PART 4.8—PROTECTIVE INTERVENTION

Division 1—Temporary assessment orders

228 Application for temporary assessment order by notice

(1) The Secretary may give a notice under this section if the Secretary—

(a) has a reasonable suspicion that a child is, or is likely to be, in need of protection; and

(b) is of the opinion that further investigation and assessment of the matter is warranted; and

(c) is of the opinion that the investigation and assessment cannot properly proceed unless a temporary assessment order is made.

(2) The Secretary may by notice direct—

(a) the child to appear; and

(b) the child's parents to produce the child—before the Court for the hearing of an application for a temporary assessment order.

(3) A notice cannot be given under this section if—

(a) a protection order (other than an undertaking) is in force in respect of the child; or

(b) an application for a protection order has been made in respect of the child but has not been determined.

(4) A notice under this section must—

(a) be issued out of the Court by the appropriate registrar; and
(b) be served, in accordance with section 594, on the child's parent and, if the child is of or above the age of 12 years, the child.

229 Application for temporary assessment order without notice

(1) The Secretary may apply to the Court for leave for the hearing of an application for a temporary assessment order in respect of a child without giving the notice under section 228 if the Secretary—

(a) has a reasonable suspicion that a child is, or is likely to be, in need of protection; and

(b) is of the opinion that further investigation and assessment of the matter is warranted; and

(c) is of the opinion that the investigation and assessment cannot properly proceed unless a temporary assessment order is made; and

(d) is satisfied that the giving of the notice required by section 228 is inappropriate in the circumstances.

(2) An application cannot be made under this section if—

(a) a protection order (other than an undertaking) is in force in respect of the child; or

(b) an application for a protection order has been made in respect of the child but has not been determined.

(3) The Court may grant leave for the application to be dealt with without giving the notice under section 228 if the Court is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.
230 Matters to be considered by Court

In deciding whether or not to make a temporary assessment order, the Court must consider—

(a) whether there is information or evidence that would lead to a person having a reasonable suspicion that the child is, or is likely to be, in need of protection; and

(b) whether a further investigation and assessment of the matter is warranted; and

(c) whether the Court is satisfied that the investigation and assessment cannot properly proceed unless a temporary assessment order is made; and

(d) whether the proposed investigation or assessment is likely to provide relevant information that is unlikely to be obtained elsewhere; and

(e) whether any distress the investigation or assessment is likely to cause the child will be outweighed by the value of the information that might be obtained; and

(f) any other matter that the Court considers relevant.

231 Temporary assessment order

After considering the matters set out in section 230, the Court may make a temporary assessment order if it is satisfied that—

(a) the making of the order is in the best interests of the child; and

(b) it is necessary for the Secretary to assess whether or not the child is in need of protection; and
(c) the Secretary cannot properly carry out the investigation or assessment unless the order is made.

232 What may a temporary assessment order provide for?

(1) A temporary assessment order may—

(a) authorise the Secretary to enter the premises where the child is living;

(b) require the parent of the child or any person with whom the child is living to permit the Secretary to enter the premises where the child is living;

(c) require the parent of the child or any person with whom the child is living to permit the Secretary to interview the child and to take the child to a place determined by the Secretary for that interview;

(d) authorise, subject to section 233, the medical examination of the child by a registered medical practitioner or a registered psychologist;

(e) direct the parent of the child or any person with whom the child is living to permit the Secretary to take the child for that medical examination;

(f) authorise the results of the medical examination to be given to the Secretary;

(g) require the parent of the child or any person with whom the child is living to attend an interview with the Secretary and, subject to section 234, to answer any questions put to them in the interview;
(h) give any other directions or impose any conditions that the Court considers to be in the best interests of the child.

(2) If the application for a temporary assessment order is made under section 229, the order must include a statement setting out the right of the child or the parent of the child to apply to the Court under section 235 for the order to be varied or revoked.

(3) If the temporary assessment order authorises the medical examination of the child, the order must include a statement setting out the terms of section 233.

(4) A temporary assessment order must direct the Secretary to provide to the Court by a date specified in the order a report about the outcome of the investigation or assessment.

233 Child not to be medically examined in certain cases

Despite a temporary assessment order, a registered medical practitioner or registered psychologist by whom the child is to be examined under the order must not examine the child if—

(a) the medical practitioner or psychologist is of the opinion that the child has sufficient understanding to give or refuse consent to the examination; and

(b) the child refuses that consent.

234 Protection of privileges

(1) Despite a temporary assessment order, a person may refuse to answer a question put by the Secretary in an interview authorised by the order on the ground that—

(a) to answer might tend to incriminate the person; or
(b) the information is privileged on the ground of legal professional privilege or client legal privilege.

(2) Before the Secretary begins an interview of a person authorised by a temporary assessment order, the Secretary must advise the person of the person's rights under subsection (1).

235 Application for variation or revocation of order made in absence of child

(1) If a temporary assessment order has been made without notice to the child and the parent of the child, the child or the parent of the child may at any time apply to the Court for the variation or revocation of the order.

(2) The applicant must serve notice of the application on the Secretary and each other party to the order a reasonable time before the hearing of the application.

(3) An application under this section must be heard expeditiously.

(4) On an application under this section, the Court may—

(a) vary the terms of the order; or

(b) revoke the order; or

(c) dismiss the application.

236 Duration of temporary assessment order

(1) A temporary assessment order made after notice is given under section 228 remains in force for the period (not exceeding 21 days) beginning on the date of the order that is specified in the order.
(2) A temporary assessment order that is made on an application under section 229 remains in force for the period (not exceeding 10 days) beginning on the date of the order that is specified in the order.

(3) A temporary assessment order cannot be extended.

(4) Despite subsections (2) and (3), if an application is made under section 235 to vary or revoke an order referred to in subsection (2), the Court, if it considers exceptional circumstances exist, may extend the period of operation of the order to a total period not exceeding 21 days.

237 Secretary may apply for warrant

(1) The Secretary may apply to the Court for the issue of a search warrant to authorise a member of the police force to enter any premises where a child is believed to be located and search for and apprehend the child to enable the Secretary to exercise his or her powers under a temporary assessment order.

(2) The Court may grant the search warrant if the Court is satisfied by evidence on oath or by affidavit by the Secretary that it is necessary to issue the warrant to authorise a member of the police force to enter any premises where a child is believed to be located and search for and apprehend the child to enable the Secretary to exercise his or her powers under a temporary assessment order.

(3) The search warrant authorises a member of the police force to whom it is directed to use reasonable force to enter any premises where a child to whom the temporary assessment order relates is believed to be located, by force if necessary, and search for and apprehend the child and bring the child to the Secretary to enable the Secretary to exercise his or her powers under the temporary assessment order.

(4) The search warrant is executed only when the member of the police force enters the premises where the child is actually located.

(5) On executing a search warrant, the member of the police force executing the warrant—

   (a) must announce that he or she is authorised by the warrant to enter the place; and

   (b) if the member of the police force has been unable to obtain unforced entry, must give any person at the place an opportunity to allow entry to the place.

(6) A member of the police force need not comply with subsection (5) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure—

   (a) the safety of any person; or

   (b) that the effective execution of the search warrant is not frustrated.

(7) Unless executed earlier, a search warrant issued under this section remains in force for the duration of the temporary assessment order.

(8) Subject to this section, the rules that apply to search warrants under the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 extend and apply to a search warrant under this section.

238 Report to Court by Secretary

(1) The Secretary must provide a report in writing to the Court by the date for that report specified in the temporary assessment order.
(2) The report must set out—

(a) details of the action taken by the Secretary under the order; and

(b) the results of the investigation and assessment; and

(c) any other information that the Secretary considers ought to be provided to the Court or that the Court directs to be included in the report.

(3) Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the Secretary must cause a copy of the report to be given to each of the following—

(a) the child who is the subject of the report;

(b) the child's parent;

(c) the legal practitioners representing that child;

(d) the legal practitioners representing that child's parent;

(e) any other person specified by the Court.

239 Appeal against temporary assessment order

(1) If the Court makes a temporary assessment order in respect of a child or dismisses an application for a temporary assessment order in respect of a child, then—

(a) the child; or

(b) a parent of the child; or

(c) the Secretary—

may appeal to the Supreme Court against the order or the dismissal.

(2) If the Court makes an order dismissing an application by the Secretary for leave for the hearing of an application for a temporary assessment order in respect of a child without giving notice under section 228, the Secretary may appeal to the Supreme Court against that order.

(3) On an appeal under this section against a temporary assessment order, the Supreme Court must—

(a) if it thinks that a different temporary assessment order should have been made—
   (i) set aside the order of the Children's Court; and
   (ii) make any other order that it thinks ought to have been made; or

(b) if it thinks that a temporary assessment order should not have been made, set aside the order of the Children's Court; or

(c) in any other case, dismiss the appeal.

(4) On an appeal under this section against the dismissal of an application for a temporary assessment order, the Supreme Court must—

(a) if it thinks that the application should not have been dismissed, make the order that it thinks ought to have been made; or

(b) in any other case, dismiss the appeal.

Division 2—Action by protective intervener

240 Action by protective intervener

(1) If a protective intervener is satisfied on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection, he or she may—

(a) serve a notice under section 243 directing that the child appear, or be produced, before the Court for the hearing of a protection application; or
(b) with or without a warrant, under section 241, take the child into safe custody or cause another protective intervener to take the child into safe custody pending the hearing of a protection application.

(2) After considering what procedure (if any) to take under subsection (1) in respect of the child, the protective intervener must record in the central register the information arising from the investigation that the Minister determines should be recorded in that register.

(3) If the procedure set out in subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) has been taken in respect of a child, a protective intervener must as soon as possible make a protection application to the Court and give a copy of the application to—

(a) the child’s parents, unless they cannot be found after reasonable inquiries; and

(b) the child, if he or she is of or above the age of 12 years.

241 Protective intervener may take child in need of protection into safe custody

(1) If a protective intervener is satisfied on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection and that it is inappropriate to take the procedure set out in section 240(1)(a), he or she may—

(a) without a warrant, take the child into safe custody or cause another protective intervener to take the child into safe custody; or

(b) apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant for the purpose of having the child taken into safe custody.
(2) A search warrant issued under subsection (1)—

(a) may only be directed to a named member of the police force or generally all members of the police force; and

(b) may be endorsed by the person issuing it with a direction that the child be released on an interim accommodation order of the type referred to in section 263(1)(a) or 263(1)(b) as specified in the endorsement.

242 Actions on taking child into safe custody

(1) A protective intervener must on taking a child into safe custody under section 241 give to—

(a) the child's parents, unless they cannot be found after reasonable inquiries; and

(b) the child, if he or she is of or above the age of 12 years—

a written statement containing the prescribed information relating to the taking of children into safe custody under that section.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), a child taken into safe custody under section 241 must be brought before the Court for the hearing of an application for an interim accommodation order as soon as practicable and, in any event, within one working day after the child was taken into safe custody.

(3) Unless a child is brought before the Court under subsection (2) within 24 hours after the child was taken into safe custody, he or she must, subject to subsection (4), be brought before a bail justice as soon as possible within that period of 24 hours for the hearing of an application for an interim accommodation order.
(4) A child of tender years need not be brought before the Court under subsection (2) or a bail justice under subsection (3) unless the Court or bail justice otherwise orders but the Court or bail justice may deal with the application in the absence of the child.

(5) Until a child taken into safe custody under section 241 is brought before the Court or a bail justice for the making of an interim accommodation order, the child may only be placed—

(a) in an out of home care service; or

(b) if there is a substantial and immediate risk of harm to the child, in a secure welfare service; or

(c) in other accommodation approved by the Secretary in accordance with the prescribed criteria (if any).

243 Making a protection application without taking child into safe custody

(1) If a protective intervener is satisfied on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection, he or she may by notice direct—

(a) the child to appear; and

(b) the child's parent to produce the child—

before the Court for the hearing of a protection application.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) must—

(a) be issued out of the Court by the appropriate registrar; and

(b) set out the grounds on which a protective intervener intends to make a protection application; and
(c) be served on the child's parent and, if the child is of or above the age of 12 years, the child, in accordance with section 594.

(3) If a notice under subsection (1) is served in accordance with subsection (2)(c) and the child does not appear before the Court at the time stated in the notice, the Court may, if satisfied that the notice has come to the attention of the child's parent or, if the child is of or above the age of 12 years, the child and, if practicable, the child's parent, issue a search warrant for the purpose of having the child taken into safe custody.

(4) Sections 241 and 242 apply to the issue and execution of a warrant under subsection (3) as if it were a warrant issued under section 241(1).

(c) subject to this Division, remains in force for the period (not exceeding 12 months) specified in the order; and
(d) may include any conditions that the Court considers to be in the best interests of the child, including—
(i) a condition concerning access by a parent or other person; and
(ii) in the case of an Aboriginal child, a condition incorporating a cultural plan for the child.

(2) In determining whether or not to make a custody to Secretary order, the Court must have regard to advice from the Secretary as to whether or not the Secretary is satisfied that the making of the order is a workable option.
288 Lapsing of custody to Secretary order

(1) A custody to Secretary order—

(a) is, subject to subsection (2), suspended on the making, with the prior consent of the Secretary, of an application under the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth by a person who is not a parent of the child, seeking an order with respect to the custody or the guardianship and custody of the child, on the terms of which the parties to the application have agreed; and

(b) ceases to be in force on the making of that order under the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth.

(2) A custody to Secretary order that has been suspended under subsection (1)(a) revives if—

(a) the application for the order sought under the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth is withdrawn; or

(b) the order sought is refused.

Division 7—Guardianship to Secretary order

289 Guardianship to Secretary order

(1) A guardianship to Secretary order—to the Secretary to the exclusion of all other persons; and

(b) subject to this Division, remains in force for the period (not exceeding 2 years) specified in the order; and
(c) ceases to be in force—

(i) when the child attains the age of 18 years; or

(ii) when the child marries—whichever happens first.

(2) If the Court specifies in a guardianship to Secretary order a period exceeding 12 months for the order to remain in force it must direct the Secretary—

(a) to review the operation of the order before the end of the period of 12 months after the making of the order; and

(b) to notify the Court, the child, the child's parent and such other persons as the Court directs before the end of that period if the Secretary considers that it is in the best interests of the child for the order to continue for the duration of the period specified in the order.

(3) Unless the Secretary makes a notification in accordance with subsection (2), the guardianship to Secretary order ceases to be in force at the end of the period of 12 months after it was made.

(4) Section 288 applies to a guardianship to Secretary order as if any reference to a custody to Secretary order were a reference to a guardianship to Secretary order.
Division 8—Long-term guardianship to Secretary order

290 Long-term guardianship to Secretary order

(1) A long-term guardianship to Secretary order—

(a) may be made in respect of a child of or over the age of 12 years; and

(b) grants custody and guardianship of the child to the Secretary to the exclusion of all other persons; and

(c) subject to this Division, remains in force until the child attains the age of 18 years or marries whichever happens first; and

(d) despite anything to the contrary in Division 7, may be made instead of extending a guardianship to Secretary order.

(2) The Court must not make a long-term guardianship to Secretary order unless the Court is satisfied that—

(a) there is a person or persons available with whom the child will continue to live for the duration of the order; and

(b) the Secretary consents to the making of the order; and

(c) the child consents to the making of the order; and

(d) the making of the order is in the best interests of the child.

(3) The Court must direct the Secretary—

(b) to notify the Court, the child, the child's parent and such other persons as the Court directs before the end of that period if the Secretary considers that it is in the best interests of the child for the order to continue for a further period of 12 months.

(4) Unless the Secretary makes a notification in accordance with subsection (3), the guardianship to Secretary order ceases to be in force at the end of the period of 12 months to which the review applies.

(5) Section 288 applies to a long-term guardianship to Secretary order as if any reference to a custody to Secretary order were a reference to a long-term guardianship to Secretary order.

Division 9—Interim protection order

291 Interim protection order

(1) If the Court in hearing and determining a protection application or an irreconcilable difference application is satisfied—

(a) that the child is in need of protection or that there is a substantial and presently irreconcilable difference between the person who has custody of the child and the child to such an extent that the care and control of the child are likely to be seriously disrupted; and it may make an interim protection order.

(b) that it is desirable, before making a protection order, to test the appropriateness of a particular course of action—

(2) If the Court in hearing and determining an application for a revocation of a supervised custody order or a custody to third party order or a matter relating to a breach of a supervision order or a breach of a supervised custody order is satisfied that it is desirable, before making a further protection order in respect of a child, to test the appropriateness of a particular course of action, it may make an interim protection order.

(3) An interim protection order—

(a) makes the Secretary accountable to the Court for the implementation of the order; and

(b) states who has responsibility for the supervision of the child; and

(c) may direct the preparation and submission to the Court of an additional report by a person specified in the order; and

(d) must require the child and his or her parent or other person with whom the child is living to appear before the Court before the expiry of the order at the time specified in the order or in any notice caused by the Court to be served on—

(i) the child's parent or other person with whom the child is living; and

(ii) if the child is of or above the age of 12 years, the child—a reasonable time before the hearing date specified in the notice; and

(e) remains in force for the period (not exceeding 3 months) specified in the order; and
(f) may include any conditions to be observed by—

(i) the child in respect of whom the order is made; or
(ii) the parent of the child; or
(iii) the person with whom the child is living—that the Court considers to be in the best interests of the child, including conditions as to where the child lives or concerning access by a parent or other person.

(4) If the child does not appear before the Court at the time required in accordance with subsection (3)(d)—

(a) the Secretary may, without a warrant, take the child into safe custody; or

(b) the Court may issue a search warrant for the purpose of having the child taken into safe custody.

(5) Sections 241 and 242 apply with any necessary modifications to the taking of a child into safe custody and the issue and execution of a search warrant under this section.

(6) On the child appearing or being brought before the Court under this section the Court, after considering a further disposition report, must make, or refuse to make, a further protection order but must not extend the interim protection order or make a new interim protection order (if it is still in force).
Interim accommodation order if hearing adjourned

(1) If an interim protection order expires and the Court adjourns the proceedings in relation to which it was made, the Court may make an interim accommodation order in respect of the child.

(2) The interim accommodation order must include the same conditions as the interim protection order and must provide for the child to live with the same person or persons as those with whom the child was living under the interim protection order, unless—

(a) the parties agree to different living arrangements for the child; or

(b) the parties agree to different conditions; or

(c) the Court is satisfied that the circumstances have changed.

Division 10—Extension of protection orders

Application for extension of protection order

(1) The Secretary may apply to the Court for an extension or additional extension of the period of—

(a) a supervision order;

(b) a supervised custody order;

(c) a custody to Secretary order;

(d) a guardianship to Secretary order.

(2) An extension application may be made at any time while the order is in force.

(3) If an extension application is made in respect of an order, the order continues in force until the application is determined.
(4) If the period of a guardianship to Secretary order does not exceed 12 months, the Secretary must not make an extension application relating to the order unless the Secretary has reviewed the operation of the order and is of the opinion that an extension of the order is in the best interests of the child.

294 Extension of order

If an extension application is made in respect of an order, the Court may extend the order if it is satisfied that this is in the best interests of the child.

295 Matters to be taken into account

(1) In determining an extension application relating to a supervised custody order, the Court must be satisfied that the ultimate objective of re-unification of the child with his or her parent is still achievable.

(2) In determining an extension application relating to a custody to Secretary order or a guardianship to Secretary order, the Court must give due consideration to the following matters in the following order—

(a) the appropriateness of making a permanent care order in respect of the child;

(b) the benefits of the child remaining in the custody, or custody and guardianship, of the Secretary.

(3) In determining an extension application relating to a custody to Secretary order or a guardianship to Secretary order, the Court must take into account—

(a) the nature of the relationship of the child with his or her parent, including the nature of the access between the child and the parent during the period of the order; and
(b) the capacity of the parent to fulfil the responsibilities and duties of parenthood, including the capacity to provide adequately for the emotional, intellectual, educational and other needs of the child; and
(c) any action taken by the parent to give effect to the goals set out in the case plan; and
(d) the effects on the child of continued separation from the parent; and
(e) any other fact or circumstance that, in the opinion of the Court, should be taken into account in considering the best interests of the child.

296 Duration of extension

(1) On an extension application relating to a supervision order or supervised custody order, the Court may extend the order for a period ending not later than 2 years after the extension or additional extension is granted.

(2) Subject to section 297, if an extension application is made in relation to a custody to Secretary order or a guardianship to Secretary order—

(a) if the order had been in force for less than 12 months at the time the extension is granted, an extension or additional extension of that order may be for a period not exceeding 12 months after the extension or additional extension is granted;

(b) if the order has been in force for 12 months or more at the time the extension is granted, an extension or additional extension of the order may be for a period not exceeding 2 years after the extension or additional extension is granted.
297 Limited extension pending other orders

(1) If—

(a) an extension application is made in respect of a custody to Secretary order or a guardianship to Secretary order; and

(b) the order has been in force for more than 12 months and is still in force; and

(c) the Court is satisfied that it would not be in the best interests of the child to be returned to the custody of his or her parent; and

(d) the Court is satisfied that a permanent care order or similar order made by another court would be in the best interests of the child and that there is no likelihood of re-unification of the child with his or her parent—

the Court may—

(e) extend the order for a period ending not later than 12 months after the extension is granted; and

(f) direct the Secretary to take steps to ensure that at the end of the period of the order a person other than the child's parent applies to a court for an order relating to—

(i) the custody of the child; or

(ii) the custody and guardianship of the child; or

(iii) the custody and joint guardianship of the child.

(2) If the Court has given a direction to the Secretary under subsection (1)(f) in respect of an order, the Secretary cannot apply for an additional extension to that order.
298 Review of extended orders

(1) If under this Division the Court specifies a period exceeding 12 months for an extension of a protection order, it must direct the Secretary—

(a) to review the operation of the order before the end of the period of 12 months after the making of the order; and

(b) to notify the Court, the child, the child's parent and such other persons as the Court directs before the end of that period if the Secretary considers that it is in the best interests of the child for the order to continue for the duration of the period specified in the order.

(2) Unless the Secretary makes a notification in accordance with subsection (1), the protection order ceases to be in force at the end of the period of 12 months after the extension order was made.

323 Restrictions on the making of a permanent care order in respect of an Aboriginal child

(a) before the hearing of any evidence the child objects; or

(b) at any stage the Court considers that the charge is unsuitable by reason of exceptional circumstances to be determined summarily—and the Court must conduct a committal proceeding into the charge and, in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (b), must give reasons for declining to determine the charge summarily.

(4) If a child charged before the Court with an indictable offence, other than murder, attempted murder, manslaughter, child homicide, defensive homicide, an offence against section 197A of the Crimes Act 1958 (arson causing death) or an

Division 4—Standard of proof

357 Proof beyond reasonable doubt

(1) On the summary hearing of a charge for an offence, whether indictable or summary, the Court must be satisfied of a child's guilt on proof beyond reasonable doubt by relevant and admissible evidence.

(2) If the Court is not satisfied in accordance with subsection (1), it must dismiss the charge.

Division 5—Reports and other matters to be taken into account in considering sentence

358 Court may only consider certain reports and other matters

If the Court finds a child guilty of an offence, the Court may, in considering sentence, take into account only the following—

(a) a pre-sentence report prepared by the Secretary or the Secretary to the Department of Justice and the evidence, if any, of its author;
(b) a group conference report prepared by a group conference convenor and the evidence, if any, of its author;

(c) any report, submission or evidence given, made or tendered by or on behalf of the child who is to be sentenced;

(d) any offences of which the child has been convicted or found guilty before the commission of the offence under consideration;

(e) any submission on sentencing made by the informant or prosecutor or any person appearing on behalf of the Crown;

(f) any victim impact statement made, or other evidence given, under section 359.

359 Victim impact statements

(1) If the Court finds a child guilty of an offence, a victim of the offence may make a victim impact statement to the Court for the purpose of assisting the Court in determining sentence.

(2) A victim impact statement may be made—

(a) in writing by statutory declaration; or

(b) in writing by statutory declaration and orally by sworn evidence.

(3) A victim impact statement may be made by another person on behalf of a victim—

(a) who is under the age of 18 years; or

(b) who the Court is satisfied is incapable of making the statement because of mental illness or for any other reason; or

(c) that is not an individual.
(4) A victim impact statement contains particulars of the impact of the offence on the victim and of any injury, loss or damage suffered by the victim as a direct result of the offence.

(4A) A victim impact statement may include photographs, drawings or poems and other material that relates to the impact of the offence on the victim or to any injury, loss or damage suffered by the victim as a direct result of the offence.

(5) The Court may rule as inadmissible the whole or any part of a victim impact statement.

(6) If the victim prepares a victim impact statement, the victim must, a reasonable time before sentencing is to take place—

(a) file a copy with the Court; and

(b) provide a copy to—

(i) the child or the legal practitioner representing the child; and

(ii) the prosecutor.

(7) The Court may, at the request of the child or the prosecutor, call a victim who has made a victim impact statement, or a person who has made a victim impact statement on behalf of a victim, to give evidence.

(8) A victim or other person who gives evidence under subsection (7) may be cross-examined and re-examined.

(9) A victim, or a person who has made a victim impact statement on behalf of a victim, may call a witness to give evidence in support of any matter contained in the victim impact statement.
(10) A witness who gives evidence under subsection (9) may be cross-examined and re-examined.

(11) Any party to the proceeding may lead evidence on any matter contained in a victim impact statement.

(12) A person who has made a victim impact statement may request that any part of that victim impact statement—

(a) is read aloud or displayed in the course of the sentencing hearing by—

   (i) the person making the request; or

   (ii) a person chosen by the person making the request who consents and who is approved by the Court for that purpose; or

(b) is read aloud in the course of the sentencing hearing by the prosecutor.

(12A) If a request is made under subsection (12), and the person specified in the request is available to do so during the course of the sentencing hearing, the Court must ensure that any admissible parts of the victim impact statement that are—

(a) identified in the request; and

(b) appropriate and relevant to sentencing—

are read aloud or displayed by the person or persons specified in the request in open court in the course of the sentencing hearing.

(12B) For the purposes of subsection (12A), the Court may direct the person who made the request or the person chosen by that person as to which admissible parts of the victim impact statement are appropriate and relevant to sentencing.
(13) Nothing in this section prevents the presiding magistrate from reading aloud any admissible part of a victim impact statement in the course of sentencing the child or at any other time in the course of the sentencing hearing.

359A Alternative arrangements for reading aloud of victim impact statement

(1) On the application of the person who is to read aloud the victim impact statement at a sentencing hearing, on the application of the prosecutor or on its own motion, the Court may direct that alternative arrangements be made for the reading aloud of a victim impact statement under section 359, including arrangements—

(a) permitting the victim impact statement to be read aloud from a place other than the court room by means of a closed-circuit television or other facilities that enable communication between that place and the court room;

(b) using screens to remove the person reading the victim impact statement from the direct line of vision of the child;

(c) permitting a person, chosen by the person reading the victim impact statement and approved by the Court for this purpose, to be beside the person reading the victim impact statement while it is read aloud, for the purpose of providing emotional support for the person reading the victim impact statement;

(d) permitting only persons specified by the Court to be present while the victim impact statement is read aloud.
(2) The Court may, on the application of the person who is to read aloud the victim impact statement, on the application of the prosecutor or on its own motion, revoke or vary a direction made under subsection (1).

(3) For the purposes of this section, the reading aloud of a victim impact statement includes the display of material included in the victim impact statement.

359B Alternative arrangements for examination

(1) On the application of a person who gives evidence under section 359(7) or (9), on the application of the prosecutor or on its own motion, the Court may direct that alternative arrangements be made for the examination and cross-examination of that person, including arrangements—

(a) permitting the person to be examined and cross-examined from a place other than the court room by means of a closed-circuit television or other facilities that enable communication between that place and the court room;

(b) using screens to remove the person from the direct line of vision of the child;

(c) permitting a person, chosen by the person being examined and cross-examined and approved by the Court for this purpose, to be beside the person being examined and cross-examined during the examination and cross-examination, for the purpose of providing emotional support for the person being examined and cross-examined;

(d) permitting only persons specified by the Court to be present while the person is being examined and cross-examined.
(2) The Court may, on the application of a person who gives evidence under section 359(7) or (9), on the application of the prosecutor or on its own motion, revoke or vary a direction made under subsection (1).

(1) If the Court finds a child guilty of an offence, whether indictable or summary, the Court may—

(a) without conviction, dismiss the charge; or

(b) without conviction, dismiss the charge and order the giving of an undertaking under section 363; or

(c) without conviction, dismiss the charge and order the giving of an accountable undertaking under section 365; or

(d) without conviction, place the child on a good behaviour bond under section 367; or

(e) with or without conviction, impose a fine under section 373; or

(i) convict the child and order that the child be detained in a youth residential centre under section 410; or

(j) convict the child and order that the child be detained in a youth justice centre under section 412.
(2) If the Court is of the opinion that sentencing should be deferred, the Court may defer sentencing the child in accordance with section 414.

(3) In addition to any other sentence, the Court may order the child—

(a) to make restitution or pay compensation in accordance with section 417; or

(b) to pay costs.

(4) The Court may not make an order referred to in subsection (3) a special condition of another sentence.

(5) If under any Act other than this Act a court is authorised on a conviction for an offence—

(a) to make an order with respect to any property or thing the subject of or in any way connected with the offence; or

(b) to impose any disqualification or like disability on the person convicted—then the Court may, if it finds a child guilty of that offence, make any such order or impose any such disqualification or disability despite the child not being convicted of the offence.

(6) The Court must not pass a sentence that imposes any condition or requirement on a person or body that is not a party to the proceeding unless the Court is satisfied that the person or body consents to that condition or requirement.

361 Sentencing hierarchy

The Court must not impose a sentence referred to in any of the paragraphs of section 360(1) unless it is satisfied that it is not appropriate to impose a sentence referred to in any preceding paragraph of that section.
362 Matters to be taken into account

(1) In determining which sentence to impose on a child, the Court must, as far as practicable, have regard to—

(a) the need to strengthen and preserve the relationship between the child and the child's family; and

(b) the desirability of allowing the child to live at home; and

(c) the desirability of allowing the education, training or employment of the child to continue without interruption or disturbance; and

(d) the need to minimise the stigma to the child resulting from a court determination; and

(e) the suitability of the sentence to the child; and

(f) if appropriate, the need to ensure that the child is aware that he or she must bear a responsibility for any action by him or her against the law; and

(g) if appropriate, the need to protect the community, or any person, from the violent or other wrongful acts of the child.

(2) In passing sentence on a child who has appeared before the Family Division or who is or has been the subject of an order of the Family Division (including a therapeutic treatment order), the Court must not impose a sentence more severe than it would have imposed had the child not so appeared or been the subject of such an order.
(3) If a child has participated in a group conference and has agreed to the group conference outcome plan, the Court must impose a sentence less severe than it would have imposed had the child not participated in a group conference.

(4) If sentencing of a child is deferred for the purpose of the child's participation in a group conference and the child has failed to participate in the group conference, the Court must not impose a sentence more severe than it would have imposed had sentencing not been so deferred.

(5) If, in sentencing a child, the Court imposes a less severe sentence than it would otherwise have imposed because of an undertaking given by the child to assist, after sentencing, law enforcement authorities in the investigation or prosecution of an offence, the Court must—

(a) announce that it is doing so; and

(b) cause to be noted in the records of the Court the fact that the undertaking was given and its details.

(6) Nothing in subsection (5) requires the Court to state the sentence that it would have imposed but for the undertaking that was given.

362A Sentence discount for guilty plea

(1) If—

(a) in sentencing a child, the Court imposes a less severe sentence than it would otherwise have imposed because the child pleaded guilty to the offence; and
(b) the sentence imposed on the child is or includes—
   (i) a youth attendance order; or
   (ii) a youth residential centre order; or
   (iii) a youth justice centre order—
   the Court must state in respect of each offence the sentence that it would have imposed but for the plea of guilty.

(2) In the case of a sentence other than a sentence referred to in subsection (1)(b), the Court may state the sentence that it would have imposed but for the plea of guilty.

(3) If the Court makes a statement under this section, it must record or cause to be recorded (whether in writing or in another form) in respect of each offence the sentence that it would have imposed but for the plea of guilty.

(4) The failure of the Court to comply with this section does not invalidate any sentence imposed by it.

(5) Nothing in subsection (4) prevents a court on an appeal against sentence from reviewing a sentence imposed by the Court in circumstances where there has been a failure to comply with this section.

Division 2—Undertaking

363 Non-accountable undertaking

(1) If the Court finds a child guilty of an offence, whether indictable or summary, the Court may, without conviction, dismiss the charge and order that—

    Court or another court under section 365;
    and

the Court may direct that the person and, if the person is under the age of 15 years, his or her parent be served with a notice to appear before the Court at a specified time.
(2) If a notice is served under subsection (1) and the person fails to appear before the Court at the time specified, the Court may direct that a warrant to arrest the person be issued.

undertaking under section 365 must appear or be the breach, the proceeding must be adjourned for hearing before the Court constituted by the magistrate who made the order under section 365, if he or she still holds the office of magistrate.

(5) If the Court is satisfied that the person has failed to comply with an undertaking given under section 365, the Court may—

(2) The period of an adjournment under this section must be specified by the Court and must not exceed—

(a) 12 months; or

(b) if the child is aged 15 years or more on the day on which the proceeding is adjourned and the circumstances are exceptional, 18 months.

(3) An adjournment under this section must not be granted unless the child enters into a bond for an amount less than one half of the maximum fine that may be imposed on the child under section 373 on the following conditions—

(6) Subject to subsection (5), a child who has entered into a bond under this section must be allowed to go at large.

(b) a child fails to appear as required by order or notice under section 369; or

(c) reasonable efforts have been made to serve an order or notice under section 369, but have been unsuccessful—

a warrant to arrest may be issued by the Court, directing that the child be arrested and brought before the Court as soon as possible.

(2) If a notice is served on a person under subsection (1) and the person fails to appear before the Court at the time specified, the Court may, if satisfied that the notice has come to the attention of the person—

(a) direct that a warrant to arrest the person be issued; or

(b) proceed under subsection (5) in the absence of the person.

(b) constituted by any other magistrate—

(i) if the first-mentioned magistrate does not still hold the office of magistrate; or

the Court may—
(c) declare the bond to be forfeited and impose no penalty; or
(d) proceed with the further hearing and determination of the charge and deal with the person in any manner in which the person could have been dealt with before the adjournment was granted.

372 Time for application

(a) any act the subject of a charge before a court, a proceeding for the breach must be commenced not later than 3 months after a finding of guilt in respect of the charge; or

(b) any other act, a proceeding for the breach must be commenced not later than 14 working days after the alleged breach and before the expiry of the period of the adjournment under section 367.

373 Fines

If the Court finds a child guilty of an offence, whether indictable or summary, the Court may, with or without conviction, impose a fine—

(a) in respect of each offence, not exceeding—

(i) 1 penalty unit, if the child is under the age of 15 years or 5 penalty units in any other case; or

(ii) the maximum fine which may be imposed on an adult for the same offence—

whichever is the lower amount; and
(b) in respect of more than one offence, not exceeding an aggregate of 2 penalty units, if the child is under the age of 15 years or 10 penalty units in any other case.

374 Financial circumstances of child to be considered

If the Court determines to impose a fine on a child in respect of an offence, the Court must take into consideration, among other things, the financial circumstances of the child when determining the amount of the fine.

375 Instalment orders

(1) In sections 375 to 379—

_child_ includes a person on whom the Court has imposed a fine but who is of or above the age of 19 years at the time of an application under section 377;

_fine_ means the sum of money payable by a child under an order of the Court made in respect of an offence and includes costs but does not include a sum of money payable by way of restitution or compensation;

_instalment order_ means an order made under subsection (2) that a fine be paid by 2 or more instalments and, if such an order has been varied, means the order as so varied.

(2) If the Court determines to impose a fine on a child, the Court—

(b) in any other case, may order that the fine be paid by instalments, if the Court deems it appropriate to do so.
376 Time to pay

If the Court does not make an instalment order in respect of a fine, the Court, at the time of imposing the fine, may order that the child be allowed time for the payment of the fine.

377 Application for time to pay, for instalment order or for variation of instalment order the total term of the period of probation or the youth supervision order must be reduced by the number of days bearing as nearly as possible the same proportion to the total number of days in the term as the amount paid bears to the whole amount of the fine.

Division 6—Probation orders

(7) Division 3 of Part 4 of the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 applies, with any necessary modifications, to warrants under subsection (6), and in particular with the modification that a reference to the bringing of a person before the Magistrates' Court is to be construed as a reference to bringing the person as soon as practicable before the Children's Court.

(b) the subsequent sentence is cumulative on any uncompleted prior sentence; and

(c) the aggregate of the periods of the unexpired portion of the prior sentence and the subsequent sentence exceeds 2 years—then the subsequent sentence is to be taken to be a sentence that the child be further detained in a youth residential centre after the expiration of the period of the prior sentence for the period determined by deducting from 2 years the period of the unexpired portion of the prior sentence at the date of the passing of the subsequent sentence.

(4) The Court may make recommendations in writing as to the management or treatment of, or any other matter concerning, a child sentenced to detention in a youth residential centre.

417 Orders in addition to sentence

(1) The provisions of Part 4 of the Sentencing Act 1991 apply to a proceeding in the Criminal Division with any necessary modification and as if in sections 85H(1), 86(2) and 87J(1) for "may" there were submitted "must" and as if in section 85C(1)(b)(iii)(B) the reference to the Magistrates' Court were a reference to the Criminal Division.

(a) a person has been arrested in accordance with a warrant issued in respect of an alleged breach of a sentence and it is not possible for the Court to hear immediately an application for breach of the sentence; or

(b) a person has appeared before the Court in answer to a notice to appear served in respect of an alleged breach of a sentence and the Court adjourns the hearing of the application—

(5) In dealing with an application under subsection (1), the Court must take into account—

(a) a report on the person prepared by the Secretary; and

(b) the fact of the making of the probation order or youth supervision order (as the case requires); and

(c) the extent to and the manner in which the person has complied with the order—

(7) Division 3 of Part 4 of the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 applies, with any necessary modifications, to warrants under subsection (6), and in particular with the modification that a reference to the bringing of a person before the Magistrates' Court is to be construed as a reference to bringing the person as soon as practicable before the Children's Court.

(8) If it is not possible for the Court to deal immediately with an application under subsection (1) in respect of which the person has been arrested under subsection (6), for the purposes of granting bail the provisions of this Act and the Bail Act 1977 apply, with any necessary modifications, and in particular with the modification that a reference to a person accused of an offence or an accused is to be construed as a reference to the person.

422 Suspension of order

(1) If—

(a) a person in respect of whom a youth supervision order is in force is ill; or

(b) there are other exceptional circumstances—the Secretary may suspend the operation of the order or any of the conditions of the order.
(2) Any period of suspension under subsection (1) is to be added to the period of the youth supervision order for the purpose of calculating the time of its expiry.

423 Proceedings for breach of sentence

(1) In this section, breach of a sentence includes default in the payment of a fine or of any instalment under an instalment order.

(2) A proceeding for breach of a sentence must be commenced in the Children's Court—

(a) whether the sentence was imposed by the Children's Court or by the Supreme Court or the County Court, on appeal or otherwise; and

(b) whether the person against whom the proceeding is commenced is aged 19 years or more.

(3) If the proceeding for breach of a sentence is against a child who is under the age of 19 years when the proceeding for breach is commenced, the Children's Court must hear and determine the proceeding unless—

(a) the sentence was imposed by the Supreme Court or the County Court and the child does not consent to the Children's Court hearing the proceeding for breach; or

(b) the Court considers that in all the circumstances of the case it is appropriate to transfer the proceeding to the court that imposed the sentence.
(4) If the proceeding for breach of a sentence is against a person who is aged 19 years or more when the proceeding for breach is commenced, the Children's Court must transfer the proceeding (other than a proceeding for breach of an accountable undertaking) to the Magistrates' Court or to the court that imposed the sentence unless the Children's Court considers that in all the circumstances of the case it is appropriate for the Children's Court to hear and determine the proceeding, having regard to the matters referred to in subsection (5).

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the Court must have regard to—

(a) the age of the person;

(b) the nature and circumstances of the alleged breach;

(c) the stage of the proceeding for breach;

(6) A proceeding must not be transferred on the sole ground that the sentence was imposed by another court.

(7) If the person does not consent to the Children's Court hearing and determining the proceeding or the Court considers that the proceeding should be transferred, the Court must discontinue the proceeding and order that it be transferred to the Magistrates' Court or to the court that imposed the sentence, as the case may be, and in the meantime may—

(a) permit the person to go at large; or

(b) grant the person bail conditioned for the appearance of the person before the Supreme Court, the County Court or the Magistrates' Court, as the case may be, at the time and place at which the proceeding is to be heard; or

(a) the Magistrates' Court may sentence the person as if the Magistrates' Court had just been satisfied of the person's guilt of the offence in respect of which the sentence was imposed; and

(b) for that purpose, the Magistrates' Court has jurisdiction, whether or not the Magistrates' Court would otherwise have had jurisdiction to deal with the offence.

(9) This section applies despite section 426(5).
PART 5.4—APPEALS

Division 1—Appeal by offender to the County Court or Trial Division of the Supreme Court

(a) the conviction and sentence imposed by the Children's Court; or

(b) sentence alone.

Note

See the definitions of conviction and sentence in section 3.

425 How appeal is commenced

(1) An appeal under section 424 is commenced by filing a notice of appeal with a registrar of the Children's Court at any venue of the Children's Court within 28 days after the day on which the sentence of the Children's Court is imposed.

(2) A copy of the notice of appeal must be served on the respondent in accordance with section 392 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 within 7 days after the day on which the notice is filed.

   (a) state whether the appeal is against conviction and sentence, or sentence alone; and
   (b) be in the form prescribed by the rules of the appellate court.

(4) A notice of appeal must include an undertaking signed by the appellant in the manner prescribed by the rules of the appellate court—
   (a) to appear at the appellate court to proceed with the appeal at a place and on a day fixed or to be fixed by the registrar of the County Court or the prothonotary of the Supreme Court (as the case requires) and to appear at the appellate court for the duration of the appeal; and
   (b) to give written notice without delay to the registrar of the County Court or the prothonotary of the Supreme Court (as the case requires) of any change of address of the appellant from that appearing in the notice of appeal.

(5) A notice of appeal filed under this section must be transmitted to the appellate court.

426 Determination of appeal

(1) An appeal under section 424 must be conducted as a rehearing and the appellant is not bound by the plea entered in the Children's Court.

(2) On the hearing of an appeal under section 424, the appellate court—
   (a) must set aside the sentence of the Children's Court; and
(b) subject to this section, may impose any sentence which the appellate court considers appropriate and which the Children's Court imposed or could have imposed; and

(c) may exercise any power which the Children's Court exercised or could have exercised.

(3) On the hearing of an appeal under section 424 (other than an appeal referred to in subsection (6) of this section), the appellate court must warn the appellant, as early as possible during the hearing, that the appellant faces the possibility that a more severe sentence may be imposed than that imposed by the Children's Court.

(4) The appellate court may backdate a sentence imposed under subsection (2) to a date not earlier than the date of the sentence of the Children's Court that was set aside on the appeal.

(5) A sentence imposed under subsection (2) is for all purposes to be regarded as a sentence of the appellate court.

(6) If an appellant appeals against an order made under section 363, 365 or 367, the appellate court may—

(a) dismiss the charge against the appellant; or

(b) make an order in the same terms as the order of the Children's Court—but must not impose any other sentence.

Note

Orders under sections 363, 365 and 367 are orders for non-accountable undertakings, accountable undertakings and good behaviour bonds respectively.
(9) On an appeal under this section, the appellate court may, despite anything to the contrary in this Act, make a probation order, youth supervision order or youth attendance order in respect of a person even though at the time of making that order the person is of or above the age of 19 years but under 21 years.

Division 2—Appeal by DPP against sentence

427 DPP's right of appeal against sentence

(1) The DPP may appeal to the County Court or, if the Children's Court was constituted by the President, to the Trial Division of the Supreme Court against a sentence imposed by the Children's Court in a summary proceeding in the Criminal Division if satisfied that an appeal should be brought in the public interest.

(2) The DPP must not bring a further appeal against a sentence imposed by the appellate court.

428 How appeal is commenced

(1) An appeal under section 427 is commenced by filing a notice of appeal with a registrar of the Children's Court at any venue of the Children's Court within 28 days after the day on which the sentence of the Children's Court is imposed.

   (b) subject to this section, may impose any sentence which the appellate court considers appropriate and which the Children's Court imposed or could have imposed; and

   (c) may exercise any power which the Children's Court exercised or could have exercised.

(6) In imposing a sentence under subsection (2), the appellate court must not take into account the element of double jeopardy involved in the respondent being sentenced again, in order to impose a less severe sentence than the court would otherwise consider appropriate.

(7) The appellate court may backdate a sentence imposed under subsection (2) to a date not earlier than the date of the sentence of the Children's Court that was set aside on the appeal.
(8) A sentence imposed under subsection (2) is for all purposes to be regarded as a sentence of the appellate court.

(9) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, on an appeal under section 427, the appellate court may make a probation order, youth supervision order or youth attendance order in respect of a person even though at the time of making that order the person is of or over the age of 19 years but under 21 years.

Division 2A—Appeal by DPP—Failure to fulfil undertaking

429A DPP's right of appeal—failure to fulfil undertaking

(1) Without limiting any right of appeal under section 427, the DPP may appeal to the County Court or, if the Children's Court was constituted by the President, to the Trial Division of the Supreme Court against a sentence imposed on a child in respect of an indictable offence that was heard and determined summarily by the Children's Court if—

(a) the sentence was less severe because of an undertaking given by the child to assist, after sentencing, law enforcement authorities in the investigation or prosecution of an offence, whether or not proceedings for that offence had commenced at the time of sentencing; and

(b) the DPP considers that the child has failed, wholly or partly, to fulfil the undertaking.
(2) The DPP may bring an appeal under this section at any time, whether or not the sentence has been served.

429B How appeal is commenced

(2) A copy of the notice of appeal must be served personally on the respondent within 14 days after the day on which the notice is filed.

(3) A notice of appeal must be in the form prescribed by the rules of the appellate court.

(4) The DPP must provide a copy of the notice of appeal to the legal practitioner who last represented the respondent in the criminal proceeding to which the appeal relates, if that legal practitioner can reasonably be identified.

(5) A notice of appeal filed under this section must be transmitted to the appellate court.

429C Determination of DPP's appeal—failure to fulfil undertaking

(1) An appeal under section 429A must not be conducted as a rehearing.

(2) On an appeal under section 429A, if the appellate court considers that the respondent has failed, wholly or partly, to fulfil the undertaking referred to in section 429A(1)(a), the appellate court may—

(8) The Court must proceed with as much expedition as the requirements of this Act and a proper hearing of the proceeding permit.

(9) The Court should avoid the granting of adjournments in Family Division proceedings to the maximum extent possible.

(10) The Court must not grant an adjournment of a proceeding in the Family Division unless it is of the opinion that—

(a) it is in the best interests of the child to do so; or

(2) The Secretary may include in the proposed interstate order any conditions that could be included in a child protection order of that type made in the relevant participating State.
(3) In determining whether a child protection order to the same or a similar effect as the home order could be made under the child welfare law of a participating State, the Secretary must not take into account the period for which it is possible to make such an order in that State.

(4) The Secretary must determine, and specify in the proposed interstate order—

(a) the type of order under the child welfare law of the participating State that the proposed interstate order is to be; and

(b) the period for which it is to remain in force.

(5) The period must be—

4 Persons whose consent is required

(1) For the purposes of clause 3(1)(d) but subject to subclause (2), if the home order is a custody to Secretary order, supervision order or a supervised custody order, consent to a transfer under this Division is required from the child's parents and any other person who is granted access to the child under the order.

(2) If a parent of the child or any other person who is granted access to the child under the order is residing in, or is intending to reside in, the relevant participating State, consent to the transfer is not required from that parent or other person or from any other parent or other person who is granted access to the child under the order who consents to the child residing in that State.

5 Secretary to have regard to certain matters

In determining whether to transfer a child protection order to a participating State under this Division, the Secretary must—

(a) as far as possible, make decisions having regard to the principles in Part 1.2 of Chapter 1 and the following principles—

(i) the best interests of the child must be given paramount importance;

(ii) the child (except if his or her participation would be detrimental to his or her safety or wellbeing) must be encouraged and (through consultation and discussion) given adequate opportunity to participate fully in the decision-making process and must be given a copy of any proposed case plan relating to the transfer and sufficient notice of any meeting proposed to be held;

(iii) the family of the child (except if its participation would be detrimental to the safety or wellbeing of the child) must be encouraged and (through consultation and discussion) given adequate opportunity to participate fully in the decision-making process and must be given a copy of any proposed case plan relating to the transfer and sufficient notice of any meeting proposed to be held; and
(b) have regard to whether the Secretary or an interstate officer is in the better position to exercise powers and responsibilities under a child protection order relating to the child; and

(c) have regard to the fact that it is preferable that a child is subject to a child protection order made under the child welfare law of the State where the child resides; and

(d) have regard to any sentence under any Act, other than a fine, in force in respect of the child or any criminal proceeding pending against the child in any court.

6 Notification to child and his or her parents

(b) the child may oppose the decision by writing, or by a legal practitioner writing on his or her behalf, to the employee nominated in the notice within 28 days after service of the notice and stating the fact that the child opposes the decision; and

(c) if notice of opposition is given to the nominated employee in accordance with paragraph (b), the order cannot be transferred by the Secretary under this Division.

(4) The Secretary must make all reasonable efforts to ensure that a child on whom a notice is served under subclause (1) has an opportunity to seek legal advice in relation to the decision to transfer the child protection order.
(5) Service of a notice on a person is not required under subclause (1) if it cannot be effected after making all reasonable efforts.

7 Limited period for judicial review of decision

(1) A proceeding in the Supreme Court for judicial review of a decision of the Secretary to transfer a child protection order to a participating State under this Division must be instituted, and written notice of it must be served on the Secretary, within 28 days after the date of the decision of the Secretary.

(1) If the Court determines to transfer a child protection order (the home order) under this Division, the proposed terms of the child protection order to be transferred (the proposed interstate order) must be terms that could be the terms of a child protection order made under the child welfare law of the participating State and that the Court believes to be—

(a) to the same or a similar effect as the terms of the home order; or

(b) otherwise in the best interests of the child.

(2) The Court may include in the proposed interstate order any conditions that could be included in a child protection order of that type made in the relevant participating State.

(7) An order made by the Supreme Court on an appeal under subclause (1), other than an order remitting the case for re-hearing to the Court, may be enforced as an order of the Supreme Court.

(a) the child's parent or other person with whom the child is living; and

(b) whether any other proceedings relating to the child are pending, or have previously been heard and determined, under the child welfare law in the participating State; and
(c) the place where any of the matters giving rise to the proceeding in the Court arose; and
(d) the place of residence, or likely place of residence, of the child, his or her parents and any other people who are significant to the child; and
(e) whether the Secretary or an interstate officer is in the better position to exercise powers and responsibilities under a child protection order relating to the child; and
(f) the fact that it is preferable that a child is subject to a child protection order made under the child welfare law of the State where the child resides; and

(3) The Children's Court in the participating State may revoke an interim order in accordance with the relevant interstate law.

(2) An appeal under subclause (1)—

(a) must be instituted, and (except where instituted by the Secretary) written notice of it must be served on the Secretary, within 3 working days after the day on which the order complained of was made; and
(b) operates as a stay of an order transferring the child protection proceeding to a participating State but not of any interim order made at the same time as the order.

(7) An order made by the Supreme Court on an appeal under subclause (1), other than an order remitting the case for re-hearing to the Court, may be enforced as an order of the Supreme Court.

(a) make an order staying the operation of any interim order made at the same time as the order that is the subject of the appeal or may, by order, vary or revoke, or extend the period of, that interim order; and

(b) make any interim accommodation order pending the hearing of the appeal that the Children's Court has jurisdiction to make.

(9) Section 330 applies to an appeal under subclause (1) as if—

(a) a reference to section 328 or 329 were a reference to this clause; and

(b) references to the County Court were omitted.
PART 4—REGISTRATION

19 Filing and registration of interstate documents

(1) Subject to subclause (3), the Secretary must as soon as possible file in the Court for registration a copy of a child protection order transferred to Victoria under an interstate law.

(2) Subject to subclause (3), the Secretary must as soon as possible file in the Court for registration a copy of an order under an interstate law to transfer a child protection proceeding to Victoria, together with a copy of any interim order made in relation to that order.

(3) The Secretary must not file in the Court a copy of a child protection order or of an order to transfer a child protection proceeding if—

   (a) the decision or order to transfer the child protection order or the order to transfer the child protection proceeding (as the case requires) is subject to appeal or review or a stay; or

   (b) the time for instituting an appeal or seeking a review has not expired—

under the interstate law.

20 Notification by appropriate registrar

The appropriate registrar must immediately notify the appropriate officer of the Children's Court in the sending State and the interstate officer in that State of—

   (a) the registration of any document filed under clause 19; or

   (b) the revocation under clause 22 of the registration of any document so filed.
21 Effect of registration

(1) A child protection order registered in the Court under this Part must be taken for all purposes (except for the purposes of appeal) to be a protection order of the relevant type made by the Court on the day on which it is registered and it may be varied or revoked, or the period of the order extended, or a breach of it dealt with, under Chapter 4 of this Act accordingly.

(2) An interim order registered in the Court under this Part must be taken for all purposes (except for the purposes of appeal) to be an interim accommodation order made by the Court on the day on which it is registered, even if it includes terms that could not be terms of an interim accommodation order.

(3) An interim order registered in the Court under this Part cannot be varied, or the period of the order extended, under Division 5 of Part 4.8 of this Act but nothing in this subclause prevents the Court from making a new interim accommodation order under section 270 (without being limited to the circumstances for an application for a new order set out in that section) and revoking the interim order.

(4) Despite subclause (3), a breach of an interim order registered in the Court under this Part may be dealt with under Chapter 4 of this Act in the same way as a breach of any other interim accommodation order.

(5) If an order under an interstate law to transfer a child protection proceeding to Victoria is registered under this Part, the proceeding must be taken to have been commenced in the Court on the day on which the order is registered.
22 Revocation of registration

(1) An application for the revocation of the registration of any document filed under clause 19 may be made to the Court by—

(a) the Secretary; or
(b) the child concerned; or
(c) a parent of the child concerned; or
(d) a party to the proceeding in the Children's Court in the sending State in which the decision to transfer the order or proceeding (as the case requires) was made.

(2) The appropriate registrar must cause a copy of an application under subclause (1) to be sent by post or given as soon as possible to—

(a) the relevant interstate officer; and
(b) any person by whom such an application could have been made.

(3) The Court may only revoke the registration of a document filed under clause 19 if satisfied that it was inappropriately registered because—

(a) the decision or order to transfer the child protection order or the order to transfer the child protection proceeding (as the case requires) was at the time of registration subject to appeal or review or a stay; or

(b) the time for instituting an appeal or seeking a review had not expired—

under the interstate law.

(4) The appropriate registrar must cause any document filed in the Court under clause 19 to be sent to the Children's Court in the sending State if the registration of the document is revoked.
(5) The revocation of the registration of a document does not prevent the later re-registration of that document.

PART 5—MISCELLANEOUS

23 Effect of registration of transferred order

(1) On an order being registered in a participating State under an interstate law, the child protection order made by the Court under Chapter 4 of this Act ceases to have effect.

(2) Despite subclause (1), an order that has ceased to have effect by force of that subclause is revived if the registration of the child protection order transferred from Victoria is revoked in the participating State under the interstate law.

(3) The period for which a child protection order is revived is the balance of the period for which it would have remained in force but for the registration of the transferred order.

24 Transfer of Court file

(5) On a review under this clause, the Court may make an order—

(a) confirming the registrar's order; or

(b) requiring the child to pay an amount not exceeding the amount of a fine that the Court may impose under section 373; or

(c) that payment of the registered amount that remains unpaid not be enforced.
11 Enforcement hearing

(1) If—

(a) an order is made under clause 7, 8(3)(c), 8(3)(d) or 10(5) in respect of a person; and

(b) for a period of more than one month the person defaults in the payment of an amount ordered to be paid or of any instalment under an instalment order—the Court may, by notice in writing served on the person, require the person to appear before the Court at a specified time and place for an enforcement hearing.

(2) On an enforcement hearing, the Court may make any order that it could make under section 378.

12 Effect of enforcement order

(1) If an enforcement order is made in relation to an offence alleged to have been committed by a child—

(a) the child is not thereby to be taken to have been convicted of the offence; and

(b) the child is not liable to any further proceedings for the alleged offence; and

(c) the making of the order does not in any way affect or prejudice any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence; and

(d) payment in accordance with the order is not an admission of liability for the purpose of, and does not in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence.
(2) Any amount recovered as a result of the making of an enforcement order is to be dealt with in the same way as an amount recovered as a result of a conviction.

(3) Despite anything to the contrary in this clause, the making of an enforcement order in relation to an offence which is a traffic infringement within the meaning of the Road Safety Act 1986 does not prevent the incurring of demerit points under section 25 of that Act in relation to that infringement.

(4) Despite anything to the contrary in this clause, the making of an enforcement order—

(a) may be recorded for the purposes of a heavy vehicle registration suspension scheme within the meaning of section 89(7) of the Road Safety Act 1986; and

(b) does not prevent the suspension of the registration of a vehicle under that scheme.

13 Expiry of enforcement order

(1) An enforcement order expires—

(a) if an order is made under clause 7 in relation to the enforcement order—

(i) on the payment in full of the registered amount; or

(ii) if one or more payments are made under the order but the registered amount is not paid in full, 3 years after the receipt of the last payment; or

(iii) in any other case, 3 years after the making of the order under clause 7; and

(b) if a warrant to seize property has been issued in respect of the order, on that warrant becoming void under section 529;
(c) if an order is made under clause 8(3)(f), on the making of that order;

(d) in any other case, 3 years after the order was made.

(2) If both subclauses (1)(a) and (1)(b) apply, the enforcement order expires on the warrant to seize property becoming void.

(3) If an enforcement order expires as a result of this clause, any registered amount still outstanding in respect of which the order was made ceases to be enforceable or recoverable.

(4) On the expiry of an enforcement order, any warrant to seize property that was issued in respect of that order is void.

(5) An enforcement order that has expired may be reinstated by the registrar on the application of the enforcement agency.

(6) Despite subclause (3), if an enforcement order is reinstated, the registered amount in respect of which it was made again becomes enforceable or recoverable as if there had been no cessation.

(7) Subclause (1) does not apply to a reinstated enforcement order.

(8) A reinstated enforcement order expires 3 years after it was reinstated.

(9) This clause does not apply to an enforcement order in respect of which a warrant has been issued under the Service and Execution of Process Act 1992 of the Commonwealth.

14 Service of documents

(1) All documents required or permitted by this Schedule to be given or served, may be served personally or by post or in any other prescribed manner.
(2) Any document served by post under this Part must be addressed—

(b) if no address for service has been given, to the address contained in the document provided under clause 3(1)(a).

PART 3—CANCELLATION OF INFRINGEMENT NOTICE

15 Cancellation of infringement notice if person not aware

(1) A child or a person on that child's behalf may apply to a registrar to have an infringement notice cancelled if—

(b) the child was not in fact aware that an infringement notice had been served on the child.

(2) An application under subclause (1) must—

(a) be made within 14 days of the child becoming aware of the infringement notice; and

(b) be accompanied by a written statement setting out the grounds on which the cancellation is sought.

(3) If an application is made under subclause (1), a registrar must—

(a) stay the operation of the infringement notice; and

(b) refer the application to the Court for hearing and determination.
(4) On the referral to the Court under subclause (3), the Court must cause a notice of the time and place of the hearing of the application to be given or sent to the enforcement agency and to the applicant.

16 Powers of Court to cancel

(1) On the referral of an application under clause 15 to the Court, any of the procedures set out in this Schedule that are being used for the enforcement of the infringement penalty are, by force of this subclause, suspended pending the determination of the application.

(2) The Court may only cancel an infringement notice if it is satisfied that, more than 14 days before making an application under subclause (1), the person was not in fact aware that the infringement notice had been served.

(3) If the Court cancels an infringement notice under this clause—

(a) any infringement penalty and prescribed costs that have been paid in relation to the notice must be refunded and the Consolidated Fund or any other fund specified by the relevant Act or other instrument into which the penalty and costs have been paid is, to the necessary extent, appropriated accordingly; and

(b) any of the procedures set out in this Schedule that are being used for the enforcement of any infringement penalty and prescribed costs (if any) in relation to the notice must be discontinued; and

(c) any enforcement order in relation to the infringement penalty and prescribed costs (if any) is revoked; and
(d) any warrant issued in relation to the infringement penalty and prescribed costs is cancelled.

(4) The cancellation of an infringement notice under this clause does not prevent the service of a new infringement notice in respect of the offence for which the cancelled infringement notice was served.

PART 4—EXTENSION OF TIME FOR COMMENCING PROCEEDING

17 Decision to go to Court

(1) A proceeding in respect of a summary offence for which an infringement notice was issued may be commenced—

(a) in accordance with section 344A; or

(b) in accordance with section 53 of the Infringements Act 2006; or

(ba) if an infringement notice is reviewed under Division 3 of Part 2 of the Infringements Act 2006, within 6 months after the date of service of the advice of the outcome on the applicant under section 24(3) of that Act or 12 months after the date of the alleged offence (whichever is the earlier); or

(c) if, under clause 6(5)(b) or 8(3)(a), the registrar cancels the registration of an infringement penalty and remits the relevant infringement notice to the enforcement agency, within 6 months after the date of cancellation of the registration of the infringement penalty or 12 months after the date of the alleged offence (whichever is the earlier); or

(d) if the Court cancels an infringement notice under Part 3 of this Schedule and a new infringement notice is served on the child, within 6 months after the date of cancellation of the cancelled infringement notice or 12 months after the date of the alleged offence (whichever is the earlier); or

(f) if a nomination of a kind specified in paragraph (e) is made and subsequently cancelled under section 84BF(1) of the Road Safety Act 1986 so that liability reverts to the person who made the nomination, within 6 months after the date of cancellation of the nomination or 12 months after the date of the alleged offence (whichever is the earlier); or

(g) subject to paragraph (e), if the offence is against section 204 of the EastLink Project Act 2004, within 6 months after the date of service of the infringement notice under section 210(1) of that Act or 12 months after the date of the alleged offence (whichever is the earlier); or
(h) subject to paragraph (e), if the offence is against section 73 of the Melbourne City Link Act 1995, within 6 months after the date of service of the infringement notice under section 80(1) of that Act or 12 months after the date of the alleged offence (whichever is the earlier).

(2) Subclause (1) has effect despite section 344A or any other provision of any Act or other instrument providing for the period during which a proceeding may be commenced for an offence alleged to have been committed.
