No. 3665 s. 7. S. 7 amended by No. 19/1989 s. 16(Sch. item 17.8).

When any debt duty or sum of money is due to Her Majesty otherwise than upon or by virtue of any recognisance Her Majesty may cause to be sued out of the Supreme Court a certain writ to be called a writ of capias ad respondendum; and every such writ may be in the form contained in the Sixth Schedule to this Act or to the like effect, and shall be executed by the sheriff or other officer or person to whom the same is directed, and shall be deemed and taken to be the commencement of a Crown suit: Provided always that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to order the sheriff or other officer or person to whom such writ is directed not to arrest any one or more of the defendants but to serve a copy thereof only on such defendant or defendants, which order shall be duly obeyed by such sheriff or other officer or person; and such service shall be of the same force and effect as the service of a writ in any civil proceeding between subject and subject; and no such writ shall be issued except upon a fiat under the hand of the Attorney-General in the form contained in the Seventh Schedule to this Act or to the like effect stating the mode in which the same (so far as regards the execution or service thereof) is to be indorsed; and before signing any such fiat the Attorney-General shall by due inquiry in that behalf satisfy himself that such indorsement is reasonable and proper under the circumstances of the case.

No. 3665 s. 8.

8 Bail bonds in Crown suits assignable

If any person is arrested under or by virtue of any such writ as last aforesaid and the sheriff or other officer or person to whom the same is directed takes bail from such person, such sheriff or other officer or person at the request of the Attorney-General shall assign to Her Majesty the bail bond taken from such person by indorsing and attesting the same under his hand and seal in the presence of two or more credible witnesses; and if such bail bond is forfeited, such process shall thereupon issue as on bonds originally made to Her Majesty.

No. 3665 s. 9.

9 Proceedings indorsed on writ may be taken

All such steps and proceedings as are mentioned in or upon any writ issued under this Part or in any notice issued according to the course and practice for the time being of the Supreme Court shall and may with such alterations modifications and substitutions as are necessary be had and taken in the same manner as if the same were expressly directed by this Part.

PART II—CIVIL PROCEEDINGS BY AND AGAINST THE CROWN

No. 5874
s. 1(2).

20 Application to causes of action arising after
1 January 1956

The provisions of this Part shall apply only in respect of causes of action arising after the commencement of the Crown Proceedings Act 1955.

No. 5874 s. 2.

21 Definition

In this Part unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter proceeding means action suit or proceeding of a civil nature.

No. 5874 s. 3.

22 In what courts proceedings to be taken by or against the Crown

- (1) Every proceeding which may be taken by or against the Crown under this Part shall be taken in the court which would have jurisdiction if the proceeding were between subject and subject.
- (2) Every proceeding under this Part shall be taken by or against the Crown under the title of the "State of Victoria" and shall be instituted and proceeded with in accordance with any procedure of the court specifically applicable thereto or, if no procedure is specifically applicable thereto, as nearly as possible in accordance with the procedure applicable to proceedings between subject and subject.

No. 5874 s. 4.

23 Liability of the Crown in contract

- (1) Subject to this Part—
  - (a) the Crown shall be liable in respect of any contract made on its behalf in the same manner as a subject is liable in respect of his contracts; and

- (b) the Crown shall be liable for the torts of any servant or agent of the Crown or independent contractor employed by the Crown as nearly as possible in the same manner as a subject is liable for the torts of his servant or agent or of an independent contractor employed by him.
- (2) No proceeding shall lie against the Crown under this Part in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by any person while discharging or purporting to discharge any responsibility of a judicial nature invested in him.
- (3) No proceeding shall lie against the Crown under this Part—
- (a) in respect of any contract made by or on behalf of any public statutory corporation; or
  - (b) in respect of any tort of any such corporation or of any of its servants or agents or of any independent contractor employed by it—and nothing in this Part shall affect any provision in any Act by which any liability of any such corporation or of any of its members officers or servants in respect of any matter is specifically limited or conditioned, but no such corporation shall on the ground that it is the Crown or the servant or agent of the Crown be exempt from any liability to which it would otherwise be subject.

24 Proceedings by Crown

No. 5874 s. 5.

Any right or claim which the Crown may have against any person may be enforced by a proceeding under this Part or in any appropriate matter under Part I of this Act.

No. 5874 s. 6.

25 Rights of parties

In any proceeding under this Part in which the State of Victoria is a party the rights of parties shall as nearly as possible be the same and judgment may be given and costs awarded on either side and every judgment order or decree shall be subject to the same rights of re-hearing appeal and review, as in a proceeding between subject and subject.

No. 5874 s. 7.

26 Certificate for payment of judgment by Crown

- (1) Except as is provided in this section, no execution or attachment or process in the nature thereof shall be issued against the Crown out of any court in any proceeding under this Part; but after any judgment order or decree has been given pronounced or entered against the Crown in any such proceeding the proper officer of the court shall give to the party in whose favour it was so given pronounced or entered a certificate setting out the sum awarded against the Crown in the proceeding, whether as damages or otherwise or for costs, and the other particulars in respect of which compliance by the Crown is directed by the judgment order or decree.
- (2) On the receipt of such certificate it shall be lawful for the Governor to cause to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund (which is hereby to the necessary extent appropriated accordingly) the sum set out in the certificate and also to cause compliance to be made with the other particulars set out therein.
