10 Aggravated cruelty

- (1) A person who commits an act of cruelty upon any animal which results in the death or serious disablement of the animal commits an act of aggravated cruelty upon that animal and is guilty of an offence and is liable to a penalty of not more than, in the case of a natural person, 492 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years or, in the case of a body corporate, 1200 penalty units.
- (2) A person who is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) may be liable to the penalty for that offence in addition to or instead of any other penalty to which the person is liable under section 9.

11 Defence to cruelty or aggravated cruelty

In any proceedings against a person in relation to an act of cruelty under section 9, or an act of aggravated cruelty under section 10, it is a defence if the person—

- (a) acted reasonably; or
- (b) reasonably omitted to do an act—

in defending himself or herself or any other person against an animal or against any threat of attack by an animal.

11A Further prohibited procedure offences

- (1) The owner or person in charge of an animal must not allow a prohibited procedure to be carried out on the animal.

Penalty: 120 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, in the case of a natural person.

600 penalty units, in the case of a body corporate.

(2) The owner or person in charge of an animal on which a prohibited procedure has been carried out must not—

- (a) show or exhibit the animal; or
- (b) allow another person to show or exhibit the animal—unless the prohibited procedure was carried out—

- (c) before the commencement of section 80 of the Animals Legislation Amendment (Animal Care) Act 2007; or
- (d) in a jurisdiction other than Victoria, in accordance with the law of that jurisdiction, and the animal was not, at any time on or before the procedure was carried out, resident in Victoria.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

(3) In this section—

exhibit, in relation to an animal, means the general or public display of the animal (whether or not for sale purposes);

show, in relation to an animal, means causing the animal to participate in any competition, performance or entertainment.

12 Serious offences

(1) If a person has been convicted of one or more offences under this Act and a court considers that the offence or offences is or are of a serious nature, the court may, in addition to or instead of any other penalty, order—

- (a) that the person be disqualified for the period (not exceeding 10 years) specified in the order, from being a person in charge of an animal of a kind or class specified in the order; or

(1B) Part 2A applies to an order under subsection (1A) as if it were a search warrant for the animal issued under section 24G.

(2) A court must not make an order under subsection (1) in relation to a person who is not the owner of the animal or animals concerned in proceedings for the offence or offences referred to in that subsection if the person proves—

(a) that the offence or one of the offences was committed both on the instructions and in the presence or under the supervision of—

(i) the owner or the person in charge of the animal or animals; or

(ii) a person who at the time the offence was committed was the employer of or had engaged the person who committed the offence to do work which the person was then doing; and

- (b) if the offence was a continuing one, that the person had no reasonable opportunity in the circumstances of preventing the offence from continuing.
- (3) A court which has made an order under subsection (1) may suspend the order—
- (a) for any period which the court considers necessary to make arrangements for the custody of any animal of a kind or class specified in the order; or
- (b) pending the determination of an appeal against the order.
- (4) A person in relation to whom an order under subsection (1) is made may, after 12 months after the date of the order, apply to the court which made the order for the variation, suspension or cancellation of the order.
- (5) A court to which application is made under subsection (4) may, having regard to the applicant's character, the applicant's conduct since the date of the order, the nature of the offence or offences referred to in subsection (1) and any other relevant circumstances—
- (a) direct that from a specified date—
- (i) the order be varied, suspended or cancelled as specified in the direction; or
- (ii) the order be varied to apply only to animals of a specified kind or class; or
- (b) refuse the application.
- (6) If a court under subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (b) directs that an order be varied or refuses an application, the applicant must not make another application until 12 months after the direction or refusal.

12A Registration of interstate orders

(1) In this section—

corresponding law means a provision of a law of another State or Territory declared by an Order of the Governor in Council under section 12B to be a corresponding law for the purposes of this section;

interstate minister means the minister responsible for administering a corresponding law;

interstate order means a court order made under a corresponding law;

register means a register kept for the purposes of this section.

(2) On the written request of an interstate minister, the Minister may register an interstate order.

(3) The Minister must not register an interstate order under this section unless the interstate minister has provided the Minister with a copy, or an extract of the operative provisions, of the order.

- (4) On registering an interstate order under this section, the Minister must ensure that any details specified in the regulations relating to the registration of interstate orders under this section are recorded on the copy or extract of the order and in the register (as the case requires).
- (5) As soon as possible after registering an interstate order, the Minister must ensure that a notice is served on the person who is the subject of the order either personally or by registered post at the last known address of that person.
- (6) The notice must inform the person—
- (a) that the relevant interstate order has been registered under this section; and
 - (b) that the registration of the order does not take effect until 14 days after the notice is served on the person; and
 - (c) that from the time the registration takes effect, a contravention of the order in Victoria is an offence under subsection (8).
- (7) The registration of an interstate order registered under this section takes effect 14 days after notice is served in accordance with subsection (5) on the person who is the subject of the order.
- (8) A person who is the subject of an interstate order, that is registered under this section, must comply with the order.
- Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (9) Subsection (8) applies even if the order is varied after it is registered.
- (10) However, if an interstate order is varied after it is registered to create a new obligation on the person to whom the order relates, proceedings against the person in respect of a contravention of that obligation must not be started unless the person had notice of the obligation before the contravention occurred.

- (11) In proceedings for an alleged offence against subsection (8)—
- (a) production of a certificate signed by the Minister stating that an interstate order was registered on a specified date is prima facie evidence of the registration under this section of the order; and
 - (b) production of a certificate signed by the interstate minister setting out the terms of the interstate order at a particular date is prima facie evidence of the terms of the order on that date.
- (12) All courts and tribunals, and any person acting judicially, must take judicial notice of—
- (a) the signature of the person who is or was the Minister, and of the fact that the person is or was the Minister; and
 - (b) the signature of the person who is or was the interstate minister, and of the fact that the person is or was the interstate minister.

12B Governor in Council may declare corresponding law

- (1) The Governor in Council may, by Order published in the Government Gazette, declare a provision of a law of another State or a Territory to be a corresponding law for the purposes of section 12A if that provision substantially corresponds with section 12.
- (2) An Order under subsection (1) has effect as from the date the Order is published or from any later date specified in the Order.

13 Baiting and luring

- (1) A person who—
- (a) keeps, uses or assists in the management of premises for the purpose of causing an animal to fight, or for the baiting or maltreating of an animal; or
 - (b) causes or procures the release of an animal in circumstances where it will or is likely to be pursued, injured or killed by a dog; or
 - (c) causes, procures or permits an animal in captivity to be injured or killed by a dog; or
 - (d) uses an animal as a lure or kill for the purpose of blooding greyhounds or in connexion with the training and racing of any coursing dog; or
 - (e) keeps or has the custody, care or control of an animal for use as a lure or kill for the purpose of blooding greyhounds or in connexion with the training and racing of any coursing dog—is guilty of an offence and is liable to a penalty of not more than, in the case of a natural person, 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years or, in the case of a body corporate, 1200 penalty units.

- (2) In any prosecution under subsection (1), evidence in writing by a veterinary practitioner who is employed, or who practises on his or her own behalf, as a veterinary pathologist that an animal was alive at the time of its attack by a dog is prima facie evidence that the animal was alive at the time of that attack.

- (3) In any prosecution under subsection (1)(d)—
- (a) evidence that the accused had the custody, care or control of an animal which appeared to have been used as a lure or kill in the manner referred to in subsection (1)(d) is prima facie evidence that the accused used the animal as a lure or kill in that manner; and
 - (b) it is a defence if the person charged proves that—
 - (i) the animal was used as a lure or kill in the manner referred to in subsection (1)(d) without that person's knowledge or consent; or
 - (ii) that person took all reasonable steps to prevent the animal being used as a lure or kill in the manner referred to in subsection (1)(d).
- (4) A person must not attend an event at which an animal is encouraged to fight another animal.

- (b) inspect and examine any animals, plant, equipment or facility that the inspector reasonably believes is being used for baiting, trap-shooting or luring.
- (2) If a POCTA inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that there is on any premises (that is not a person's dwelling)—
- (a) any animals that are ruminants that have been confined without food or water for more than 36 hours; or
- (b) any animals, being mammals (other than ruminants) or birds that have been confined without food or water for more than 24 hours—the inspector may, with any assistance that is necessary, enter the premises and may feed and water the animals.

- (3) If a POCTA inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that there is on any premises (that is not a person's dwelling) an animal that is in an entanglement, tether or bog or that is showing signs of pain or suffering as a result of any injury or disease, the inspector may, with any assistance that is necessary enter the premises and—
- (a) free any animal on the premises that is in an entanglement, tether or bog, from the entanglement, tether or bog, without removing it from its housing or the premises on which it is located; or
- (b) if any animal on the premises is showing signs of pain or suffering as a result of injury or disease, inspect the animal in order to determine whether the animal requires treatment by a veterinary practitioner.

- (4) If a POCTA inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that there is on any premises (that is not a person's dwelling) an animal that is behaving in such a manner and there are such circumstances that it is likely that the animal will cause death or serious injury to any person or another animal, the inspector may, with any assistance that is necessary enter the premises and—
- (a) contain any animal in or on the premises; or
 - (b) destroy any animal in or on the premises—
- that is behaving in such a manner and there are such circumstances that it is likely that the animal will cause death or serious injury to any person or other animal.

24 Emergency power to enter and seize or destroy abandoned animals

- (1) If a POCTA inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that there is on any premises (that is not a person's dwelling) an animal that is abandoned, distressed or disabled the inspector may, with any assistance that is necessary—
- (a) enter the premises;
 - (b) if the inspector finds any animal on the premises that the inspector reasonably believes is abandoned, distressed or disabled—
 - (i) destroy the animal, if the inspector reasonably believes that the animal's condition is such that it would continue to suffer if it remained alive; or
 - (ii) immediately seize the animal, if the inspector reasonably believes that the animal's welfare is at risk; or

- (iii) leave notice at the premises that the inspector intends to seize the animal at the end of two days after the giving of the notice, if the inspector is not contacted by the owner or person in charge of the animal within that period.
- (2) If an inspector has left a notice at premises under subsection (1)(b)(iii), and if, on the expiry of the two day period specified in the notice, the inspector has not been contacted by the owner or person in charge of the animal the inspector may, with any assistance that is necessary—
 - (a) enter the premises;
 - (b) search for and seize the animal.

24A Additional powers that may be exercised on emergency entry

S. 24A substituted by No. 65/2007 s. 95.

A POCTA inspector who enters premises under this Division may—

24D Emergency powers of veterinary practitioners and superintendents of saleyards

- (1) A veterinary practitioner may, with any assistance that is necessary, destroy any animal—
 - (a) that is behaving in such a manner and there are such circumstances that the veterinary practitioner reasonably believes that the animal is likely to cause death or serious injury to any person or another animal; or
 - (b) that is abandoned, distressed or disabled if the veterinary practitioner reasonably believes that the animal's condition is such that it would continue to suffer if it remained alive.

- (2) A superintendent of a saleyard may, with any assistance that is necessary, destroy any animal in any saleyard in the municipal district in respect of which the superintendent is appointed—
 - (a) that is behaving in such a manner and there are such circumstances that the superintendent reasonably believes that the animal is likely to cause death or serious injury to any person or another animal; or
 - (b) that is abandoned, distressed or disabled if the superintendent reasonably believes that the animal's condition is such that it would continue to suffer if it remained alive.
- (3) In this section, superintendent of a saleyard means the person in charge of a livestock saleyard.

Division 3—Search for and seizure of animals, warrants and authorisations

24E Notice to seize animal

- (1) If the Minister believes on reasonable grounds that an animal is in such a condition, or, in such circumstances, that the animal is likely to become distressed or disabled, the Minister may serve notice that the Minister intends to authorise seizure of the animal.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) be served by—
 - (i) giving it personally to the owner of the animal; or

24G Search warrants for abandoned etc animals on premises

(1) A POCTA inspector, with the written approval of the Department Head, may apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant in relation to premises (including residential premises), if the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that there is in or on the premises—

- (a) an abandoned, diseased, distressed or disabled animal; or
- (b) an animal, the welfare of which the inspector believes on reasonable grounds is at risk; or

- (c) an animal, in respect of which a contravention of section 9, 10(1), 11A, 13(1) or regulations under this Act is occurring or has occurred; or
- (d) an animal, in respect of which the person in charge is in contravention of an order under section 12(1) or an interstate order within the meaning of section 12A, that is registered under that section.
- (2) If a magistrate is satisfied, by the evidence, on oath or by affidavit, of the POCTA inspector that there are reasonable grounds to believe that there is in or on the premises—
- (a) an abandoned, diseased, distressed or disabled animal; or
- (b) an animal, the welfare of which the inspector believes on reasonable grounds is at risk; or
- (c) an animal, in respect of which a contravention of section 9, 10(1), 11A, 13(1) or regulations under this Act is occurring or has occurred; or
- (d) an animal, in respect of which the person in charge is in contravention of an order under section 12(1) or an interstate order within the meaning of section 12A, that is registered under that section—

the magistrate may issue a search warrant in accordance with the Magistrates' Court Act 1989.

- (3) A search warrant issued under this section may authorise a POCTA inspector named in the warrant, together with any member of the police force or any other person or persons named or otherwise identified in the warrant and with any necessary equipment—

- (a) to enter the premises specified in the warrant; and
 - (b) to search for an animal, or an animal of a particular kind, named or referred to in the warrant; and
 - (c) to seize an animal, or an animal of a particular kind, named or referred to in the warrant, and to take the animal to any place that the inspector thinks fit; and
 - (d) to retain possession of any animal seized for the time specified in the warrant; and
 - (e) to examine or inspect an animal, or an animal of a particular kind, named or referred to in the warrant, that is found in or on the premises, to determine if the animal requires treatment by a veterinary practitioner; and
 - (f) to feed and water an animal, or an animal of a particular kind, named or referred to in the warrant, that is found in or on the premises; and
 - (g) to free an animal, or an animal of a particular kind, named or referred to in the warrant, from an entanglement, tether or bog in or on the premises; and
 - (h) to take and keep samples of or from an animal, or an animal of a particular kind, named or referred to in the warrant; and
 - (i) to take photographs (including video recordings) or make sketches of an animal, or an animal of a particular kind, named or referred to in the warrant, or other thing on the premises; and

- (j) to open any container at the premises for the purpose of inspecting, or taking a sample of, its contents, but must reseal the container after the inspection is made or the sample is taken.

24H Magistrates' Court may extend period of warrant under section 24G

S. 24H substituted by No. 65/2007 s. 95.

- (1) A POCTA inspector to whom a warrant under section 24G has been issued may apply to the Magistrates' Court, before the expiration of the time specified in the warrant for which possession of the animal may be retained, for an extension of that period.
- (2) The Magistrates' Court may order such an extension if it is satisfied that the retention of the animal is necessary for its welfare.
- (3) The Magistrates' Court may adjourn an application to enable notice of the application to be given to any person.

24O Announcement before entry

- (1) On executing a search warrant issued under this Part the inspector executing the warrant—
- (a) must announce that he or she is authorised by the warrant to enter the premises; and
- (b) if the inspector has been unable to obtain unforced entry, must give any person at the premises or, if the premises is a vehicle, vessel or aircraft, in or in charge of the vehicle, vessel or aircraft an opportunity to allow entry to the premises, vehicle, vessel or aircraft.
- (2) An inspector need not comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the premises is required to ensure—
- (a) the safety of any person; or
- (b) that the effective execution of the search warrant is not frustrated.

24P Details of warrant to be given to occupier

S. 24P
substituted by
No. 65/2007
s. 95.

- (1) If the occupier is present at the premises or, if the premises is a vehicle, vessel or aircraft, a person is in or in charge of the vehicle, vessel or aircraft when a search warrant issued under this Part is being executed, the inspector must—
 - (a) identify himself or herself to the occupier or person; and
 - (b) give to the occupier or person a copy of the warrant.
- (2) If the occupier is not present at the premises when a search warrant issued under this Part is being executed, the inspector must, if there is a person present at the premises, identify himself or herself to the person and give the person a copy of the warrant.

24Q Seizure of things not mentioned in the warrant and taking of samples

substituted by
No. 65/2007
s. 95.

- (1) A search warrant issued under this Part authorises an inspector executing the warrant, in addition to the seizure of any animal or other thing of the kind described in the warrant, to seize—
 - (a) any animal that is not described in the warrant or that is not of a kind described in the warrant, if the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds—
 - (i) that the welfare of the animal is at risk; or
 - (ii) that the person in charge of the animal is in contravention of an order under section 12(1) or an interstate order within the meaning of section 12A, that is registered under that section; or

- (iii) that the animal is of a kind that could have been included in a search warrant issued under this Part and that will afford evidence of a contravention of this Act or regulations made under this Act; or
 - (iv) that it is necessary to seize the animal in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction or the contravention of this Act or regulations under this Act;
- (b) any thing (that is not an animal) which is not of the kind described in the warrant if the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds—
- (i) that the thing is of a kind that could have been included in a search warrant issued under this Part and that will afford evidence about the contravention of this Act or regulations under this Act; and
 - (ii) that it is necessary to seize that thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction or its use in the contravention of this Act or regulations under this Act.
- (2) A search warrant issued under this Part authorises an inspector executing the warrant, in addition to seizing a thing of the kind described in the warrant, to take a sample of or from any thing that is not of the kind described in the warrant if the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds, that the thing is of a kind—
- (a) that could have been included in a search warrant issued under this Part; and
 - (b) that will afford evidence about the contravention of this Act or regulations under this Act.

Division 6—Duties and powers as to seized animals

24R Duty to take steps to identify owner

If an animal has been seized under this Part and the identity of both the owner and the person in charge of the animal are not known to the person who seized the animal, the person who seized the animal must take reasonable steps to identify and contact the owner or person in charge of the animal.

the inspector who seized the animal must serve a notice of seizure under this section on the person who is able to be contacted, or cause such a notice to be served in accordance with subsection (2).

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the notice must—
- (a) be served either personally or by post; and
 - (b) if the animal has been seized under a warrant issued under section 24G, be served on or before the expiry of the time for which possession of the animal may be retained under the warrant.
- (3) If an animal has been seized under this Part and—
- (a) if, after taking all reasonable steps under section 24R, both the owner and person in charge of the animal are not able to be contacted (whether or not the identity of the owner and person in charge are known); and
 - (b) neither the owner nor person in charge of the animal is suspected of committing an offence against this Act or regulations under this Act; and
 - (c) the person who seized the animal reasonably believes that the welfare of the animal is not at risk; and
 - (d) application has not been made and is not proposed to be made under section 24X—
- the person who seized the animal must serve a notice of seizure in accordance with subsection (4).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the notice must—
- (a) if an animal has been seized from premises, be left at the premises from which the animal has been seized or sent by post to those premises; and

- (b) (whether the animal has been seized from premises or in a public place) be sent by post to any last known address of the owner and of the person in charge of the animal; and
 - (c) if the animal has been seized under a warrant under section 24G, be sent on or before the expiry of the time for which possession of the animal may be retained under the warrant.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a notice of seizure is a notice in writing that sets out—
- (a) a description of the animal; and
 - (b) the name of the inspector who seized the animal, the inspector's contact details and the reason why the animal has been seized; and
 - (c) if the notice is served under subsections (1) and (2)—
 - (i) that the animal may be recovered within 7 days after service of the notice; and
 - (ii) that, if the animal is not recovered within 7 days after service of the notice, the animal may be disposed of in accordance with this Division; and
 - (d) if the notice is left at or sent to premises under subsections (3) and (4)—
 - (i) that the animal may be recovered within 14 days after the leaving or sending of the notice and the place where the animal may be recovered; and

- (ii) that, if the animal is not recovered within 14 days after the leaving or sending of the notice, the animal may be disposed of in accordance with this Division.

24T Provision for recovery or disposal of animals that are not at risk

- (1) The owner or person in charge of an animal on whom a notice of seizure has been served under section 24S(1) and 24S(2) may recover the animal if, within 7 days of service of the notice—
 - (a) the owner or person in charge pays the amount determined by the person or body that is retaining the animal for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in seizing and retaining the animal until its recovery; and
 - (b) the person or body retaining the animal reasonably believes that the animal will not be at risk on being returned to the owner or person in charge.
- (2) The owner or person in charge of an animal in respect of which a notice of seizure has been left at or sent to premises under section 24S(3) and 24S(4) may recover the animal if, within 14 days of notice being left at or sent to premises—
 - (a) the owner or person in charge pays the amount determined by the person or body that is retaining the animal for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in seizing and retaining the animal until its recovery; and
 - (b) the person or body retaining the animal reasonably believes that the animal will not be at risk on being returned to the owner or person in charge.

- (3) If a notice of seizure has been left at or sent to premises under section 24S and the animal is not recovered under subsection (1) or (2), the animal may be disposed of in accordance with this Division.
- (4) If an animal has been seized in a public place, and—
- (a) the welfare of the animal is not reasonably believed to be at risk; and
 - (b) it is not possible to send a notice to the last known address of the owner or person in charge under section 24S because both the owner and person in charge of the animal are not able to be contacted (whether or not the identity of the owner and the person in charge of the animal are known); and
 - (c) neither the owner nor the person in charge of the animal has recovered the animal within 14 days of the seizure of the animal—
- the animal may be disposed of in accordance with this Division.

- (1) If an inspector seizes under this Part—
 - (a) a document; or
 - (b) a thing that can be readily copied; or
 - (c) a storage device that contains information that can be readily copied—the inspector must, before finishing the search, give—
 - (d) a copy of the information, thing or device; and
 - (e) a receipt for the thing—to the owner or custodian of the document.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the inspector is unable to discover the identity of the owner or custodian of the document, thing or device.
- (3) If it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1)(d) or (1)(e) in respect of a thing before the inspector finishes the search, the inspector must do so as soon as practicable after finishing the search.
- (4) In the case of a paper document, the inspector must certify on any copy of the document given to a person under this section that the copy is an accurate copy of the document.
- (5) A copy of a document certified under subsection (4) is to be received in all courts and tribunals as evidence of equal validity to the original.

24ZH Access to seized things

- (1) If a thing is seized under this Part, the inspector who seized the thing must, if practicable, allow the person who would normally be entitled to possession of the thing reasonable access to it while it remains in the possession, or under the control, of the inspector.
- (2) This section does not apply—

- (1) If a dispute arises as to whom a thing seized by an inspector under this Part should be returned, any person seeking possession of the thing may apply to the Magistrates' Court for an order that the thing be given to that person.
- (2) The person making the application must give notice of the application to the inspector and to every other person that the person should reasonably be aware claims, or may have a claim to, possession or ownership of the thing.
- (3) On receiving notice of an application relating to a thing, the inspector who seized the thing must retain possession of the thing until the application is determined, abandoned or withdrawn.
- (4) After hearing an application, the Magistrates' Court may order the inspector to give the thing to a particular person if it is satisfied—
 - (a) that at the time of making the order, the person has a better claim to the possession of the thing than any other person; and

- (b) that every other person whom the Court reasonably believes may have had a claim for possession or ownership of the thing was given notice of the application.
- (5) The inspector must comply with the order.
- (6) Subsection (4) applies regardless of whether or not the particular person was the applicant.

37A Power to serve a notice

- (1) An authorised officer may serve an infringement notice on any person that he or she has reason to believe has committed—
 - (a) an offence against section 15A(2); or
 - (b) a prescribed offence against the regulations.
- (2) In this Part a reference to an "authorised officer" is a reference to—
 - (a) in the case of an offence relating to a scientific procedure (within the meaning of Part 3) an authorised officer, within the meaning of section 25; and
 - (b) in any other case, an inspector within the meaning of section 8, being in the case of an inspector who has been approved under section 18, any case for the purposes of which the inspector has been approved.
- (3) An offence referred to in subsection (1) for which an infringement notice may be served is an infringement offence within the meaning of the Infringements Act 2006 and the penalty for that offence is the prescribed infringement penalty in respect of that offence.

- (2) The Department Head may by instrument of delegation delegate to any person any power, duty or function of the Department Head under this Act or regulations under this Act other than this power of delegation.

39 Evidence

In any legal proceedings under this Act—

- (a) the production of a copy of the Government Gazette containing any matters required by or under this Act to be published in the Government Gazette is conclusive evidence of those matters; and
- (b) in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof is not required of—
- (i) the approval of a person as an inspector (as defined in section 8); or
 - (ii) the appointment of any other employee in the Department for the purposes of this Act; or
 - (iii) the authority of any authorized officer appointed under section 35 to take proceedings for an offence of a class referred to in that section; or

S. 39(b)(ii)
amended by Nos 77/1995
s. 33, 46/1998
s. 7(Sch. 1).

- (iv) the authority of any person authorized under section 24 to take proceedings for an offence of a class referred to in that section.

40 Neglect to prosecute

If a person who filed a charge-sheet charging an offence under this Act or the regulations does not appear at the hearing or in any other way fails to proceed with the prosecution, the court hearing the alleged offence may authorize another person to take or continue the proceedings for that offence, whether upon that charge-sheet or not.

41AB Conduct by officers, employees or agents

- (1) If, in any proceedings under this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show—
 - (a) that the conduct was engaged in by an officer of that body corporate within the scope of the officer's actual or apparent authority and the officer had that state of mind; or
 - (b) that the conduct was engaged in by an agent of the body corporate and—
 - (i) the agent acted at the specific direction or with the specific consent or agreement of the body corporate; and
 - (ii) the agent had that state of mind; and

- (iii) the body corporate was aware of the agent's state of mind when the conduct was engaged in.
- (2) For the purposes of any proceedings under this Act, any conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate is deemed to have been engaged in also by the body corporate if the conduct was engaged in by—
- (a) an officer of the body corporate within the scope of the officer's actual or apparent authority; or
 - (b) any other person at the specific direction or with the specific consent or agreement of an officer of the body corporate, if the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the officer.
- (3) If, in any proceedings under this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a person other than a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show—
- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by an employee of that person within the scope of the employee's actual or apparent authority and the employee had that state of mind; or
 - (b) that the conduct was engaged in by an agent of the person and—
 - (i) the agent acted at the specific direction or with the specific consent or agreement of the person; and
 - (ii) the agent had that state of mind; and
 - (iii) the person was aware of the agent's state of mind when the conduct was engaged in.

- (4) For the purposes of any proceedings under this Act, any conduct engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate (the principal) is deemed to have been engaged in also by the principal if the conduct was engaged in by—
- (a) an employee of the principal within the scope of the employee's actual or apparent authority; or
 - (b) any other person at the specific direction or with the specific consent or agreement of an employee of the principal, if the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the employee.
- (5) A reference in this section to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person and the person's reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.
