the heading to Division 6 of Part 4.9 of the Principal Act substitute—

"Division 6—Family reunification order".

26 New section 287 substituted

For section 287 of the Principal Act substitute—

"287 Family reunification order

- (1) A family reunification order—
 - (a) confers parental responsibility for the child on the Secretary; and
 - (b) confers responsibility for the sole care of the child on the Secretary; and
 - (c) subject to this Division, remains in force for the period (not exceeding 12 months) specified in the order; and
 - (d) may include any conditions that the Court considers—
 - (i) to be in the best interests of the child; and

- (ii) are reasonably capable of being carried out by each person who will be subject to the condition; and
 - (iii) promote the reunification of the child with a parent of the child; and
- (e) must provide that if, while the order is in force, the Secretary is satisfied that it is in the child's best interests, the Secretary may in writing direct that a parent of the child is to resume parental responsibility for the child to the exclusion of the Secretary.
- (2) The conferral of parental responsibility on the Secretary does not affect the parental responsibility of any other person for the child in relation to making decisions about major long term issues except as provided for under this Act or by an order of the Court.
- (3) The conditions that may be included in accordance with subsection (1)(d) may include a condition concerning contact between the child and a parent of the child or another person of significance to the child."

27 New section 287A inserted

After section 287 of the Principal Act insert—

"287A Determining the period of a family reunification order

- (1) This section applies to the determination of the period of a family reunification order for a child who is or has been in out of home care as a result of any of the following orders—

- (a) an interim accommodation order;
 - (b) a family reunification order;
 - (c) a care by Secretary order;
 - (d) a long-term care order;
 - (e) a therapeutic treatment (placement) order.
- (2) If the child has been in out of home care for less than 12 months under one or more orders specified in subsection (1), the period specified in a family reunification order must not have the effect that the child will be placed in out of home care for a cumulative period that exceeds 12 months commencing on the date that the child is first placed in out of home care under the first of those orders.
- (3) If the child has been in out of home care for 12 months or more but less than 24 months under one or more orders specified in subsection (1), the period specified in a family reunification order must not have the effect that the child will be placed in out of home care for a cumulative period that exceeds 24 months commencing on the date that the child is first placed in out of home care under the first of those orders.
- (4) For the purposes of determining a cumulative period under this section—
- (a) any period that the child is in out of home care under a child care agreement under Part 3 or under a private arrangement made by a parent is to be disregarded; and

- (b) any period that the child is being cared for by a parent under an interim accommodation order, an undertaking or a family preservation order under this Part must be disregarded; and
- (c) any period that the child was in out of home care under an order must be disregarded if the child was subsequently returned to the care of a parent without the child being subject to any order under this Part."

28 Lapsing of family reunification order

- (1) In the heading to section 288 of the Principal Act, for "custody to Secretary order" substitute "family reunification order".
- (2) In section 288(1) and (2) of the Principal Act, for "custody to Secretary order" substitute "family reunification order".
- (3) In section 288(1)(a) of the Principal Act, for "the custody or the guardianship and custody of" substitute "parental responsibility for".

29 New section 288A inserted

After section 288 of the Principal Act insert—

"288A Change to nature of order

- (1) If under a family reunification order the Secretary directs that a parent or parents of a child are to resume parental responsibility for the child to the exclusion of the Secretary, then on and from the date of the direction—
 - (a) the Secretary ceases to have parental responsibility for the child; and

- (b) the parent resumes parental responsibility for the child as specified in the direction; and
 - (c) the family reunification order is taken to be a family preservation order giving the Secretary responsibility for the supervision of the child and placing the child in the day to day care of the parent or parents who have parental responsibility for the child; and
 - (d) the conditions of the family reunification order continue to apply as conditions of the family preservation order; and
 - (e) Division 3 applies to the order; and
 - (f) the order ceases to be a family reunification order for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Secretary must give a copy of a direction under this section to—
- (a) the Court; and
 - (b) the child; and
 - (c) the parent of the child.
- (3) The Secretary may apply to the Court to determine that the order is to include conditions.
- (4) The Court may determine that the order is to include conditions of a kind referred to in section 281, without requiring the parties to attend, or be represented at, the proceeding.
- (5) If the Court makes a determination under subsection (4), the order is taken to include those conditions as if they were included in the order under section 281."

30 New Division 7 of Part 4.9 substituted

For Division 7 of Part 4.9 of the Principal Act
substitute—

"Division 7—Care by Secretary order

289 Care by Secretary order

- (1) A care by Secretary order—
 - (a) confers parental responsibility for the child on the Secretary to the exclusion of all other persons; and
 - (b) subject to this Division, remains in force for a period of 2 years; and
 - (c) ceases to be in force when the child attains the age of 18 years or when the child marries, whichever happens first; and
 - (d) must provide that if, while the order is in force, the Secretary is satisfied that it is in the child's best interests, the Secretary may in writing direct that a parent of the child is to resume parental responsibility for the child.
 - (2) The Court must direct the Secretary to review the operation of the order before the end of the period of 12 months after the making of the order.
 - (3) Following a review under subsection (2), the Secretary, with the agreement of the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older) and the child's parent, may determine that the order should end.
 - (4) The Secretary must notify the Court of a determination under subsection (3).

- (5) If a notice is given under subsection (4), the order ends at the end of 12 months after the order is made or on the date that notice is given, whichever is the later.
- (6) The Secretary must notify the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older), the child's parent and any other persons that the Court directs if the order ends in accordance with subsection (5).
- (7) Section 288 applies to a care by Secretary order as if any reference to a family reunification order were a reference to a care by Secretary order.

289A Change to nature of order

- (1) If under a care by Secretary order the Secretary directs that a parent or parents of the child are to resume parental responsibility for the child, then on and from the date of the direction—
 - (a) the Secretary ceases to have parental responsibility for the child; and
 - (b) the parent resumes parental responsibility for the child as specified in the direction; and
 - (c) the care by Secretary order is taken to be a family preservation order giving the Secretary responsibility for the supervision of the child and placing the child in the day to day care of the parent or parents who have parental responsibility for the child; and
 - (d) Division 3 applies to the order; and
 - (e) the order ceases to be a care by Secretary order for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) The Secretary must give a copy of a direction under this section to—
 - (a) the Court; and
 - (b) the child; and
 - (c) the parent of the child.
 - (3) The Secretary may apply to the Court to determine that the order is to include conditions.
 - (4) The Court may determine that the order is to include conditions of a kind referred to in section 281, without requiring the parties to attend, or be represented at, the proceeding.
 - (5) If the Court makes a determination under subsection (4), the order is taken to include those conditions as if they were included in the order under section 281."

31 New Division 8 of Part 4.9 substituted

For Division 8 of Part 4.9 of the Principal Act
substitute—

"Division 8—Long-term care order

290 Long-term care order

- (1) A long-term care order—
 - (a) confers parental responsibility for the child on the Secretary to the exclusion of all other persons; and
 - (b) subject to this Division, remains in force until the child attains the age of 18 years or marries, whichever happens first; and
 - (c) despite anything to the contrary in Division 7 or 10, may be made instead of extending a care by Secretary order.

- (2) The Court must not make a long-term care order unless the Court is satisfied that—
 - (a) there is a person or persons available with whom the child will continue to live for the duration of the order; and
 - (b) the person or persons referred to in paragraph (a) will not consent to the making of a permanent care order; and
 - (c) the Secretary consents to the making of the order; and
 - (d) if the child is of or over the age of 10 years, the child does not oppose the making of the order; and
 - (e) the making of the order is in the best interests of the child.
 - (3) The Court must direct the Secretary to review the operation of the order before the end of each period of 12 months after the making of the order.
 - (4) Following a review under subsection (3), the Secretary, with the agreement of the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older) and the child's parent, may determine that order should end.
 - (5) The Secretary must notify the Court of a determination under subsection (4).
 - (6) If a notice is given under subsection (5), the order ends at the end of 12 months after the order is made or on the date that notice is given, whichever is the later.
 - (7) The Secretary must notify the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older), the child's parent and any other persons that the Court directs if the order ends in accordance with subsection (6).

- (8) Section 288 applies to a long-term care order as if any reference to a family reunification order were a reference to a long-term care order."

32 Repeal of Division 9 of Part 4.9

Division 9 of Part 4.9 of the Principal Act is repealed.

33 Application for extension of protection order

- (1) In section 293(1) of the Principal Act, for paragraphs (a) to (d) substitute—

34 New section 294A inserted

After section 294 of the Principal Act insert—

"294A Restrictions on the extension of protection orders

- (1) The Court must not extend a family reunification order unless it is satisfied that—
- (a) there is compelling evidence that it is likely that a parent of the child will permanently resume care of the child during the period of the extension; and
 - (b) the extension will not have the effect that a child will be placed in out of home care for a cumulative period that exceeds 24 months, calculated in accordance with section 287A.

- (2) The Court must not extend a care by Secretary order unless the Court is satisfied that—
 - (a) firstly, a permanent care order is not appropriate in the circumstances; and
 - (b) secondly, a long-term care order is not appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), the Court may extend a care by Secretary order if the Court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances which justify the making of a further care by Secretary order."

35 Repeal of section 295

Section 295 of the Principal Act is repealed.

36 Duration of extension

- (1) In section 296(1) of the Principal Act, for "supervision order or supervised custody order" substitute "family preservation order".
 - (2) For section 296(2) of the Principal Act substitute—
 - "(2) If an extension application is made in relation to a family reunification order the duration of an extension or additional extension is to be determined in accordance with subsection (3) or (4), as applicable.
 - (3) If the child has been in out of home care for a cumulative period of less than 12 months under one or more orders specified in section 287A(1), an extension or additional extension of the family reunification order must not have the effect that the child will be placed in out of home care for a cumulative period that exceeds 12 months commencing on the date that the child is first placed in out

- of home care under the first of the orders specified in section 287A(1).
- (4) If the child has been in out of home care for a cumulative period of 12 months or more but less than 24 months under one or more orders specified in section 287A(1), an extension or additional extension of the family reunification order must not have the effect that the child will be placed in out of home care for a cumulative period that exceeds 24 months commencing on the date that the child is first placed in out of home care under the first of the orders specified in section 287A(1).
 - (5) Section 287A(4) applies to the determination of a cumulative period under this section.
 - (6) On an extension application relating to a care by Secretary order, the Court may extend the order for a period of 2 years."

37 Repeal of section 297

Section 297 of the Principal Act is repealed.

38 New section 298 substituted

For section 298 of the Principal Act substitute—

"298 Review of extended orders

- (1) If under this Division the Court specifies a period exceeding 12 months for an extension of a protection order, it must direct the Secretary to review the operation of the order before the end of the period of 12 months after the making of the order.
- (2) Following a review under subsection (1), the Secretary, with the agreement of the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older) and the child's parent, may determine that the order should end.

- (3) The Secretary must notify the Court of a determination under subsection (2).
- (4) If a notice is given under subsection (3), the order ends at the end of 12 months after the order is made or on the date that notice is given, whichever is the later,
- (5) The Secretary must notify the child (if the child is aged 10 years or older), the child's parent and any other persons that the Court directs if the order ends in accordance with subsection (4)."

- (ii) the child's relationships with the child's birth family; and";

(d) for paragraph (d) substitute—

"(d) may include conditions that the Court considers in the best interests of the child concerning contact with the child's parent which may provide for contact up to 4 times a year; and".

(2) Insert the following note to section 321(1) of the Principal Act—

"Note

A person who has parental responsibility for a child under a permanent care order is a parent within the meaning of section 3(1) of this Act and has, in relation to the child, all the duties, powers, responsibilities and authority which, by law or custom, parents have in relation to children, to the exclusion of all others."

(3) After section 321(1) of the Principal Act insert—

"(1A) A condition referred to in subsection (1)(d) or (e) does not prevent additional contact being arranged from time to time by agreement in the child's best interests.

(1B) Before including a condition referred to in subsection (1)(d), (e) or (f), the Court must have regard to the primacy of the child's relationship with the child's permanent care family and whether the condition—

- (a) is necessary to protect the child or support the permanence of the placement; and
- (b) is necessary to promote the child's continuing connection to the child's parents, siblings or culture; and
- (c) is sufficiently flexible to accommodate the child's changing developmental needs over time; and
- (d) is reasonable in the context of the child's permanent care family's life; and
- (e) is necessary given the capacity of the person caring for the child to meet the condition referred to in subsection (1)(ca).

(1C) A permanent care order may include a condition that a child must not have contact with a parent, sibling or other person."

61 Restrictions on the making of permanent care orders

PART 3—CASE PLANNING

94 Definitions

In section 3(1) of the Principal Act the definition of stability plan is repealed.

95 Case planning

In the heading to Division 1 of Part 4.3 of the Principal Act omit "and stability planning".

96 What is a case plan?

For section 166(3) of the Principal Act substitute—

- "(3) A case plan for a child includes—
- (a) a permanency objective for a child as required by section 167; and
 - (b) in the case of an Aboriginal child in out of home care under an interim accommodation order, a protection order or a therapeutic treatment (placement) order, any planning for cultural support that is required for the child under section 176."

97 New sections 167, 168 and 169 substituted and sections 170 and 171 repealed

For sections 167, 168, 169, 170 and 171 of the Principal Act substitute—

"167 Permanency objective

- (1) A case plan must include one of the following objectives (a permanency objective) to be considered in the following order of preference as determined to be appropriate in the best interests of the child—

- (a) family preservation—the objective of ensuring a child who is in the care of a parent of the child remains in the care of a parent;
 - (b) family reunification—the objective of ensuring that a child who has been removed from the care of a parent of the child is returned to the care of a parent;
 - (c) adoption—the objective of placing the child for adoption under the Adoption Act 1984;
 - (d) permanent care—the objective of arranging a permanent placement of the child with a permanent carer or carers;
 - (e) long-term out of home care—the objective of placing the child in—
 - (i) a stable, long-term care arrangement with a specified carer or carers; or
 - (ii) if an arrangement under subparagraph (i) is not possible, another suitable long-term care arrangement.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c) to (e), it is to be preferred that a child is placed—
- (a) with a suitable family member of the child or other person of significance to the child; or
 - (b) if a placement under paragraph (a) is not possible, with another suitable carer or carers.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a permanency objective of family reunification would be appropriate if the child has been in out of home care for less than 12 months and the safe reunification of the child with a parent is likely to be achieved.

- (4) For the purposes of this section, a permanency objective set out in subsection (1)(c) to (e) would be appropriate if—
- (a) the child has been in out of home care for 12 months and there is no real likelihood for the safe reunification of the child with a parent in the next 12 months; or
 - (b) except in exceptional circumstances, the child has been in out of home care for a total of 24 months.

168 Preparation of case plan

- (1) The Secretary must ensure that a case plan is prepared in respect of a child if a protective intervener is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the child is in need of protection.
 - (2) The Secretary must ensure that a copy of the case plan is given to the child and the child's parent—
 - (a) within 14 days of the preparation of the case plan; and
 - (b) within 8 weeks after the making by the Court of a protection order, if the case plan is prepared after the making of the order or is amended as a consequence of the making of the order; and
 - (c) within 8 weeks after the extension by the Court of a protection order, if the case plan is amended as a consequence of the extension of the order; and
 - (d) within 14 days after any other amendment to the case plan.

169 Review of case plan

- (1) A case plan must include a date for the review of the case plan not more than 12 months after the date that the case plan is made and, once reviewed, not more than 12 months after the date of the review.
 - (2) The Secretary must review a case plan—
 - (a) on or before the review date specified in the case plan; and
 - (b) after the making by the Court of a protection order, if the protection order made in respect of a child is different to the protection order anticipated by the case plan; and
 - (c) when a child has been living in out of home care for a cumulative period of 12 months, if—
 - (i) the child is the subject of an interim accommodation order or a protection order; and
 - (ii) the permanency objective for the child is family reunification; and
 - (d) from time to time as otherwise appears necessary.
 - (3) A review of a case plan must include a review of—
 - (a) the progress being made to achieve the permanency objective in the case plan; and
 - (b) in the case of an Aboriginal child in out of home care under an interim accommodation order, a protection order or therapeutic treatment

(placement) order, the cultural support needs of the child."

98 New section 176 substituted

For section 176 of the Principal Act substitute—

"176 Cultural support for Aboriginal child

- (1) The case plan for an Aboriginal child placed in out of home care must address the cultural support needs of the child.
- (2) The Secretary must provide a cultural plan to each Aboriginal child in out of home care that is aligned with the case plan for the child.
- (3) The case plan must reflect and be consistent with the child's cultural support needs, having regard to the child's circumstances, so as to—
 - (a) maintain and develop the child's Aboriginal identity; and
 - (b) encourage the child's connection to the child's Aboriginal community and culture.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the child's cultural support needs may vary depending on—
 - (a) the length of time that the child has spent in out of home care; and
 - (b) the age of the child; and
 - (c) the length of time that the child is expected to remain in out of home care; and
 - (d) the extent of the child's contact with the child's Aboriginal family members; and

- (e) whether the child is placed within the child's own Aboriginal community, another Aboriginal community or with non-Aboriginal carers.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a child's Aboriginal community is—
- (a) the Aboriginal community to which the child has a sense of belonging, if this can be ascertained by the Secretary; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply, the Aboriginal community in which the child has primarily lived; or
 - (c) if paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply, the Aboriginal community of the child's parent or grandparent."

99 Therapeutic treatment (placement) order

SCHEDULE 5

Section 627

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO
THE CHILDREN, YOUTH AND FAMILIES AMENDMENT (PERMANENT CARE AND OTHER MATTERS) ACT 2014

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Definitions

(1) In this Schedule—

amending Act means the Children, Youth and Families Amendment
(Permanent Care and Other Matters)
Act 2014;

new provision means a provision of this Act as in force on or after the relevant commencement day;

old provision means a provision of this Act as in force before the relevant
commencement day;

relevant commencement day means—

- (a) in relation to Part 2 of this Schedule, the day on which the provisions of Part 2 of the amending Act come into operation; and
- (b) in relation to Part 3 of this Schedule, the day on which the provisions of Part 3 of the amending Act come into operation; and
- (c) in relation to Part 4 of this Schedule, the day on which the provisions of Part 5 of the amending Act come into operation.

2 General transitional provisions

- (1) This Schedule does not affect or take away from the Interpretation of Legislation Act 1984.
- (2) If this Schedule provides that an old provision continues to apply to any matter or thing, then any regulation or other instrument having effect for the purposes of that provision also continues to apply to that matter or thing.

PART 2—PROTECTION ORDERS

3 Protection orders—renaming

An order specified in column 1 of the Table that was in force immediately before the relevant commencement day under the old provisions is taken on and after the relevant commencement day to be the corresponding order specified in column 2 of the Table.

Column 1	Column 2
supervision order	family preservation order
supervised custody order	family reunification order
guardianship to Secretary order	care by Secretary order
long-term guardianship to Secretary order	long-term care order

4 Custody to Secretary orders

A custody to Secretary order in force immediately before the relevant commencement day is taken on and after the commencement day to be—

- (a) in the case of a child who has been under a custody to Secretary order for less than 24 months at the relevant commencement day, a family reunification order; or
- (b) in the case of a child who has been under a custody to Secretary order for 24 months or more at the relevant commencement day, a care by Secretary order and any conditions on that order lapse on that day.

5 Custody to third party orders

A custody to third party order in force immediately before the relevant commencement day continues in force for all purposes until its expiry as if the amendments made by Part 2 of the amending Act had not been enacted.

6 Interim protection orders

An interim protection order in force immediately before the relevant commencement day continues in force for all purposes until the hearing date specified in the notice as if the amendments made by Part 2 of the amending Act had not been enacted.

7 References

On and after the relevant commencement day, in any Act (other than this Act), or in any instrument made under any Act or in any other document of any kind—

- (a) a reference to a supervision order under the old provisions is taken to be a reference to a family preservation order; and
- (b) a reference to a supervised custody order under the old provisions is taken to be a reference to a family preservation order; and
- (c) a reference to a guardianship to Secretary order under the old provisions is taken to be a reference to a care by Secretary order; and
- (d) a reference to a long-term guardianship to Secretary order under the old provisions is taken to be a reference to a long-term care order; and
- (e) a reference to a custody to Secretary order under the old provisions is taken to be—
 - (i) if the reference relates to a child who has been under the order for less than 24 months at the relevant commencement day, a reference to a family reunification order; or

- (ii) if the reference relates to a child who has been under the order for 24 months or more at the relevant commencement day, a reference to a care by Secretary order.

PART 3—CASE PLANNING

8 Case plans

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), a case plan existing under the old provisions immediately before the relevant commencement day continues to apply to a child despite the amendments made by Part 3 of the amending Act.
- (2) The case plan must be reviewed under the new provisions on the date specified in the plan for review or 12 months after the relevant commencement day, whichever happens first.

PART 4—ABOLITION OF YOUTH RESIDENTIAL BOARD

9 Abolition of Youth Residential Board

On the relevant commencement day, the Youth Residential Board is abolished and its members and alternate members go out of office.

10 Saving of acts and decisions—general

Any act or decision of the Youth Residential Board is taken for all purposes in relation to any period on and after the relevant commencement day to be an act or decision of the Youth Parole Board.

11 Parole

- (1) Without limiting clause 9, an order made by the Youth Residential Board under section 454 of the old provisions and existing immediately before the relevant commencement day is taken on and after the relevant commencement day for all purposes to be an order of the Youth Parole Board under section 458 and the new provisions apply accordingly.
- (2) A warrant signed by the secretary or a member of the Youth Residential Board under section 456(5)(a) and existing immediately before the relevant commencement day is taken on and after the relevant commencement day to be a warrant signed by the secretary of the Youth Parole Board under section 460(5)(a) to apprehend the person and return the person to a youth residential centre to serve the unexpired portion of the person's sentence of detention.
- (3) Section 460 as in force on and after the relevant commencement day applies to any warrant issued under section 460 but not executed before that day.

12 Saving of proceedings of Youth Residential Board

- (1) The Youth Parole Board may continue and complete under the new provisions any proceedings before the Youth Residential Board under the old provisions that were not completed before the relevant commencement day.

- (2) For the purposes of any proceedings referred to in subclause (1), the Youth Parole Board may have regard to any files, documents or findings of the Youth Residential Board in relation to those proceedings.

13 Saving of evidentiary provision

Section 437 as in force immediately before the relevant commencement day continues in effect in relation to any order, document or certificate signed before that day despite the repeal of that section by Part 5 of the Amending Act.

14 Saving of immunity provision

Section 440 as in force immediately before the relevant commencement day continues in effect in relation to anything done or omitted to be done before that day despite the repeal of that section by Part 5 of the Amending Act.

15 Reports by Youth Parole Board

- (1) The Youth Parole Board must in its first report under section 452(1) on or after the relevant commencement day include a report of the matters set out in 441(1) in relation to the Youth Residential Board in relation to the prescribed period, or part of that period, under section 441(1) up to the relevant commencement day.
- (2) The Youth Parole Board may continue and complete under section 452(2), any report of the Youth Residential Board commenced but not completed under section 441(2) before the relevant commencement day.

- (3) For the purposes of a report referred to in subclause (1) or (2), the Youth Parole Board may have regard to any files or documents of the Youth Residential Board.

PART 5—TRANSITIONAL REGULATIONS

16 Transitional regulations

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the amendments made to this Act by the amending Act.
- (2) Regulations made under this clause have effect despite anything to the contrary in any other Act (other than this Act or the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006) or in any subordinate instrument.
- (3) This section expires on 1 March 2017."

(b) a family preservation order;".

PART 11—FURTHER AMENDMENT OF CHILDREN, YOUTH AND FAMILIES ACT 2005

171 Definitions

In section 3(1) of the Principal Act, insert the following definition—

"major long-term issue , in relation to a child, means an issue about the care, wellbeing and development of the child that is of a long-term nature and includes an issue of that nature about—

- (a) the child's education (both current or future); and
- (b) the child's religious and cultural upbringing; and
- (c) the child's health; and
- (d) the child's name."

172 New sections 175A and 175B inserted

After section 175 of the Principal Act insert—

"175A Secretary may specify certain issues

- (1) The Secretary may specify issues relating to a child in out of home care about which a person who has care of the child may be authorised to make decisions.

Example

The Secretary may specify issues including but not limited to—

- the signing of school consent forms; or
- obtaining routine medical care for the child; or
- the day to day treatment of a child who suffers from a chronic or serious health condition.

- (2) The Secretary must not specify an issue under subsection (1) that is a major long-term issue in relation to a child who is subject to an interim accommodation order, interim protection order, supervised custody order or custody to Secretary order.
- (3) The issues specified by the Secretary under this section may be specified in relation to—
 - (a) a particular child; or
 - (b) a child subject to a particular type of order; or
 - (c) a person who provides a certain category of care under this Act.

175B Authorisation of carer to make certain decisions

- (1) This section applies if a child is placed in out of home care in accordance with—
 - (a) an interim accommodation order; or
 - (b) a protection order.
 - (2) The Secretary or the person in charge of an out of home care service may authorise a person who has care of the child to make decisions in relation to the child on the issues specified by the Secretary under section 175A.
 - (3) A person who is authorised under subsection (2) may make a decision in relation to the child on a specified issue, when the child is under that person's care, without consulting the Secretary about that issue."
