SCHEDULE—Amendment of Acts

ENDNOTES

---

---

---
The Parliament of Victoria enacts as follows:

1. Purpose and object

   (1) The purpose of this Act is to amend specified Acts in relation to domestic relationships.

   (2) The object of this Act is to recognise the rights and obligations of partners in domestic relationships where there is mutual commitment to an intimate personal relationship and shared life as a couple, irrespective of the gender of each partner.
(3) It is a further object of this Act to prevent discrimination under legislation specified in this Act by ensuring that all couples irrespective of gender have the same rights and obligations while at the same time recognising the importance of a commitment to a long term relationship and the security of children.

2. Commencement

(1) Sections 1 and 4 and this section come into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

(2) Section 5 is deemed to have come into operation on 23 August 2001.

(3) Subject to sub-section (4), the remaining provisions of this Act (including the items in the Schedule) come into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.

(4) If a provision referred to in sub-section (3) does not come into operation before 1 July 2002, it comes into operation on that day.

3. Amendment of Acts

An Act specified in the heading to an item in the Schedule is amended, on the commencement of that item or a provision of that item, as set out in that item or provision.

In Schedule 1 to the Statute Law Amendment (Relationships) Act 2001—

(a) in item 9.4, in proposed section 276—
(i) in sub-section (1), for "the commencement of that item" substitute "the commencement of item 9.4 of that Schedule";

(ii) in sub-section (2), for "item 9" substitute "item 9.4";

(b) item 13 is repealed.

5. Amendment of Parliamentary Salaries and Superannuation Act 1968

(1) In section 21A(3) of the Parliamentary Salaries and Superannuation Act 1968, for "sub-section (4)" substitute "this section".

(2) In section 21A of the Parliamentary Salaries and Superannuation Act 1968, after sub-section (4) insert—

'(5) For the purposes of determining the entitlement to benefits in respect of a person to whom this Division applies, other than a person who became entitled to benefits under this Act before 23 August 2001, the following modifications to the Commonwealth Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act 1948 apply in addition to the modifications in section 21C—

(a) subject to paragraph (d), a person is not to be taken to have had a marital relationship with another person unless the person was legally married to that other person;

Note: Section 4B of the Commonwealth Act sets out the criteria for determining whether a person had a marital relationship with another person.
(b) a reference to a spouse who survives a deceased person is to be construed as including a reference to a domestic partner who survives a deceased person;

(c) a reference to a former spouse is to be construed as including a reference to a former domestic partner;

(d) a reference in section 19AA to a marital relationship is to be construed as including a reference to a domestic relationship.

(6) For the purposes of sub-section (5)(b), a person is a domestic partner who survives a deceased person if—

(a) the person had a domestic relationship with the deceased person at the time of death of the deceased person ("the death"); and

(b) in the case of a deceased person who was a retired member at the time of the death—

(i) the domestic relationship began before the retired member became a retired member; or

(ii) the domestic relationship began after the retired member became a retired member but before the retired member reached 60; or

(iii) in the case of neither sub-paragraph (i) nor (ii) applying—the domestic relationship had continued for a period of at least 5 years up to the time of the death.
(7) For the purposes of sub-sections (5)(d) and (6), a person had a domestic relationship with another person at a particular time if the persons, although not married to each other, were living together as a couple on a genuine domestic basis (irrespective of gender) at that time and—

(a) the persons had been so living together for a continuous period of at least 3 years up to that time; or

(b) the persons had been so living together for a continuous period of less than 3 years up to that time and the Parliamentary Trustee, having regard to any relevant evidence, is of the opinion that the persons so lived together at that time.

(8) A domestic relationship is taken to have begun at the beginning of the continuous period mentioned in sub-section (7)(a) and (b).

(9) In determining whether a person had a domestic relationship with another person, all the circumstances of the relationship are to be taken into account, including any one or more of the matters referred to in section 275(2) of the Property Law Act 1958 as may be relevant in a particular case.

(10) In this section—

"former domestic partner", in relation to another person, means a person who previously had had a domestic relationship with that other person.'
