Version No. 067
Accident Compensation (WorkCover Insurance) Act 1993
No. 50 of 1993

Version incorporating amendments as at 1 July 2010

The Parliament of Victoria enacts as follows:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to provide for compulsory WorkCover insurance for employers under WorkCover insurance policies and the payment of premiums for WorkCover insurance policies.

amended by
No. 50/1994
s. 89(1)(2),
substituted by
No. 81/1998
s. 3.

2 Commencement

- (1) Part 1 and sections 19, 94(1), 102, 110(1) and 111(1) come into operation on the day this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (2) The following sections are deemed to have come into operation as follows—
 - (a) sections 111(2) and 112(1) on 19 November 1992;
 - (b) sections 84(1), 92, 94(2), 95, 100 and 110(2) on 1 December 1992;
 - (c) section 93 on 1 April 1993;
 - (d) sections 87 and 88 on 29 April 1993.
- (3) The remaining provisions of this Act come into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Act—

S. 3(1) def. of authorised insurer substituted by No. 81/1998 s. 4(a).

authorised insurer means an insurer who was the holder of a licence under Part 3 as in force immediately before the commencement of Part 2 of the Accident Compensation (Amendment) Act 1998;

S. 3(1) def. of authorised agent inserted by No. 81/1998 s. 4(a).

authorised agent has the same meaning as it has in section 5(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985;

Authority means the Victorian WorkCover Authority established under the Accident Compensation Act 1985;

employer has the same meaning as it has in section 5 of the Accident Compensation Act 1985;

S. 3(1) def. of estimated future claim cost inserted by No. 9/2010 s. 100.

estimated future claim cost means an estimate of the future cost of a claim of an employer against whom one or more claims have been made within the relevant claims reporting period as determined by the Authority in accordance with the relevant premiums order;

exemption limit means—

- (a) in relation to the financial year ending 30 June 1994—$7500; and
- (b) in relation to each subsequent financial year—the amount prescribed in the premiums order in respect of that financial year;

former authorised insurer means an authorised insurer whose licence has ceased to be in force whether by expiry, cancellation, suspension or operation of law;

S. 3(1) def. of former authorised insurer amended by No. 81/1998 s. 4(b).

policy period means the period of 12 months or such lesser period as may be fixed by the Authority ending at 4 p.m. on 30 June in any year;

S. 3(1) def. of policy period amended by No. 81/1998 s. 4(c).

premiums order means a premiums order made under section 15;

rateable remuneration means remuneration that is subject to a premium within the meaning of section 8;

remuneration means any wages, remuneration, salary, commission, bonuses or allowances paid or payable (whether at piece work rates or otherwise and whether paid or payable in cash or in kind) to or in relation to a worker as such and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes—

S. 3(1) def. of remuneration substituted by No. 60/2007 s. 30(1).

- (a) any amount paid or payable by way of remuneration to a person holding an office under the Crown in right of the State or in the service of the Crown in right of the State; and
- (b) any amount paid or payable under any prescribed classes of contracts to the extent to which that payment is attributable to labour; and
- (c) any amount deemed under this Act or the Accident Compensation Act 1985 to be remuneration; and

- (d) any amount paid or payable by a company by way of remuneration to or in relation to a director or member of the governing body of that company; and
- (e) wages, remuneration, salary, commission, bonuses or allowances paid or payable whether in cash or in kind to or in relation to a worker by any person acting for or in concert or under an arrangement or understanding whether formal or informal and whether expressed or implied with an employer; and
- (f) any amount paid or payable by way of commission to an insurance or time-payment canvasser or collector—

but does not include—

- (g) remuneration paid or payable to a person within the meaning of section 16(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 engaged by an employer to participate as a contestant in a sporting or athletic activity in respect of the services provided by the person while the person is—
 - (i) participating as a contestant in a sporting or athletic activity; or
 - (ii) engaged in training or preparation with a view to participating as a contestant in a sporting or athletic activity; or
 - (iii) travelling between a place of residence and the place at which the person is engaged to participate, or participating, as a contestant in a sporting or athletic activity; or

- (h) remuneration paid or payable to an apprentice under a training contract made in accordance with a training scheme that is approved by the Victorian Skills Commission under Part 5.5 of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 if the apprentice or training scheme is, or is in a class of apprentices or training schemes, declared by the Minister to be an apprentice or training scheme to which this paragraph applies; or
- (i) remuneration that does not exceed the exemption limit; or
- (j) any payment of compensation in respect of an injury under the Accident Compensation Act 1985 or the Workers Compensation Act 1958;

* * * * *

S. 3(1) def. of statutory fund repealed by No. 81/1998 s. 4(d).

superannuation benefit means money paid or payable by an employer in respect of a worker—

S. 3(1) def. of superannuation benefit inserted by No. 60/2007 s. 30(1).

- (a) to or as a superannuation fund within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) as a superannuation guarantee charge within the meaning of the Superannuation Guarantee

(Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth; or

- (c) to or as any other form of superannuation, provident or retirement fund or scheme including—
- (i) a Superannuation Holding Accounts Reserve within the meaning of the Small Superannuation Accounts Act 1995 of the Commonwealth; and
 - (ii) a retirement savings account within the meaning of the Retirement Savings Accounts Act 1997 of the Commonwealth; and
 - (iii) a wholly or partly unfunded fund or scheme;

WorkCover Authority Fund means the Fund established under section 32 of the Accident Compensation Act 1985;

WorkCover insurance policy means an insurance policy issued in accordance with this Act;

S. 3(1) def. of WorkCover insurance policy amended by No. 81/1998 s. 4(e).

worker has the same meaning as it has under the Accident Compensation Act 1985 and includes in the event of the worker's death, the worker's dependants.

- (2) Unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter, words and expressions defined in the Accident Compensation Act 1985 have the same meaning in this Act.
- (3) A reference in the definition of superannuation benefit in subsection (1) to a worker includes a reference to any person to whom, by virtue of a paragraph of the definition of remuneration in subsection (1), an amount paid or payable in the circumstances referred to in that paragraph constitutes remuneration.

S. 3(3) inserted by No. 60/2007 s. 30(2).

- (4) For the purposes of this Act, a reference to remuneration includes a reference to superannuation benefits, other than those paid or payable in respect of services performed or rendered by a worker before 1 January 1998.

inserted by
No. 60/2007
s. 30(2).

- (5) For the purposes of this Act, a superannuation, provident or retirement fund or scheme is unfunded to the extent that money paid or payable by an employer in respect of a worker covered by the fund or scheme is not paid or payable during the worker's period of service with the employer.

S. 3(5)
inserted by
No. 60/2007
s. 30(2).

3A Superannuation benefits relating to services performed before 1 January 1998

S. 3A
inserted by
No. 60/2007
s. 31.

- (1) Money paid by an employer on or after 1 January 1998 as a superannuation benefit that is alleged by the employer to be paid in respect of services performed or rendered by a worker before that day, must be evidenced to the satisfaction of the Authority in the employer's records for the calculation of premiums under this Act.
- (2) In particular, the employer's records must show the manner of calculation of the benefit and any actuarial basis for it.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) and of any calculation of premiums to which that subsection is relevant, the certificate of a fellow or accredited member of the Institute of Actuaries of Australia to the effect that the actuarial basis on which an amount is calculated is justified is evidence and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof of that fact.

- (4) If records are not kept as required by this section, the Authority is entitled to assume for the purposes of the calculation of premiums, that a payment of money by an employer as a superannuation benefit on or after 1 January 1998 is an amount payable in respect of services performed or rendered by a worker on or after that day.

inserted by
No. 60/2007
s. 31.

3B Superannuation benefits not readily related to particular workers or their periods of service

For the purposes of any calculation of premiums, the Authority may determine—

- (a) whether, and the extent to which, any money paid or payable by an employer to a superannuation, provident or retirement fund or scheme that is not identified by the employer as paid or payable in respect of a particular worker (and whether or not purporting to be so paid or payable on any actuarial basis) is to be regarded as a superannuation benefit paid or payable in respect of a particular worker; and
- (b) subject to section 3A, the portion of any money paid on or after 1 January 1998 by an employer as a superannuation benefit to a wholly or partly unfunded fund or scheme, being money paid in respect of a worker (or that is to be regarded under paragraph (a) to have been so paid) who performed or rendered services to the employer on or after, as well as before, 1 January 1998, that is to be regarded as having been paid in respect of services performed or rendered before that date.

4 Application of Act

This Act does not apply to a self-insurer under Part V of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 except in relation to the employment of a worker within the meaning of paragraph (d) or (e) of the definition of worker in section 5(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985.

amended by Nos 47/1996
s. 24, 80/1997
s. 51.

5 Construction of Act

This Act must be read and construed as one with the Accident Compensation Act 1985.

6 Act to bind Crown

This Act binds the Crown, not only in right of the State of Victoria, but also, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

PART 2—WORKCOVER INSURANCE AND PREMIUMS

7 Compulsory WorkCover insurance

S. 7(1)
amended by Nos 7/1996
s. 51(1),
9/2010 s. 178.

(1) An employer who in any financial year employs a worker within the meaning of section 5(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985¹—

S. 7(1)(a)
amended by Nos 50/1994
s. 90(1)(2), 81/1998
s. 5(1),
substituted by
No. 9/2010
s. 101(1).

- (a) must obtain and keep in force a WorkCover insurance policy with the Authority indemnifying the employer against the employer's liability as an employer of the worker to pay—
- (i) any amount of compensation payable under the Accident Compensation Act 1985, other than an amount payable under section 125A(3) of that Act; and
 - (ii) damages to the worker or the dependants of the worker as permitted by and in accordance with section 134AB and section 135C of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 and to pay contribution in respect of such damages under section 23B of the Wrongs Act 1958—

in respect of injuries arising out of or in the course of or due to the nature of employment with that employer on or after 4 p.m. on 30 June 1993; and

s. 101(2).

Penalty: In the case of a natural person,
240 penalty units;

In the case of a body corporate,
1200 penalty units.

(1AAA) A policy of insurance obtained and kept in force by an employer under subsection (1)(a) does not indemnify an employer against the employer's liability to pay damages under sections 242AB and 242AD of the Accident Compensation Act 1985.

S. 7(1AAA)
inserted by
No. 9/2010
s. 101(3).

(1AAB) Subsection (1AAC) applies if the Authority is satisfied that—

s. 7

S. 7(1AA)
inserted by
No. 95/2003
s. 24(1).

- (1AA) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) concerning an employer's liability in respect of injuries to a worker if the court is satisfied that at the time of the alleged offence—
- (a) the employer believed on reasonable grounds that the employer could not be liable under the Accident Compensation Act 1985 or at common law or otherwise in respect of injuries to the worker because under section 80 of that Act the worker's employment was not connected with this State; and
 - (b) the employer had workers compensation cover in respect of the worker's employment under the law of the State or Territory with which the employer believed on reasonable grounds the worker's employment was connected under section 80 of that Act.

S. 7(1AB)
inserted by
No. 95/2003

- (1AB) In subsection (1AA), workers compensation cover means insurance or registration required under the law of a State or Territory in respect of liability for statutory workers compensation under that law.

S. 7(1A)
inserted by
No. 50/1994
s. 91,
substituted by
s. 51(2).

- (1A) Subject to subsection (1B), subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a financial year or part of a financial year during which the employer has reasonable grounds for believing that the total rateable remuneration that the employer is or will be liable to pay during that financial year does not exceed the exemption limit².

S. 7(1B)
inserted by
No. 7/1996
s. 51(2).

- (1B) Subsection (1A) does not operate to exclude the application of subsection (1) to an employer who employs an apprentice within the meaning of section 5(1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985³.

- (2) An employer is liable for an excess on each claim under a policy under subsection (1) as specified in section 125A(3) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985.
- (3) The excess may be increased, reduced or eliminated in accordance with sections 125A(6) and 125A(7) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985.
- (3A) An employer, other than an employer in respect of which subsection (1A) applies, who is required to, but fails to, comply with subsection (1)(a) for any policy period, or part of a policy period, is deemed to have in force a policy of insurance under subsection (1)(a) with the Authority for the purposes of this Act during the policy period or part of the policy period of non-compliance.
- (3B) Subject to section 21A, an employer who is deemed to have a policy of insurance under subsection (3A), is liable to pay the premium for the policy period, or the premium calculated in accordance with subsection (3C) for part of the policy period, in respect of which the employer is deemed to have the policy of insurance and any penalty for non-compliance under subsection (6), specified in a written notice served by the Authority on the employer.
- (3C) The premium payable under subsection (3B) in relation to part of a policy period for which an employer is deemed to have in force a policy of insurance is to be calculated in accordance with the formula—

No. 9/2010
s. 101(7).

(7A) Despite any other provision of this section, if the Authority is satisfied that—

- (a) the reason for the employer not obtaining or keeping in force a policy of insurance as required in accordance with subsection (1) in respect of injuries to a worker in a period is that the employer believed on reasonable grounds that the employer could not be liable under the Accident Compensation Act 1985 or at common law or otherwise in respect of injuries to the worker because under section 80 of that Act the worker's employment was not connected with this State; and the employer is not liable to pay a default penalty under subsection (6) in respect of that liability.

- (b) the employer had workers compensation cover in respect of the worker's employment under the law of the State or Territory with which the employer believed on reasonable grounds the worker's employment was connected under section 80 of that Act—

- (7B) In subsection (7A), workers compensation cover has the same meaning as in subsection (1AB).

13 Evidence that employer has WorkCover insurance policy

A certificate issued by the Authority or a person authorised by the Authority for the purposes of this section certifying that on any date or during any period specified in the certificate a specified employer had or did not have a WorkCover insurance policy with either a specified authorised insurer or the Authority is admissible in any proceedings and is evidence of the particulars certified in the certificate.

14 Employer ceasing to exist

- (1) A worker may make an application to the County Court for a declaration under this section.
- (2) The County Court may make a declaration that—
 - (a) an employer has entered into a policy of insurance with an authorised insurer named in the declaration or with the Authority; and
 - (b) the employer—
 - (i) being a natural person, has died, or is permanently resident outside the Commonwealth of Australia and its Territories, or cannot after due inquiry and search be found;
 - (ii) being a corporation (other than a company which has commenced to be wound up) has ceased to exist;
 - (iii) being a company, corporation, society, association or other body (other than a company which has commenced to be wound up), was at the time when it commenced to employ the worker incorporated outside the Commonwealth of Australia and its Territories and registered as a foreign company under the laws of any State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia and is not at the time of the declaration so registered under any such law; or
 - (iv) being a company, has commenced to be wound up after entering into the policy of insurance with the authorised insurer.

(1) If—

S. 18(1)(a)
substituted by
No. 81/1998
s. 11(1)(a).

- (a) an employer receives a notice from the Authority; and
- (b) the notice includes an estimate of rateable remuneration that the employer will be liable to pay to workers during the period not exceeding 12 months specified in the notice—

the estimate is deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the estimate provided by the employer unless the employer, within 28 days after receiving the notice, or such longer period as may be specified in the notice, provides to the Authority another estimate of rateable remuneration in a form approved by the Authority which the employer estimates that the employer will be liable to pay to workers during the period referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If—

S. 18(2)

- (3A) For the purposes of subsection (3), an employer does not comply with a notice received under subsection (1) or (2) if the rateable remuneration specified in a certified statement provided by the employer is incorrect.

inserted by
No. 9/2010
s. 183.

- (4) The Authority may assess the rateable remuneration paid or payable by an employer to which subsection (3) applies during the specified policy period and issue a notice of adjusted premium to the employer.

24 Assessment by Authority

If an employer fails to provide an estimate when required to do so under section 18, or the Authority considers that an estimate provided by the employer is incorrect, the Authority may—

- (a) assess the amount of rateable remuneration paid or payable by the employer; and
- (b) calculate the premium payable by the employer; and
- (c) serve a notice on the employer specifying the amount of premium payable.

25 Default penalty

30 Exercise of review and adjustment powers

The Authority may exercise its powers under sections 26, 33, 36L and 36M regardless of whether or not—

- (a) the premium has been fixed, demanded or paid; or
- (b) the period being reviewed, or in respect of which an adjustment applies, is no longer the current policy period; or
- (c) the Authority has already reviewed the amount calculated as the premium for any policy period being reviewed, or has already adjusted the premium; or
- (d) any circumstances have arisen that would, but for this paragraph, estop the Authority from conducting a review of, or adjusting the amount of, the premium.

(c) the Authority is satisfied that the premium was miscalculated because the employer or a person acting on behalf of the employer failed to provide full and true disclosure to the Authority in respect of matters relevant to the calculation of the premium—the employer is upon being served with a notice of adjustment under this section, liable to pay a default penalty of an amount equal to the difference between the premium stated in the notice of adjustment and the premium that was previously calculated for the employer.

amended by
No. 9/2010
s. 113(2).

- (2) The amount of the default penalty imposed under subsection (1) is to be increased by 20% if, after the Authority commenced the review under section 33 or 36L, the employer or a person acting on behalf of the employer took steps to prevent or hinder the Authority from properly calculating the premium payable by the employer.
- (3) A default penalty under this section is due and payable within 28 days of the date of the notice.
- (4) The Authority may remit the whole or any part of a default penalty imposed under this section.

33 Employer may apply for review of premium under this Part

- (1) An employer may apply to the Authority for a review under this Part in respect of—
 - (a) premium as specified in a notice of premium served under section 17A, 21A or 24; or
 - (b) premium as specified in a notice of adjusted premium served under section 21, 23(4), 26(4) or 36M; or
 - (c) premium as specified in a notice of premium served under section 7(3B); or
 - (d) premium as specified in a notice served under section 26A(2); or
 - (e) a default penalty as specified in a notice of penalty served under—
 - (i) section 7(6) or 25(1); or
 - (ii) section 31B(1) insofar as it relates to a notice of adjustment issued under section 26(4) or 36M; or
 - (f) a default penalty as specified in a notice served under section 26A(2); or
 - (g) an estimated future claim cost only on the grounds that the estimate is erroneous because of a coding error or other data entry error in relation to that claim.

- (2) On receiving an application in respect of a matter specified in subsection (1), the Authority must—
- (a) review the premium, default penalty or estimated future claim cost; or
 - (b) decide not to review the premium, default penalty or estimated future claim cost—
- in accordance with this Part.

- (1) The Authority may, by written notice, request an employer to provide information relevant to the review to the Authority within the time specified in the notice.
- (2) The Authority may suspend a review if the employer fails to provide information relevant to the review that the Authority has requested in a notice under subsection (1) by the time specified in that notice.
- (3) If the Authority suspends a review under subsection (2), the Authority must give the employer written notice of the suspension (suspension notice) which states—
 - (a) that the suspension takes effect on service of the suspension notice; and

- (b) the period of the suspension; and
 - (c) that the review has been suspended pending the provision of the information relevant to the review that the Authority has requested; and
 - (d) the details of the requested information; and
 - (e) that the review will remain suspended until the earlier of—
 - (i) the period for suspension specified in the suspension notice is complete; or
 - (ii) the employer provides the Authority with the requested information.
- (4) If an employer does not provide the Authority with information requested by the Authority by the completion of the stated period of suspension in the suspension notice, the employer is deemed to have withdrawn the application for review.
- (5) If an employer is deemed to have withdrawn an application for review under subsection (4), the employer may again apply for review of the same matter that was the subject of the deemed withdrawn application.
- (6) An application made under subsection (5) will not be accepted by the Authority unless the application—
- (a) is made within 60 days of the date the application was deemed to be withdrawn under subsection (4); and 36F Determination of review

- (1) The Authority must, after reviewing an application under section 33—
 - (a) confirm the premium, default penalty or estimated future claim cost; or
 - (b) adjust the premium, default penalty or estimated future claim cost.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Authority is only entitled to recover the amount of any increased premium resulting from an adjustment under subsection (1) if the premium relates to one or more of the following—
 - (a) the policy period current at the date of the application for review under section 33;
 - (b) any of the 4 completed policy periods before that period;
 - (c) any other completed policy period if there is, or was, fraud on the part of the employer or of any person acting, or apparently acting, on the employer's behalf.
- (3) In the case of a review of a notice of premium served under section 21A, the Authority is only entitled to recover the amount of any increased premium resulting from an adjustment under subsection (1) if the premium relates to one or more of the following—
 - (a) the most recent policy period for which the employer was deemed to hold a policy of insurance;
 - (b) any of the 4 completed policy periods before that period;

- (c) any other completed policy period if there is, or was, fraud on the part of the employer or of any person acting, or apparently acting, on the employer's behalf.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), if the Authority makes an adjustment under subsection (1) that results in an employer recovering premium the recovery is limited to—
- (a) the policy period current at the date of the application for review under section 33;
 - (b) any of the 4 completed policy periods before that period.
- (5) If the Authority makes an adjustment under subsection (1) that results in an employer recovering premium in respect of a period for which the employer was deemed to have a policy of insurance, the recovery is limited to—
- (a) the most recent policy period for which the employer was deemed to hold a policy of insurance;
 - (b) any of the 4 completed policy periods before that period.
- (6) The Authority may, in making a determination under this section, consider any relevant information.
- (7) The Authority must give notice to the employer of the determination made under this section.
- (8) The Authority must, in the notice, give the employer reasons for the determination made under this section.

36H Interest payable under section 36L

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if it is determined, following review under this Part or on appeal made under section 36J, that the Authority is liable to pay the employer an amount, the Authority must pay the employer interest, at the prescribed rate, on that amount.

- (2) The Authority is not required to pay interest on an amount referred to in subsection (1) if that amount is only payable because the employer provided information to the Authority that—
- (a) was inaccurate or incomplete;
 - (b) was revised by the employer after the Authority served the notice of premium.
- (3) The interest must be calculated—
- (a) from the date on which the premium paid by the employer exceeded the lower amount of premium the Authority or court subsequently determined to be payable following review under this Part; and
 - (b) to the date of that determination by the Authority or court.
- (4) In this section—

prescribed rate means the interest rate specified in section 7(2) of the Taxation (Interest on Overpayments) Act 1986.

36I Deemed decisions of the Authority

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if the Authority does not issue, within 90 days of receiving an application by an employer under section 33—
- (a) a determination made by the Authority under section 36F; or
 - (b) a notice under section 36B; or

59A Common law claim

If—

- (a) a worker has suffered an injury in circumstances which entitle or would entitle the worker or the dependants of the worker to compensation under the Accident Compensation Act 1985; and
- (b) the injury arose out of or in the course of or due to the nature of employment with an employer to whom section 55(2)(b), 55(2)(c) or 55(2)(d) applies—

the worker or dependants may recover from the Authority a sum equivalent to the amount for which the worker or dependants could have obtained judgment at common law or otherwise against the employer subject to any limitation of liability in the deemed contract of insurance under section 59B on or after 4 p.m. on 30 June 1993.

59B Deemed contract of insurance

- (1) There is deemed to be a contract of insurance in the form approved by the Authority in respect of an employer's liability to which section 59A applies between the employer and the Authority.
- (1A) A deemed contract of insurance does not indemnify an employer in respect of any liability of the employer to pay compensation for a matter for which compensation is awarded under Subdivision (1) of Division 2 of Part 4 of the Sentencing Act 1991.

- (2) For the purposes of a deemed contract of insurance—
- (a) the Authority may undertake the settlement of any claim against the employer insured under the contract;
 - (b) the Authority may take over during such period as it thinks proper the conduct and control on behalf of the employer of any proceedings taken or had to enforce such claim or for the settlement of any question arising with reference thereto;
 - (c) the Authority may defend or conduct such proceedings in the name of the employer and on the employer's behalf.
- (3) The Authority may recover under section 61 any amount paid under a deemed contract of insurance.

60 Authority may require employer to provide information

- (1) The Authority may by notice in writing require an employer or a person whom the Authority suspects is an employer to provide to the Authority within the period specified in the notice any information specified in the notice which may be in the employer's or that person's possession and is required by the Authority in order to deal with a claim under this Part.
- (2) A person must comply with a notice under subsection (1).

(2) The Authority may, by instrument in writing, waive all or part of the liability of an employer under subsection (1) to reimburse the Authority an amount, if the Authority is satisfied that—

amended by
No. 40/2004
s. 11.

- (a) the amount is beyond the capacity of the employer to pay; or
- (b) the employer could not reasonably have been expected to regard himself or herself as an employer at the relevant time; or
- (c) the employer, not being a corporation, is bankrupt and the liability under this section is not provable in the bankruptcy; or
- (d) the employer, being a corporation, is being wound up and the liability under this section is not provable in the winding up; or

- (e) the employer, being a corporation, has been dissolved; or
 - (f) it would not be commercially feasible for the Authority to attempt to recover the amount.
- (3) A person on whom a notice has been served under subsection (1) in respect of an injured worker may, within the period specified in the notice, apply to the appropriate court having jurisdiction in relation to the claim under the Accident Compensation Act 1985 for a determination as to the person's liability under this Act.
- (4) The Authority may recover an amount specified in a notice served under subsection (1) if an application has not been made under subsection (3) from the person to whom the notice was given as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

62 General power of Authority in relation to proceedings

- (1) If—
- (a) a claim under the Uninsured Employers and Indemnity Scheme has been made and the employer does not appear and defend the application for an award of compensation; or
 - (b) an award of compensation has, prior to the making of the claim, been obtained in default of appearance by the employer, or by consent of the worker and the employer; or
 - (c) the Authority for any reason thinks fit—
- the Authority may cause to be made such inquiries as it thinks fit to determine the genuineness of the grounds on which the award is sought or was based.

- (2) The court having jurisdiction in relation to the matter under the Accident Compensation Act 1985 may adjourn an application referred to in subsection (1) or, if an award has been made, may reopen the proceedings and order some fit person to take and defend the proceedings in substitution for the employer, and for those purposes all the rights of the employer shall be subrogated to that person.

At any hearing of an application under this section, the Authority may appear before the court and exercise in respect of any matters and questions arising out of the application the same powers, rights and authorities as an employer may exercise in respect of a claim between a worker and an employer under this Act.

- (c) one or more workers of an employer are employed solely or mainly to perform duties for or in connection with one or more businesses carried on by one or more other persons (associates); or
- (d) one or more workers of an employer perform duties for or in connection with one or more businesses carried on by one or more other persons (associates), being duties performed in connection with, or in fulfilment of the employer's obligation under, an agreement, arrangement or undertaking for the provision of services to any one or more of the associates in connection with that business or those businesses—
- (i) whether the agreement, arrangement or undertaking is formal or informal, express or implied; and
 - (ii) whether or not the agreement, arrangement or undertaking provides for duties to be performed by the workers or specifies the duties to be performed by them—

the employer and all persons who are related persons or associates in relation to that employer together constitute a group and each is a member of that group.

Note

Subsection (8) allows the Authority to exclude members from a group constituted under this subsection in certain circumstances.

- (2) If a person or set of persons has a controlling interest in each of 2 businesses under subsection (3), the persons who carry on those businesses constitute a group and each person is a member of the group.

the person or set of persons is deemed to have a controlling interest in the business of the partnership.

- (8) If the Authority is satisfied, having regard to the nature and degree of ownership and control of the businesses, the nature of the businesses and any other matters the Authority considers relevant, that a business carried on by a member of a group, other than a group constituted by reason of subsection (10), is carried on independently of, and is not connected with the carrying on of, a business carried on by any other member of that group, the Authority may exclude the member from that group.
- (9) The Authority must not, under subsection (8), exclude a person from a group if the person is a body corporate that, by reason of section 50 of the Corporations Act, is related to another body corporate that is a member of that group.
- (10) Subject to subsection (11), for the purposes of this section, if an employer is a member of a group and that person or another member of that group is a member of another group, a person who is a member of that other group is—

- (a) deemed to be a member of the first-mentioned group; and
- (b) called an associate.

(11) Subsection (10) does not apply if a person satisfies the Authority that—

- (a) the trade, business or profession carried on by that person is carried on independently of, and is not connected with the carrying on of a trade, business or profession carried on by a member of the first-mentioned group; and
- (b) that trade, business or profession is not carried on with an intention, either directly or indirectly, of reducing the amount of premium payable by that person or another member of the group.

(12) In this section—

business includes—

- (a) a trade or profession; and
- (b) any other activity carried on for fee, gain or reward; and
- (c) the activity—
 - (i) of employing one or more persons if that person performs, or those persons perform, duties for or in connection with another business; or
 - (ii) of holding any money, property or shares used for or in connection with another business.;

person includes a body or association (corporate or unincorporate) and a partnership.

69 Books and accounts to be preserved

- (1) A person who is or was an employer required to obtain and keep in force a WorkCover insurance policy under this Act must keep proper books and preserve those books for a period of not less than 5 years after the completion of the transactions to which they relate.

Penalty: In the case of a natural person,
60 penalty units;
In the case of a body corporate,
300 penalty units.

S. 69(1)
amended by
No. 9/2010
s. 189.

- (2) This section does not apply so as to require the preservation of any books—
- (a) in respect of which the Authority has notified the employer that preservation is not required; or
 - (b) of a corporation which has gone into liquidation and which has been finally dissolved.

70 Warrants to enter and search

- (1) If a magistrate is satisfied, by the evidence on oath or by affidavit of the Authority, that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that there are on particular premises any books which are relevant to the assessment of a premium the magistrate may issue a warrant authorising any member of the police force together with any other person named in the warrant—
- (a) to enter those premises (using such force as is necessary for the purpose);
 - (b) to search the premises and to break open and search any cupboard, drawer, chest, trunk, box, package or other receptacle, whether a fixture or not, in the premises;
 - (c) to take possession of, or secure against interference, any books that appear to be relevant to the assessment of a premium; and
 - (d) to deliver any books, possession of which is so taken, into the possession of the Authority or a person authorised by the Authority to receive them.

S. 70(1)(d)
amended by
No. 7/1996
s. 58(d).

- (2) Every warrant under subsection (1) may be in the prescribed form and must not be granted except in accordance with subsection (1).
- (3) Where, under this section, a person takes possession of, or secures against interference, any books, that person or any person to whose possession they are delivered under subsection (1)(d)—
- (a) may make copies of, or take extracts from, the books;
 - (b) may retain possession of the books for such period as is necessary to enable them to be inspected, and copies of, or extracts from, them to be made or taken, by or on behalf of the Authority; and
 - (c) during that period must permit a person who would be entitled to inspect any one or more of those books if they were not in the possession of the first-mentioned person to inspect at all reasonable times such of those books as that person would be so entitled to inspect.

71 Evidence

- (1) For the purposes of any proceedings against a person for the recovery of a premium or penalty, a certificate purporting to be issued by the Authority or an authorised insurer certifying that—
- (a) the person named in the certificate was liable to the premium or penalty in respect of the period specified in the certificate; or
 - (b) an assessment of the premium or penalty was duly made against the person; or
 - (c) the particulars of the assessment or penalty are as stated in the certificate; or
 - (d) notice of premium or adjusted premium or penalty was duly served upon the person; or
 - (e) the amount specified in the certificate was at the date of the certificate payable as the premium or penalty by the person named in the certificate—is evidence of the matters so certified.

amended by
No. 9/2010
s. 118(1).

- (2) The production of a notice of premium or adjusted premium, or a document purporting to be executed in accordance with section 18(3) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 or under the seal of an authorised insurer purporting to be a copy of a notice of premium or adjusted premium, is conclusive evidence of the due making of an assessment and that the amount and all particulars of the assessment are correct, except in review or appeal proceedings (in which it is proof in the absence of proof to the contrary).
- S. 71(2) amended by Nos 28/2005 s. 27(1), 9/2010 s. 118(2).
- (3) The production of any document purporting to be executed in accordance with section 18(3) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 or under the seal of an authorised insurer (that document purporting to be a copy of or extract from any document or return furnished to, or of any document issued by, the Authority or an authorised insurer) is for all purposes sufficient evidence of the matter therein set forth, without producing the original.
- S. 71(3) amended by No. 28/2005 s. 27(2).
