5A Application of Act

- (1) This Act is not intended to limit a discretion that a court has—
  - (a) to admit or exclude evidence in any proceeding; or
  - (b) to stay criminal proceedings in the interests of justice.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is intended that a warrant may be issued, or an emergency authorisation given, in this jurisdiction under this Act for the installation, use, maintenance or retrieval of a surveillance device in this jurisdiction or a participating jurisdiction or both.
- (3) Subsection (2) is subject to sections 19(7) and 27(5).

PART 2—REGULATION OF INSTALLATION, USE AND MAINTENANCE OF SURVEILLANCE DEVICES

6 Regulation of installation, use and maintenance of listening devices

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person must not knowingly install, use or maintain a listening device to overhear, record, monitor or listen to a private conversation to which the person is not a party, without the express or implied consent of each party to the conversation.

S. 6(1)
amended by
No. 26/2004
s. 7(a).

Penalty: In the case of a natural person, level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum) or a level 7 fine (240 penalty units maximum) or both;

In the case of a body corporate,
1200 penalty units.

Note

Section 32A applies to an offence against this subsection.

Note to s. 6(1)
inserted by
No. 13/2013
s. 42(1).

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—

- (a) the installation, use or maintenance of a listening device in accordance with a warrant, emergency authorisation, corresponding warrant or corresponding emergency authorisation; or
- (b) the installation, use or maintenance of a listening device in accordance with a law of the Commonwealth; or
- (c) the use of a listening device by a law enforcement officer to monitor or record a private conversation to which he or she is not a party if—

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—

S. 7(2)(a)
amended by
No. 26/2004
s. 7(b).

- (a) the installation, use or maintenance of an optical surveillance device in accordance with a warrant, emergency authorisation, corresponding warrant or corresponding emergency authorisation; or
- (b) the installation, use or maintenance of an optical surveillance device in accordance with a law of the Commonwealth; or

- (c) the installation, use or maintenance of an optical surveillance device by a law enforcement officer in the performance of his or her duty on premises if—
- (i) an occupier of the premises authorises that installation, use or maintenance; and
  - (ii) the installation, use or maintenance is reasonably necessary for the protection of any person's lawful interests.

8 Regulation of installation, use and maintenance of tracking devices

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person must not knowingly install, use or maintain a tracking device to determine the geographical location of a person or an object—
- (a) in the case of a device to determine the location of a person, without the express or implied consent of that person; or
  - (b) in the case of a device to determine the location of an object, without the express or implied consent of a person in lawful possession or having lawful control of that object.

Penalty: In the case of a natural person, level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum) or a level 7 fine (240 penalty units maximum) or both;

In the case of a body corporate, 1200 penalty units.

- (1) The Public Interest Monitor is entitled—
- (a) to appear at any hearing of a relevant application to test the content and sufficiency of the information relied on and the circumstances of the application; and
- (b) for the purpose of testing the content and sufficiency of the information relied on and the circumstances of the application—
- (i) to ask questions of any person giving information in relation to the application; and
- (ii) to make submissions to the Supreme Court judge or magistrate as to the appropriateness of granting the application.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Public Interest Monitor is entitled to make submissions to the Supreme Court judge or magistrate in the presence of the judge or magistrate or by phone, fax, email or any other reasonable way.

- (3) As soon as practicable after the application is determined, the Public Interest Monitor must return to the applicant any documents given by the applicant to the Public Interest Monitor under section 12B or 12C in relation to the application.

substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

13 Types of warrant

- (1) The following types of warrant may be issued under this Division—
  - (a) a surveillance device warrant;
  - (b) a retrieval warrant.
- (2) A warrant may be issued in respect of one or more kinds of surveillance device.

S. 14
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

14 Who may issue warrants?

- (1) A Supreme Court judge may issue any warrant under this Division.
- (2) A magistrate may issue—
  - (a) a surveillance device warrant that authorises the use of a tracking device only; or
  - (b) a retrieval warrant in respect of a tracking device authorised under a warrant referred to in paragraph (a), if a magistrate issued the original warrant.

Subdivision 2—Surveillance device warrants

15 Application for surveillance device warrant

S. 15
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

- (1) A law enforcement officer (or another person on his or her behalf) may apply for the issue of a surveillance device warrant if the law enforcement officer on reasonable grounds suspects or believes that—
- (a) an offence has been, is being, is about to be or is likely to be committed; and
  - (b) the use of a surveillance device is or will be necessary for the purpose of an investigation into that offence or of enabling evidence or information to be obtained of the commission of that offence or the identity or location of the offender.
- (2) An application may be made only with the approval of—
- (a) a senior officer of the law enforcement agency concerned; or
  - (b) an authorised police officer.
- (3) The application may be made to—
- (a) a Supreme Court judge in any case; or
  - (b) a magistrate in the case of an application for a surveillance device warrant authorising the use of a tracking device only.
- (4) An application—
- (a) must specify—
    - (i) the name of the applicant; and
    - (ii) the nature and duration of the warrant sought, including the kind of surveillance device sought to be authorised; and

(b) subject to this section, must be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds on which the warrant is sought.

(5) If a law enforcement officer believes that—

(a) the immediate use of a surveillance device is necessary for a purpose referred to in subsection (1)(b); and

(b) it is impracticable for an affidavit to be prepared or sworn before an application for a warrant is made—an application for a warrant may be made before an affidavit is prepared or sworn.

(6) If subsection (5) applies, the applicant must—

(a) provide as much information as the judge or magistrate considers is reasonably practicable in the circumstances; and

(b) not later than the day following the making of the application, send a duly sworn affidavit to the judge or magistrate, whether or not a warrant has been issued.

inserted by
No. 72/2011
s. 32.

(6A) The applicant must notify a Public Interest Monitor of the application in accordance with the regulations under the Public Interest Monitor Act 2011.

(7) An application for a warrant is not to be heard in open court.

S. 16
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

16 Remote application

(1) If a law enforcement officer believes that it is impracticable for an application for a surveillance device warrant to be made in person, the application may be made under section 15 by telephone, fax, e-mail or any other means of communication.

- (2) If transmission by fax is available and an affidavit has been prepared, the person applying must transmit a copy of the affidavit, whether sworn or unsworn, to the judge or magistrate who is to determine the application.

17 Determining the application

S. 17
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

- (1) A Supreme Court judge or magistrate may issue a surveillance device warrant if satisfied—
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for the suspicion or belief founding the application for the warrant; and
  - (b) in the case of an unsworn application—that it would have been impracticable for an affidavit to have been prepared or sworn before the application was made; and
  - (c) in the case of a remote application—that it would have been impracticable for the application to have been made in person.
- (2) In determining whether a surveillance device warrant should be issued, the judge or magistrate must have regard to—
- (a) the nature and gravity of the alleged offence in respect of which the warrant is sought; and
  - (b) the extent to which the privacy of any person is likely to be affected; and
  - (c) the existence of any alternative means of obtaining the evidence or information sought to be obtained and the extent to which those means may assist or prejudice the investigation; and
  - (d) the evidentiary or intelligence value of any information sought to be obtained; and

S. 17(2)(e)
amended by
No. 72/2011
s. 33(1).

(e) any previous warrant sought or issued under this Division or a corresponding law (if known) in connection with the same offence; and

S. 17(2)(f)
inserted by
No. 72/2011
s. 33(2).

(f) any submissions made by a Public Interest Monitor.

S. 18
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

18 What must a surveillance device warrant contain?

(1) A surveillance device warrant must—

(a) state that the judge or magistrate is satisfied of the matters referred to in section 17(1) and has had regard to the matters referred to in section 17(2); and

(b) specify—

(i) the name of the applicant; and

(ii) the alleged offence in respect of which the warrant is issued; and

(iii) the date the warrant is issued; and

(iv) the kind of surveillance device authorised to be used; and

(v) if the warrant authorises the use of a surveillance device on premises—the premises on which the use of the surveillance device is authorised; and

(vi) if the warrant authorises the use of a surveillance device in or on an object or class of object—the object or class of object in or on which the use of the surveillance device is authorised; and

(vii) if the warrant authorises the use of a surveillance device in respect of the conversations, activities or

- geographical location of a person—the name of the person (if known); and
- (viii) the period during which the warrant is in force, being a period not exceeding 90 days; and
  - (ix) the name of the law enforcement officer primarily responsible for executing the warrant; and
  - (x) any conditions subject to which premises may be entered, or a surveillance device may be used, under the warrant; and
  - (xi) the time within which a report in respect of the warrant must be made to the judge or magistrate under section 30K.
- (2) In the case of a warrant referred to in subsection (1)(b)(vii), if the identity of the person is unknown, the warrant must state that fact.
- (3) A warrant must be signed by the person issuing it and include their name.
- (4) If the judge or magistrate issues a warrant on a remote application—
- (a) the judge or magistrate must inform the applicant of—
    - (i) the terms of the warrant; and
    - (ii) the date on which and the time at which the warrant was issued—and cause those details to be entered in a register kept by the judge or magistrate for the purpose; and
  - (b) the judge or magistrate must provide the applicant with a copy of the warrant as soon as practicable.

S. 19
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

19 What a surveillance device warrant authorises

- (1) A surveillance device warrant may authorise, as specified in the warrant, any one or more of the following—
  - (a) the use of a surveillance device on specified premises;
  - (b) the use of a surveillance device in or on a specified object or class of object;
  - (c) the use of a surveillance device in respect of the conversations, activities or geographical location of a specified person or a person whose identity is unknown.
- (2) A surveillance device warrant authorises—
  - (a) for a warrant of a kind referred to in subsection (1)(a)—
    - (i) the installation, use and maintenance of a surveillance device of the kind specified in the warrant on the specified premises; and
    - (ii) the entry, by force if necessary, onto the premises, or other specified premises adjoining or providing access to the premises, for any of the purposes referred to in subparagraph (i) or subsection (3);
  - (b) for a warrant of a kind referred to in subsection (1)(b)—
    - (i) the installation, use and maintenance of a surveillance device of the kind specified in the warrant in or on the specified object or an object of the specified class; and

- (ii) the entry, by force if necessary, onto any premises where the object, or an object of the class, is reasonably believed to be or is likely to be, or other premises adjoining or providing access to those premises, for any of the purposes referred to in subparagraph (i) or subsection (3);
- (c) for a warrant of a kind referred to in subsection (1)(c)—
  - (i) the installation, use and maintenance of a surveillance device of the kind specified in the warrant, on premises where the person is reasonably believed to be or likely to be; and
  - (ii) the entry, by force if necessary, onto the premises referred to in subparagraph (i), or other premises adjoining or providing access to those premises, for any of the purposes referred to in subparagraph (i) or subsection (3).
- (3) Each surveillance device warrant also authorises—
  - (a) the retrieval of the surveillance device; and
  - (b) the installation, use, maintenance and retrieval of any enhancement equipment in relation to the surveillance device; and
  - (c) the temporary removal of an object from premises for the purpose of the installation, maintenance or retrieval of the surveillance device or enhancement equipment and the return of the object to the premises; and

S. 19(3)(g)
amended by
No. 3/2009
s. 16.

- (d) the breaking open of anything for the purpose of the installation, maintenance or retrieval of the surveillance device or enhancement equipment; and
  - (e) the connection of the device or equipment to an electricity supply system and the use of electricity from that system to operate the surveillance device or enhancement equipment; and
  - (f) the connection of the device or equipment to any object or system that may be used to transmit information in any form and the use of that object or system in connection with the operation of the surveillance device or enhancement equipment; and
  - (g) the provision of assistance or technical expertise by any person (whether or not a law enforcement officer) to the law enforcement officer primarily responsible for executing the warrant in the installation, use, maintenance or retrieval of the surveillance device or enhancement equipment.
- (4) A surveillance device warrant may authorise the doing of anything reasonably necessary to conceal the fact that anything has been done in relation to the installation, use, maintenance or retrieval of a surveillance device or enhancement equipment under the warrant.
- (5) A law enforcement officer may use a surveillance device under a warrant only if he or she is acting in the performance of his or her duty.
- (6) This section applies to a warrant subject to any conditions specified in the warrant.
- (7) A surveillance device warrant cannot authorise the installation or use of a surveillance device outside this jurisdiction if—

- (a) the application for the warrant is made by or on behalf of an authorised officer within the meaning of the Conservation, Forests and Lands Act 1987; or
  - (b) the offence in relation to which the warrant is issued is not a relevant offence.
- (8) Nothing in this section authorises the doing of anything for which a warrant would be required under the Telecommunications (Interception) Act 1979 of the Commonwealth.

20 Extension and variation of surveillance device warrant

S. 20
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

- (1) A law enforcement officer to whom a surveillance device warrant has been issued (or another person on his or her behalf) may apply, at any time before the expiry of the warrant—
  - (a) for an extension of the warrant for a period not exceeding 90 days from the day on which it would otherwise expire; or
  - (b) for a variation of any of the other terms of the warrant.
- (2) The application is to be made to—
  - (a) a Supreme Court judge, if the warrant was issued by a Supreme Court judge; or
  - (b) a magistrate, if the warrant was issued by a magistrate.
- (3) Sections 15 and 16 apply, with any necessary changes, to an application under this section as if it were an application for the warrant.
- (4) The judge or magistrate may grant an application, subject to any conditions he or she thinks fit, if satisfied that the matters referred to in section 17(1) still exist, having regard to the matters in section 17(2).

- (5) If the judge or magistrate grants the application, the judge or magistrate must endorse the new expiry date or the other varied term on the original warrant.
- (6) An application may be made under this section more than once.

inserted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

20A Revocation of surveillance device warrant

- (1) A surveillance device warrant may be revoked at any time before the expiration of the period of validity specified in it by—
  - (a) a Supreme Court judge, if a Supreme Court judge issued the warrant; or
  - (b) a magistrate, if a magistrate issued the warrant.
- (2) If the circumstances set out in section 20B(2) apply in relation to a surveillance device warrant, the chief officer of the law enforcement agency must, by instrument in writing, revoke the warrant.
- (3) A judge or magistrate who revokes a warrant must give notice of the revocation to the chief officer of the law enforcement agency of which the law enforcement officer to whom the warrant was issued is a member.
- (4) A judge or magistrate who revokes a warrant must give notice of the revocation to a Public Interest Monitor in accordance with the regulations under the Public Interest Monitor Act 2011.

inserted by
No. 72/2011

20B Discontinuance of use of surveillance device under warrant

- (1) This section applies if a surveillance device warrant is issued to a law enforcement officer of a law enforcement agency.

inserted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

- (2) If the chief officer of the law enforcement agency is satisfied that the use of a surveillance device under the warrant is no longer necessary for the purpose of enabling evidence to be obtained of the commission of the offence or the identity or location of the offender, the chief officer must—
  - (a) take the steps necessary to ensure that use of the surveillance device authorised by the warrant is discontinued as soon as practicable; and
  - (b) revoke the warrant under section 20A(2).
- (3) If the chief officer is notified that the warrant has been revoked by a judge or magistrate under section 20A, he or she must take the steps necessary to ensure that use of the surveillance device authorised by the warrant is discontinued immediately.
- (4) If the law enforcement officer to whom the warrant is issued, or who is primarily responsible for executing the warrant, believes that use of a surveillance device under the warrant is no longer necessary for the purpose of enabling evidence to be obtained of the commission of the offence or the identity or location of the offender, he or she must inform the chief officer of the law enforcement agency immediately.

Subdivision 3—Retrieval warrants

20C Application for retrieval warrant

- (1) A law enforcement officer (or another person on his or her behalf) may apply for the issue of a retrieval warrant in respect of a surveillance device that was lawfully installed on premises, or in or on an object, under a surveillance device warrant and which the law enforcement officer on reasonable grounds suspects or believes is still on those premises or in or on that object, or on other premises or in or on another object.

- (2) An application may be made only with the approval of—
  - (a) a senior officer of the law enforcement agency concerned; or
  - (b) an authorised police officer.
- (3) The application may be made to—
  - (a) a Supreme Court judge in any case; or
  - (b) a magistrate in the case of an application for a retrieval warrant authorising the retrieval of a tracking device only.
- (4) Subject to this section, an application must be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- (5) If a law enforcement officer believes that—
  - (a) the immediate retrieval of a surveillance device is necessary; and
  - (b) it is impracticable for an affidavit to be prepared or sworn before an application for a warrant is made—an application for a warrant may be made before an affidavit is prepared or sworn.
- (6) If subsection (5) applies, the applicant must—
  - (a) provide as much information as the judge or magistrate considers is reasonably practicable in the circumstances; and
  - (b) not later than the day following the making of the application, send a duly sworn affidavit to the judge or magistrate who determined the application, whether or not a warrant has been issued.

(6A) The applicant must notify a Public Interest Monitor of the application in accordance with the regulations under the Public Interest Monitor Act 2011.

S. 20C(6A)
inserted by
No. 72/2011

S. 20D
inserted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

(1) If a law enforcement officer believes that it is impracticable for an application for a retrieval warrant to be made in person, the application may be made under section 20C by telephone, fax, e-mail or any other means of communication.

(2) If transmission by fax is available and an affidavit has been prepared, the person applying must transmit a copy of the affidavit, whether sworn or unsworn, to the judge or magistrate who is to determine the application.

20E Determining the application

inserted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

(1) A Supreme Court judge or magistrate may issue a retrieval warrant if the judge or magistrate is satisfied—

(a) that there are reasonable grounds for the suspicion or belief founding the application for the warrant; and

(b) in the case of an unsworn application—that it would have been impracticable for an affidavit to have been prepared or sworn before the application was made; and

(c) in the case of a remote application—that it would have been impracticable for the application to have been made in person.

(2) In determining whether a retrieval warrant should be issued, the judge or magistrate must have regard to—

S. 20E(2)(b)
amended by
No. 72/2011
s. 36(1).

- (a) the extent to which the privacy of any person is likely to be affected; and
- (b) the public interest in retrieving the device sought to be retrieved; and ## 20F What must a retrieval warrant contain?

- (1) A retrieval warrant must—
  - (a) state that the judge or magistrate is satisfied of the matters referred to in section 20E(1) and has had regard to the matters referred to in section 20E(2); and
  - (b) specify—
    - (i) the name of the applicant; and
    - (ii) the date the warrant is issued; and
    - (iii) the kind of surveillance device authorised to be retrieved; and
    - (iv) the premises or object from which the surveillance device is to be retrieved; and
    - (v) the period (not exceeding 90 days) during which the warrant is in force; and
    - (vi) the name of the law enforcement officer primarily responsible for executing the warrant; and
    - (vii) any conditions subject to which premises may be entered under the warrant; and

(viii) the time within which a report in respect of the warrant must be made to the judge or magistrate under section 30K.

(2) A warrant must be signed by the person issuing it and include their name.

(3) If the judge or magistrate issues a warrant on a remote application—

(a) the judge or magistrate must inform the applicant of—

(i) the terms of the warrant; and

(ii) the date on which and the time at which the warrant was issued—and cause those details to be entered in a register kept by the judge or magistrate for the purpose; and

(b) the judge or magistrate must provide the applicant with a copy of the warrant as soon as practicable.

20G What a retrieval warrant authorises

(1) A retrieval warrant (subject to any conditions specified in it) authorises—

(a) the retrieval of the surveillance device specified in the warrant and any enhancement equipment in relation to the device; and

(b) the entry, by force if necessary, onto the premises where the surveillance device is reasonably believed to be, or other premises adjoining or providing access to those premises, for the purpose of retrieving the device and equipment; and

inserted by
No. 26/2004
s. 9.

- (c) the breaking open of any thing for the purpose of the retrieval of the device and equipment; and
  - (d) if the device or equipment is installed on or in an object, the temporary removal of the object from any place where it is situated for the purpose of the retrieval of the device and equipment and the return of the object to that place; and
  - (e) the provision of assistance or technical expertise to the law enforcement officer primarily responsible for executing the warrant in the retrieval of the device or equipment.
- (2) If the retrieval warrant authorises the retrieval of a tracking device, the warrant also authorises the use of the tracking device and any enhancement equipment in relation to the device solely for the purposes of the location and retrieval of the device or equipment.
- (3) A retrieval warrant may authorise the doing of anything reasonably necessary to conceal the fact that anything has been done in relation to the retrieval of a surveillance device or enhancement equipment under the warrant.

20H Revocation of retrieval warrant

- (1) A retrieval warrant may be revoked at any time before the expiration of the period of validity specified in it by—
- (a) a Supreme Court judge, if a Supreme Court judge issued the warrant; or
  - (b) a magistrate, if a magistrate issued the warrant.

- (2) A judge or magistrate who revokes a warrant must give notice of the revocation to the chief officer of the law enforcement agency of which the law enforcement officer to whom the warrant was issued is a member.
- (3) If the chief officer of a law enforcement agency is satisfied that the grounds for issue of a retrieval warrant to a law enforcement officer of the agency no longer exist, the chief officer must, by instrument in writing, revoke the warrant.
- (4) If the law enforcement officer to whom a retrieval warrant has been issued, or who is primarily responsible for executing a retrieval warrant, believes that the grounds for issue of the warrant no longer exist, he or she must inform the chief officer of the law enforcement agency immediately.
- (5) Notice of the revocation of a retrieval warrant must be given to a Public Interest Monitor in accordance with the regulations under the Public Interest Monitor Act 2011.

Division 2—Assistance orders

21 Application for assistance order

- (1) If a person who has applied or intends to apply for a warrant believes that it is necessary to obtain the assistance of another person for the effective execution of the warrant, he or she may apply to the Supreme Court for an order directing the other person to assist in the execution of the warrant.
- (2) An application for an assistance order—
  - (a) is to be made in the same manner as the application for the warrant; and
  - (b) may be made at the same time as the application for the warrant or subsequently.

S. 21(2A)
inserted by
No. 72/2011
s. 38(1).

(2A) The applicant must notify a Public Interest Monitor of the application in accordance with the regulations under the Public Interest Monitor Act 2011.

S. 21(3)
amended by
No. 72/2011
s. 38(2).

(3) Notice of an application for an assistance order is not required to be given to any person except a Public Interest Monitor.

22 Assistance order

(1) On an application under section 21, the court may make an assistance order if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so.

(2) In determining whether or not to make an assistance order the court must take into account—

(a) the cost or difficulty of complying with the order; and

(b) the nature and gravity of the alleged offence in respect of which the relevant warrant is or was sought; and

(c) any submissions made by a Public Interest Monitor.

S. 22(2)(b)

inserted by
No. 72/2011
s. 39(2).

(3) The court may make an assistance order subject to any conditions it thinks fit.

(4) An assistance order—

(a) must be endorsed on the relevant warrant; and

(b) must specify—

(i) the person against whom it is made; and

(ii) the kind of assistance that the person must give; and

(iii) the manner in which the assistance must be given; and

(iv) any conditions subject to which it is made.

(5) An assistance order has effect only during the period in which the relevant warrant is in force.

23 Failure to comply with assistance order

A person who is the subject of an assistance order must not knowingly contravene the order.

Penalty: Level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum) or a level 7 fine (240 penalty units maximum) or both.

Note

Section 32 applies to an offence against this section.

Note to s. 23
inserted by
No. 13/2013

24 Existence and operation of assistance order not to be disclosed

(1) A person who is, or has been, the subject of an assistance order must not knowingly disclose the existence or operation of the order to any person except—

(a) a person who is or was authorised to use a surveillance device under the relevant warrant; or

(b) another person for the purpose of ensuring that the order is complied with; or

(c) an Australian lawyer (within the meaning of the Legal Profession Act 2004) acting for the person, for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the order.

amended by
No. 18/2005
s. 18(Sch. 1
item 104).

Penalty: Level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum) or a level 7 fine (240 penalty units maximum) or both.

(2) A person to whom the existence or operation of an assistance order is disclosed in accordance with subsection (1) must not knowingly disclose the existence or operation of the order to any person except—

- (a) in the case of a person referred to in subsection (1)(a)—in the performance of his or her duty; or
- (b) in the case of a person referred to in subsection (1)(b)—for the purpose of ensuring that the order is complied with; or
- (c) in the case of a person referred to in subsection (1)(c)—for the purpose of giving legal advice or providing representation in relation to the order.

Penalty: Level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum) or a level 7 fine (240 penalty units maximum) or both.

- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents the disclosure by a person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) of the existence or operation of an assistance order in the course of legal proceedings or disciplinary proceedings.
- (4) A person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) must not be required to disclose to any court the existence or operation of an assistance order.
- (5) A reference in this section to disclosing the existence or operation of an assistance order to a person includes a reference to disclosing information to the person from which the person could reasonably be expected to infer the existence or operation of the assistance order.

26 Emergency authorisation—risk of serious personal violence or substantial property damage

- (1) A law enforcement officer of a law enforcement agency may apply to a senior officer of the agency for an emergency authorisation for the use of a surveillance device if the law enforcement officer on reasonable grounds suspects or believes that—
  - (a) an imminent threat of serious violence to a person or substantial damage to property exists; and
  - (b) the use of a surveillance device is immediately necessary for the purpose of dealing with that threat; and
  - (c) the circumstances are so serious and the matter is of such urgency that the use of a surveillance device is warranted; and

S. 26
substituted by
No. 26/2004

27 Emergency authorisation—serious drug offences

- (1) A law enforcement officer of a law enforcement agency may apply to a senior officer of the agency for an emergency authorisation for the use of a surveillance device if—
  - (a) a serious drug offence or an offence against a law of another jurisdiction or the Commonwealth that corresponds to a serious drug offence has been, is being, is about to be or is likely to be committed; and
  - (b) the use of a surveillance device is immediately necessary for the purpose of an investigation into that offence or of enabling evidence or information to be obtained of the commission of that offence or the identity or location of the offender; and
  - (c) the circumstances are so serious and the matter is of such urgency that the use of a surveillance device is warranted; and

- (d) it is not practicable in the circumstances to apply for a surveillance device warrant.
- (2) An application may be made orally, in writing or by telephone, fax, e-mail or any other means of communication.
- (3) A senior officer may give an emergency authorisation for the use of a surveillance device on an application under subsection (1) if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the suspicion or belief founding the application.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), an emergency authorisation given under this section may authorise the law enforcement officer to whom it is given to do anything that a surveillance device warrant may authorise them to do.
- (5) An emergency authorisation given under this section cannot authorise the installation or use of a surveillance device outside this jurisdiction.

28 Application for approval after use of surveillance device under emergency authorisation

S. 28
substituted by
No. 26/2004
s. 10.

- (1) Within 2 business days after giving an emergency authorisation, a senior officer (or another person on his or her behalf) must apply to a Supreme Court judge for approval of the exercise of powers under the emergency authorisation.
- (2) An application—
  - (a) must specify—
    - (i) the name of the applicant; and
    - (ii) the kind of surveillance device sought to be approved and, if a warrant is sought, the nature and duration of the warrant; and

(b) must be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds on which the approval (and warrant, if any) is sought.

inserted by
No. 72/2011

(2A) The applicant must give the Public Interest Monitor notice of the application in accordance with the regulations under the Public Interest Monitor Act 2011.

(3) The judge may refuse to consider the application until the applicant gives the judge all the information the judge requires about the application in the way the judge requires.

(4) An application is not to be heard in open court.

S. 29
substituted by
No. 26/2004

29 Consideration of application

(1) Before deciding an application for approval in respect of an emergency authorisation given under section 26, the judge must, in particular, and being mindful of the intrusive nature of using a surveillance device, consider the following—

- (a) the nature of the risk of serious violence to a person or substantial damage to property; and
- (b) the extent to which issuing a surveillance device warrant would have helped reduce or avoid the risk; and
- (c) the extent to which law enforcement officers could have used alternative methods of investigation to help reduce or avoid the risk; and
- (d) how much the use of alternative methods of investigation could have helped reduce or avoid the risk; and
- (e) how much the use of alternative methods of investigation would have prejudiced the safety of the person or property because of delay or for another reason; and

30 Judge may approve emergency use of powers

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| (1) After considering an application for approval in respect of an emergency authorisation given under section 26, the judge may approve the application if satisfied that there were reasonable grounds to suspect or believe that— | S. 30substituted byNo. 26/2004s. 10. |
| (a) there was a risk of serious violence to a person or substantial damage to property; and  |  |

- (b) using a surveillance device may have helped reduce the risk; and
  - (c) it was not practicable in the circumstances to apply for a surveillance device warrant.
- (2) After considering an application for approval in respect of an emergency authorisation given under section 27, the judge may approve the application if satisfied that—
  - (a) the circumstances of the case were serious and urgent; and
  - (b) using a surveillance device may have helped to obtain evidence or information of the commission of the offence or the identity or location of the offender; and
  - (c) it was not practicable in the circumstances to apply for a surveillance device warrant.
- (3) If the judge approves an application under this section, the judge may issue a surveillance device warrant for the continued use of the surveillance device as if the application were an application for a surveillance device warrant under Subdivision 2 of Division 1.
- (4) If the judge does not approve an application under this section, the judge may—
  - (a) order that the use of the surveillance device cease; and
  - (b) authorise, subject to any conditions the judge thinks fit, the retrieval of the surveillance device.
- (5) In any case, the judge may order that any information obtained from or relating to the exercise of powers under the emergency authorisation or any record of that information be dealt with in the way specified in the order.

30A Admissibility of evidence

If the exercise of powers under an emergency authorisation is approved under section 30, evidence obtained because of the exercise of those powers is not inadmissible in any proceeding only because the evidence was obtained before the approval.

  - (f) the number of arrests made by law enforcement officers of the agency during that year on the basis (wholly or partly) of information obtained by the use of a surveillance device under a warrant or emergency authorisation; and
  - (g) the number of prosecutions that were commenced in this jurisdiction during that year in which information obtained by the use of a surveillance device under a warrant or emergency authorisation was given in evidence and the number of those prosecutions in which a person was found guilty; and
  - (h) in the case of Victoria Police—
    - (i) the name and rank of each person appointed as a senior officer under section 3(3) (whether appointed during that year or previously); and
    - (ii) if any person referred to in subparagraph (i) is below the rank of commander, the reason for the appointment of the person under section 3(3); and
  - (i) any other information relating to the use of surveillance devices and the administration of this Act that the Minister considers appropriate.
- (2) The information referred to in subsection (1)(a) and (b) must be presented in such a way as to identify the number of warrants issued and emergency authorisations given in respect of each different kind of surveillance device.

- (3) The report must be submitted to the Minister as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, and at any event within 3 months after the end of the financial year.
- (4) The Minister must cause a copy of each report under this section to be laid before each House of Parliament within 15 sitting days after the day the Minister receives the report.

- (1) If a body corporate commits an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2), an officer of the body corporate also commits an offence against the provision if the officer—
- (a) authorised or permitted the commission of the offence by the body corporate; or
  - (b) was knowingly concerned in any way (whether by act or omission) in the commission of the offence by the body corporate.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following provisions are specified—
- (a) section 23;
  - (b) section 24(1) and (2);
  - (c) section 31.
- (3) Without limiting any other defence available to the officer, an officer of a body corporate may rely on a defence that would be available to the body corporate if it were charged with the offence with which the officer is charged and, in doing so, the officer bears the same burden of proof that the body corporate would bear.

(4) An officer of a body corporate may commit an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2) whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted for, or found guilty of, an offence against that provision.

(5) In this section—

body corporate has the same meaning as corporation has in section 57A of the Corporations Act;

officer in relation to a body corporate means—

- (a) a person who is an officer (as defined by section 9 of the Corporations Act) of the body corporate; or
- (b) a person (other than a person referred to in paragraph (a)), by whatever name called, who is concerned in, or takes part in, the management of the body corporate.

(6) This section does not affect the operation of Subdivision (1) of Division 1 of Part II of the Crimes Act 1958.

32A Criminal liability of officers of bodies corporate— failure to exercise due diligence

S. 32A
inserted by
No. 13/2013
s. 41.

(1) If a body corporate commits an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2), an officer of the body corporate also commits an offence against the provision if the officer failed to exercise due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by the body corporate.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following provisions are specified—
- (a) section 6(1);
  - (b) section 7(1);
  - (c) section 8(1);
  - (d) section 9B(1);
  - (e) section 9C(1);
  - (f) section 11(1);
  - (g) section 30E(1) and (2).
- (3) In determining whether an officer of a body corporate failed to exercise due diligence, a court may have regard to—
- (a) what the officer knew, or ought reasonably to have known, about the commission of the offence by the body corporate; and
  - (b) whether or not the officer was in a position to influence the body corporate in relation to the commission of the offence by the body corporate; and
  - (c) what steps the officer took, or could reasonably have taken, to prevent the commission of the offence by the body corporate; and
  - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (4) Without limiting any other defence available to the officer, an officer of a body corporate may rely on a defence that would be available to the body corporate if it were charged with the offence with which the officer is charged and, in doing so, the officer bears the same burden of proof that the body corporate would bear.

(5) An officer of a body corporate may commit an offence against a provision specified in subsection (2) whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted for, or found guilty of, an offence against that provision.

(6) In this section—

body corporate has the same meaning as in section 32;

officer in relation to a body corporate, has the same meaning as in section 32.

25/2009
s. 35(2)(a),
37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 163.3).

(2) If a magistrate is satisfied by evidence on oath, whether oral or by affidavit, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or may be within the next 72 hours, on the premises or on or in the vehicle located in a public place a particular thing that may be evidence of an offence against this Act, the magistrate may issue a search warrant authorising a police officer named in the warrant and any assistants the police officer considers necessary—

S. 33(2)(a)
amended by
No. 25/2009
s. 35(2)(b).

(a) to enter, by force if necessary, the premises or vehicle or part of the premises or vehicle named or described in the warrant; and

S. 33(2)(b)
substituted by
No. 25/2009
s. 35(2)(c).

(b) to search the premises or vehicle or any person found on the premises or on or in the vehicle for any thing named or described in the warrant; and

- (c) to seize any thing referred to in paragraph (b).
- (3) In addition to any other requirement, a search warrant issued under this section must state—
- (a) the offence suspected; and
  - (b) the premises or vehicle to be searched; and
  - (c) a description of the thing to be searched for; and
  - (d) any conditions to which the warrant is subject; and
  - (e) whether entry is authorised to be made at any time or during stated hours; and
  - (f) a day, not later than 7 days after the issue of the warrant, on which the warrant ceases to have effect.
- (4) A search warrant must be issued in accordance with the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 and in the form prescribed under that Act.
- (5) The rules to be observed with respect to search warrants mentioned in the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 extend and apply to warrants under this section.

S. 33(3)(b)
amended by
No. 25/2009
s. 35(3).

34 Announcement before entry

- (1) Before executing a search warrant, the police officer named in the warrant or a person assisting him or her must—
- (a) announce that he or she is authorised by the warrant to enter—
    - (i) in the case of a warrant issued in respect of particular premises, the premises; or

25/2009
s. 36(2), 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 163.4).

- (2) The police officer or person assisting him or her need not comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the premises or vehicle is required to ensure—
  - (a) the safety of any person; or
  - (b) that the effective execution of the search warrant is not frustrated.

- (2) Any warrant issued to an Office of Police Integrity law enforcement officer before the commencement day under Subdivision 2 or Subdivision 3 of Division 1 of Part 4, or any order made under Division 2 of Part 4 on the application of an Office of Police Integrity law enforcement officer, on and from the commencement day—
  - (a) remains in force; and
  - (b) may be dealt with according to its terms by an IBAC law enforcement officer as if it had been issued to, or made on the application of, that IBAC law enforcement officer.
- (3) A surveillance device warrant issued to an Office of Police Integrity law enforcement officer before the commencement day may be revoked under section 20A on and from the commencement day—
  - (a) as if it had been issued to an IBAC law enforcement officer; and
  - (b) as if a reference in that section to the chief officer of the law enforcement agency in relation to that warrant were a reference to the Commissioner; and

- (c) in relation to a surveillance device warrant referred to in section 20A(2), the Commissioner must revoke the warrant in accordance with that subsection.
- (4) If a surveillance device warrant to which section 20B applies was issued to an Office of Police Integrity law enforcement officer before the commencement day, on and from the commencement day—
  - (a) that section applies as if the warrant had been issued to an IBAC law enforcement officer; and
  - (b) a reference in that section to the chief officer of the law enforcement agency in relation to that warrant is taken to be a reference to the Commissioner.
- (5) A retrieval warrant issued to an Office of Police Integrity law enforcement officer before the commencement day may be revoked under section 20H on and from the commencement day—
  - (a) as if it had been issued to an IBAC law enforcement officer; and
  - (b) as if a reference in that section to the chief officer of the law enforcement agency in relation to that warrant were a reference to the Commissioner; and
  - (c) in relation to a retrieval warrant referred to in section 20H(3), the Commissioner must revoke the warrant in accordance with that subsection.
- (6) An authorisation given under Division 3 of Part 4 by an Office of Police Integrity senior officer before the commencement day, on and from that commencement day—

- (a) remains in force; and
  - (b) may be dealt with according to its terms as if it were issued by an IBAC senior officer.
- (7) An application made under section 28 by an Office of Police Integrity senior officer before the commencement day that was not determined before that day is taken, on and from that commencement day, to be an application made by an IBAC senior officer.
- (8) On and from the commencement day, any obligation under section 30K relating to a warrant issued to an Office of Police Integrity law enforcement officer that had not been discharged before the commencement day must be discharged by an IBAC law enforcement officer in accordance with that section.
- (9) On and from the commencement day, any obligation under section 30L relating to the Office of Police Integrity that had not been discharged before the commencement day must be discharged by the Commissioner in accordance with that section.
- (10) If, before the commencement day, the Special Investigations Monitor had commenced but not completed an investigation under section 30P, the Victorian Inspectorate must complete the investigation in accordance with that section.
- (11) If, before the commencement day, the Special Investigations Monitor had not completed its reporting obligations under section 30Q, the Victorian Inspectorate must complete the reporting obligations in accordance with that section.

(12) In this section, commencement day means the day on which section 147 of the Integrity and Accountability Legislation Amendment Act 2012 comes into operation.
