(a) an exemption under section 8B; or
(b) an approval under section 8C.
Penalty: 480 penalty units or 4 years imprisonment.

(1B) If a person is convicted or found guilty of an offence against subsection (1A) in respect of an act or omission, that person is not liable to be convicted or found guilty of an offence against subsection (1)(e) in respect of the same act or omission.
(2) A person must not sell a prohibited weapon unless the person reasonably believes that the purchaser of the weapon has an exemption under section 8B or an approval under section 8C allowing the purchaser to possess the weapon.

Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(3) Subsections (1), (1AA), (1AB), (1A) and (2) do not apply to an employee of a person who holds an approval under section 8C if the employee is acting in the course of his or her employment and in accordance with the approval.

5AA Offence to possess, use or carry a prohibited weapon

A person must not possess, use or carry a prohibited weapon (other than an imitation firearm) without an exemption under section 8B or an approval under section 8C.

Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

5AB Offence to possess, use or carry an imitation firearm

(1) A non-prohibited person must not possess, use or carry an imitation firearm without an exemption under section 8B or an approval under section 8C.

Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(2) A prohibited person must not possess, use or carry an imitation firearm.

Penalty: 1200 penalty units or imprisonment for 10 years.

(3) An individual to whom a firearm prohibition order applies must not possess, carry or use an imitation firearm.

Penalty: 1200 penalty units or imprisonment for 10 years.
5A Identifying persons purchasing prohibited weapons

(1) A person (the "seller") must require a person attempting to purchase a prohibited weapon from the seller (the "purchaser") to produce evidence as to the purchaser's identity—

(a) by means of a passport, driver licence or other document in one of the prescribed categories, if that document bears a photograph of the purchaser; or

(b) by means of 2 documents in the prescribed categories but each in a different category; or

(c) in the case of a purchaser who is authorised under the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission Act 2011 to possess, carry and use defensive equipment (within the meaning of that Act), by means of that authorisation and the purchaser's photographic identification as an IBAC Officer within the meaning of that Act.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

(2) A person must not sell a prohibited weapon to a person who is unable to produce the required evidence of identity under subsection (1).

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

(3) A person must not produce false evidence of identity under subsection (1).

Penalty: 120 penalty units.
5B Recording sales of prohibited weapons

(1) A person who sells a prohibited weapon must keep a record of the sale in accordance with this section.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

(2) A record under this section—

(a) must be in the form, and contain the information, prescribed by the regulations; and

(b) must be kept for a period of 3 years after the sale to which it relates.

(3) A police officer, at any reasonable time, may require a person to produce for inspection a record kept under this section.

6 Control of controlled weapons

(1) A person must not possess, carry or use a controlled weapon without lawful excuse.

Penalty: 120 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year.

(1AA) A child must not purchase a controlled weapon.

Penalty: 12 penalty units.

(1AB) A person must not sell a controlled weapon to another person knowing that the other person is a child.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

(1AC) For the purposes of subsections (1AA) and (1AB), a controlled weapon does not include a disposable knife made of plastic, bamboo or wood and designed for eating purposes.
(1A) A person who is in licensed premises or in a public place that is in the immediate vicinity of licensed premises must not possess, carry or use a controlled weapon without lawful excuse.

Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(1B) If a person is convicted or found guilty of an offence against subsection (1A) in respect of an act or omission that person is not liable to be convicted or found guilty of an offence against subsection (1) in respect of the same act or omission.

(2) A person must not carry a controlled weapon unless it is carried in a safe and secure manner consistent with the lawful excuse for which it is possessed or is carried or is to be used.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

(3) In this section lawful excuse includes—

(a) the pursuit of any lawful employment, duty or activity; and

(b) participation in any lawful sport, recreation or entertainment; and

(c) the legitimate collection, display or exhibition of weapons—

but does not include for the purpose of self-defence.

(4) In considering whether a person has lawful excuse to possess, carry or use a controlled weapon, the court must have regard to the circumstances, such as time and location, of the incident.
7 Control of use of dangerous articles

(1) A person must not in a public place possess or carry a dangerous article without lawful excuse.

Penalty: 60 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

(1A) A person who is in licensed premises or in a public place that is in the immediate vicinity of licensed premises must not possess or carry a dangerous article without lawful excuse.

Penalty: 120 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year.

(1B) If a person is convicted or found guilty of an offence against subsection (1A) in respect of an act or omission that person is not liable to be convicted or found guilty of an offence against subsection (1) in respect of the same act or omission.

(2) In this section lawful excuse includes—

(a) the pursuit of any lawful employment, duty or activity; and

(b) participation in any lawful sport, recreation or entertainment; and

(c) the legitimate collection, display or exhibition of the article; and

(d) the use of the article for the purpose for which it is designed or intended—but does not include possession or carriage of a dangerous article for the purpose of self-defence.

(4) In considering whether a person has a lawful excuse to possess or carry a dangerous article, the court must have regard to the circumstances, such as time and location, of the incident.

7A Exemption of health service workers

(1) A health professional or health service security guard who is not a prohibited person and who possesses or carries a prohibited weapon, a controlled weapon or a dangerous article in a health service facility in the circumstances set out in subsection (3) does not commit an offence against section 5, 5AA, 5AB(1), 6 or 7 for so doing.

(2) An ambulance officer who is not a prohibited person and who possesses or carries a prohibited weapon, a controlled weapon or a dangerous article in a health service facility or public place in the circumstances set out in subsection (3) does not commit an offence against section 5, 5AA, 5AB(1), 6 or 7 for so doing.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), the circumstances are that the health professional, health service security guard or ambulance worker—

(a) is carrying out his or her duties as a health professional, health service security guard or ambulance worker, as the case may be; and

(b) either—

(i) is given the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon or dangerous article by a patient; or
(ii) removes the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon or dangerous article from a patient; or

(iii) finds the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon or dangerous article in the vicinity of the patient; or

(iv) is given the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon or dangerous article by a health professional or ambulance worker who has taken possession of the weapon or article in the circumstances set out in this subsection.

(4) A health professional, health security guard or ambulance worker who takes possession of a prohibited weapon, controlled weapon or dangerous article in the circumstances set out in subsection (3) must notify a police officer as soon as practicable after having taken possession of the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon or dangerous article.

(5) In this section—

ambulance worker means an operational staff member of the ambulance services as defined in the Ambulance Services Act 1986;

health professional means—

(a) a registered medical practitioner; or

(b) a nurse or midwife; or

(c) a registered psychologist;

(b) a denominational hospital; or
(c) a multi purpose service; or
(d) a private hospital; or
(e) a public health service; or
(f) a public hospital—
as defined in the Health Services Act 1988.

7B Exemption of person exercising power under the Education and Training Reform Act 2006

(1) A person who possesses or carries a prohibited weapon, controlled weapon or dangerous article in a Government school or public place in the circumstances set out in subsection (2) does not commit an offence against section 5, 5AA, 5AB(1), 6 or 7 for so doing.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the circumstances are that the person—
(a) is exercising a power under Part 5.8A of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006; and
(b) is not a prohibited person.

(3) If a prohibited weapon has been seized under Part 5.8A of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 in the circumstances set out in subsection (2), the principal must, as soon as possible—
(a) advise a police officer of the seizure of the item; and

S. 7B inserted by No. 11/2011 s. 6.

S. 7B(1) amended by No. 35/2012 s. 12.

S. 7B(3)(a) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 28.2).
(b) if so requested, by the police officer, surrender the item to a police officer.

(4) In this section, public place includes any premises where students are engaged in a teacher supervised activity.

8 Claim of lawful excuse

Section 72 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 applies in respect of a claim of "lawful excuse" under this Act.

8A Control of body armour

(1) A person must not—

(a) bring body armour into Victoria; or

(b) cause body armour to be brought or sent into Victoria; or

(c) manufacture, sell or purchase body armour; or

(d) possess or use body armour—without an exemption under section 8B or an approval under section 8C.

Penalty: 240 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an employee of a person who holds an approval under section 8C if the employee is acting in the course of his or her employment and in accordance with the approval.

* * * * *

8B Exemptions for prohibited weapons and body armour

(1) The Governor in Council may, by Order published in the Government Gazette—

(a) exempt from any provision of section 5 (except section 5(1AC) or (1AD)), 5AA, 5AB(1) or 8A (as the case requires)—

(i) a class of persons or class of prohibited weapons or body armour; or

(ii) a corrections officer, military officer or member of police personnel (by name or description of office); and

(b) specify conditions and limitations to which an exemption under paragraph (a) is subject.

(2) An exemption under subsection (1)—

(a) must not be granted in respect of prohibited persons; and

(b) if granted in respect of a class of person or persons identified by a particular description, does not apply to any prohibited person who is a member of that class or who satisfies that description (as the case requires).

(3) An exemption granted under subsection (1) in respect of a class of person or persons may be subject to a condition that the exemption does not apply to a person until that person has been a member of that class for a specified minimum period of up to 6 months.

(4) The Governor in Council may—

(a) grant an exemption under subsection (1) for a specified period or indefinitely;

(b) vary or revoke an exemption at any time including an exemption granted for a specified period.

8C Approvals for prohibited weapons and body armour

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Chief Commissioner of Police may grant an approval to a person to do anything that is otherwise prohibited by any provision of section 5 (except section 5(1AC) or (1AD)), 5AA, 5AB(1) or 8A.

(1A) If an approval is granted under subsection (1) to a person who is a member of a partnership, the approval is taken to apply to each member of the partnership.

(2) The Chief Commissioner cannot grant an approval under this section to—

(a) a prohibited person; or

(b) a corrections officer, military officer or member of police personnel in connection with their official duties; or
(c) a person who is a member of a partnership if another member of the partnership is a prohibited person; or
(d) a body corporate if an officer of the body corporate is a prohibited person.

(3) An application for approval must be—
   (a) in the form approved by the Chief Commissioner; and
   (b) contain the information required by the Chief Commissioner; and
   (c) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(4) Before granting an approval the Chief Commissioner must have regard to the guidelines issued by the Minister under section 8D.

(5) The Chief Commissioner may—
   (a) grant an approval for a specified period or indefinitely;
   (b) vary or revoke an approval at any time, including an approval granted for a specified period.

(6) An approval—
   (a) must be in writing; and
   (b) is subject to—
      (i) a condition that the prohibited weapon or body armour is stored safely and securely and in the manner (if any) specified by the Chief Commissioner in the approval; and
      (ii) any other conditions or limitations that the Chief Commissioner considers appropriate.
(7) The Chief Commissioner may—

(a) refuse to grant an approval to an applicant who is under the age of 18 years; or

(b) impose conditions or limitations on an approval granted to an applicant who is under the age of 18 years that the Chief Commissioner would not impose on an applicant of or over that age.

8D Ministerial guidelines

(1) The Minister may issue guidelines relating to the granting of approvals under section 8C, including guidelines prohibiting or restricting the granting of approvals to applicants who are under the age of 18 years.

(2) Any guidelines issued by the Minister under subsection (1) must be published in the Government Gazette.

8E Offences regarding exemptions and approvals

(1) A person must not intentionally or recklessly breach a condition to which an exemption under section 8B or an approval under section 8C that applies to the person is subject.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

(1A) An employee of a person to whom an approval has been granted under section 8C must not intentionally or recklessly breach a condition to which the approval is subject while, in the course of that employment, performing duties for which the approval is required.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.
(2) A person must not knowingly make a statement in an application for approval under section 8C that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

(3) A person who is the holder of an approval under section 8C must not employ a prohibited person, or allow a prohibited person to be employed, to carry out duties for which an approval under section 8C is required.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

8EA Offences by body corporate

(1) If a body corporate contravenes a provision of this Act, each officer of the body corporate is deemed to have contravened the same provision if the officer knowingly authorised or permitted the contravention.

(2) A person may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision in accordance with subsection (1) whether or not the body corporate has been proceeded against or been convicted under that provision.

(3) Nothing in this section affects any liability imposed on a body corporate for an offence committed by the body corporate against this Act.

8EB Offences by partners

(1) If a person who is a member of a partnership contravenes a provision of this Act, the partner or partners of that person are deemed to have contravened the same provision if the partner or partners knowingly authorised or permitted the contravention.

(2) A person may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision in accordance with subsection (1) whether or not another member of the partnership has been proceeded against or been convicted under that provision.

8F Chief Commissioner to report on applications for approval

(1) Within 30 days after the end of each financial year, the Chief Commissioner of Police must make a report to the Minister regarding applications for approval under section 8C in that financial year.

(2) A report under this section must be in the form, and contain the information, required by the Minister.

8G Power to require production of approval

(1) A police officer, or a protective services officer on duty at a designated place, who—

(a) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person has committed an offence against section 5, 5AA or 5AB(1) or is carrying or has in his or her possession a prohibited weapon; and

(b) produces his or her identification for inspection by the person—may demand that the person produce an approval under section 8C allowing the person to do the thing otherwise prohibited.

(2) A person to whom a demand is directed under subsection (1) must comply with the demand.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.
(3) This section does not apply to a person who is exempted under section 8B.

9 Forfeiture or return of prohibited weapons, controlled weapons, dangerous articles or body armour

(1) If a court finds a person guilty or not guilty because of mental impairment of an offence under this Act, the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour to which the offence relates is forfeited to the Crown and must be sold or destroyed unless the court makes an order that it be returned to the person.

(2) A prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour which has been forfeited under subsection (1) cannot be sold or destroyed until the period for an appeal has elapsed, or if an appeal against the conviction has been lodged, unless the appeal has been dismissed.

(3) A prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour which has been seized in relation to an offence by a person under this Act must be returned to that person in accordance with this section if—

(a) proceedings for that offence are not commenced within the period of 3 months after the seizure; or

(b) a decision is made within that period not to bring proceedings for that offence.

(4) The police officer in charge of the police station at which the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour is kept must give notice to the person from whom the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour was seized of his or her right to have it returned.
(5) If a person who is given notice under subsection (4) does not apply within 7 days after the receipt of the notice for the return of the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour as the case requires, the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour is forfeited to the Crown and must be sold or destroyed.

(6) A person who applies under this section for the return of a prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour, must collect it from the police station at which it is kept.

(7) If the person who applies for the return of a prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour is under the age of 18 years, the prohibited weapon, controlled weapon, dangerous article or body armour must not be returned to him or her unless he or she is accompanied by a parent or guardian to collect it.

9A Forfeiture of controlled weapons if infringement notice served

(1) This section applies if a police officer or a protective services officer serves a person (the recipient) with an infringement notice in respect of an offence against section 6(1), (1AA) or (1A) and seizes a controlled weapon to which the offence relates.

(2) The controlled weapon is forfeited to the Crown.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the controlled weapon may be sold or destroyed if—

(a) the recipient pays the infringement penalty stated in the infringement notice; or
(b) the recipient commences a payment plan, under section 48 of the Infringements Act 2006, for the infringement penalty stated in the infringement notice; or

(ba) the recipient commences a payment arrangement under section 47 of the Fines Reform Act 2014; or

(c) the recipient requests the addition of the infringement penalty stated in the infringement notice to a payment plan under Part 3 of the Infringements Act 2006; or

(d) the payment period specified in the infringement notice expires and the recipient has not applied, under section 22 of the Infringements Act 2006, for review of the decision to serve the infringement notice; or

(e) the recipient applies, under section 22 of the Infringements Act 2006, for review of the decision to serve the infringement notice and a police officer decides, on review—

(i) to confirm the decision to serve the infringement notice; or

(ii) to withdraw the infringement notice and serve an official warning (within the meaning of that Act) in place of the infringement notice—and 28 days have elapsed since that decision.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if—

(a) the recipient elects, under section 16 of the Infringements Act 2006, to have the matter of the infringement offence heard and determined in the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court; or
(b) a police officer, whether on a review under section 24 of the Infringements Act 2006 or otherwise—

(i) refers the matter for which the infringement notice has been served to the Magistrates' Court under section 17(1) of that Act; or

(ii) withdraws the infringement notice and files a charge-sheet and summons in the Children's Court for the matter of the infringement offence to be dealt with.

Note
Section 9 applies if the matter of the infringement offence is heard and determined in the Magistrates' Court or the Children's Court.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), the controlled weapon must be returned to the recipient in accordance with this section if—

(a) a police officer withdraws the infringement notice without—

(i) referring the matter for which the infringement notice has been served to the Magistrates' Court under section 17(1) of the Infringements Act 2006; or

(ii) filing a charge-sheet and summons in the Children's Court for the matter of the infringement offence to be dealt with; or

(iii) serving, on that person, an official warning (within the meaning of the Infringements Act 2006) in place of the infringement notice; or
(b) the enforcement agency under the Infringements Act 2006 grants an application under section 25(2A)(a) of that Act; or

(c) the Children's Court cancels the infringement notice under clause 16 of Schedule 3 to the

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply if the controlled weapon has been sold or destroyed under subsection (3).

(7) Section 9(4), (5), (6) and (7) apply to the return of a controlled weapon under subsection (5).

10 Search without a warrant

(1) If—

(a) a police officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person is carrying or has in his or her possession in a public place a weapon contrary to this Act; and

(b) the police officer informs the person of the grounds for his or her suspicion; and
(c) the police officer complies with subsection (3)—

the police officer may, without a warrant—

(d) search the person and any vehicle or thing in his or her possession or under his or her control for the weapon; and

(e) seize and detain any item detected during the search that the police officer reasonably suspects is a weapon.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), the fact that a person is present in a location with a high incidence of violent crime may be taken into account in determining whether there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person is carrying a weapon or has a weapon in his or her possession.

(3) Before a police officer commences a search of a person under subsection (1), the police officer must—

(a) inform the person of the police officer's name, rank and place of duty; and

(b) if requested by the person, provide the information referred to in paragraph (a) in writing; and
(c) produce his or her identification for inspection by the person, unless the police officer is in uniform; and

(d) inform the person that the police officer intends to search the person or the vehicle or thing (as the case requires) for weapons and is empowered to do so under this Act.

(4) Schedule 1 applies to the search of a person or thing under this section.

(5) A police officer must conduct the least invasive search that is practicable in the circumstances.

(6) A police officer may detain a person for so long as is reasonably necessary to conduct a search under this section.

(7) In this section, weapon means—

(a) a prohibited weapon; or

(b) a controlled weapon; or

(c) a dangerous article.

10AA Search by protective services officer

(1) This section applies if a protective services officer on duty at a designated place has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person at or in the vicinity of a designated place is carrying or has in his or her possession in a public place a weapon contrary to this Act.
(2) Subject to subsection (4), the protective services officer may, without a warrant—

(a) search the person and any vehicle or thing in the person's possession or under the person's control for the weapon; and

(b) seize and detain any item detected during the search that the protective services officer reasonably suspects is a weapon.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the fact that a person is present in a location with a high incidence of violent crime may be taken into account in determining whether there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person is carrying a weapon or has a weapon in his or her possession.

(4) Before a protective services officer commences a search of a person under subsection (2), the protective services officer must—

(a) inform the person of the grounds for his or her suspicion; and

(b) inform the person of the protective services officer's name, rank and place of duty; and

(c) if requested to do so by the person, provide the information referred to in paragraph (b) in writing; and

(d) produce his or her identification for inspection by the person, unless the protective services officer is in uniform; and

(e) inform the person that he or she intends to search the person or thing (as the case requires) for weapons and is empowered to do so under this Act.
(5) Clauses 1, 2, 4(2), 4(3), 5(2), 5(3), 5(4), 6, 11(1), 11(5), 12(1) and 12(5) of Schedule 1 apply to the search of a person or thing under this section as if—

(a) a reference in that Schedule to a police officer were a reference to a protective services officer; and

(b) a reference in that Schedule to a search under section 10 were a reference to a search under this section.

(6) A protective services officer must conduct the least invasive search that is practicable in the circumstances.

(7) A protective services officer may detain a person for so long as is reasonably necessary to conduct a search under this section.

(8) To avoid doubt, a protective services officer may exercise any power under this section to search or detain a person, or seize and detain any item detected during the search, at or in the vicinity of a designated place.

(9) In this section, weapon means—

(a) a prohibited weapon; or

(b) a controlled weapon; or

(c) a dangerous article.
10A Duty to make records concerning searches

(1) A police officer who conducts a search under section 10 or a strip search under section 10G, or a protective services officer who conducts a search under section 10AA, must make a written record of the search containing the prescribed particulars.

(2) The record must be made immediately after the completion of the search or, if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after the completion of the search.

(3) A person subjected to a search under section 10 or 10AA or a strip search under section 10G is entitled, on request and without charge, to a copy of the record of the search, if the request is made not later than 1 year after the date of the search.

(4) A request under subsection (3) is made to—

(a) in the case of a search conducted by a police officer—the police officer in charge of the place of duty that the police officer referred to in section 10(3)(a) or 10I(1)(a) or clause 8(1)(a) of Schedule 1; or

(b) in the case of a search conducted by a protective services officer—the police officer in charge of the place of duty of the 10B Chief Commissioner to report on searches without warrant

The Chief Commissioner of Police must provide to the Minister for inclusion in the annual report of operations under Part 7 of the Financial Management Act 1994 a report containing—

(a) the number of searches without warrant under section 10 or 10AA conducted during that financial year; and

(ab) the number of strip searches conducted under section 10G during that financial year; and

(ac) the number of strip searches conducted under section 10G during that financial year in any area in respect of which a declaration under section 10D was in effect at the time of the search; and

(ad) the number of strip searches conducted under section 10G during that financial year in any area in respect of which a declaration under section 10E was in effect at the time of the search; and

(b) the number and type of weapons and dangerous articles found during the course of searches referred to in paragraphs (a) and (ab); and

(ba) the number of persons who were—

(i) the subject of a strip search referred to in paragraph (ab); and

(ii) charged with offences against this Act in relation to a weapon or dangerous article found during the course of that search; and

(bb) the number of persons who were—

(i) the subject of a strip search referred to in paragraph (ac); and

(ii) charged with offences against this Act in relation to a weapon or dangerous article found during the course of that search; and

(bc) the number of persons who were—

(i) the subject of a strip search referred to in paragraph (ad); and

(ii) charged with offences against this Act in relation to a weapon or dangerous article found during the course of that search; and

(bd) the number of persons who were—

(i) the subject of a search conducted under section 10G; and

(ii) charged with offences against this Act in relation to a weapon or dangerous article found during the course of that search; and

(c) any other information requested by the Minister.

10C Definitions

In this section and in sections 10D to 10L—designated area means an area in respect of which a declaration under section 10D or 10E is in effect;

thing includes any object, article or material;
weapon means—

(a) a prohibited weapon; or
(b) a controlled weapon; or
(c) a dangerous article.

10D Planned designation of an area

(1) The Chief Commissioner may declare an area to be a designated area if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that—

(a) either—

(i) more than one incident of violence or disorder has occurred in that area in the previous 12 months that involved the use of weapons; or

(ii) an event is to be held in that area and incidents of violence or disorder involving the use of weapons have occurred at previous occasions of that event (wherever occurring); and

(b) there is a likelihood that the violence or disorder will recur.

(1A) For the avoidance of doubt, the Chief Commissioner may determine under subsection (1) that there is a likelihood that violence or disorder involving the use of weapons will recur even if that likelihood is less than more likely than not.

(2) The area designated must not be larger than is reasonably necessary to enable police officers or protective services officers to effectively respond to the threat of violence or disorder.

(3) The period of operation of a declaration under this section (other than a declaration in relation to an event)—

S. 10D(1A) inserted by No. 42/2010 s. 12(1).

S. 10D(2) amended by Nos 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. Item 28.8), 45/2017 s. 5.

S. 10D(3) amended by No. 42/2010 s. 12(2).
(a) must be not longer than is reasonably necessary to enable police officers or protective services officers to effectively respond to the threat of violence or disorder; and

(b) must not exceed 12 hours.

(3A) A declaration under this section in relation to an event may operate for more than one period.

(3B) Each period of operation of a declaration under this section in relation to an event must be during that event.

Example

If an event takes place from 10 a.m. to midnight on 2 consecutive days, a declaration made in relation to that event must not operate—

(a) before 10 a.m. on the first day; or

(b) between midnight and 10 a.m. on the second day; or

(c) after midnight on the second day.

(4) The Chief Commissioner must publish a notice of the declaration of an area under this section in—

(a) the Government Gazette; and

(b) in a daily newspaper circulating generally in Victoria; and

(c) if the declared area is outside the metropolitan area, in a daily newspaper circulating generally within that area, if such a newspaper exists.

(5) The notice must—

(a) describe the designated area; and

* * * * *
(c) specify the powers that police officers or protective services officers are authorised to exercise in the designated area while the declaration is in force; and

(d) specify the period or periods of operation of the declaration; and

(e) if the declaration was made in relation to an event, specify that event.

(5A) In addition to subsection (5)—

(a) the notice, as published in the Government Gazette, must include a map of the designated area; and

(b) the notice, as published in a newspaper, must include a map of the designated area or the address of a Government Internet website at which a map of the designated area is published.

(6) A declaration under this section has effect, after the date of publication of the notice in the Government Gazette, for the period or periods specified in the notice.

(8) If a declaration (the earlier declaration) is made under this section in respect of an area, a further declaration under this section cannot take effect in respect of that area until after the end of the period of 10 days after the end of the period, or the last of the periods, of operation of the earlier declaration.

(9) Nothing in subsection (8) prevents a declaration being made under section 10E in respect of that area during the 10-day period referred to in that subsection.

(10) In this section, metropolitan area means the area or areas specified by the Governor in Council for the purposes of this section by Order published in the Government Gazette.

10E Unplanned designation of an area

(1) The Chief Commissioner may, in writing, declare an area to be a designated area if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that—

(a) there is a likelihood that violence or disorder involving weapons will occur in that area during the period of intended operation of the declaration; and

(b) it is necessary to designate the area for the purpose of enabling police officers or protective services officers to exercise search powers to prevent or deter the occurrence of any violence or disorder that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied is likely to occur.

(1A) For the avoidance of doubt, the Chief Commissioner may determine under subsection (1) that there is a likelihood that violence or disorder involving weapons will occur even if that likelihood is less than more likely than not.
(2) The declaration under this section must specify—
(a) the designated area; and
(b) the period of operation of the declaration.

(3) The area designated under this section must not be larger than is reasonably necessary to enable police officers or protective services officers to effectively respond to the threat of violence or disorder.

(4) The period of operation of a declaration under this section—
(a) must be not longer than is reasonably necessary to enable police officers or protective services officers to effectively respond to the threat of violence or disorder; and
(b) must not exceed 12 hours.

(5) A declaration under this section has effect for the period specified in the declaration.

(6) As soon as practicable after making a declaration under this section, the Chief Commissioner must ensure that notice of the declaration is published on a website maintained by Victoria Police.

(7) The notice must include the information referred to in section 10D(5) and include a map of the designated area.

10F Delegation by Chief Commissioner

Despite section 19 of the Victoria Police Act 2013, the Chief Commissioner may delegate a power under section 10D or 10E only to a police officer of or above the rank of Assistant Commissioner of Police.
10G  Power to search persons in designated area

(1) A police officer may, without a warrant, stop and search a person, and search any thing in the possession of or under the control of the person for weapons, if the person and, if applicable, the thing are in a public place that is within a designated area.

(2) Schedule 1 applies to the search of a person or thing under this section.

(3) A police officer must conduct the least invasive search that is practicable in the circumstances.

(4) A police officer may detain a person for so long as is reasonably necessary to conduct a search under this section.

10GA  Power to search persons in designated area—protective services officer

(1) A protective services officer on duty at a designated place may, without a warrant, stop and search a person, and search any thing in the possession of or under the control of the person for weapons, if the person and, if applicable, the thing are in a public place that is within a designated area.

(2) Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4(1), 4(3), 5(1), 5(3), 5(4), 6, 11 and 12 of Schedule 1 apply to the search of a person or thing under this section as if—

(a) a reference in that Schedule to a police officer were a reference to a protective services officer; and
(b) a reference in that Schedule to a search under section 10G were a reference to a search under this section.

(3) A protective services officer may only conduct a search under this section if during the operation of the declaration police officers are also conducting searches in the designated area.

(4) A protective services officer must conduct the least invasive search that is practicable in the circumstances.

(5) A protective services officer may detain a person for so long as is reasonably necessary to conduct a search under this section.

10H Power to search vehicles

(1) A police officer or a protective services officer on duty at a designated place may, without a warrant, stop and search a vehicle, and anything in or on the vehicle, for weapons if—

(a) the vehicle is in a public place that is within a designated area; and

(b) there is a person in or on the vehicle.

(2) A police officer or protective services officer may detain a vehicle for so long as is reasonably necessary to conduct a search under this section.
10I Information to be given before search occurs

(1) When a police officer detains a person or a vehicle under section 10G or 10H to conduct a search, the police officer must—

(a) if requested by the person, inform the person to be searched or a person in or on the vehicle, as the case requires, of the police officer's name, rank and place of duty; and

(b) if requested by the person, provide the information referred to in paragraph (a) in writing; and

(c) produce his or her identification for inspection by the person, unless the police officer is in uniform; and

(d) inform the person that the police officer intends to search the person or the vehicle (as the case requires) for weapons and is empowered to do so under this Act; and

(e) give the person a search notice that complies with subsection (3).

(1A) When a protective services officer detains a person or a vehicle under section 10GA or 10H to conduct a search, the protective services officer must—

(a) if requested by the person, inform the person to be searched or a person in or on the vehicle, as the case requires, of the protective services officer's name, rank and place of duty; and
(b) if requested by the person, provide the information referred to in paragraph (a) in writing; and

(c) produce the officer's identification for inspection by the person, unless the protective services officer is in uniform; and

(d) inform the person that the protective services officer intends to search the person or the vehicle (as the case requires) for weapons and is empowered to do so under this Act; and

(e) give the person a search notice that complies with subsection (3).

(2) Subsections (1)(e) and (1A)(e) do not apply if the person has been offered the search notice and has refused or does not wish to accept it.

(3) A search notice must state that—

(a) the person or vehicle is in a public place that is within a designated area; and

(b) a declaration is in force under section 10D or 10E (as the case requires); and

(c) police officers and protective services officers on duty at a designated place are empowered to search the person and any thing in the possession or control of the person, or the vehicle (as the case requires) for weapons; and

(d) it is an offence for the person to obstruct or hinder a police officer or a protective services officer on duty at a designated place in the exercise of a power to stop and search a person or a vehicle.
10J Seizure of suspected weapons

(1) A police officer may seize and detain any item detected during a search under section 10G or 10H that the police officer reasonably suspects is a weapon.

(1A) A protective services officer may seize and detain any item detected during a search under section 10GA or 10H that the protective services officer reasonably suspects is a weapon.

(2) If a police officer or protective services officer who seizes and detains an item under this section, determines after examination of the item that it is not a weapon, the police officer or protective services officer must return the item to the person from whom it was seized, without delay.

10K Power to obtain disclosure of identity

(1) A police officer may request a person who is to be subject to a strip search under Schedule 1 and whose identity is unknown to the police officer to disclose his or her identity.

(2) A person who is so requested to disclose his or her identity must not, without reasonable excuse, fail or refuse to comply with the request.

Penalty: 1 penalty unit.

(3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, in response to any such request—

(a) give a name that is false in a material particular; or
(b) give an address other than the person's full and correct address.

Penalty: 1 penalty unit.

10KA Other powers that may be exercised in relation to designated area

(1) A police officer may direct a person wearing a face covering to leave a designated area if—

(a) the police officer reasonably believes the person is using the face covering primarily—

(i) to conceal the person's identity; or

(ii) to protect the person from the effects of crowd-controlling substances; and

(b) the person refuses to remove the face covering when requested by the police officer to do so.

(2) A police officer may direct a person to leave a designated area if the police officer reasonably believes the person intends to engage in conduct that would constitute an offence under section 195H (affray) or 195I (violent disorder) of the Crimes Act 1958.

(3) Before, or immediately after, a police officer gives a direction to a person under this section, the police officer must advise the person that a declaration is in force declaring the relevant area to be a designated area.

10KB Additional reporting requirements

The Chief Commissioner must provide to the Minister for inclusion in the annual report of operations under Part 7 of the Financial Management Act 1994 a report containing—

(a) the number of declarations made under each of sections 10D and 10E during that financial year; and
(b) for each declaration reported under paragraph (a), information about whether a power under section 10KA was exercised in relation to the designated area that was the subject of the declaration.

10L Offence to obstruct or hinder search or other powers or fail to comply with direction

(1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse—

(a) obstruct or hinder a police officer in the exercise of a power under section 10, 10G, 10H or 10J to stop and search a person or vehicle or to seize and detain a thing; or

(b) fail to comply with a direction given by a police officer under clause 7(2) of Schedule 1.

Penalty: 2 penalty units.

(2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a direction given by a police officer under section 10KA(1) or (2).

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

(3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, obstruct or hinder a protective services officer in the exercise of a power under section 10AA, 10GA, 10H or 10J to stop and search a person or vehicle or to seize and detain a thing.
11 Warrant to search

(1) If a magistrate is satisfied by the evidence, on oath or by affirmation or by affidavit, of any police officer of or above the rank of sergeant or for the time being in charge of a police station that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence against section 5, 5AA or 5AB has been or is being committed, he or she may grant a search warrant authorizing any police officer named therein—

(a) to enter at any time by day or by night any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary by force; and

(b) to search the premises or place and every person found therein; and

(c) to seize and detain any prohibited weapon which he or she finds on the premises or place or on any such person and in respect of which or in connection with which he or she has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence against section 5, 5AA or 5AB has been or is being committed.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1), the rules to be observed with respect to search warrants mentioned in the Magistrates’ Court Act 1989 extend and apply to warrants under this section.

11A Indictable offence

An offence under section 5(1A) or 5AB (2) or (3) is an indictable offence.
11B  Power to serve infringement notice

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a police officer may serve an infringement notice on any person who he or she has reason to believe has committed an offence against section 6(1), (1AA) or (1A).

(1A) Subject to subsection (2), a protective services officer may serve an infringement notice on any person who he or she has reason to believe has committed an offence against section 6(1) at or in the vicinity of a designated place.

(2) An infringement notice in respect of an offence against section 6(1), (1AA) or (1A) must not be served on a person who is under 16 years of age at the time of the alleged offence.

(3) An offence referred to in subsection (1) or (1A) for which an infringement notice may be served is an infringement offence within the meaning of the Infringements Act 2006.

11C  Infringement penalty

The infringement penalty for an infringement offence referred to in section 11B is—

(a) in the case of an offence against section 6(1)—$1000;

(b) in the case of an offence against section 6(1AA)—2 penalty units;

(c) in the case of an offence against section 6(1A)—$2000.

12  Regulations

(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for or with respect to generally prescribing any matter or thing required or permitted by this Act.
to be prescribed or necessary to be prescribed to give effect to this Act including, but not limited to the following matters—

(a) the manner in which searches are to be conducted;

(b) particulars to be included in records of searches.

(1A) The regulations—

(a) may be of general or limited application; and

(b) may differ according to differences in time, place or circumstances.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may be disallowed in whole or in part by resolution of either House of Parliament.

(4) If, under subsection (2), either House of the Parliament disallows a regulation, no regulation, being the same in substance as the regulation so disallowed shall be made within 6 months after the date of the disallowance unless the resolution to disallow the regulation has been rescinded by the House of the Parliament by which it was passed.

(5) Any regulation made in contravention of subsection (4) is void.
13 Repeals and savings

(1) The Prescribed Weapons Act 1989 is repealed.

(2) The amendments made to any other Act by the Prescribed Weapons Act 1989 cease to have effect on the day on which subsection (1) comes into operation and on and after that day any Act amended by the Prescribed Weapons Act 1989 has effect as if the Prescribed Weapons Act 1989 had not been enacted except for the purposes of paragraphs (c) to (g) of section 14(2) of the Interpretation of Legislation Act 1984.

(3) Despite the repeal of the Prescribed Weapons Act 1989—

(a) any exemption in force under section 31A of the Firearms and Other Weapons Act 1958 immediately before the repeal continues in force until the date specified in that exemption or, if no date is specified, until revoked by an exemption made under section 8B; and

(b) the Prescribed Weapons Regulations 1989 continue in force until revoked by regulations made under this Act or by the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962 and until revoked may be amended by regulations made under this Act.

(4) An exemption under section 5(2) as in force immediately before the commencement of section 6 of the Control of Weapons (Amendment) Act 2000 continues to be in force after that commencement according to its tenor as if it were an exemption given under section 8B.
(5) An exemption under section 8A(2) as in force immediately before the commencement of section 8 of the Control of Weapons (Amendment) Act 2000 continues to be in force after that commencement according to its tenor as if it were an exemption given under section 8B.

(6) An approval under section 8A as in force immediately before the commencement of section 8 of the Control of Weapons (Amendment) Act 2000 continues to be in force after that commencement according to its tenor as if it were an approval given under section 8C.

(7) Any reference to a prescribed weapon in any document, including an exemption referred to in subsection (4), must be construed, so far as it relates to any period after the commencement of section 5 of the Control of Weapons (Amendment) Act 2000, as a reference to a prohibited weapon.

(8) Any reference to a regulated weapon in any document must be construed, so far as it relates to any period after the commencement of section 5 of the Control of Weapons (Amendment) Act 2000, as a reference to a controlled weapon.

14 Transitional provision

Section 10 as in force immediately before the commencement of section 6 of the Control of Weapons and Firearms Acts (Search Powers) Act 2003 continues to apply to searches conducted before that commencement.
15 Transitional provision—Justice Legislation Amendment Act 2007

(1) The amendments made to this Act by sections 7(3), 7(4) and 7(5) of the Justice Legislation Amendment Act 2007 apply only to offences alleged to have been committed on or after the commencement of those sections.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if an offence is alleged to have been committed between two dates and the provision of the Justice Legislation Amendment Act 2007 effecting the amendment commences on a date between those two dates, the offence is alleged to have been committed before the commencement of that provision.

16 Transitional provision—Control of Weapons Amendment Act 2010

(1) An exemption granted by the Governor in Council under section 8B(1) before the commencement of section 7 of the Control of Weapons Amendment Act 2010—

(a) does not exempt any class of persons or any class of prohibited weapons from section 5(1AC) or (1AD); and

(b) may be varied or revoked by the Governor in Council under section 8B(4).

(2) An approval granted by the Chief Commissioner under section 8C(1) before the commencement of section 8 of the Control of Weapons Amendment Act 2010 does not include an approval to do anything that is prohibited by section 5(1AC) or (1AD).

(3) Sections 11B and 11C apply only to offences alleged to have been committed on or after the commencement of section 15 of the Control of Weapons Amendment Act 2010.
(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), if an offence is alleged to have been committed between two dates and section 15 of the Control of Weapons Amendment Act 2010 commences on a date between those two dates, the offence is alleged to have been committed before the commencement of that provision.

(1) On and from the commencement of section 4 of the Control of Weapons and Firearms Acts Amendment Act 2012, any Order made by the Governor in Council under section 8B(1), being an Order in force immediately before that commencement exempting a class of person, or a class of prohibited weapons (other than imitation firearms) or a corrections officer, military officer or police officer from any provision of section 5(1) is taken also to have the effect of an exemption from the provisions of section 5AA, to the same extent as that Order has provided for an exemption from the provisions of section 5(1).

(2) On and from the commencement of section 4 of the Control of Weapons and Firearms Acts Amendment Act 2012, any Order made by the Governor in Council under section 8B(1), being an Order in force immediately before that commencement exempting a class of person, or a class of prohibited weapons (being imitation firearms) or a corrections officer, military officer or police officer from any provision of section 5(1) is taken also to have the effect of an exemption from the provisions of section 5AB(1), to the same extent as that Order has provided for an exemption from the provisions of section 5(1).
(3) On and from the commencement of section 4 of the Control of Weapons and Firearms Acts Amendment Act 2012, any approval granted by the Chief Commissioner under section 8C, being an approval in force immediately before that commencement, that—

(a) in relation to prohibited weapons (other than imitation firearms), approves a person to do anything that is otherwise prohibited by any provision of section 5 (except section 5(1A) or (1D)) is taken also to have the effect of an approval to do anything otherwise prohibited by any provision of section 5AA, to the same extent as the approval provides for section 5(1); or

(b) in relation to imitation firearms, approves a person to do anything that is otherwise prohibited by any provision of section 5 (except section 5(1A) or (1D)) is taken also to have the effect of an approval to do anything otherwise prohibited by any provision of section 5AB(1), to the same extent as the approval provides for section 5(1).
Schedule 1—Conduct of searches

Sections 10 and 10G(2)

1 Application of Schedule

This Schedule applies to any search of a person or any thing in the possession or under the control of a person carried out, or authorised to be carried out, by a police officer under section 10 or 10G, except as otherwise provided by this Act or the regulations.

2 Definitions

In this Schedule—

- * * * * *

electronic metal detection device means an electronic device that is capable of detecting the presence of metallic objects;

impaired intellectual functioning means—

(a) total or partial loss of a person's mental functions; or

(b) a disorder or malfunction that results in a person learning differently from a person without the disorder or malfunction; or

(c) a disorder, illness or disease that affects a person's thought processes, perceptions of reality, emotions or judgment, or that results in disturbed behaviour;
initial electronic device search means a search of a person or thing by passing an electronic metal detection device over or in close proximity to the person's outer clothing or the thing;

planned designation search means a search conducted under section 10G in an area in respect of which a declaration under section 10D is in effect;

Note
Section 10D provides for the planned designation of a search area.

strip search of a person means a search of the person or of a thing in the possession or under the control of the person that may include—

(a) requiring the person to remove all of his or her clothes; and

(b) an examination of the person's body (but not of the person's body cavities) and of those clothes;

thing includes any object, article or material;

weapon means—

(a) a prohibited weapon; or

(b) a controlled weapon; or

(c) a dangerous article.
3 Initial electronic device search

A police officer who is authorised to search a person or thing under section 10G may carry out an initial electronic device search of that person or thing.

4 Examination of things

(1) If, as a result of an initial electronic device search under clause 3, a police officer considers that a person may be concealing a weapon, the police officer may examine any thing in the possession or under the control of the person in accordance with subclause (3).

(2) A police officer who is authorised to search a thing under section 10 may examine the thing in accordance with subclause (3).

(3) The police officer may—

(a) request the person—

(i) to produce and empty of its contents any bag, basket or other receptacle; or

(ii) to turn out his or her pockets; or

(b) search through any bag, basket or other receptacle; or

(c) search through and move the contents of any bag, basket or other receptacle; or

(d) if the police officer considers it appropriate in the circumstances, pat down the area of the person's pockets; or

(e) search through and move the contents of the person's pockets turned out in accordance with paragraph (a)(ii) or patted down under paragraph (d).
5 Outer search of the person

(1) If, as a result of an initial electronic device search under clause 3, a police officer considers that a person may be concealing a weapon, a police officer may conduct a further search of the person in accordance with subclauses (3) and (4).

(2) A police officer who is authorised to search a person under section 10 may conduct a search of the person in accordance with subclauses (3) and (4).

(3) The police officer may run his or her hands over the person's outer clothing.

(4) The police officer may ask the person to remove his or her overcoat, coat or jacket or similar article of clothing and any gloves, shoes or hat and the police officer may then—

(a) pass an electronic metal detection device over or in close proximity to the person's outer clothing after the overcoat, coat or jacket is removed; and

(b) run his or her hands over the person's outer clothing after the overcoat, coat or jacket is removed; and

(c) search the person's items of clothing that were removed by examining the interior and exterior of the item and by passing an electronic metal detection device over or in close proximity to the item.

6 Preservation of dignity during outer search

(1) A police officer who searches a person under clause 5 must, as far as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances, comply with this clause.
Schedule 1—Conduct of searches

(2) The police officer must inform the person to be searched of the following matters—

   (a) whether the person will be required to remove clothing during the search;

   (b) if the person will be required to remove clothing during the search, why it is necessary to remove the clothing.

(3) The police officer must ask for the person's cooperation.

(4) The police officer must conduct the search—

   (a) in a way that provides reasonable privacy for the person searched; and

   (b) as quickly as is reasonably practicable.

(5) The police officer must conduct the least invasive kind of search that is reasonably necessary in the circumstances.

(6) A search that involves running hands over the outer clothing of a person must, if reasonably practicable, be conducted by a police officer who is of the same sex as the person being searched.

7 Strip searches

(1) A police officer is authorised to conduct a strip search of a person if—

   (a) a search of the person or a thing in the possession or under the control of the person has been conducted under clause 4 or 5; and

   (b) the police officer reasonably suspects that the person has a weapon concealed on his or her person; and Schedule 1

— Conduct of searches

(c) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to conduct a strip search of the person for the purposes of the search and that the seriousness and urgency of the circumstances require the strip search to be carried out.

(2) A police officer may direct the person to accompany the police officer to a police vehicle or other private area nearby for the purposes of the search.

8 Information to be provided before strip search
(1) Before a police officer commences a strip search of a person, the police officer must—

(a) inform the person to be searched of the police officer's name, rank and place of duty; and

(b) if requested by the person, provide the information referred to in paragraph (a) in writing; and

(c) produce his or her identification for inspection by the person, unless the police officer is in uniform; and

(d) inform the person that the police officer intends to search the person for weapons and is empowered to do so under this Act.
(2) A police officer is not required to provide this information to a person if the police officer provided the information to the person under section 10(3) or 10I.

9 Rules for strip searches

(1) A police officer who conducts a strip search of a person must comply with this clause.

(2) The police officer must inform the person to be searched of the following matters—
   (a) as to whether the person will be required to remove clothing during the search;
   (b) if the person will be required to remove clothing during the search, why it is necessary to remove the clothing.

(3) The police officer must ask for the person's cooperation.

(4) The police officer must conduct the least invasive kind of search that is reasonably necessary in the circumstances.

(5) The strip search must be conducted in a manner that preserves the dignity and self-respect of the person being searched.

(6) The strip search must be conducted in a private area and in a way that provides reasonable privacy for the person being searched.

(7) The strip search must be conducted as quickly as is reasonably practicable.
(8) The strip search must be conducted in a manner that avoids unnecessary force.

(9) The strip search must be conducted by a police officer, or a person under the direction of a police officer, who is of—

(a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the same sex as the person being searched; or

(b) if the person being searched identifies as a member of a particular gender, that gender.

(10) The strip search must not be conducted in the presence or view of a person who is not of—

(a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the same sex as the person being searched; or

(b) if the person being searched identifies as a member of a particular gender, that gender.

(11) The strip search must not be conducted in the presence or view of a person whose presence is not necessary for the purposes of the search or the safety of the person or the police officers engaged in the search.

(12) The police officer must not search the genital area of the person searched, or in the case of a female or a person who identifies as a female, the person's breasts unless the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to do so for the purposes of the search.

(13) A strip search must not involve a search of a person's body cavities or an examination of the body by touch.

(14) A strip search must not involve the removal of more clothes than the person conducting the search believes on reasonable grounds to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of the search.
(15) A strip search must not involve more visual inspection than the person conducting the search believes on reasonable grounds to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of the search.

(16) A person must be allowed to dress as soon as a search is finished.

10 Examination of clothing

A police officer may search any item of clothing of a person removed during a strip search by examining the interior and exterior of the item and by passing an electronic metal detection device over or in close proximity to the item.

11 Rules for searches of children

(1) This clause applies if a police officer reasonably believes that a person to be searched by the police officer under clause 5 or 7 is a child.

(2) This clause does not apply to a search of a child under clause 5 that is a search by means of an electronic metal detection device.

(3) A planned designation search of a child must be conducted in the presence of—

(a) a parent or guardian of the child being searched; or

(b) if the child is mature enough to express an opinion and indicates that the presence of the parent or guardian is not acceptable to the child, in the presence of an independent person who is capable of representing the interests of the child and who, as far as is practicable in the circumstances, is acceptable to the child.

Sch. 1 cl. 10 amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 28.22).

Sch. 1 cl. 11(1) amended by No. 37/2014 s. 10(Sch. item 28.23(a)).

Sch. 1 cl. 11(3) amended by No. 42/2010 s. 19(1).
(4) Subclause (3) does not apply if—
   (a) a parent or guardian is not then present; and
   (b) the seriousness and urgency of the circumstances require the search to be conducted without delay; and
   (c) the search is conducted in the presence of an independent person who is capable of representing the interests of the child and who, as far as is practicable in the circumstances, is acceptable to the child.

(5) A search (other than a planned designation search) of a child must, if practicable in the circumstances, be conducted in the presence of—
   (a) a parent or guardian of the child being searched; or
   (b) if it is not practicable in the circumstances for a parent or guardian of the child to be present, any person (whether or not he or she is a police officer) other than a police officer who is conducting the search.

12 Rules for searches of persons with impaired intellectual functioning

(1) This clause applies if a police officer reasonably believes that a person to be searched by the police officer under clause 5 or 7 is a person with impaired intellectual functioning.

(2) This clause does not apply to a search under clause 5 of a person with impaired intellectual functioning if the search is by means of an electronic metal detection device.

(3) A planned designation search of a person who has impaired intellectual functioning, must be conducted in the presence of a parent or guardian of the person being searched or, if that is not acceptable to the person, in the presence of an independent person who is capable of representing the interests of the person and who, as far as is practicable in the circumstances, is acceptable to the person.

(4) Subclause (3) does not apply if—
   (a) a parent or guardian is not then present; and
   (b) the seriousness and urgency of the circumstances require the search to be conducted without delay; and
   (c) the search is conducted in the presence of an independent person who is capable of representing the interests of the person to be searched and who, as far as is practicable in the circumstances, is acceptable to the person.

(5) A search (other than a planned designation search) of a person who has impaired intellectual functioning must, if practicable in the circumstances, be conducted in the presence of—
   (a) a parent or guardian of the person being searched; or
   (b) if it is not practicable in the circumstances for a parent or guardian of the person to be present, any person (whether or not he or she is a police officer) other than a police officer who is conducting the search.

1 General information

Minister's second reading speech—
Legislative Council: 26 October 1989
Legislative Assembly: 15 May 1990

The long title for the Bill for this Act was "A Bill to regulate weapons other than firearms, to repeal the Prescribed Weapons Act 1989, to amend the Crimes Act 1958, the Firearms Act 1958, the Summary Offences Act 1966 and the Vagrancy Act 1966 and for other purposes.”.

The Control of Weapons Act 1990 was assented to on 5 June 1990 and came into operation on 31 August 1990: Government Gazette 29 August 1990 page 2616.

INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION ACT 1984 (ILA)

Style changes

Section 54A of the ILA authorises the making of the style changes set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

References to ILA s. 39B

Sidenotes which cite ILA s. 39B refer to section 39B of the ILA which provides that where an undivided section or clause of a Schedule is amended by the insertion of one or more subsections or subclauses, the original section or clause becomes subsection or subclause (1) and is amended by the insertion of the expression "(1)" at the beginning of the original section or clause.

Interpretation

As from 1 January 2001, amendments to section 36 of the ILA have the following effects:

• Headings

All headings included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any heading inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. This includes headings to Parts, Divisions or Subdivisions in a Schedule; sections; clauses; items; tables; columns; examples; diagrams; notes or forms. See section 36(1A)(2A).
• Examples, diagrams or notes

All examples, diagrams or notes included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any examples, diagrams or notes inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, form part of that Act. See section 36(3A).

• Punctuation

All punctuation included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 forms part of that Act. Any punctuation inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. See section 36(3B).

• Provision numbers

All provision numbers included in an Act form part of that Act, whether inserted in the Act before, on or after 1 January 2001. Provision numbers include section numbers, subsection numbers, paragraphs and subparagraphs. See section 36(3C).

• Location of "legislative items"

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

• Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).
