The Parliament of Victoria enacts:

Part 1—Preliminary

1 Purposes

The purposes of this Act are—

(a) to amend the Catchment and Land Protection Act 1994 to provide for court orders to compensate the Secretary for expenses incurred in carrying out work to have been carried out by landowners who have been found guilty of offences relating to the failure to carry out that work; and

(b) to amend the Dairy Act 2000 to allow production of camel milk to be regulated under that Act and to make another minor amendment; and

(c) to amend the Drugs, Poisons and Controlled Substances Act 1981 to make miscellaneous amendments; and

(d) to amend the Fisheries Act 1995—

(i) to abolish the Licensing Appeals Tribunal and transfer its review functions to VCAT; and

(ii) to make various amendments to offences and penalties and other enforcement mechanisms in relation to fisheries; and

(iii) to clarify search and seizure powers in relation to fisheries offences; and

(iv) to allow the holders of Western Port/Port Phillip Bay Fishery Access Licences to receive early payment of compensation for the early surrender of their rights to use fishing nets; and

(v) to make other improvements to the regulation and management of fisheries; and

(e) to amend the Game Management Authority Act 2014 to make minor amendments to improve the governance arrangements in that Act and to allow authorised officers to enforce related offences under other Acts; and
(f) to amend the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994 to improve enforcement powers, prescribe new infringement offences, increase certain penalties and make other minor amendments; and

(g) to amend the Meat Industry Act 1993 to allow vehicles to be used as meat processing facilities and to make other miscellaneous amendments; and

(h) to amend the Melbourne Market Authority Act 1977 to redefine the market land and make other minor and consequential amendments; and

(i) to amend the Plant Biosecurity Act 2010 to improve enforcement powers and provide further for the importation and introduction of prescribed material; and

(j) to amend the Veterinary Practice Act 1997 to provide for infringement notices to be served in relation to certain offences, to increase the fine for serious unprofessional conduct and to make other miscellaneous amendments; and

(k) to amend the Wildlife Act 1975 to amend the definition of relevant offence; and

(m) to repeal the Broiler Chicken Industry Act 1978, the Broiler Chicken Industry (Amendment) Act 1991 and the Livestock Disease Control Amendment Act 2007.
Part 1—Preliminary

2 Commencement

(1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act comes into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.

(2) If a provision of this Act does not come into operation before 1 February 2020, it comes into operation on that day.
Part 2—Amendment of the Catchment and Land Protection Act 1994

3 Secretary may do certain work

For section 79(5) of the Catchment and Land Protection Act 1994 substitute—

"(5) The amount of any expenses necessarily incurred by the Secretary in carrying out work or any other action under subsection (1) or (2) is a debt due to the Crown and may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) Any amount that is recovered by the Secretary under subsection (5) for expenses incurred by the Secretary in relation to non-compliance with a land management notice or a land use condition must not include any amount of compensation that has been, or is required to be, paid to the Secretary under an order made under section 79AA in relation to those expenses."

4 New section 79AA inserted

After section 79 of the Catchment and Land Protection Act 1994 insert—

"79AA Power of court to make an order for compensation to Secretary for expenses under section 79

(1) If a court finds a person guilty of an offence under section 35(1) or 41(1), the Secretary may make, or cause an application to be made, to the court for an order that the person pay for expenses necessarily incurred by the Secretary in carrying out work or any other action under section 79(1) or (2) (as the case requires) because of the commission of the offence."
(2) The court may, on receiving an application under subsection (1) in relation to a person and if satisfied that the Secretary has incurred the expenses referred to in that subsection, make an order that the person pay to the Secretary an amount of compensation that the court thinks fit for the expenses incurred by the Secretary.

(3) The court may not make an order under subsection (2) for an amount of compensation that exceeds the expenses of the Secretary necessarily incurred under section 79(1) or (2) (as the case requires).

(4) A statement in a certificate under the seal of the Secretary as to the amount of expenses incurred by the Secretary referred to in subsection (1) is evidence of the value of that amount.".
Part 3—Amendment of the Dairy Act 2000

5 Definitions

In section 3 of the Dairy Act 2000—

(a) for the definition of dairy farm substitute—

"dairy farm means any premises where an animal is kept or milked for the purpose of producing milk for profit or sale;";
