4B Meaning of food business

In this Act, food business means a business, enterprise or activity (other than a business, enterprise or activity that is primary food production) that involves—

- (a) the handling of food intended for sale; or
- (b) the sale of food, regardless of whether the business, enterprise or activity concerned is of a commercial, charitable or community nature or whether it involves the handling or sale of food on one occasion only.

S. 4C
inserted by
No. 14/2001
s. 5.

4C Meaning of primary food production

- (1) In this Act, primary food production means the growing, raising, cultivation, picking, harvesting, collection or catching of food, and includes the following—

- (a) the transportation or delivery of food on, from or between the premises on which it was grown, raised, cultivated, picked, harvested, collected or caught;
 - (b) the packing, treating (for example, washing) or storing of food on the premises on which it was grown, raised, cultivated, picked, harvested, collected or caught;
 - (c) the storage of food in a silo that is not connected with a food processing operation and the transportation or delivery of food from, between or to such silos;
 - (d) the sale of livestock at saleyards and the transportation of livestock to and from saleyards;
 - (e) any other food production activity that is regulated by or under an Act prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.
- (2) However, primary food production does not include—
- (a) any process involving the substantial transformation of food (for example, manufacturing or canning), regardless of whether the process is carried out on the premises on which the food was grown, cultivated, picked, harvested, collected or caught; or
 - (b) the sale or service of food directly to the public; or

- (c) any other food production activity that is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Note

Section 4C(2)(c) enables regulations to be made prescribing food production activities that are not included in the definition of primary food production. Such a regulation might be made, for example, to prescribe a food production activity in relation to which significant and unmanaged food safety hazards have been identified.

4D Meaning of unsafe food

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, food is unsafe at a particular time if it would be likely to cause physical harm to a person who might later consume it, assuming—
- (a) it was, after that particular time and before being consumed by the person, properly subjected to all processes (if any) that are relevant to its reasonable intended use; and
 - (b) nothing happened to it after that particular time and before being consumed by the person that would prevent it being used for its reasonable intended use; and
 - (c) it was consumed by the person according to its reasonable intended use.
- (2) However, food is not unsafe for the purposes of this Act merely because its inherent nutritional or chemical properties cause, or its inherent nature causes, adverse reactions only in persons with allergies or sensitivities that are not common to the majority of persons.

- (3) In subsection (1), processes include processes involving storage and preparation.

4E Meaning of unsuitable food

S. 4E
inserted by
No. 14/2001
s. 5.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, food is unsuitable if it is food that—
- (a) is damaged, deteriorated or perished to an extent that affects its reasonable intended use; or
 - (b) contains any damaged, deteriorated or perished substance that affects its reasonable intended use; or
 - (c) is the product of a diseased animal, or an animal that has died otherwise than by slaughter, and has not been declared by or under another Act to be safe for human consumption; or
 - (d) contains a biological or chemical agent, or other matter or substance, that is foreign to the nature of the food.
- (2) However, food is not unsuitable for the purposes of this Act merely because—
- (a) at any particular time before it is sold for human consumption it contains an agricultural or veterinary chemical; or
 - (b) when it is sold for human consumption it contains an agricultural or veterinary chemical, so long as it does not contain the chemical in an amount that contravenes the Food Standards Code; or
 - (c) it contains a metal or non-metal contaminant (within the meaning of the Food Standards Code) in an amount that does not contravene the permitted level for the contaminant as specified in the Food Standards Code; or

(d) it contains any matter or substance that is permitted by the Food Standards Code.

(3) In this section, slaughter of an animal includes the killing of an animal in the process of capturing, taking or harvesting it for the purposes of preparing it for use as food.

17E Defence of due diligence

- (1) In any proceedings for an offence under this Part, it is a defence if it is proved that the person took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by the person or by another person under the person's control.
- (2) Without limiting the ways in which a person may satisfy the requirements of subsection (1), a person satisfies those requirements if it is proved—
 - (a) that the commission of the offence was due to—
 - (i) an act or default of another person; or
 - (ii) reliance on information supplied by another person; and
 - (b) that—
 - (i) the person carried out all such checks of the food concerned as were reasonable in all the circumstances; or

- (ii) it was reasonable in all the circumstances to rely on checks carried out by the person who supplied the food concerned to the person; and
 - (c) that the person did not import the food into the jurisdiction from another country; and
 - (d) in the case of an offence involving the sale of food, that—
 - (i) the person sold the food in the same condition as when the person purchased it; or
 - (ii) the person sold the food in a different condition to that in which the person purchased it, but that the difference did not result in any contravention of this Act; and
 - (e) that the person did not know and had no reason to suspect at the time of commission of the alleged offence that the person's act or omission would constitute an offence under the relevant section.
- (3) In subsection (2)(a), another person does not include a person who was—
- (a) an employee or agent of the accused; or
 - (b) in the case of an accused that is a body corporate, a director, employee or agent of the accused.
- (4) Without limiting the ways in which a person may satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) or (2)(b)(i), a person may satisfy those requirements by proving that—

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), an assessment is not required by a declaration under section 19C if that assessment is in excess of the default requirements relating to the frequency and timing of assessments referred to in section 19H(4)(a).

Example

A declaration under section 19C specifies that the default requirement for the assessment of a food premises is that an assessment is to be conducted every 12 months. However, after taking into account failures by the business to comply with the Act, the registration authority determines that two assessments are required to be conducted in a 12 month period. In those circumstances, the registration authority may charge a fee for the second assessment conducted in that period but not for the first assessment.

- (3) The fee charged—
- (a) must be determined with reference to—
 - (i) the class declared under section 19C applicable to the premises; and
 - (ii) any guidelines issued by the Secretary; and
 - (b) must not include any costs of the assessment or inspection that form part of the registration fee payable to the registration authority under Part VI.
- (4) In deciding whether to charge the fee, the council must take into consideration the history of compliance by the proprietor in relation to the food premises.
- (5) The council must ensure that the method of determining a fee under subsection (3)(a) and the considerations that apply under subsection (4) are available for inspection by the public.

- (6) A fee charged under subsection (1) must be paid to the council that has conducted the assessment or inspection.
- (7) A failure to pay a fee charged under subsection (1) is a ground for the refusal of the registration, renewal of registration or transfer of registration of the food premises.

21 Powers of authorized officers

- (1) In the execution of this Act an authorized officer with such assistants as he thinks necessary may—

S. 21(1)(a)
amended by
No. 98/1997
s. 18(1)(e).

- (a) at any reasonable time enter any premises or other place in or at which he believes on reasonable grounds that any article is sold or handled for sale and therein may—

- (i) make such investigation and enquiry as are necessary to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act are being complied with;
- (ii) inspect the premises or other place (as the case may be) and examine any fittings, fixtures, documents or articles contained therein including anything that he believes on reasonable grounds to be an article;
- (iii) open and examine any package that he believes on reasonable grounds contains an article;
- (iv) subject to this Act, take samples of any article;
- (v) seize any article by means of or in relation to which he believes on reasonable grounds that any provision of this Act has been contravened or not complied with and detain or remove to some suitable place any article so seized;
- (vi) mark, fasten, secure or seal any article or, where it is reasonably necessary to do so, mark, fasten, secure or seal any door, gate or opening that he believes on reasonable grounds affords access to an article;
- (vii) seize or take samples of any thing or matter (apart from any article of which a sample may be taken pursuant to subparagraph (iv) or which may be seized pursuant to subparagraph (v)) that he believes on reasonable grounds may be used as evidence in a proceeding under this Act and detain or remove to some suitable place any samples so taken or thing or matter so seized; and

(viii) take such photographs or audio or visual recordings as he considers necessary;

S. 21(1)(b)
amended by
No. 98/1997
s. 18(1)(e).

(b) stop, detain and search any vehicle used or that he believes on reasonable grounds is being or is likely to be used for the conveyance of any article or in or on which he believes on reasonable grounds any article is sold or handled for sale and exercise in relation to that vehicle any of the powers or authorities conferred upon him by paragraph (a) in relation to any premises or other place;

(c) require a person found by him committing an offence against this Act or who he believes on reasonable grounds has committed an offence against this Act or whose name and address are in his opinion reasonably required to state his full name and the address of his usual place of residence and, if he suspects on reasonable grounds that a name or address so stated is false, may require him to produce evidence of the correctness thereof;

amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.

(d) in a case where he is obstructed or believes on reasonable grounds that he may be obstructed in the exercise of the powers or authorities or the discharge of the functions or duties conferred or imposed upon him by or under this Act, call to his aid a police officer, whereupon it shall be the duty of a police officer so called to assist him as required and a police officer so assisting shall have the same powers and authorities as are conferred upon an authorized officer by this Act; and

- (e) exercise such other powers or authorities and discharge such other functions or duties as are prescribed.
- (2) Where the Secretary certifies that the sale or the handling for sale of any food having any particular physical characteristics is likely to involve a contravention of or a failure to comply with this Act, the finding of any food having those physical characteristics and appearing to have been sold or handled for sale shall, for the purposes of subsection (1), constitute reasonable grounds for believing that there has been a contravention of or a failure to comply with this Act with respect to that food.
- (3) If in the opinion of the Secretary there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that any person is (for the purposes of the sale or the preparing for sale of food or primary food production) in possession of any article by means of which or in relation to which any provision of this Act has been contravened or not complied with, the Secretary may require such person to produce for the Secretary's inspection or to produce to an authorized officer any relevant books and the Secretary or the authorized officer may inspect, examine and make copies of or extracts from any book so produced or remove it for the purpose of making a copy thereof or extracts therefrom.

22 Procuring of samples of food

- (1) An authorized officer may, on payment or tender to the person in whose possession the food is or to his servant or agent of the current market value thereof or of the rate prescribed, demand and procure such samples of the food as are required for the purposes of this Act.
amended by
No. 95/1986
s. 8.

- (2) Where any food is kept for retail sale in an unopened package, a person shall not be required by an authorized officer to sell less than the whole of that package.
- (3) If a rate has been prescribed for the payment for a sample it shall not be necessary for an authorized officer to tender any higher price for that sample.
- (4) The procuring of a sample pursuant to this section and the payment or tender of the current market value thereof or of the rate prescribed (as the case requires) shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a sale by the person from whom the sample was obtained to the authorized officer of the food contained in the sample.
- (5) In the case of a vending machine, it is sufficient compliance with subsection (1) if the authorized officer obtains the sample by making proper payment for it.

23 Procedures on taking samples

- (1) Where an authorized officer obtains a sample of any food with the intention that it be submitted for analysis, he shall, before or as soon as practicable after obtaining the sample, inform the person from whom the sample was obtained or the person having charge of that food of his intention to have the sample analysed.
- (2) If a prescribed food standard does not otherwise prescribe in relation to the class or description of food concerned or the analysis proposed to be carried out and an authorized officer obtains a sample of any food with the intention that the sample be submitted for analysis, he shall—
 - (a) subject to subsection (3), divide the sample into three separate parts and mark and seal or fasten each part in such manner as its nature will permit;

amended by
No. 95/1986
s. 9(1).

S. 23(2)
amended by
No. 42/1993
s. 64(c).

- (b) leave one part with the person from whom the sample was obtained or a person appearing to be the servant or agent of that person;
- (c) submit one of the remaining parts for analysis; and
- (d) retain the other remaining part for future comparison.
- (3) If the division of a sample into three separate parts in accordance with paragraph (a) of subsection (2) would in the opinion of the authorized officer—
- (a) so affect or impair the composition or quality of the sample as to render the separate parts unsuitable for accurate analysis;
- (b) furnish parts insufficient for accurate analysis; or
- (c) render the sample in any other way unsuitable for analysis including a method of analysis prescribed in relation to the food from which the sample was taken—
- the authorized officer shall deal with the sample in such manner as is appropriate in the circumstances having regard to this Act.
- (4) Where a sample of any food is obtained by an authorized officer in the form of separate or severable objects it shall not be necessary for him in dividing that sample into parts in accordance with this section to divide any one of those objects and it shall be sufficient compliance with this section if he—
- (a) obtains a number of those objects;

amended by
No. 95/1986
s. 9(2).

S. 23(4)(c)
amended by
No. 42/1993
s. 64(d).

S. 23(5)
amended by
No. 95/1986
s. 9(3).

- (b) divides the number so obtained into the requisite number of parts so that each part consists of one or more than one of such separate or severable objects; and
 - (c) deals with those parts in accordance with a prescribed food standard or subsection (2) or (3), as the case requires.
- (5) An authorized officer shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this section notwithstanding the failure by a person specified in subsection (2)(b) to accept any part or parts required to be delivered to him in accordance with this section.

24 Duties of officer upon seizure and detention of article

An authorized officer, upon the seizure and detention by him of an article under this Act, shall forthwith—

- (a) give notice in the prescribed form of the seizure and detention to the person apparently in charge of the article;
- (b) if there is no person apparently in charge of the article and the name and address in Victoria of a person appearing to the authorized officer to be the consignor or owner of the article is set out on or attached to the article or a package containing the article, or the name and address in Victoria of the consignor or owner of the article is otherwise known to the authorized officer, give notice in the prescribed form of the seizure and detention to that person; or

- (c) in any other case, give notice in the prescribed form of the seizure and detention to the importer or consignee of the article or his agent if the authorized officer knows the name and address in Victoria of such importer, consignee or agent.

25 Keeping and storage of certain articles

An article that has been seized and detained or otherwise obtained under this Act by an authorized officer may, at the direction of the authorized officer—

- (a) be kept and stored in, at or on the premises or other place or vehicle where it was seized and detained or otherwise obtained; or
- (b) be removed to any other suitable place and there kept and stored.

26 Remedy in respect of articles seized

- (1) Where an article is seized and detained by an authorized officer under section 21, any person claiming the article may within 7 days after the seizure make application in the prescribed form to the Magistrates' Court for an order directing the authorized officer to release from detention the article seized by him.
- (2) Where an application is made to the Magistrates' Court under subsection (1), the applicant shall forthwith give to the authorized officer responsible for the seizure and detention of the article in question a copy of the application.
- (3) Upon hearing an application under subsection (1) the Magistrates' Court—
- (a) if it is satisfied that—

- (ii) the article was not one by means of or in relation to which any provision of this Act had been contravened or not complied with—shall make an order disallowing the seizure and directing the authorized officer to release the article from detention; or

- (b) if it is not so satisfied, shall refuse the application and make an order confirming the seizure and detention of the article—and may make such order as it thinks fit in respect of the costs and expenses of and incidental to the removal and storage of the article seized.

- (4) Subsection (5) applies if—

- (a) an application is made under subsection (1) and the application is refused; or

Part V—Analysts

30 Analysts

- (1) The Secretary may authorize in writing persons, whom the Secretary considers to be appropriately qualified, to carry out analyses for the purposes of this Act. S. 30(1) amended by Nos 10262 s. 4, 98/1997 s. 16(a).
- (2) An authority given under subsection (1)—
- (a) may be subject to any conditions specified in the authority including—
- (i) a condition limiting the authority to a particular type of analysis;
- (ii) a condition limiting the authority to analyses carried out in a particular type of laboratory; and
- (b) may at any time be varied or revoked.
- (3) A person who is directly or indirectly engaged in any trade connected with primary food production or the manufacture or sale of food shall not be authorized to carry out analyses for the purposes of this Act where his engagement in that trade would conflict with his duty as a person authorized to carry out analyses for the purposes of this Act. S. 30(3) amended by No. 60/2012 s. 59(1).
- (4) A person authorized to carry out analyses for the purposes of this Act who is or becomes directly or indirectly engaged in any trade connected with primary food production or the manufacture or sale of food shall forthwith notify the Secretary in writing of that engagement and, upon receipt of that notification, the Secretary may revoke the authority given to that person under subsection (1). S. 30(4) amended by Nos 10262 s. 4, 98/1997 s. 16(a), 60/2012 s. 59(2).

31 Duties of analysts

Every analyst shall—

- (a) make an analysis of any article submitted to him pursuant to this Act for analysis or supervise the analysis of the article by any other person;
- (b) if the article is a food sample submitted for analysis under section 32(1), include the result of the analysis in a report submitted in accordance with section 32(2); and
- (c) supply to the person submitting the article a certificate in the prescribed form setting out the result of the analysis; and
- (d) where any apparatus to be used or method to be observed has been prescribed—use that apparatus and observe that method accordingly and declare in his certificate that he has done so.

31A Interstate analysts

- (1) A natural person who has been authorised or approved under a corresponding law to carry out analyses for the purposes of that corresponding law (an interstate analyst) is taken to be authorised under section 30 to carry out analyses for the purposes of this Act subject to any conditions of the authorisation under the corresponding law.
- (2) However, an interstate analyst is not required to be included in the list of persons required to be maintained by the Secretary under section 30(6).
- (3) An analysis of an article by an interstate analyst is not an analysis for the purpose of this Act unless the interstate analyst—
 - (a) supplies to the person submitting the article a certificate in the prescribed form setting out the result of the analysis; and
 - (b) if any apparatus to be used or method to be observed has been prescribed, uses that apparatus and observes that method accordingly and declares that this has been done in the certificate; and
 - (c) if the article is a food sample submitted for analysis under section 32(1), includes the result of the analysis in a report submitted in accordance with section 32(2).

32 Councils to submit samples for analysis

- (1) Subject to subsection (5), each council must submit food samples for analysis in accordance with any sampling requirement declaration made by the Secretary under section 32A.
- (2) An analyst who makes one or more analyses for a council under this section during a reporting period must prepare a report of the number of analyses made for the council during that period and the results of each analysis.

- (3) The report must be given to the council and the Secretary as soon as practicable after the end of the reporting period.
- (4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), the reporting period is—

45AA Responsible agency for the Crown

S. 45AA
inserted by
No. 46/2008
s. 257.

- (1) If proceedings are brought against the Crown for an offence against this Act, the responsible agency in respect of the offence may be specified in any document initiating, or relating to, the proceedings.
- (2) In this section, the responsible agency in respect of an offence is the agency of the Crown—
- (a) whose acts or omissions are alleged to constitute the offence; or
 - (b) if that agency has ceased to exist, that is the successor of that agency; or
 - (c) if that agency has ceased to exist and there is no clear successor, that the court declares to be the responsible agency.
- (3) The responsible agency in respect of an offence is entitled to act in proceedings against the Crown for the offence and, subject to any relevant rules of court, the procedural rights and obligations of the Crown as the accused in the proceedings are conferred or imposed on the responsible agency.
- (4) The person prosecuting the offence may change the responsible agency during the proceedings with the court's leave.

46A Analysis is not necessary to conviction

Despite any provision of any other Act, in any prosecution under this Act if it appears to the court that the offence is sufficiently proved without an analysis, proof that an analysis has been made or of the results of an analysis is not necessary to conviction for the offence.

47 Power of court to order further analysis

In a prosecution for an offence against this Act the court may, at the request of any party and if satisfied that there are special circumstances which warrant it in so doing, cause the part or parts of any sample retained under section 23 to be sent to an analyst (other than an analyst who has made an analysis of any other part of the sample) and the first-mentioned analyst shall make an analysis of that part or those parts for the information of the court.

48 Power of court to order forfeiture

- (1) A court that convicts a person of an offence against this Act or before which a person is charged with an offence against this Act of which he is found guilty or to which he pleads guilty and in respect of which a conviction is not recorded may order that—

51B Criminal liability of officers of bodies corporate—failure to exercise due diligence (legal burden of proof)

- (1) If a body corporate commits an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2), an officer of the body corporate also commits an offence against the provision.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following provisions are specified—
 - (a) section 8;
 - (b) section 8A;
 - (c) section 9;
 - (d) section 9A;
 - (e) section 10(1) and (2);
 - (f) section 10A(1) and (2);

- (g) section 11(1) and (2);
- (h) section 12(1) and (2);
- (i) section 13(1), (2) and (3);
- (j) section 14(1);
- (k) section 15(1) and (2);
- (l) section 16(1), (2), (3) and (4);
- (la) section 18D(1);

S. 51B(2)(la)

No. 2/2017
s. 10.

- (lb) section 18F(1);

S. 51B(2)(lb)
inserted by
No. 2/2017
s. 10.

- (m) section 19(7) and (8);
- (n) section 19AA(8) and (9);
- (o) section 19A(7) and (8);
- (p) section 19B(7);
- (q) section 19CB(6);
- (r) section 19F;
- (s) section 19GB;
- (t) section 35A(1) and (2);
- (u) section 38F(2);
- (v) section 39B;
- (w) section 39C;
- (x) section 43I(1);
- (y) section 44E.

- (3) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2) for an officer of a body corporate to prove that the officer exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by the body corporate.

- (4) In determining whether an officer of a body corporate exercised due diligence, a court may have regard to—
- (a) what the officer knew, or ought reasonably to have known, about the commission of the offence by the body corporate; and
 - (b) whether or not the officer was in a position to influence the body corporate in relation to the commission of the offence by the body corporate; and
 - (c) what steps the officer took, or could reasonably have taken, to prevent the commission of the offence by the body corporate; and
 - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (5) Without limiting any other defence available to the officer, an officer of a body corporate may rely on a defence that would be available to the body corporate if it were charged with the offence with which the officer is charged and, in doing so, the officer bears the same burden of proof that the body corporate would bear.
- (6) An officer of a body corporate may commit an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2) whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted for, or found guilty of, an offence against that provision.
- (7) In this section—

body corporate has the same meaning as in section 51A;

officer in relation to a body corporate, has the same meaning as in section 51A.

52 Offences by unincorporated bodies, partnerships etc.

Where this Act provides that a person, being a partnership or an unincorporated body or association, is guilty of an offence, that reference to the person shall—

- (a) in the case of a partnership—be read as a reference to each member of the partnership; and
- (b) in the case of an unincorporated body or association—be read as a reference to each member of the committee of management of the body or association.

52A Offences by employers

- (1) If an employee contravenes any provision of this Act or the regulations, the employer is taken to have contravened the same provision.
- (2) It is a defence in proceedings against an employer for such a contravention if it is established that the employer could not, by the exercise of due diligence, have prevented the contravention.
- (3) An employer may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision under this section whether or not the employee has been proceeded against or been convicted under that provision.

1 General information

See www.legislation.vic.gov.au for Victorian Bills, Acts and current authorised versions of legislation and up-to-date legislative information.

The Food Act 1984 was assented to on 15 May 1984 and came into operation (except sections 31(b), 50(5)) on 1 January 1986: Government Gazette 6 November 1985 page 4213. Sections 31(b) and 50(5) were never proclaimed, repealed by No. 11/1995 section 3(2).

INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION ACT 1984 (ILA)

Style changes

Section 54A of the ILA authorises the making of the style changes set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

References to ILA s. 39B

Sidenotes which cite ILA s. 39B refer to section 39B of the ILA which provides that where an undivided section or clause of a Schedule is amended by the insertion of one or more subsections or subclauses, the original section or clause becomes subsection or subclause (1) and is amended by the insertion of the expression "(1)" at the beginning of the original section or clause.

Interpretation

As from 1 January 2001, amendments to section 36 of the ILA have the following effects:

- Headings

All headings included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any heading inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. This includes headings to Parts, Divisions or Subdivisions in a Schedule; sections; clauses; items; tables; columns; examples; diagrams; notes or forms. See section 36(1A)(2A).

- Examples, diagrams or notes

All examples, diagrams or notes included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any examples, diagrams or notes inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, form part of that Act. See section 36(3A).

- Punctuation

All punctuation included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 forms part of that Act. Any punctuation inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. See section 36(3B).

- Provision numbers

All provision numbers included in an Act form part of that Act, whether inserted in the Act before, on or after 1 January 2001. Provision numbers include section numbers, subsection numbers, paragraphs and subparagraphs. See section 36(3C).

- Location of "legislative items"

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

- Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).
