Bail Act 1977

No. 9008 of 1977

Authorised Version incorporating amendments as at 1 October 2018

An Act to make better Provision relating to Bail and to amend the Children's Court Act 1973, the Coroners Act 1958, the Crimes Act 1958, the Crown Proceedings Act 1958, the Summary Offences Act 1966, the Magistrates (Summary Proceedings) Act 1975, and the Rape Offences (Proceedings) Act 1976.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Victoria in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):

Part 1—Preliminary

1 Short title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Bail Act 1977.
- (2) The several provisions of this Act shall come into operation on a day or the respective days to be fixed by proclamation or successive proclamations of the Governor in Council published in the Government Gazette.

1A Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to provide a legislative framework for the making of decisions as to whether a person accused of an offence should be granted bail, with or without conditions, or remanded in custody.

1B Guiding principles

- (1) The Parliament recognises the importance of—
 - (a) maximising the safety of the community and persons affected by crime to the greatest extent possible; and
 - (b) taking account of the presumption of innocence and the right to liberty; and
 - (c) promoting fairness, transparency and consistency in bail decision making; and
 - (d) promoting public understanding of bail practices and procedures.
- (2) It is the intention of the Parliament that this Act is to be applied and interpreted having regard to the matters set out in subsection (1).

2 Repeals and savings

- (1) The Acts mentioned in the Schedule to the extent thereby expressed to be repealed or amended are hereby repealed or amended accordingly.
- (2) Except as in this Act expressly or by necessary implication provided—
 - (a) all persons things and circumstances appointed existing or continuing under any such Acts immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall under and subject to this Act continue to have the same status operation and effect as they respectively would have had if such Acts had not been so repealed or amended;
 - (b) in particular and without affecting the generality of the foregoing paragraph, such repeal or amendment shall not disturb the continuity of status operation or effect of any application determination order warrant recognizance affidavit declaration certificate

3AAAA Meaning of vulnerable adult

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person is a vulnerable adult if the person is 18 years of age or more and has a cognitive, physical or mental health impairment that causes the person to have difficulty in—
 - (a) understanding their rights; or
 - (b) making a decision; or

(c) communicating a decision.

(2) A bail decision maker may consider a person to be a vulnerable adult even if the bail decision maker cannot identify the particular impairment referred to in subsection (1).

3AAA Surrounding circumstances

- (1) If this Act provides, in relation to a matter, that a bail decision maker must take into account the surrounding circumstances, the bail decision maker must take into account all the circumstances that are relevant to the matter including, but not limited to, the following—
- (a) the nature and seriousness of the alleged offending, including whether it is a serious example of the offence;
 - (b) the strength of the prosecution case;
 - (c) the accused's criminal history;
 - (d) the extent to which the accused has complied with the conditions of any earlier grant of bail;
 - (e) whether, at the time of the alleged offending, the accused—
 - (i) was on bail for another offence; or
 - (ii) was subject to a summons to answer to a charge for another offence; or
 - (iii) was at large awaiting trial for another offence; or
 - (iv) was released under a parole order; or
 - (v) was subject to a community correction order made in respect of, or was otherwise serving a sentence for, another offence;

inserted by
No. 3/2018

amended by
No. 32/2018
s. 81(1)(2)
(ILA s. 39B(1)).

- (f) whether there is in force—
 - (i) a family violence intervention order made against the accused; or
 - (ii) a family violence safety notice issued against the accused; or
 - (iii) a recognised DVO made against the accused;
- (g) the accused's personal circumstances, associations, home environment and background;
- (h) any special vulnerability of the accused, including being a child or an Aboriginal person, being in ill health or having a cognitive impairment, an intellectual disability or a mental illness;

Notes

- 1 Section 3A sets out matters to be taken into account by a bail decision maker in making a determination in relation to an Aboriginal person.
 - 2 Section 3B sets out matters to be taken into account by a bail decision maker in making a determination in relation to a child.
- (i) the availability of treatment or bail support services;
 - (j) any known view or likely view of an alleged victim of the offending on the grant of bail, the amount of bail or the conditions of bail;
 - (k) the length of time the accused is likely to spend in custody if bail is refused;
 - (l) the likely sentence to be imposed should the accused be found guilty of the offence with which the accused is charged;

- (m) whether the accused has expressed support for—
- (i) the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (ii) a terrorist organisation; or
 - (iii) the provision of resources to a terrorist organisation;
- (n) subject to subsection (2), whether the accused has, or has had, an association with—
- (i) another person or a group that has expressed support of the kind referred to in paragraph (m); or
 - (ii) another person or a group that is directly or indirectly engaged in, preparing for, planning, assisting in or fostering the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (iii) a terrorist organisation.
- (2) A bail decision maker must not take into account the accused having, or having had, an association referred to in subsection (1)(n)(i), (ii) or (iii) unless the bail decision maker is satisfied that the accused knew—
- (a) that the person or group had expressed support for—
 - (i) the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (ii) a terrorist organisation; or
 - (iii) the provision of resources to a terrorist organisation; or
 - (b) that the person or group was directly or indirectly engaged in, preparing for, planning, assisting in or fostering the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (c) that the group was a terrorist organisation.

3AA Offence that is both a Schedule 1 and a Schedule 2 offence

For the purposes of this Act, an offence that is both a Schedule 1 offence and a Schedule 2 offence must be taken to be a Schedule 1 offence.

inserted by
No. 32/2018
s. 82.

3AAB Meaning of terrorism record

For the purposes of this Act, a person has a terrorism record if the person—

- (a) has been convicted of a terrorism or foreign incursion offence; or
- (b) is or has been subject to a terrorism-related order.

S. 3AAC
inserted by
No. 32/2018
s. 82.

3AAC Meaning of terrorism risk information

(1) For the purposes of this Act, terrorism risk information in respect of a person means—

- (a) an assessment made by an entity specified in subsection (2) that there is a risk that the person will commit a terrorism or foreign incursion offence; and
- (b) the information relied on in making that assessment.

(2) The specified entities are—

- (a) the Australian Crime Commission (by whatever name described) established by the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) Victoria Police; and
- (c) the Australian Federal Police; and
- (d) the Australian Security and Intelligence Organisation; and
- (e) the Department of Justice and Regulation; and

- (f) the police force or police service of another State or a Territory; and
 - (g) the Department of Home Affairs of the Commonwealth; and
 - (h) each prescribed entity.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1)(b), the information referred to in that provision may include—
- (a) information regarding the person having expressed support for—
 - (i) the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (ii) a terrorist organisation; or
 - (iii) the provision of resources to a terrorist organisation; or
 - (b) information regarding the person having, or having had, an association with—
 - (i) another person or a group that has expressed support of the kind referred to in paragraph (a); or
 - (ii) another person or a group that is directly or indirectly engaged in, preparing for, planning, assisting in or fostering the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (iii) a terrorist organisation.

Note

Section 8AA(4) prevents a court from having regard to information referred to in paragraph (b) unless the court is satisfied that the person knew certain matters about the person or group that the association is with. See also section 3AAA(2).

3A Determination in relation to an Aboriginal person

In making a determination under this Act in relation to an Aboriginal person, a bail decision maker must take into account (in addition to any other requirements of this Act) any issues that arise due to the person's Aboriginality, including—

- (a) the person's cultural background, including the person's ties to extended family or place; and
- (b) any other relevant cultural issue or obligation.

Note to s. 3A
amended by
No. 26/2017
s. 14(1)(b).

Note

When considering bail for an Aboriginal person charged with a Commonwealth offence, a bail decision maker must have regard to section 15AB(1)(b) of the Crimes Act 1914 of the Commonwealth.

3B Determination in relation to a child

amended by
No. 26/2017
s. 14(2).

- (1) In making a determination under this Act in relation to a child, a bail decision maker must take into account (in addition to any other requirements of this Act)—
 - (a) the need to consider all other options before remanding the child in custody; and
 - (b) the need to strengthen and preserve the relationship between the child and the child's family, guardians or carers; and

- (c) the desirability of allowing the living arrangements of the child to continue without interruption or disturbance; and
- (d) the desirability of allowing the education, training or employment of the child to continue without interruption or disturbance; and
- (e) the need to minimise the stigma to the child resulting from being remanded in custody; and
- (f) the likely sentence should the child be found guilty of the offence charged; and
- (g) the need to ensure that the conditions of bail are no more onerous than are necessary and do not constitute unfair management of the child.

(2) In making a determination under this Act in relation to a child, a bail decision maker may take into account any recommendation or information contained in a report provided by a bail support service.

amended by
No. 26/2017
s. 14(2).

(3) Bail must not be refused to a child on the sole ground that the child does not have any, or any adequate, accommodation.

- (a) the accused in a criminal proceeding in any court is of or over the age of 18 years and is in a remand centre (within the meaning of the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005), pursuant to a remand warrant issued when the accused was aged under 18; and

- (b) the criminal proceeding relates to one or more offences alleged to have been committed when the accused was of or over the age of 18 years—in making a determination under this Act in relation to the accused, a bail decision maker must take into account (in addition to any other requirements of this Act)—

- (c) whether the accused has engaged in conduct that threatens the good order and safe operation of the youth remand centre; and
(d) whether the accused can be properly controlled in the youth remand centre.

- (1) The step 1—exceptional circumstances test applies to a decision of whether to grant bail to a person accused of a Schedule 1 offence.
- (2) The step 1—exceptional circumstances test also applies to a decision of whether to grant bail to a person accused of a Schedule 2 offence if—
 - (a) the person has a terrorism record; or
 - (b) the court considering whether to grant bail determines under section 8AA that there is a risk that the person will commit a terrorism or foreign incursion offence; or
 - (c) the offence is alleged to have been committed—
 - (i) while the accused was on bail for any Schedule 1 offence or Schedule 2 offence; or
 - (ii) while the accused was subject to a summons to answer to a charge for any Schedule 1 offence or Schedule 2 offence; or
 - (iii) while the accused was at large awaiting trial for any Schedule 1 offence or Schedule 2 offence; or

- (iv) during the period of a community correction order made in respect of the accused for any Schedule 1 offence or Schedule 2 offence; or
 - (v) while the accused was otherwise serving a sentence for any Schedule 1 offence or Schedule 2 offence; or
 - (vi) while the accused was released under a parole order made in respect of any Schedule 1 offence or Schedule 2 offence; or
- (d) the offence is an offence of conspiracy to commit, incitement to commit or attempting to commit an offence in a circumstance set out in paragraph (c).
- (3) The step 1—show compelling reason test applies to a decision of whether to grant bail to a person accused of a Schedule 2 offence if subsection (2) does not apply.
- (4) The step 1—show compelling reason test also applies to a decision of whether to grant bail to a person accused of an offence that is neither a Schedule 1 offence nor a Schedule 2 offence if—
- (a) the person has a terrorism record; or
 - (b) the court considering whether to grant bail determines under section 8AA that there is a risk that the person will commit a terrorism or foreign incursion offence.

Note

Section 4E sets out the unacceptable risk test. In circumstances where a step 1 test applies, section 4D provides that the unacceptable risk test will apply as a step 2 test. However, under section 4E, the unacceptable risk test applies even in circumstances where no step 1 test applies.

4C Step 1—show compelling reason test

- (1) This section applies if, under section 4AA(3) or (4), the step 1—show compelling reason test applies to a decision of whether to grant bail.
- (1A) The bail decision maker must refuse bail unless satisfied that a compelling reason exists that justifies the grant of bail.
- (2) The accused bears the burden of satisfying the bail decision maker as to the existence of a compelling reason.
- (3) In considering whether a compelling reason exists, the bail decision maker must take into account the surrounding circumstances.

Note

The term surrounding circumstances is defined in section 3. Also the bail decision maker is required to take into account other matters if the accused is an Aboriginal person or a child. See sections 3A and 3B.

- (4) If the bail decision maker is satisfied that a compelling reason exists that justifies the grant of bail, the bail decision maker must then move to step 2—unacceptable risk test.

- (1) A bail decision maker must apply the unacceptable risk test if—
 - (a) at step 1 (section 4A) the bail decision maker is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist that justify the grant of bail for a person; or
 - (b) at step 1 (section 4C) the bail decision maker is satisfied that a compelling reason exists that justifies the grant of bail for a person.
- (2) For the application of the unacceptable risk test, the prosecutor bears the burden of satisfying the bail decision maker—
 - (a) as to the existence of a risk of a kind mentioned in section 4E(1)(a); and
 - (b) that the risk is an unacceptable risk.
- (3) On applying the unacceptable risk test, the bail decision maker must refuse bail if required to do so by section 4E.

- (1) A bail decision maker must refuse bail for a person accused of any offence if the bail decision maker is satisfied that—
 - (a) there is a risk that the accused would, if released on bail—
 - (i) endanger the safety or welfare of any person; or
 - (ii) commit an offence while on bail; or

- (iii) interfere with a witness or otherwise obstruct the course of justice in any matter; or
 - (iv) fail to surrender into custody in accordance with the conditions of bail; and
- (b) the risk is an unacceptable risk.

Example

An unacceptable risk that the accused, if released on bail, would commit a family violence offence.

- (2) The prosecutor bears the burden of satisfying the bail decision maker—
- (a) as to the existence of a risk of a kind mentioned in subsection (1)(a); and
 - (b) that the risk is an unacceptable risk.
- (3) In considering whether a risk mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is an unacceptable risk, the bail decision maker must—
- (a) take into account the surrounding circumstances; and

Note

The term surrounding circumstances is defined in section 3. Also the bail decision maker is required to take into account other matters if the accused is an Aboriginal person or a child. See sections 3A and 3B.

- (b) consider whether there are any conditions of bail that may be imposed to mitigate the risk so that it is not an unacceptable risk.

5 Bail undertaking

- (1) A grant of bail must require the accused to enter into a written undertaking to surrender into custody at the time and place of the hearing or trial specified in the undertaking and not to depart without leave of the court and, if leave is given, to return at the time specified by the court and again surrender into custody.

5AAAA Family violence risks

- (1) A bail decision maker considering the release on bail of an accused must make inquiries of the prosecutor as to whether there is in force—
 - (a) a family violence intervention order made against the accused; or
 - (b) a family violence safety notice issued against the accused; or
 - (c) a recognised DVO made against the accused.
- (2) A bail decision maker considering the release on bail of an accused charged with a family violence offence must consider—
 - (a) whether, if the accused were released on bail, there would be a risk that the accused would commit family violence; and
 - (b) whether that risk could be mitigated by—
 - (i) the imposition of a condition; or

- (ii) the making of a family violence intervention order.

5AAA Conduct conditions

- (1) A bail decision maker considering the release of an accused on bail must impose any condition that, in the opinion of the bail decision maker, will reduce the likelihood that the accused may—

(a) endanger the safety or welfare of any person; or

Example

A bail decision maker may impose a condition in order to reduce the likelihood that the accused may commit a family violence offence.

- (2) If a bail decision maker imposes one or more conditions, each condition and the number of conditions—
- (a) must be no more onerous than is required to reduce the likelihood that the accused may do a thing mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (d); and
- (b) must be reasonable, having regard to the nature of the alleged offence and the circumstances of the accused; and

S. 5AAA(2)(c)
amended by
No. 26/2017
s. 16(3).

(c) subject to subsection (3), must be consistent with each condition of each family violence intervention order, family violence safety notice or recognised DVO to which the accused is subject.

amended by
No. 26/2017
s. 16(4).

- (3) A bail decision maker may impose a condition that is inconsistent with a condition of a family violence intervention order, family violence safety notice or recognised DVO if the bail decision maker is satisfied that the proposed condition will better protect the safety or welfare of—
- (a) an alleged victim of the offence with which the accused is charged; or
 - (b) a protected person (within the meaning of the Family Violence Protection Act 2008).

Note to
s. 5AAA(3)
substituted by
No. 26/2017
s. 16(5).

Note

Sections 175AA, 175AB and 175AC of the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 provide that if it is not possible to comply with both a bail condition and a family violence safety notice, a family violence intervention order or a recognised DVO, the safety notice, intervention order or recognised DVO prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

- (4) Without limiting section 4(5) or 5(2), a bail decision maker may impose all or any of the following conditions about the conduct of an accused—
- (a) reporting to a police station;
 - (b) residing at a particular address;
 - (c) subject to subsection (5), a curfew imposing times at which the accused must be at their place of residence;

- (d) that the accused is not to contact specified persons or classes of person;

Example

Witnesses, alleged victims or co-accused.

- (e) surrender of the accused's passport;
- (f) geographical exclusion zones, being places or areas the accused must not visit or may only visit at specified times;

Example

Not attending a gaming venue, a venue that sells alcohol or a point of international departure.

- (g) attendance and participation in a bail support service;
 - (h) that the accused not drive a motor vehicle or carry passengers when driving a motor vehicle;
 - (i) that the accused not consume alcohol or use a drug of dependence within the meaning of the Drugs, Poisons and Controlled Substances Act 1981 without lawful authorisation under that Act;
 - (j) that the accused comply with any existing intervention orders;
 - (k) any other condition that the bail decision maker considers appropriate to impose in relation to the conduct of the accused.
- (5) If a bail decision maker imposes a curfew on an accused as a conduct condition, the period of curfew imposed must not exceed 12 hours within a 24-hour period.
- (6) A condition imposed by a bail decision maker continues to be binding on the accused until it is varied or revoked or the matter in relation to which it was imposed is finally determined by a court.

5AAB Sureties

- (1) If a bail decision maker is considering, in accordance with section 5(2)(c), imposing a condition that requires a deposit of money of a specified amount, the bail decision maker must have regard to the means of the accused in determining—
 - (a) whether to impose the condition; and
 - (b) the amount of money to be deposited.
- (2) If a bail decision maker is satisfied under subsection (1) that the accused does not have sufficient means to satisfy a condition requiring a deposit of money of a specified amount, the bail decision maker must consider whether any other condition would reduce the likelihood that the accused may do a thing mentioned in section 5AAA(1)(a) to (d).
- (3) If a bail decision maker is considering imposing a condition that requires a surety for a specified amount, the bail decision maker must have regard to the means of a proposed surety in determining—
 - (a) whether to impose the condition; and
 - (b) the amount of the surety.
- (4) If a bail decision maker is satisfied under subsection (3) that the accused is unable to provide a surety with sufficient means, the bail decision maker must consider whether any other condition would reduce the likelihood that the accused may do a thing mentioned in section 5AAA(1)(a) to (d).

8AA Court to make preliminary determination if terrorism risk alleged

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a court is considering whether to grant bail to a person who is accused of an offence (other than a person arrested on an enforcement warrant issued under the Fines Reform Act 2014); and
 - (b) the step 1—exceptional circumstances test does not apply to that decision by operation of section 4AA(2)(a), (c) or (d); and
 - (c) the prosecutor—
 - (i) states that the prosecutor has terrorism risk information in respect of the accused; and
 - (ii) alleges that this information shows that there is a risk that the accused will commit a terrorism or foreign incursion offence.

Notes

- 1 If a prosecutor makes such an allegation before a bail decision maker other than a court, that bail decision maker cannot grant bail. See sections 10(5AA) and 10A(5AA).
- 2 See section 4AA(1) and (2) for when the step 1—exceptional circumstances test applies.

- (2) Before determining whether to grant bail, the court must determine whether there is a risk that the accused will commit a terrorism or foreign incursion offence.

Note

If the court determines that there is such a risk, a different step 1 test applies to the decision of whether to grant bail. See section 4AA(2)(b) and (4)(b).

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), but subject to subsection (4), the court must have regard to any terrorism risk information provided to the court.
- (4) The court must not have regard to terrorism risk information regarding the accused having, or having had, an association referred to in section 3AAA(1)(n)(i),(ii) or (iii) unless the court is satisfied that the accused knew—
- (a) that the person or group had expressed support for—
 - (i) the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (ii) a terrorist organisation; or
 - (iii) the provision of resources to a terrorist organisation; or
 - (b) that the person or group was directly or indirectly engaged in, preparing for, planning, assisting in or fostering the doing of a terrorist act; or
 - (c) that the group was a terrorist organisation.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the court from considering, under section 4E, whether there is an unacceptable risk an accused would, if released on bail, commit a terrorism or foreign incursion offence.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), this section applies to any arrested person mentioned in section 10(1) and for whom bail is refused under section 10(5) by a bail decision maker who is a police officer of or above the rank of sergeant or for the time being in charge of a police station.

- (2) This section does not apply to an arrested person who is—

- (a) a child; or
- (b) a vulnerable adult; or
- (c) an Aboriginal person; or
- (d) a person arrested on an enforcement warrant issued under the Fines Reform Act 2014.

S. 10AA(2)(d)
amended by
No. 3/2018

- (3) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) a person may be considered to be a vulnerable adult or an Aboriginal person if the police officer is of the opinion that the person is such a person; and
 - (b) a police officer, in considering whether an arrested person is an Aboriginal person, must have regard to any statement made by the arrested person (whether or not in response to a question asked by the police officer) as to whether they are an Aboriginal person.

- (4) If bail is refused under section 10(5) for a person to whom this section applies, the police officer must—
- (a) endorse on the warrant, file or other papers relating to the arrested person or in any register or record of persons in custody the reasons for refusing bail; and
 - (b) remand the person in custody to appear before a court as soon as practicable within the period of 48 hours after being so remanded; and
 - (c) cause to be produced before the court a copy of the endorsement mentioned in paragraph (a); and
 - (d) advise the arrested person that they are entitled, should they so wish, to apply for bail when they appear before the court; and
 - (e) give the person a written statement setting out the provisions of this section and of section 10(5).
- (5) The police officer must not remand the person in custody under subsection (4)(b) if the police officer considers that it is not practicable for the person to be brought before a court within the next 48 hours (including appearing before it by audio visual link).
- (6) In the circumstances mentioned in subsection (5) the person must be brought before a bail justice as soon as practicable.
- (7) If a person remanded in custody under subsection (4)(b) is not brought before a court within 48 hours after being so remanded, the person must be brought before a bail justice as soon as practicable after the expiry of that period of 48 hours.

Section 13(1) and (2) set out circumstances in which only the Supreme Court, or a court on committing a person to trial for murder, may grant bail.

- (3A) A court that grants bail for a person accused of an offence must record on the remand warrant, file or other papers—
 - (a) consent to the person being bailed; and
 - (b) the amount of any surety or sureties; and
 - (c) any conditions of bail.

- (4) If the court refuses bail, it must—
 - (a) remand the person in custody to appear before a court at a later date, which must not be for a period longer than 21 clear days in the case of a child; and
 - (b) certify on the remand warrant a statement of the refusal and of the grounds for it.
- (5) If a child is brought before a court on the expiry of a period of remand in custody, the court must not remand the child in custody for a further period longer than 21 clear days.

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a person subject to a summons to answer to a charge for an offence is before a court (other than the Children's Court) on a hearing in the criminal proceeding relating to the charge; and

- (b) the hearing of the criminal proceeding is to be adjourned.
- (2) The court may, on an application made by the prosecutor or on its own initiative—
 - (a) remand the accused in custody to appear before the court on the resumption of the hearing; or
 - (b) in accordance with this Act, grant the accused bail.
- (3) Nothing in this section—
 - (a) affects the operation of section 331 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009; or
 - (b) prevents the court allowing the accused to go at large, including on refusing an application made by the prosecutor under subsection (2).

13 Treason, murder, certain other offences

- (1) Only the Supreme Court may grant bail to a person accused of treason.
- (2) Only the Supreme Court, or a court on committing the person for trial, may grant bail to a person accused of murder.

INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION ACT 1984 (ILA)

Style changes

Section 54A of the ILA authorises the making of the style changes set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

References to ILA s. 39B

Sidenotes which cite ILA s. 39B refer to section 39B of the ILA which provides that where an undivided section or clause of a Schedule is amended by the insertion of one or more subsections or subclauses, the original section or clause becomes subsection or subclause (1) and is amended by the insertion of the expression "(1)" at the beginning of the original section or clause.

Interpretation

As from 1 January 2001, amendments to section 36 of the ILA have the following effects:

- Headings

All headings included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any heading inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. This includes headings to Parts, Divisions or Subdivisions in a Schedule; sections; clauses; items; tables; columns; examples; diagrams; notes or forms. See section 36(1A)(2A).

- Examples, diagrams or notes

All examples, diagrams or notes included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any examples, diagrams or notes inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, form part of that Act. See section 36(3A).

- Punctuation

All punctuation included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 forms part of that Act. Any punctuation inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. See section 36(3B).

- Provision numbers

All provision numbers included in an Act form part of that Act, whether inserted in the Act before, on or after 1 January 2001. Provision numbers include section numbers, subsection numbers, paragraphs and subparagraphs. See section 36(3C).

- Location of "legislative items"

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

- Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).
